Seven - Goal Thriller At Egloshayle Road !

Eddie Van Halen Gives Paul Corrigan His First Win For Sexual Ealing FC

A Very Merry Christmas To All League Supreme Managers

The Last Week (Week 4) Before A TWO WEEK BREAK For Christmas And New Year !!

Kirkesaeters' Hat-trick Not Enough

Egloshayle Park FC 4
Rush Green 3

Treover Isles' side came to Egloshayle Road bottom of the league with no points, they left with none but took part in a seven-goal thriller and fought very bravely.

Week 3 Park hero Craig Mitchell continued where he left off this week by scoring after 17 minutes, a lead he and Egloshayle extended after 26 minutes when his long-range effort found the net. All was going to plan for the home side until the 31st minute when Rush Green pulled one back - Widar Kirkesaeter (pictured) scoring from the spot to put Green in at half-time 2-1 down.

In a hotly contested match the home sides player-manager was denied any hat-trick hopes when he was shown the red-card just three minutes in. The afternoon turned from bad to worse for Park just 2 minutes later when Kirkesaeter levelled the scores. LeTiss thought he restored the home sides lead but had his 53rd minute effort disallowed. Walcott did manage to restore the league-leaders lead after the hour only for Rush Green to pull back once more. Kirkesaeter completing his hat-trick just 15 minutes from time and looked to have got the bottom side a brave point - but it wasn't to be. For the second week in a row Egloshayle got a late winner. Wayne Bridge scoring from the penalty spot with just 4 minutes left to restore Parks 100% start.

Mixed Emotions At Egloshayle

Egloshayle player-manager was overall extremely pleased with his sides 7-goal thriller win over Rush Green on Thursday despite his red card. Mitchell, followed on from his winner the previous week by scoring the opening two goals inside 25 minutes before being sent-off for retaliation 3 minutes into the second half.

"He is young, passionate and will learn" A spokesman said. "Although the referee didn't help. Rush Green came here to play aggressive and cheat but we overcame them and that's testament to the squad. We had a goal disallowed, our young star midfielder sent off after he underwent a series of brutal challenges and he awarded them a dubious penalty at a crucial time in the match" he concluded.

Widar Kirkesaeter managed a hat-trick at Egloshayle Road but it wasn't enough as Trevors brave Rush Green went down in a 7 goal thriller.

Mitchell himself said "I don't blame Rush Green or Trevor Isles for any tactics, they had a game plan and it very nearly paid off, if they play like that for the rest of the season they will certainly avoid the drop"

Red Machine Climb To Second

The Rising Deck 0
Red Machine FC 2

Rob Couchs side leap-frogged The Rising Deck to second place after a deserved 2-0 away win.

Justin Bolams long range effort found the net after 27 minutes for the visitors and Neill Whyte extended that lead direct from a free-kick after 35 minutes. The win owes much to Red Machines defence who domintated this weeks Xpert 11. Next up for them Egloshayle Park.

The Falling Deck

With an outstanding win over last seasons second placed team The Rising Deck. Manager of Red Machine FC, Rob Couch (and chief executive of a local tampon company) commented that the team spirit within the camp was excellent, and it is the kind of things like; making the players take in turn to wash the kit bag every week, has installed a real team ethic.

Rather than comment on his sides excellent performance, Rob Couch used the media to promote his companies latest tampon, and get some free publicity. With the country being in a credit crunch at present it was shrewd thinking by the Red's manager.

Third Straight Home Defeat For Destroyers

Dark Destroyers 0
FC Wazzy 2

Adrian Mitchells home record is now becoming a big concern as Paul Warrens side inflicted a 3rd successive defeat for the Destroyers. The home side adopted a brave 4-2-4 for the match in hope of a win but it wasnt to be.

Nat Baines scored for the visitors after 35 minutes and it was a lead Wazzy kept hold until half-time.

In a tight second half The Dark Destroyers searched for an equaliser but Wazzy held out and it wasnt until 2 minutes into injury time when they secured all 3 points when midfield maestro Terrence Crooks made it 2-0.

Lineker Fires Perrymen Into The Top Three

The Perrymen 3
WestCountry Wanderers 0

Richard Fletchers side are slowly climbing the league and it was Linekers (pictured) double that lifts him to the top of the scoring charts and The Perrymen to 3rd.

Jeff Mayalls 2nd minute header got them off to the perfect start and Lineker made it 2 after 35 minutes direct from a free-kick to get the home side into half-time 2-0 up.

WestCountry Wanderers hopes all faded inside a 2 minute spell in the second half. Lineker added his sides 3rd in the 75th minute and just a minute later Wanderers frustrations spilled over as star midfielder Maximo Rimedio got sent off. Rufus Lawrence got his marching orders for the home side a minute into injury time putting a slight dampener on The Perrymens 3 points.

Old Big Ears Revenge

The Westcountry Wanderers lived up to their name as their players wandered aimlessly around the pitch looking like they couldn't wait to get back to the West Country to eat their Christmas Pasties. This allowed The Perry Men to run riot as they stormed to a 3 - 0 win.

Gary Lineker was delighted to speak to reporters after the game, 'After hearing disparaging comments about me from the lettuce munching manager Hewy, I was only too glad to knock two goals past his hapless wanderers'. He was in forgiving mood though and went on to say,

'It's Christmas time and I'm not going to hold a grudge. He's obviously under pressure at the moment so we'll just forget about it and wish him and all the other managers a Merry Christmas and good luck for 2009'

Hounds Hurt Down Under

Down Under And Out 4
Hell Hounds 1

For once Richard 'Wookie' Barton did his talking on the pitch and his side now look like serious promotion contenders.

Hell Hounds made the journey having a 100% winning a record but it wasn't to last the match. DUAO just edged the first half on possession but neither side could make the break through.

Twelve minutes into the second half Daniel Kibbles header got the home side off the mark. Goal machine Ben Windsor took his seasons tally to an amazing seven when he headed in his sides 2nd on the hour. The Hounds sniffed a possible comeback when Down Unders Edmond McPhearson saw red 10 minutes from time but Joe Teale wrapped up all 3 points from the spot with just 4 minutes remaining. Steven Simons made it an astonishing 4-0 two minutes from time and The Hounds got their consolation a minute later when Bill Westcroft notched.

Down Unders make Dogs Dinner of Hounds

Down Under and Out are back at the top of League 1 this evening after another solid home performance. They slotted 4 goals past a stunned Hell Hounds before conceding a late consolation goal when down to 10 men. This game had all the hall marks of a draw, with both teams playing the offside trap well and giving no chances away. That all changed on the 56th minute, a defender one two saw Daniel Kibble break free to slot away his first goal for the club. Five minutes later, old faithful, Ben Windsor nicks in another to bring the shoreline to 2-0.

Down Unders looked to have the game in the bag and settled back to draw out the remainder of the game. However ten minutes from time a dubious piece of refereeing saw Ed McPhearson marching from the pitch with a red card. The hounds should have sniffed a chance with the Down Unders down to 10 men, but it wasn't to be their day. Down Unders upped their game slotting another 2 goals past the Hounds before the Hounds managed to stub one home in the last minute of the game.

Still no comment from Down Unders Manager Wookie who refused to give a post match interview. For the famously outspoken manager this self imposed silence is strangely unnerving.

Down By The Trent Make It Three In A Row

Down By The Trent 3
Earls Courtinas 2

Phil Jory's side made it three wins on the trot with a 3-2 victory over Earls Courtinas.

The game exploded into life when Ronnie Bergman scored after 6 minutes. A minute later the visitors equalised through Ryan Chorltons long range effort. Zacharias Barkworth made it 2-1 just two minutes after that and astonishingly Dermot Haworth made it 3-1 after only 11 minutes on the clock. Jeremie Kendrick made it 3-2 just eight minutes from the break to give the visitors a little hope but thats how it stayed at half-time, and indeed for the whole 90 minutes.

Ealing Off The Mark

Sexual Ealing FC 2
Lewd Lewes FC 1

Sexual Ealing managed all 3 points at home to Lewd Lewes in an evenly matched game at Glenfield Road.

Eddie Van Halen thought he got the home side off to a winning start after 19 minutes only to see his goal disallowed. Nuno Bettencourt did, however, give the home side the lead after 35 minutes to give Ealing a 1-0 half-time lead.

Ben Duxbury equalised for the visitors 10 minutes into the second half. With both sides looking for that winner Ealing just edged it when Van Halen did get his goal and the eventual winner. He headed in after 77 minutes to give Paul Corrigan 3 points.

The Not So Sweet Smell Of Perfume

A bizarre twist of fortune for the, previously thought to be, home and dry, league winners the Down Under and Outs. Vinnie Steels the lynch pin of the team had a bizarre off the training ground incident. It appears that while dropping and attempting to catch a bottle of perfume he has pulled his back and will be out of action for the coming game. We managed to track down Team Manager Wookie who gave us the following comment.

As if I haven't got enough to worry about with crappy reffing leading to a host of yellow cards and injured players. Now I've been told old Vinnie is out for the next game. Its takes the biscuit and could throw our title chase into serious jeopardy! I'm seriously thinking about throwing in the towel and taking up bridge.

No Easy Three Points

Egloshayle Park manager rubbished suggestions that his side will easily go into the Christmas Break with maximum points prior to their match at home to bottom club Rush Green. Egloshayle sit at the top with 3 wins out of 3 with their opponents bottom with 3 straight defeats. Everything is pointing to a home-banker.

"Thats ludicrous" blasted Mitchell. "There are no easy points in this division. Trevor is not a bad manager and his side are not a bad side, he has been the victim of some very tight games and some extreme bad luck. One Thursday his luck will change and we will have to be at our very best to make sure its not this Thursday. I will be fielding my best side for what I envisage to be an extremely tough game. Football is not straight forward else we may as well all pack up and go home now. I do not want to approach the Christmas break on the back of a defeat and thats what will happen if we are not 100% prepared." said Mitchell "God help any of my squad who take this fixture lightly!"

Everyday Event

Wanderers midfielder Verissimo Mexia went on a date last night to a popular seafood restaurant and tried to be funny, ignoring the warning sign posted on the restaurant's lobster tank, which read, "Restaurant personnel ONLY! DO NOT TOUCH!". When he selected a lobster for his dinner, he pulled it out of the tank himself. He quickly discovered the bands had snapped off and was promptly pinched, dropping the lobster! Mayhem ensued as the staff tried to retrieve the quick crustacean before it pinched other patrons. Verissimo Mexia is now banned from that restaurant for life.

Ittttttsssssss Chrriiistmmaas !

Rising Deck Manager Ian Mitchell, fresh from a light lunch at the teams dining hall at the Earl of St. Vincent, gave a little interview exclusively for XP11TV in which he said.

"It's positive news for us that the 'Red Machine' think that facing us this week is Fixture Hell, i'm flattered. It might just have given my players that extra belief that this season could be ours if we continue our never roll over and die attitude. Personally speaking i am more chuffed to be involved with being able to play so far this season after a frustrating last campaign with injuries and excellent performances from my teammates keeping me out of the starting 11. Robert Couch, manager of Red Machine (named after the Tampon Dispenser in his teams dressing room) has recently moved into his new abode in St. Austell and obviously is finding life a little hectic juggling team selection and washing/scraping/bleaching his smalls into the early hours.

It's another sellout at the Orpheum and as an Xmas gesture to our marvellous supporters we are giving out tricks from 'Marvin's Magic Selection' at the match to say thankyou, after all we are a family club who like to give a little back to the community.

There will also be a draw at every home game with the winning season ticket number out of the hat receiving a signed teamshirt, so remember your season ticket is the gift that keeps giving (unlike Sharon and head)

Leagues Big Mouth Shuts UP

Outspoken Manager Wookie of the Down Under and Outs, refused to comment on his clubs chances in the game later today. We caught up with the new league 1 Manager at his training ground putting his players through their paces. There was a notable hole in his midfield caused by injuries and a number of yellow cards. Perhaps the usually over confident leader is feeling the pressure as he takes on the leagues big boy the Hell Hounds at home today. Whatever the reason, if the Down Under's fail to win today, you can be sure he'll be crucified by the rest of the league for his recent outbursts.

Time to start Crapping

The Chieftan has started to ring a few changes as he bids to bring the Dark Destroyers season back to life after a disappointing start to the season. The "Doom Merchants" have lost two of their opening three fixtures (both at home) and find themselves playing catch-up already in this years title-race. "We need to make teams start crapping themselves at the thought of playing here again and we will do whatever it takes to make "Doom" a fortress again." he said. " I have bought Freddie Kruger back to partner the Grim Reaper in defence and restored Jabba between the posts as we have got into the habit of conceding goals cheaply, while we should also have some more "punch" up front as I have put "Iron" Mike Tyson back into the team. He has been like a rabid rotweiler in the reserves and has been dying to get back into the team for some time. Now is the time - I think - to let him loose on some poor innocent back-four and see what damage he can do"

Tosser!

Wanderers need a win today at White HOT Lane after there disappointing defeat against the league leaders last week. Despite the flattering comments by the Parks manager Mitchell AKA c*nt!!! Wanderers boss Hewy is still disgusted with the performance of the ref last week who disallowed a goal for the Wanderers 3 minutes in!!! "fu*kin disgraceful, his decision cost us 1 point and I want an apology"

Anyway it should be a good game today providing The Perry Men field Lineker...if they don't then its good night and 3 points for the Wanderers

Merry Christmas everyone

B Matthews Turkeys Withdrawn From Sale

Blob News has just announced that all Bernard Matthews PRE-STUFFED frozen turkeys have been withdrawn from sale due to reports that one of the turkeys was purchased stuffed with a CouchPAX, the latest tampon form the Couch empire, instead of the usual sage and onion stuffing. Buyer for BM Fanny

Filler apologised "it was my fault, the company wanted a stuffing for the Xmas period but I interpreted their demand incorrectly."

What a stuffing

"No not our defeat of 'Earls', commented DBTT manager Phil Jory, adding

"moreover the smell of sage and onion under the bed covers last night. Incredibly my wife (currently up on blocks) had a blooded ball of sage and onion stuffing up her clowt. On closer inspection of her box of couchPAX I found a dozen more balls of stuffing and not a tampon in sight! Just before tucking into his Bernard Matthews turkey Jory concluded "well at least I can take black pudding off the shopping list!"
