(Mon 1st - Sun 7th) Week 2

The Rising Deck and Dark Destroyers are back on track !

Aiston Rescues Point For Down Under And Out

All the news from the press from Pre-season through week one

Week 2 and apologies for no relevant photography - Ive been on a course and been busy !!

Randy Blooms At The Back Garden

FC Wazzy 1
Red Machine FC 0

Randy Alford was the toast of FC Wazzy in week 2 for Paul Warrens side, as his strike 6 minutes from time was enough to swipe all three points from title hopefuls Red Machine FC at The Back Garden.

In an extremely tight first half it was FC Wazzy who were disappointed with Ethan Page having his 5th minute header goal disallowed for pushing in the area but the half ended 0-0 with both clubs having 50-50 of the play and 2 chances each.

Red Machine did however edge the second half with possession but it was Alford's all important 84th minute strike which lifted FC Wazzy to 4th.

Nasty Nick leaves Kit Feeling Sick

Rush Green 1
The Dark Destroyers 3

A tactical misjudgement by Rush Greens manager Trevor Isles proved costly as his side made the unpleasant statistic of losing both opening games in Season 2.

Bouncing back from last weeks defeat The Dark Destroyers made amends with Nasty Nick in top form. His long range effort found the target 6 minutes before half-time to give the visitors a 1-0 half-time lead.

Dick Dastardly extended that lead to 2 just 10 minutes into the second half. Rush Green did have a final last gasp attempt at claiming a point when Kit Munroe scored with a 90th minute freekick but any revival was short lived as Nick made it 3-1 with another screamer 2 minutes into injury time.

Back To Business For Destroyers

'Nasty' Nick Bateman was a happy as Larry (Hagman) after his two-goal salvo got the Dark Destroyers off the mark with their first points of the season - a 3-1 win at Rush Green today. The deceitful - I mean deceptive - striker declared "we were obviously disappointed to lose our opening game to Wescuntry wanderers last week but they were our bogey team last season and proved so again. However we know that all the teams in this league are capable of beating each other and its going to be a long hard battle once again." At this point the interview ended as Nick spotted a frail old woman wandering towards a dark alley struggling to keep her heavy handbag over her shoulder.

LS Premiership reports and reaction

Knepper Decker Glory

The Rising Deck 2
W - Wanderers 0

Kenton Knepper got Rising Decks season alive and kicking with a brace at The Orpheum to leave Wanderers wondering what went wrong.

Wanderers arriving at the match full of confidence from an impressive opening day display could not contain last seasons runners-up as Kenton Knepper made it 1-0 3 minutes from half-time.

With Wanderers pushing for an equaliser it was Knepper once more on the break away who made it 2-0 just after the hour.

Paulo Pisso Ovo Campelo Partyo

Egloshayle Park FC 3
The Perrymen 1

'Park' proved a little too hot for the Perrymen beating them 3-1 on the visitors midfileders party parade.

It took Perrymens new signing Narciso Campelo just 6 minutes to make his mark in the League Supreme Premiership, scoring from a tight angle to give the visitors the lead.

Egloshayle, however, have their own hero. Paul Rowe, making it 5 in 3 games (3 in 2 in the league) equalised a mere 8 minutes later with a bicycle kick. Kevin Keegan made it 2-1 with a direct free-kick after 22 minutes and Micky Channon headed in a 3rd to keep Egloshayle top with 2 wins out of 2.

LS Division 1

Aiston Rescues Point For DUAO

Sexual Ealing 2
Down Under And Out 2

Sam Aistons strike just 2 minutes from time spared managers Wookies blushes at Glen Road as Sexual Ealing were so near, yet so far from victory.

Nuno Bettencourt got the home side off to a great start when he scored after just 6 minutes to give Doz's side the lead. Ben Windsor scored direct from a free-kick to equalise for the visitors after half an hours play but Sexual Ealing fought back once more at restored their lead 6 minutes from the break with Dave Grohl netting.

Pressing for an equaliser, Down Under And Out were kept at bay by an organised Sexual Ealing side but they finally found the break through after 88 minutes to give Wookie a point.

Down Unders Manager Lambasts Ref

Down Under's lambast crap ref Following a tough away battle where The Down Under and Outs only managed to take home 1 point from a predicted 3. Down under manager NZ Wookie gave the following post match interview

"The referee ruined the game for us today, it's was a shambles, a paraplegic blind man could have done better. The twat gave away 5 yellow cards in total, misjudged a horrific tackle on one of our key players who looks to be out for a while now and cost us 2 points. We had the lion's share of possession and shots but every time we got near their goal the ref would blow up for nothing. I'm not suggesting that Sexual Ealing FC paid the twat but I expect better quality refereeing than that. We are a professional football team and expect the same level of professionalism from the ref's. If this crap continues, I'll pull my boys out altogether; I've got their health and careers to think of!

Lewd Loo(es) Down The Pan

Lewd Lewes 0
Down By The Trent 2

There was a turn of fortunes for both clubs at The Dripping Pan as DBTT scored a hard-fought away win.

Lewd Lewes edged the first half on possession but it was the visitors who created the better chances. Ronnie Bergman headed in after 32 minutes to send Phil Jory's side in 1-0 up at the break.

Although Lewes upped their game in the second half they could not convert their chances into goals and were made to pay when Doug Bruces' long range effort made it 2-0 on 78 minutes.

Himsworth's Hat-trick Hands Hell Hounds Victory

The Irons 0
Hell Hounds 4

LS Division 1 reports and reaction

Hell Hounds impressive start to the season continued as they disposed of managerless Irons with Norm Himsworth bagging a hat-trick.

The Irons, unbelievably, put up a brave fight in the first half, just edging possession and only being a goal down at the break. Jude Attenborough scoring his 2nd of the season.

The second-half, however, belonged to The Hounds and in particular Norm Himsworth. Just a minute in he got his first and his sides second and added another just 6 minutes later from a header. He had to wait until the 90th minute however to bag his deserved hat-trick with a long range effort.

The search for The Irons manager continues.

Fifteen Minute Demolition Of Dynamo Des

Earls Courtinas 4
Dynamo Des 0

Although tipped for promotion it took Earls Courtinas 74 minute to break through managerless Dynamo Des' defence, but when they did the floodgates opened.

Garth Mapleton made the all important break through on 74 minutes and Lucian Cobb made it 2 3 minutes later. Ryan Chorltons long-range effort made sure of the points with 6 minutes remaining and Eustace Elmes wrapped it up from the spot with 3 minutes left to ensure Courtinas maintained their 100% record, along with Hell Hounds, at the top.

Friendly Fires Up The Perry Men

The Perry Men put behind the disappointment of the first games draw by beating the Westcountrywanderers in a hastily arranged friendly. 'It was a good win for us' said McFletch after the game. 'It was nice to meet up with fellow manager Hewy, at a pre-match dinner, but I have a word of warning for him. You're never gone win the League eating fancy ice-berg lettuce shapes for dinner. It doesn't matter how you dress it up - it's rabbit food'. The Perry Men now look forward to taking on defending champions, Igllooshayle Park FC.

'We had to act quick after we had little choice but to sack Gregory Kit after cameras caught him waving his tackle at the Rising Deck fans. Although we had no complaints from them, it's not the sort of behaviour we can tolerate from players - not on match day anyway.

Reporters were keen to know how much he cost. 'Well let's say he wasn't cheap. You have to fork out to get the righth player these days. We spent some time ensuring we weren't wasting our money on a lame duck and I think this lads got real talent.

The rest of the League will get to see whether The Perry Men have spent their money wisely as the new midfielder is being thrown straight into the action against Eagleshayle Park FC.

We Wont Take Perrymen Lightly

Was the message coming from the EGLOSHAYLE camp this week.

"Teams are gunning for us we wont be taking any match lightly let alone the Perrymen, Fletch has a managerial record equalling any of the top managers here and rest assured his team will be more than ready tomorrow" said player-boss Mitchell.

"They have a new £6.5m midfielder in Nacho Camp-Pillow and time will tell how quickly he will settle into this league, but we should have more than enough quality in our side not to fear anyone." he concluded.

1st December

Bless Those Hounds

"it's a time of goodwill, to be charitable to all men" said DBTT manager Phil Jory referring to his teams opening day debacle. "to be honest we were fucking shite, and made them look good - but in this topsy turvy football world (eg the Jekyl and Hyde that is Arsenal and even Forest winning a game), maybe we'll do a bit better against nude Lewis".

Down Under Rest Squad

The absense of key players on the Palmerston training ground this week raised questions as to whether Manager Wookie would be playing a full squad for the next away game against struggling Sexual Ealing. After the training session our reported questioned Wookie who had the following to say:

"I don't decide the squad until 5 mins before the game, but after our opening 5-0 demolition of the Irons its fair to say I'm feeling confident. I'm looking for the youth to get some experiance and bring a few players up to team form. I'll probably rifle into our junior squad and put out a second team for the coming training match against Sexual Ealing." Confidence is brimming in the Down Unders, but our news desk can't help but think new manager Wookie may have underestimated the strength and reserves of some of the more established clubs.

Home Sweet Home

The Orpheum is sold out for The Rising Deck's first home game of the season against Westcountry Wanderers on Thursday and Player/Manager/Busy Xmas Party Magic Entertainer Ian Mitchell had this to say 'Can't stop !' before texting us this on Tuesday evening. "I take my Top Hat off to Fletch although I'm pleased with a point away to his team on opening day as last season proved since he took the helm his lads put in impressive performances, although 'The Perry Men' should consider renaming to 'The Hairy Men' after Gregory Kits Wild Mange was out for all to see late in the game last Thursday and left my keeper Uri Geller Cock-Eyed for a few days. He's better now and should be fit for selection.

3rd December

Indecent Exposure

The Perry Men continued to strengthen their team this with the acquisition of talented midfielder Narciso Campelo. McFletch unveiled the new signing to the press mid-week and talked to reporters,

Wanderers manager Paul Hewitt (also known to drop his undercrackers at the slightest sniff of Bacon Mishapes, even though his member is reputed to look like the last Turkey in the shop window) will bring a very strong squad with him and is on the back of a admirable 3 points against the Dark (Dirty Bastards) Destroyers. Must go now to shuffle some more !"

4th December

Away Again...

Its reported Wanderers boss Hewy is please to hear the Orpheum is a sell out this Thursday at the Wanderers second away game!!! Despite the trip south he is looking forward to taking at least a point off another Mitchell with baby Mitch to follow next week.

When asked about recent allegations by the Rising Decks Player/Manager/ Busy Xmas Party Magic Entertainer Ian Mitchell, regarding the state of his member... Wanderers boss Hewy said "What me purple headed yogurt chucker!! it's more like a tattered windsock rather than a turkey bey"

Anyway today's game should be a close one with both teams fielding a strong side the travelling Wanderers will need to be in good voice!

5th December

The Clock Is Ticking

The league is currently interviewing more managers to take over at The Irons and Dynamo Des. Neither manager has turned up all season and, as said last season, the league simply will not tolerate it.

If you know of these managers and want to warn them, then please feel free, but as soon as suitable replacements are found (could be today, could be in 3 weeks) they WILL replace the current managers unless they are seen.

"Barmy Fixtures" Rants Earls Courtinas

Earls Courtinas manager Owen CB launches into an angry tirade at the Xpert Eleven fixtures committee: "Who chooses these bloody fixtures anyway? This week we've got to make a round trip to fricking New Zealand!! I wouldn't mind but we're a poor club and can't afford to splash out on luxuries such as air travel. Instead i'm going to have to pack the whole squad into a VW Camper Van and burn it down the A2 and onwards pronto. By the time we get there we'll have 90 minutes to turnover that bunch of sheep shaggers, then get back to dear old blighty and straight off to fricking Cornwall for the next game! Honestly, who decision was it to allow bloody teams from New Zealand into the league?"
