(covering Pre-season - Sun 30th) Week 1

The Hitman scores the winner at Dark Destroyers

Four out of the Five new managers come away with wins

All the news from the press from Pre-season through week one Week 1 and the League Supreme Season TWO Kicks Off !!

The Theatre Of Gloom

The Dark Destroyers 0
WestCountry Wanderers 1

The opening day shock came at The Theatre Of Doom on Thursday when last seasons 3rd place side The Dark Destroyers were beaten at home by WestCountry Wanderers.

In an even match it was the visitors who created the better chances with James Hitman Heywood heading in a 20 minute opener for Paul Hewitts side - a lead they managed to keep hold of for the full 90 minutes.

The Hitman

The first game of the season at The Theatre of Doom was tight as a duck arse for the Wanderers. The Chieftain fielded a strong side and his hard men threw in a few elbows, which the ref did not let lie so a couple of yellows were shown for The DD. We see nothing has changed dirty bastards!!

The difference between the two sides was The 'Hitman'. Scoring in the 20min for the Wanderers and that's how it stayed.

When asked to comment WW manger Hewy said 'It's always nice to win away and especially on the 1st day of the new season...so we're off to The Cove to celebrate with Pasties & Cider... ansome boy'

Bagnall Bags All 3 Points

Red Machine FC 2
Rush Green 1

Tomas Bagnall was the toast of The Red Cauldron in the opening week of the season as he headed in his sides winner with 12 minutes remaining completeing an impressive comeback for Red Machine.

It was Rush Greens favourite goalscorer Samy Abell who got the visitors off to a perfect start scoring after just 6 minutes to give the visitors an early lead which they held on to until half-time.

Red Machine stepped up their game in the second half and fifteen minutes from time Shaun Bunton equalised for the home side. A mere 4 minutes later Bagnall headed from a cross to give Rob Couch's side an opening day 3 points and send Trev Isles back to Rush Green empty handed.

LS Premiership reports and reaction

Rowe Makes It 4 Goals In 2

Egloshayle Park FC 2
FC Wazzy 1

Club record signing Paul Rowe has got off to the perfect start to his playing league career when he scored both goals to ensure Egloshayle Road got off to the perfect start.

Matt LeTissier had a 13 minute goal disallowed but Rowe managed to give the champions a 1-0 halftime lead after 27 minutes.

FC Wazzy managed to silence the Egloshayle Park locals when Byron Barton equalised with 18 minutes left. It wasn't to be for FC Wazzy as Rowe made it 2 for him and his side when he scored the winner with 10 minutes remaining.

OH well!

"Looks like we are going to have to play catch up from day 1" said Wazzy manager Paul Warren walking off the pitch after their opening day defeat down at Egloshale Park. "we started with 2 boys who have only been with the club for 10 days or so. It will take time for them to catch up with the pace of this league, but i know my team played with a positive attitude."

Let's just hope they make a quicker start than last year else they could be battling relegation.

Its A Good Start

Egloshayle player-boss Mitchell today praised his teams opening day victory stating 'it was a good start'.

"The first game of the season is always tricky, no-one wants to lose and although we were not convincing, we managed all 3 points in our 1st competitive match at Egloshayle Road. I think the occasion got to a few of the local boys with Neil Richards and Banshee having to go off injured but we dug in deep and its already a better start than last season."

"I would not lose heart if I was FC Wazzy or any other opening day losers" he continued. "Its so early in the season and last year we only managed 2 points from our first 2 games so there is so much to play for."

Horace Goal din

The Perrymen 1
The Rising Deck 1

Horace Goldin rescued a point for last seasons runners-up The Rising Deck when he shot in the penalty area with just 12 minutes left to give Ian Mitchells side a point at White Hot Lane.

Gary Lineker got the home side off to a great start after 12 minutes when he scored direct from a free-kick but the home side could not hold on to all 3 points in a tight affair.

LS Division 1

The Hounds Are On The Hunt

Down By The Trent 0
Hell Hounds 2

It took must fancied Hell Hounds just 14 minutes to get off the mark in their League Supremes first appearance. Ronnie Pointins long range effort found the target to give the visitors a 1-0 half time lead.

Last years cup winners Down By The Trent could offer little in reply as they could not create a single chance on goal in a very one-sided match (see stats below). The Hounds, though, had to wait until 2 minutes into injury time before securing the win. Jude Attenborough made it 2-0 to ensure Matt got off to the perfect winning start.

The Hunting Horns Blow

The HH 0-2 away win today was nothing short of stunning. They controled the game from start to finish and made it look easy. This team is going places.

Not all good news however, Jaime Adamson a key defender for HH took a bad injury and wont be back up to match fitness untill mid Dec.

Down by the Trent 0 (0 - 1) 2 Hell Hounds
Possession: 39 - 61
Chances: 0 - 9

Ealing Court Short

Sexual Ealing FC 0
Earls Courtinas 2

Owen Campbell was another manager that got off to a perfect start. Although relegated last season Sexual Ealing are not a team to be taken lightly and this was the surprise result of the day in division one.

Lucian Cobb scored against the run of play after 19 minutes and Leo Rawcliffe extended the lead after 34 minutes scoring direct from a free-kick. This concluded the scoring but Carl Hardy was given his marching orders 4 minutes from time for the visitors.

LS Division 1 reports and reaction

The Irons And Dynamo Des To Face Absent Enquiry

Down Under And Out 5
The Irons 0

Elsewhere in Division One both Down Under And Out and Lewd Lewes scored convincing victories, however they should not get too carried away.

The Irons manager has not been seen at the club for over a month and unless he is seen this week, is walking a managerial tight-rope.

Ben Windsor (12), Vinnie Steele (17), Quentin Rothwell (20) made it 3-0 at the break with Sam Aiston (63) and Joe Teale (70) completing the rout against a managerless side with no substitutes.

Down Unders top table

Well after all the pre season hype, it looks like the down under's are the team to beat this season.

They currently sit top of league 1 after smashing the Irons in a 5-0 home defeat. The Irons put up no resistance and suffered injury to one of their key players, the outlook for them this season is bleak. Down Under's manager Wookie had the following to say:

" Am I pleased with the result? To be honest we treated this game as a warm up. the boys played well but it was always goign to go our way. I think this shows that we've clearly been put in the wrong league from day one. We'll treat all the league games as warm up matches. We've already got the league trophy in the bag. For me, its the cup I'm after, its just a shame that there is no competition in league one to help us ready our selves for the coming cup matches."

"The fans saw 5 stunning goals, the only positive for me is that the irons played fair and we managed to walk away without any injuries. Bring on the cup!"

Dynamo Des 4
Lewd Lewes FC 0

Scottie Lennon (50), Kit Blake (64), Hubert Lester (82) and Crofton Raven (91) completed a second half demolition of Dynamo Des but an enquiry has started into the whereabouts of Dynamo Des manager Darren Putland. Like The Irons boss the league will surely come down hard on AWOL managers if they are not seen with their club very very soon.

Dodgy team bus overshadows 1st victory

Frankie Davies has just reported the nightmare return journey Lewd

Lewes experienced returning from their victorious league opener. A quality 4-0 opener against Dynamo Des was overshadowed by some annoying transport problems. Not only did the team bus get a parking ticket outside Dynamo Des' ground, but the bus, recently purchased from Nzwookie broke down on route back to Lewes. Frankie Davies was incensed "not only did we get a parking ticket outside that 'shit-hole' of a ground but as soon as we got on the M25 the effin bus started smoking! It was coming inside the coach and everything – I thought young Matty Woollett had relapsed and sparked a massive reefer – gave him a right rollicking before I realised it was the effin bus." After the 8 hour nightmare the team arrived back in Lewes at 3am and were given the weekend off to re-cooperate. Unbeknown to the league, Lewd Lewes purchased the bus from Down Under and Out mgr Nzwookie shortly before he emigrated to New Zealand. Frankie Davies refused

This was the bus that Wookie promised Fran would last him all season.

New Name Same Club

Super Saints were today allowed to 'Rest In Peace' as the club unveiled a new name, new identity and a new home ground.

A tearful player-manger had this to say "Super Saints will always have a place in my heart and Eden and its supporters will forever go down in this clubs history as the 'time and place' we won the 1st season in the League Supreme. But, due to the current credit crunch, we have had to move from Eden to Egloshayle Park and from Super Saints to Egloshayle Park FC. We have the same squad but gradually our highly paid ex-Saints stars will be replaced by local talent. This is to ensure the clubs future." said Mitchell.

The player-manager has also rubbished reports of a rumour that the club plans to move the famous Eden 'biomes' to Egloshayle Park which has local residents up in arms.

2nd November

A New Era Has Begun

It was at 3pm on a grey insignificant Sunday afternoon at Egloshayle Road but this was like no other, for at 3pm on Sunday 2nd November 2008, Egloshayle Park FC played their first professional match at Wadebridge.

Egloshayle hosted fellow 'Cornishman abroad' WestCountry Wanderers in a friendly in their first ever match as Super Saints were well and truly laid to rest, however, with a 2-1 home victory the winning mentality is well and truly here to stay.

6th November

Goodbye but not forgotten

Frederick Bracey and Brett Foster have left Rush Green by mutual consent. Trevor Isles, Rush Greens manager said, 'I would like to express my thanks to both players for their contribution toward the club over the past season. However, it was decided it was in the interest of both parties for them to leave the club and ply their trade elsewhere'.

When pressed on new signings for the club, and their planned friendly's for the summer, Trevor said 'We are flattered to already have requests of pre season friendly's from other league teams. We are currently in the process of concluding our transfer activity in time for the new season, and will be unable to confirm our availability for any pre season friendly games for the time being.'

7th November

Egloshayle Clinch Rower

Egloshayle Park FC last night unvelied ex-League Supreme player manager Paul Rowe as their new pre-season signing.

Paul Rowe, who managed Liverpool Legends at the start of last season but was sacked only a few weeks into the season, last night signed for the Champions for £7.5m. This has sparked rumours that the club 'may' have started talks with the striker last season.

"Rower comes here with excellent footballing experience and will add valuable fire-power to our strike force next season, we are proud to acquire his services" said player-manager Craig Mitchell.

"We would also hope that this will quash any rumours that we may be interested in signing Sammy Abell from Rush Green - He is a great player and we respect him very much, but we have our man" he concluded.

8th November

Forward thinking at Rush Green

Rush Green announce their first new signing of the season, centre forward Kit Munroe.

In a statement released by the club, we are pleased to announce the new signing of Kit Munroe. It concludes a lot of hard work and activity behind scenes to bring Kit to our club. Kit is a superb player, and will bring much needed intelligence and height to our attack.'

'Kit is unavailable for interviews at the moment, as it has been long day for him. His has returned to his hotel for some much needed rest. Kit will be introduced to his new team mates on Monday morning, in time for our preseason training.'

'We hope to bring many other players to the club during the preseason, and hope to make further announcements in the very near future.'

10th November

I'm rushing no where

Sammy Abell has broken his end of season holiday to reaffirm his commitment to Rush Green following recent reports in the press that he was in negotiations with Egloshayle Park FC.

'I don't know where these reports came from, I've been on holiday with my girlfriend since the season ended, and was shocked when I read the papers. I am very happy with at the Green, and can't wait for pre season training to start. I have been promised by the gaffer that some top notch new signings are on their way, and hopefully we can break into the top three next year. It will take more than a rumor in the press to take me away from where I belong.'

13th November

New training regime inspires down unders

The Down Under and Out's have been hard at it in northern Pakistan training at altitude for the coming season. New Manager wookie commented "These boys will come back fitter than a butchers dog or I'll eat my own hat! We've hired, at some very considerable cost, the best altitude trainer around - That old boy Bin Laden has been running up and down mountains all his life pursued by the finest military men in the world and he still keeps ahead of them - even while carrying his own capacitor. The man's a genuine marvel!! I've seen his training camp and our boys will be toughing it out there.. no question, but I think Bin and I have similar goals...He's even sending some of his men over to help keep an eye on our fitness levels throughout the season and he's going to head up the teams Junior Athletes Habitual Intelligence and Determination programme (JAHID). I tell you this team's going to explode onto the scene this season!!

Early scare for Egloshayle Park FC

In a recent friendly the Down Unders put the willies up last seasons division winners Egloshayle Park FC. This away friendly ended 2-1 to Egloshayle Park FC, but the score line doesn't reflect the action on the pitch and Egloshayle Park FC had to resort to cheating fouling and dirty tricks to narrowly edge past under dogs Down Under and Out. The newest league manager wookie said the following "I came here expecting a fair friendly and a warm up for the season and I got a baptism of fire. Well it's clear for all to see how these low lifes won the title last season, but we won't lower ourselves to their standards. Our boys had them running ragged all game - which goes to show our altitude training is really paying off. Well it ain't over till that fat bastard Mitch sings - I'm sure we'll put it up em in the second leg. Wait till our supporters the balmy Palmy army get stuck into em!

14th November

You're Not Putting Your Willies Anywhere!

Egloshayle boss Mitchell refused to get drawn into a war of words with NZ manager 'Wookie' after his reserves took it easy on 'Down Under and Out'.

"I thought I would give my youngsters a run-out as I need to see who is knocking on the 1st team's door this season" said Mitchell. "If Wookie or anyone else wants to look at the stats they will see it was the away side resorting to under-hand tactics. I can assure fans and the club that Wookie and his NZ side will not be putting their willies up anyone to do with this respectable club. We will honour the pre-agreed 2nd leg, but am unsure as to how my club will cope with the 12 year time difference" he concluded.

Is there a Christmas break to refresh our players from seasonal festivities???

I am in the middle of arranging a trip to Lapland for my players. Please respond ASAP, as the seats on Ryanair are running out fast and I need to book them!!!

Cheers

Couchy

(Happy now.....and can you spell my bloody name right, could yourself a admin assistant!)

Mid-Season Break

In response to Red Machines manager Coocheys request, there WILL be a ONE week rest week during the Christmas period. Our matchdays are Thursdays and as Christmas day this year falls on a Thursday it is the leagues decision to postpone the League for one week. Normal fixtures will take place on the 18th December with the next match taking place on New Years Day - feel free to arrange any friendlies (as you can throughout the season on Sundays) or stuff a bird during this time.

Clubs Turn Against Big Brother Admin

Clubs from both leagues held a secret meeting to oust the League administrator. After the latest in a string of ever bizarre rules, big brother style tactics and alleged financial skulldiggery, the clubs decided unanimously to replace Manic Mitch with up and coming ledgend Wookie. As wookies first act as administrator he pledged to give all clubs 600,000,000 cash to buy new kits and take their boys on a pre season piss up.

to get any teams news out of him before he gave us this insight: "Nothing to report!!, Just let admin know we spoke as i can't afford a fine"

Bring it on

The Perry Men manager finally spoke to reporters after retreating behind the walls of White HOT Lane since the end of the season. McFletch told reporters, "The end of the season was no time to rest on our laurels and put our feet up. The real work started as soon as the final whistle blew. The up and coming season is only going to get harder and with the new rookie managers snapping at our heels we'll need to make sure that we come out against The Rising Deck in peak fitness and with all guns blazing. Lets bring it on!"

Old Man Burnz retiring?????

With retirement looming it was rumoured in the press that Old Man Burnz had hung up his boots over the summer break to return back to Cornwall to consider his future without the Wanderers.

When asked, Wanderers boss said 'don't talk shite Burnzie may be 33 and going bald but he'll knocking more in than Egloshayle Park FC's new signing Paul Rowe just wait and see!!!

It would be a great loss for The Wanderers if the Old Man did retire so we'll just have to wait and see what the new season brings???

Wazzy still exists

we caught up FC Wazzy boss Paul Warren this week just to check that he is still alive and ready for the forthcoming season. We probed for a whole 3 minutes

The Park Return Jubilant

Egloshayle Park will return home from New Zealand in good spirits as their side completed an emphatic 5-1 victory at Palmy North.

"Down Under And Out talk a good game, which is what the league needs, if only Wookies side played as well as the new manager talks they will have no problems. Our preparations are coming along well and by the time the league kicks off in 11 days time we will have a squad fully equipped and prepared to retain the title - it will be difficult as we will be the team to beat but we will be ready. We hope to fit in 2 more friendlies before the season, thats IF someone will play us." said player-boss Mitchell.

Local Club..... My Ar*e

Red Machine FC Manager, Rob Couch was 'out and about' in the town of Wadebridge at the weekend. When he discovered that newly relocated League Supreme reigning Champions Egloshayle Park FC, are to retract their financial support they promised the area when they purchased Egloshayle playing fields for their new ground.

As part of the deal, that, in the eyes of Wadebridge Town Council was the moneyshot in reluctantly selling the land to the football club. They were to fund the purchase of a piece of land to move the facilities onto, on behalf of the town council.

When local councillor (and Primeminister in waiting) Scott Mann was questioned regarding the issue, he replied.

"The one thing the club promised were the funds for new green field sites, they sold us the idea, and I quote, from the so called local boy done good manager Craig 'say one thing mean another' Mitchell..... 'We have the same squad but gradually our highly paid ex-Saints stars will be replaced by local talent.' Well what local talent will come through, if the locals have no bowling green to practice on and vandalise! Pearl Kittow will be turning in her grave! I am awaiting the clubs response to this matter urgently, or I'll be taking this directly to number 10"

Storm Clouds Gather

The Dark Destroyers have returned from their summer -break in Afghanistan - fired up and ready for another assault on the title. Blood-stained midfielder "Stormin" Norman Schwarzkopff announced as they were escorted off the plane "We are back and ready for action. We have been busy quietly and secretly plotting our battle-plans and anyone thinking we are past our best will be in for a nasty shock or two. We have some deadly signings lined up but we are keeping their identities under wraps. Be afraid...BE VERY AFRAID...!!! Now where is our 250,000 econ bonus!"

Down Unders Down 5-1

new manager wookie had the following to say..."no comment - now feck off and get that feeking microphone outa my face before i feeking slap you you cunt!" ...before being involved in a televised brawl with a national sports reporter. Things in the down unders camp are not looking too good after a 5-1 hammering by last season league 1 winners. However on a positive note supporters were right behind the manager and even threw in a few punches of their own on the reporter,

Blame The Credit Crunch

Egloshayle Boss Mitchell has responded to council concerns this morning over much promised funds for 'park facilities' for Wadebridge Town locals.

"When the contract was signed we had no idea of the current financial climate, what we bring to the community will be publicity, fans coming to watch our games will boost local economy, Bells will have a roaring trade and Higmans is due to come out of retirement, we even plan to rebuild Brentons! As soon as the council decide whats going where with regard to Tesco, Holiday Inn, Jewsons etc. then we will fulfill our promise. Its is my job to concentrate on matters on the pitch and this is all I will say on financial matters. We have introduced 5 local players for our squad wih more to follow."

New signings, new season, new hope

During a busy preseason Rush Green and been active in the transfer market and have brought several new faces to the Premier LS this season. Trevor Isles, Rshu Greens Manager is pleasantly pleased with the new signings he has brought to the club.

'I am very happy with our business during the preseason. We wanted to add to our firepower throughout the squad, and worked really hard on a number of targets. I am please to have Widar Kirkesaeter, a young striker who is keen and hungry and hopefully get us a bag of goals. Kit Munroe will add some much need experience and intelligence to our attack and offer something different. Marshall Bushell is a great free kick specialist, and is going to make a huge impact this season. Our defence last year were our hero's and I didn't want to change too much, but we have managed to pick up Gil Pardon who in time will become an excellent defender.

During their recent pre season game against Red Machine, it was some old faces that were hitting the headlines, with a brace from the ever green Sammy Abell, with two assists from Rex Dothery.

'Things are looking pretty good', said Trevor Isles, 'There are one or two things to iron out, but we are on track for the new season. Hopefully we have the players in the squad to see us through any dips in form like we had last season. All the players in the squad have worked very hard in the preseason, and the new faces are fitting in well. Just can't wait for the season to start!'

Hot Dogs News Flash

Hell Hounds decided to raise the price of hot dogs at home games. This decision didn't go down well with the fans, who organised a mass boycott of hot dogs.

The price has now been put down again, and the fans are again buying hot dogs, but the whole affair has cost the club 21 000 econ.

Glory, Glory..

... The Perry Men went to current league champions Ego-shayle Park FC (or something like that) and sneak a draw despite a lack of possession. The Perry Men's scorer Ossie Ardiles was only to pleased to speak to Xpert Eleven reporter after the game, 'Maybe we rode our luck a bit but I think this result sends a signal out to the rest of the league that this season we hope to be challenging for honours'. The Perry Men now have one last friendly before the league kicks off. Some have questioned the wisdom of playing so may league games in the run up to the start of the new season. Manager McFletch was quick to defend the decision. 'To be honest the game against Rush Green is a chance to play the youngsters and players returning to fitness. Some of the senior player were not keen on visiting Rush Green saying the stadium is a dive, they call it the Glory Arena - more like Glory Hole!!'

In The Press This Week

Slow start to season anticipated

DBTT manager Phil Jory is not expecting much from his team as they welcome Hell Hounds (cheap hot dogs 'n all) to the City Ground on Thursday. "to be honest, I've been a lazy bastard" commented Jory, adding "the lads have only finished knocking back the pop since their league cup win last season and have only just returned form their trip to LinButs holiday camp"

Cash needed

Caught up with Wazzy manager Paul Warren this afternoon for an update on the pre-season progress and for the latest on his 2 new recruits,, "Nothing to say. But make sure you print it as we are running short of cash"

Down unders sign new TV deal

This morning news broke that the up and coming championship side "Down Under & Out" have signed a lucrative TV deal. Our reporter caught up with Manager Wookie outside the Wet Lips gentleman's club where we managed to get the following exclusive interview. " What errmm...

Ohh hi...errmm I'm just here meeting an associate. (in a whispered voice) Look i'll give you this exclusive but you'd better not print where I am or the wife will have my fooking balls. Yes well its only natural that we got the TV deal peoploe want to know more about us, we are the new kids on the block and I think its fair to say that people know we'll be causing some big upsets this season. Its a fly on the wall documentary charting our road to glory over the season. so we'll be opening up and giving a little back to our faithful suporters. Watch this space for upcoming features "

We're Ready

Was the statement issued by defending champions manager Craig Mitchell, after his final pre-season friendly ended in a draw against last seasons runners-up The Rising Deck 2-2.

"Weve had good pre-season preparations having won 4 and drawing 2 of our 6 friendlies. The great news for us is that new signing striker Paul Rowe got both our goals today. He had one disallowed on Thursday and there was alot of pressure on him. He has settled in well and it was vital for us he got on the scoresheet as soon as possible. Its true I wanted another striker but good young strikers are hard to find and I will not spend this clubs money needlessly. We have a difficult task this season and I am under no illusion that every single game will be tough in this intense shortened season." said Mitchell.

Rumours are rife at Egloshayle that the club may have to persuade local 'legend' Mike Yelland out of reitirement for what maybe a season long loan spell at the club.

25th November

Off To Winning Start

Lewd Lewis FC had a famous first victory in the league narrowly beating the Premiership side Westcountry Wanderers. Lewis have already started their antics however and are the subject of a league investigation (despite the "friendly status) following over zealous celebrations following their goal. Kit Blake pulled a mooney right in the face of Wanderers manager Paul Hewitt, much to his disgust. Lewis mgr Frankie Davies wasn't impressed with the filing of the complaint stating "come on - it's our first effin game in the league and we beat a quality young premiership side - the lads are entitled to celebrate and i found the mooney quite amusing. Hewy had a right smile on his face and then slyly goes and reports us - he's gonna get it!"

Blake In The (Rear) Clear

The League has decided to take no action againts Lewes striker Kit Blake following his 'unusual moon' goal celebration during his sides 1-0 friendly win over WestCountry Wanderers.

"The league does not get involved in friendlies, whilst we do not recommend Mr Blake perform this celebration during the season, what happens in friendlies, stays in friendlies" a spokesman said.

"Wanderers manager Mr Hewitt probably smiled initially because he thought someone was holding up a mirror, upon realising it was Kit's stinking hairy arsehole he lodged his complaint." the spokesman concluded. - League Admin

Second Season Syndrome

On the eve of the much awaited kick-off to the League Supreme's second season, the mood of the players of the much fancied Red Machine FC (with odds at 8/1 to lift the title). Was that the league could be well and truly wide open, and anyone could lift the coveted prize, with all of the other clubs knowing each others favourably formations and tactics this time around.

The media spokesman Max Clifford commented "It will be an interesting season ahead".

Quentin Caught Out - Lashes Out

On form player and team play maker Quentin Rothwell was spotted out on the tiles the night before the opening game of the season. Quentin has been the linch pin of the team in the 3 pre season friendly's and there are worries about his fitness for the coming game. Our reporter quizzed Quentin outside of Palmerston's only night club and was verbally abused before his microphone was inserted where the sun doesn't shine. Manager and coah wookie can't be happy with this situation and it brings into question whether the player will get his first start for the coming game.

Down Under's Arrange Hasty Press Meeting

Wookie - coach, manager and all round good egg had the following to say on the controversy surrounding team star Quentin Rothwell's boozey night out.

"Quentin has been a silly lad and at his age should know better, I'm dissappointed and a lot of the players look to him to show the way. I'm not going to be drawn so close to a big away game on whether or not he will play. Lets just say we've had words, he's appologised to the club and will be issuing a statement to suporters later. I think its the last time he'll step out of line. I just want to set the record stright - He's not up for sale so any managers out their can keep their greasy mitts off him!

Quentin's Grovel May Save His Bacon

in a writtn statement under pressure Down's Unders play maker had the following to say "THIS was a monentary lapse for me, I'm truly sorry for the trouble and attention that I've brought to the club. I have no one to blame but myself, I was given a FREE pass from the missus and went a little crazy. I'll work hard to UPGRADE my status in the club to where it should be. The night before a big game IS not the time to go crazy. I can't blame anyone the fault is MINE and MINE alone. Our news desk can't help but think the club has a hidden agenda in this press release!

Hounds Ready For The Hunt

Tomorrow it all begins for the 'HH'. Many questions have been asked about the teams potential which many have high hopes for.

There new manager comes to the team already knowing the sweet
