(Mon 20th - Sun 18th) Week 6

Just where has Rising Decks Magic Gone?

Earls Carl Hardy nets FIVE of his sides SEVEN !!

The League Supreme Cup starts on Sunday 25th and the draw has thrown up some very interesting ties !!

Week 6 and after the Christmas Period we have a bumper edition featuring all the missed news

Rush Green One Wanderers Won

Westcountry Wanderers 2
Rush Green 1

Aguado and Leppe swapped paella and croissants for well deserved pasties at The Cove as they snatched victory from Rush Green.

Luckless Rush Green arrived at The Cove with high hopes of claiming points which are desperately needed to avoid the drop and got off to the perfect start when Sammy Abell headed in a second minute opener.

Their lead was short lived as midfield maestro Gaspar Aguado levelled matters after 20 minutes with a long range effort.

Wanderers completed the turn around just 1 minute into the second half when J J Leppe shot in the penalty area to make it 2-1. And thats how it stayed. A victory which lifts Paul Hewitts side to 4th and leaves Trevor Isles side rooted to the bottom and needing a minor miracle to avoid relegation.

Red Machine March On

Red Machine FC 4
The Perrymen 0

Red Machine celebrated their first week at the top of the league with an emphatic follow-up victory over The Perrymen.

Tomas Bagnalls 3rd minute header gave the leaders the lead and with Perrymens danger man Lineker going off injured after 6 minutes it looked an uphill struggle for Fletchs side very early on. Justin Bolam made it 3 for the season when his breakaway gave the Machine a 2-0 lead. He then added his sides 3rd just 6 minutes later taking his seasons tally to 4. The Perrymen had further bad luck when keeper Erik The Viking went off injured on half time and the misery was complete just 3 minutes into the second half when Warren Bonhams header made it 4-0 to Rob Couches side and keeps his top of the table status.

Perry Christmas Hangover

The Perry Men manager McFletch finally broke the New Year silence and spoke to reporters a day after a 4-0 mauling by Red Machine FC,

'The christmas break has done us no favours at all. Where as before a hectic schedule would ensure the players kept fit and on top of their game. This year my players have been gorging on mince pies, downing copious amounts of Glenmorangie and have clearly been preoccupied with stuffing birds. I will be asking all my players to attend double training sessions to turn around these dismal performances and close the gap on the top 2.'

Perry Men fans will be looking forward to getting back to the Lane where hopefully they can see their team pick up the points again.

Destroyers Woes Continue

Egloshayle Road FC 3
Dark Destroyers 0

Egloshayle bounced back from last weeks defeat in style as they disposed of The Destroyers 3-0 at Egloshayle Park.

Player-manager Craig Mitchell, who has scored in every game he has played, came back from suspension and made it 4 goals in 3 games as his direct free-kick found the target after 16 minutes. Dark Destroyers, still searching for some form tried in vain as they failed to create little in front of goal.

Paul Rowe made it 2-0 after 65 minutes and Kevin Keegans long range effort completed the scoring 13 minutes from time to keep the gap between 2nd and 3rd to six points.

Where Has The Magic Gone?

FC Wazzy 1
Rising Deck 1

Nat Baines makes sure the spoils are shared at the back garden as The Deck are struggling to find their magic.

It has been a hit and miss season so far for The Rising Deck and they travelled to Paul Warrens side hoping to close the gap at the top. FC Wazzy are a much improved outfit this season and a proving a tough nut to crack. Ian Mitchells side just edged the first half on possession but neither side could make the breakthrough although both went close. Amazing Kerskin found room in the penalty area 6 minutes into the second half to put the visitors ahead. The Deck continued to possess much of the ball but lacked that cutting edge and were made to pay just 23 minutes from time when Baines headed in a 67th minute equaliser.

Dirty Tricks

"It was muy bien to share a pint or two of San Miguel with Red's boss MagicIAN Mitch after a hard fought game in the BackGarden" said Wazzy manager Paul Warren. "we were able to catch up on life in the sun with pain in the arse parents and share tales of our scouting for Spanish Talent. Best done wearing dark sunglasses so you can face one way while actually looking the other."

It sounded at first like it was a pleasant post match drink between amigos, until Mitch's dirty tricks were revealed. "The git held up his drink to toast a well fought out draw and quickly fooled me by asking me to 'Look into (his) eyes. Look into (his) eyes. Not around the eyes...' Before I knew it" said Wazzy, "I was paying for the bloody drinks!!!"

We questioned the problem with this, only for Wazzy to explain that the drinks came from his own personal fridge in the the clubhouse Utility room!!

Hell Hounds Reduced To Puppies

Hell Hounds 1
Lewd Lewes 3

Bruce Hording and Carlton Wesby proved to be too hot for a Hell Hounds side in danger of deep decline.

In a tight first half it was visiting striker Carlton Wesby who fired Lewd Lewes into an early lead on 17 minutes. Title hopefuls then got into their stride and Bill Westcroft scored direct from a free-kick after 35 minutes to ensure Matt Rose's side went in at the break all level.

Whatever Fran Davies said at half-time seemed to have done the trick as Lewes were then unstoppable in the second half. Welsby added in his second 8 minutes into the second half and it wasn't until 12 minutes from time when the visitors wrapped up the points. Man of the match Bruce Hording shot Lewes into a 3-1 lead and with the Hounds pushing forward Hording capped a fine performance with his second in injury time to produce the performance of the week. Hounds manager will be seething as his side are now in a dangerous slide downwards.

What the hell is going on with the Hounds?

'Watch this space' were the only words spoken by the Hounds manager as he left there home ground after a 1-4 pounding today.

Trent Set Up Top Of The Table Clash

Sexual Ealing FC 0
Down By The Trent 3

Down By The Trent continue to hunt for promotion glory as they ease past Ealing 3-0.

Sexual Ealing manager Paul Corrigan, on a recent resurgence, came unstuck at Glenfield Road but outplayed their opponents in the first half but had no goals to show. The second half proved their undoing as Phil Jorys men came to life. Zacharias Barkworths 69th minihute header was enough to give the visitors the lead. Derrick Sawyer made it 2-0 just 10 minutes later and then wrapped up all 3 points for Trent as he bagged his second and his sides 3rd with just 8 minutes remaining.

A little bit of Lionel Ritchie

"Oh what a feeling, ing, ing, a victory at Sexual Ealing" sang DBTT manager Phil Jory after his sides 3-0 victory. "On a serious note" added Jory, "we have a massive game next week at DUAO and we will have to be on our guard not to fall into the trap that is wookie hole."

DUAO Continue Unbeaten Run

Dynamo Des 0
Down Under And Out 3

Down Under And Out stay unbeaten as they scored three without reply at bottom side Dynamo Des. Sam Aiston calmly slotted past Des' keeper after 24 minutes play to send the leaders in at half-time one nil up.

Perry Hooke sprung the offside trap after an hours play to give Wookies side a 2-0 lead. A lead which Steven Simons extended with just 10 minutes remaining when he headed in to set up and interesting top of the table clash next week against Down By The Trent.

DUAO Squander Gift Horse

DUAO remain top of the league, and the only unbeaten side from both leagues, after another comfortable away win this time over bottom of the table Dynamo Des. The game was a one sided affair with the only notable attribute being a host of missed shots by DUAO. They had 11 chances to score but only managed to bag 3 goals which casts some doubt over the fitness of their strikers. We caught up with DUAO Manager Wookie after the game for the following report. "Another solid performance by our defence, who have only conceded 3 goals this season, kept us in the game. Our strikers were Abominable and if they squander chances like that next week against DBTT we'll be in all kinds of crap.

LS Division 1 reports and reaction

Hardy Five-Oh

Earls Courtinas 7
The Irons 0

Earls Courtinas knock seven past The Irons as Carl Hardy has a field day. Carl Hardy started his account after 7 minutes with Jimi Shail extended the home sides lead just 2 minutes later. Hardy then made it 3 on 18 minutes to send the home side in 3-0 up at half-time.

Hardy got his hat-trick 2 minutes into the second half and then got his 4th a minute later. Jimi Shail added his second after 53 minutes and Hardy completed an amazing day for himself and Courtinas by netting his 5th and Courtinas 7th with 10 minutes remaining.

The League would like to apologise for lack of football related imagery this week. We hope to be back to normal next week.

Mixed Emotions At Egloshayle

Egloshayle player-manager was overall extremely pleased with his sides 7-goal thriller win over Rush Green on Thursday despite his red card. Mitchell, followed on from his winner the previous week by scoring the opening two goals inside 25 minutes before being sent-off for retaliation 3 minutes into the second half.

"He is young, passionate and will learn" A spokesman said. "Although the referee didnt help. Rush Green came here to play aggressive and cheat but we overcame them and thats testament to the squad. We had a goal disallowed, our young star midfielder sent off after he underwent a series of brutal challenges and he awarded them a dubious penalty at a crucial time in the match" he concluded.

Mitchell himself said "I dont blame Rush Green or Trevor Isles for any tactics, they had a game plan and it very nearly paid off, if they play like that for the rest of the season they will certainly avoid the drop"

Old Big Ears Revenge

The Westcountry Wanderers lived up to their name as their players wandered aimlessly around the pitch looking like they couldn't wait to get back to the West Country to eat their Christmas Pasties. This allowed The Perry Men to run riot as they stormed to a 3 - 0 win.

Gary Lineker was delighted to speak to reporters after the game, 'After hearing disparaging comments about me from the lettuce munching manager Hewy, I was only too glad to knock two goals past his hapless wanderers'

He was in forgiving mood though and went on to say,

'It's Christmas time and I'm not going to hold a grudge. He's obviously under pressure at the moment so we'll just forget about it and wish him and all the other managers a Merry Christmas and good luck for 2009'

Happy New Year !!

Egloshayle player-boss Mitchell was the first to wish all managers in the league a 'Happy New Year' and followed up by saying 'Now its back to business'.

"I have given my boys a little time off over Xmas and New Year but also had some gruelling training sessions. Its important now to get back to business as we have a very tough match away at 2nd placed Red Machine on Thursday. Unfortunately I am suspended for that match but we have more than enough in this squad to put out a top performance but it will be a severe test on our perfect start" said Mitchell

3rd January

Congrats Pete !

Peter Shilton's wife has just had a baby. As a consequence Peter Shilton has performed better in training and has gained some form.

DIY End to Xmas Break

DBTT mnager Phil Jory was very upbeat as he reflected on his teams yuletide Cornwall break,"We've had a great time and in fact done some serious training through ice skating on the River Camel, so cold it was." Jory concluded, while striding purposely up Molesworth Street, "I'm off to see the local Manchester City fan who owns the DIY shop opposite the polizei, shame I didn't see him prior to the FA Cup match, as I may have wagered him a dozen raw plugs."

A surprise for the

Wanderers

Ahead of the 'Wanderers visit this week to the Back Garden, we caught up with FC Wazzy boss Paul Warren, in the shed, for the latest:

"Well... i spent most of the past week or so keeping a low profile as I didn't want to ruffle any feathers but I feel the time is now right to remind all those travelling fans wearing orange what it is like to play a REAL team in a REAL stadium."

We assumed he was talking about the Pilgrim's wasted visit to the Emirates Stadium last Saturday until he introduced us to head groundsman at the Back Garden, Mo Milorn. "After all the freezing weather of late" said Mo, "The Wanderers will probably be expecting a firm pitch. We have a surprise for them, I have had the fan heaters out and already the pitch is looking burnt and scorched."

Team boss Paul went on to congratulate Mo for his cunning efforts. "he has done a great job and combined with our recent good run, Hewy must be dreading this game"

I guess time will tell.

New Year Clearout at "Doom"

The chefftan has started the New Year by wielding the axe at the Theatre of Doom. Three players have been placed on the transfer list in light of the dismal start to the season which has resulted in three defeats out of four matches for last-seasons third-placed team. While the players were enjoying the festives delicacies of roasted pig-head and vampire-bat soup, ratshit and mulled yeti-blood, their manager has been busy scouring the murkiest pits and dives looking for more evil talent to install some more fear into his squad. We caught up with him in Bodmin to find out more. "I have placed Simon Cowell, Gordon Ramsey and Darth Vader on the transfer-list and have got big-name replacements lined-up." he said. "We have a big home game against Braising Duck tomorrow (Thursday) and we need to address our home-form having lost all three games here this season. I also want to send out a message to the rest of the Premiership. Write us off at your peril!!"

“We Are The Best !!!”

What started out as a simple press conference to unveil new youngster Lee Bateman as a ‘future prospect’ at table-topping Egloshayle Park FC, player-manager Craig Mitchell turned from Saint to Sinner when asked about the champions impressive start to the season.

“I have always been more than accommodating to other managers with praise but I fear it has turned the League Supreme into the League of Sleep, its all too nicey nicey. The Destroyers and Down Under And Out are 2 teams I ‘nearly’ admire with their outspoken attitudes. But its about time the best of the best spoke up, thats Egloshayle Park FC. We are the team to catch and are above everyone else. All players in the league would love to play for my team and all managers want to manage my team. We are champions with a 100% record this season, talented youngsters coming through and £11m in the bank, I dont blame everyone elses envy. I also send out this message to the chasing packs individual stars - youre welcome to join my squad, but you will have to up your game to make the bench.”

His comments left the papparazzi stunned and questioning his soberness but he seemed in full control. Some say it is an attempt to instill some passion, fire and spunk into the league but whatever the reason, his remarks will not go down to well in many camps - none more so than hours before todays crunch top-of-the-table clash with Red Machine. His timing is either a stroke of genius or he could be made to eat his words.

On youngster Lee Bateman Mitchell commented “He is a superb talent and one for the future, he has earned his place on the bench today through consistently performing well for our talented youth team.”

Egloshale Board Look for New Manager

Rumours are ripe that the Egloshale board have held secret talks with NZ Wookie over the possibility of talking over from general loud mouth, and underperforming manager, Mitch Junior. Our reporter caught up with NZ wookie and secured the following report:

I’m concentrating on ensuring we maintain our unbeaten record and win the league this season. I’m not going to say if the Egloshale Board came to me begging me to get them out of their hole (AKA Mitch Juniors arse), but I will state that there is no way in the world I would head up that bunch of over paid under achievers. Sure it’s a tough game and the only thing you can count on is that someone will be there, when your chips are down.... to rub your face right in it. You get one in every league, so as for (the village idiot) Mitch, well if he claws onto his managerial role, I’ll shake his hand while Egloshale pass by us on their way the League 1 and our ascension to the Premiership.

Down Under Continue Their March to Glory

Another solid away performance for Down Unders sees them maintain their lead at the top of league 1. Although just 1 point clear from DBTT in the league, the Down Unders goal difference speaks volumes of their superior performances.

Yesterday’s game saw Rude Lewis on the wrong end of the battering stick by the mighty Down Unders. Although the scally side put in a brave performance, only losing by 2 goals, the writing was on the wall before kickoff. The scally side can’t be held to blame as their mind was probably on the fact that their captain Stevie Gerard had been banged up for selling shady knocked off shell suits again. DBTT’s win over the Hounds has only resulted in removing one more opponent from the Down Unders path to glory.

Queer Titch Mitch

“Titch” Mitch unveils “bummer” Bateman (at least that’s what his elder brother was known as) and speaks of his pride about “injecting spunk into.....”. two plus two equals a whole round four.

Meanwhile DBTT Trent manager Phil Jory is content but cautious, commenting. “It must be said that we have played the ‘lessor’ teams in Des and Irons, the other “Downs” are obviously the hare but maybe over-confidence will be their downfall?”

New Year Sales for DUAO

NZ Wookie has seen the New Year in with a tidy up at the club. Out goes young striking talent Emanuel Sonne who only recently gained promotion from the youth team. While up from the Youth Team comes a new shining star, Terrance Shutt. Terrance is a natural midfield player with some all round abilities says DUAO Manger NZ Wookie. He’s worked hard for the youth team and deserves his chance in the senior squad. It’s always unfortunate when I have to say goodbye to a player, but there just wasn’t the space for Emanuel with such a potent striking force that we have. I’ve also had to put Ronald Izzet up for transfer as I have my eye on another new signing. Ronald is a brilliant player but to keep a place on the bench at our club you have to be better than brilliant. Ohh and just to confirm if any of those Egloshale rats want to desert a sinking ship, they can think again about coming here - they wouldn’t make the grade to join our reserves!

Good Point Well Made !

‘A Good Point earned today, well made by a solid away performance !’ was player/ manager/master of illusion Ian Mitchell after his team picked up a much needed point at the Dark Brown Destroyers. We knew it would be a tough game with the Chieftan’s teams dirty tactics but we didn’t lower our gentlemanly approach and, if truth be known, would of had all three points had it not been for two late assaults on my ‘clean through’ players leaving them with lacerations and whelts upon their person. I’m a little concerned with their team of villains containing someone called ‘Lionel Todd’WHO ? i hear you ask. Well i ask the chieftan the same thing, who is this evil man, are you sure its not Lionel Blair in disguise ?

In The Press This Week

Also thanks for the invite for my players to join 'EglosGAY ALL Park' but when i asked my squad who wanted to accept the offer i was met with unanimous shouts such as 'I'd learn more from watching Pam Ayers' and 'You Fuc*ing What ?'

Back to the match against the Raping Destroyers I'd like to thank David Copperfield for a marvelous performance not least for his setting up of my goal, it was a great through ball from the genius which left me to do a little 'Louisiana Shuffle' on the edge of the box before ramming it hard where it hurts most !. Enough for now, i've got Herbie's Bonnet to buff up.

All Not Green & Rosie At The Park!

It seems that Egloshayle Park FC manager, Craig Mitchell was "made to eat his words" against a well organised Red Machine FC team. They came away with all three points from the Park. It was obvious to see that the opposition players were distracted from the outburst from their manager in the press conference earlier that day, when Craig Mitchell unveiled new youngster Master Bateman!

Manager of Red Machine FC, Rob Couch, was asked what had inspired his team to move up a gear against the reigning champions. He commented...

"I asked each played individually of who they want to play for, and for them to give me (and the Cracked-Up Mitchell) the answer on the football pitch. The answer was there for everyone to see. A BIG TWO FINGERS TO THE COCKY GIT MANAGER OF EGLOSHAYLE PARK FC!"

Undertakers visit Egloshale

While there is still no sign of that village idiot, so called Manager, Mitch Junior, the rest of the clubs have invested in salt and continue to pile it into his open wounds. In this business there are falls and rises all the time, but rarely do you witness such a swan dive from 30,000 ft. The impact of his ego hitting the ground caused tremors which could be felt across the other side of the world. Mitch Junior has been spotted walking the streets with a paper bag over his head, his chin scraping the floor in shame and egg running freely from his face. Even his own supporters spit at him while he passes by. This chap has sunken to depths which Jacques Cousteau could only dream of. While he maintains his silence, I'm sure the other managers won't miss out on the opportunity to slip in a few good kicks on a man who's claim to fame is to redefine the meaning of down.

Leaders Defeat 'Good For The League'

Just hours after Egloshayles boss Mitchells scathing attack on fellow managers in the league supreme his side suffered their first defeat of the season at the hands of title-rivals Red Machine.

"Our defeat against Red Machine is great news for the rest of the league. No-one wants a side to run away with the title so our defeat will delight the rest of the league. We are not concerned at this stage by the defeat, once more Robert Couch has prepared his side and tactics well, not to mention the huge cash reward to his side, its just a shame other sides need to do this, thats why Im proud of my players, they perform for me through the love of the club, they dont need cash rewards, but, if thats what it takes for a competitive league then I guess thats good." said Mitchell.

When asked about comments from other managers and in particular DUAO manager Wookie, Mitchell retorted "Who?, what league are they in? . . . Oh yes I recall their 2nd rate striker Ben Windsor begging me to take him to The Park, to which I offered him a postion to clean our boots, I think he is mulling it over" said Mitchell.

Astonishingly Mitchells recent blast has filtered down to the Premiership with Liverpool Boss Benitez copying his mentor Mitchell.

Outrage as DUAO Sack Old Timer

DUAO supporters gathered round the gates to the club last night in protest of the sacking of Ferdinand Colby. Colby had been at the club man and boy and was approaching his 35th birthday, the surprise sacking has left many supporters fuming with the new manager Wookie. One supporter had the following to say "I just don't understand it, he was on form, playing some of his best football for the club and to sack him when there was a testimonial planned at the end of the season? He gave his life to this club he deserved better treatment!" Manager NZ Wookie was unavailable for comment.

"Darkness" descends upon Egloshayle

The "Holy One" was in a relaxed mood before their trip to reigning champions Egloshayle Park F.C. in one of the most eagerly-awaited fixtures of the season this week. The Chieftan was looking forward to his first trip to the "Park" since he last played there over 20 years ago. "It will be a very memorable day for me to go back to the turf that I graced with my own skills back in the eighties (Nineteen-eighties that is!!) land I still have many fond memories of my times there (deefs vests and boot-laces, chinky and his mentor Zelda, BF Jeff and Gherkin). I am also looking forward to meeting up with "Irvine" who is - amazingly - still playing for the home side. I only hope that monkey has sorted out the waterlogging problem that I remember well. I also hope that they are prepared for the invasion of the "Black Army". It is their biggest game since the "Gospel" tournament in 1985 and they had better be ready! It is good that our supporters are still right behind us despite our disappointing start although we produced a better performance last week to get a draw against Rinsing Keck. They know that we are going through a transitional phase at the moment and know that we will become a force once again very soon. BRING ON THE BIG_BOYS!!

We Must Bounce Back

Egloshayle Park player-manager Craig Mitchell today stressed the need for his team to immediately 'bounce-back to winning ways' following his sides defeat to Red Machine.

"Next up are Dark Destroyers who have had a disappointing start, but thats mainly due to their home form, they are away to us so we must be on our guard. I am alarmed at Cheiftans knowledge of our ground and future signings but that wont help his team of evil spastics." said Mitchell.

Mitchell returns to the squad after a one match suspension but lose Svensson through injury for tomorrows clash.

Hasta Manana Compadre

The Magicians from the Rising Deck are looking forward to tomorrows trip to FC Wazzy and a chance to catch up with fellow cunnylinguist Paul Warren.

Having both been involved in 'talent' spotting in Spain over the years we share a love of the hotter/cheaper climate, unfortunately though i am unaware of females allowed to play in the Xpert11.

It would be a shame if not as i've seen many a lass on the 'Playas of Costa Blanca' who look very tight at the back and quite a few who have a couple of useful attributes up front. Whatever the result i'll gladly share a Sangria and Soberano with Senor Warren after the game.

League Magazine

When asked if there was a link between there being no League Magazine this week and Bridgers losing their 100% winning start to the season a league administrator responded "No, no link at all, I have been extremely busy so you can shove it up your jimmy's".

Jimmys ?????

Does the League Admin mean Jimmy as in Winkle (a Jimmy Winkle) Or is he referring to a favourite Sexual Habit/Ex Aston Villa Goalkeeper as in 'A Jimmy Rimmer !'

Front or Back Jimmy? Issue Resolved

DUAO Manager unsure with how to treat his league magazine commission a study into the meaning of "up your Jimmy"

Now with some authority and still in considerable pain Wookie can clarify the issue. " All Managers should be aware that trying to insert the official league magazine up your front jimmy is not only painful leading to septic paper cuts but also impossible unless the magazine is first mulched. Inserting the magazine up your back Jimmy is most pleasurable and the preferred option although for the tighter arsed manager initial use of butt plug would be advise to ease the passage."

No need to thank DUAO for running the trials.

Cup...what freeking cup??

Oi! numb nuts!

When's the cup starting I want to kick seven bells out of the premier league monkey teams?

I was also wondering on additional payments for a cup run. Do you receive more money as you progress a round than those losers who get kicked out? (Wookie sets himself up for a 1st round exit!)

I'm cash strapped and willing to do almost anything for some cash.

On reflection I withdraw that last statement...

I'm willing to do anything for some cash - all offers considered!

15th January

Cup

I think the 'League Supreme Cup' will be brought into play in the next week or 2. Watch this space!

I dont think there are cash bonuses for each match you win/round you progress to (Robin Van) Per say, but I do believe there is a cash bonus for winning the thing or coming runners-up.

Something DUAO need to be concerned about though, with or without a mulched magazine !!

To Mulch or not to mulch, that is the Q

Firstly, many thanks to Wookie for the thorough investigation and scientific testing of the shoving of this weeks magazine up the 'Jimmy's' (both front & back), and i attach no blame to him for the following painful experience i suffered this adfternoon. On hearing of the pleasures to be had by inserting this weeks magazine up the back Jimmy i took it upon myself to try this out while the wife popped down the corner shop to buy a small packet of Saffron. This gave me a full 15 minutes to investigate the supposed pleasure myself and i proceeded to mulch the often under appreciated weekly delight. Thankfully it's a glossy edition and therefore glided quite easily up the 'Jimmy' but i soon found myself in a bit of a mess (no pun intended !) and quite a lot of pain. What i foolishly overlooked was to firstly remove the staples before mulching and therefore found out the disadvantages of this a little too late as they tore into the lining of my 'Jimmy'.

The next 15 minutes were excruciating with the magazine not giving an inch either way and i froze with horror as i heard the front door shut and my wife ascend the stairs and enter my bedchamber. The startled, and less than amused, spouse flew into a fury basically resulting in the question ' WHAT THE F*CK ARE YOU DOING !!!!'

Being sharp (like the staples !) i said the first thing that came into my head, which was "I'm sorry my Cherub but with putting on so much

In The Press

The League Supreme Cup

weight over Christmas i thought of going on a Staple Diet”
Thankfully she bought this quick, desperate explanation from myself and after a swift, painful withdrawal of the bastardin weekly output from the League Admin (and a liberal application of Savlon) all is well with the spouse and my back Jimmy.

What the Hell, Hounds?

Almost 22,000,000 spent in eight weeks on a host of new young players and not one point to show for it...

??????

Are we all getting deaf, but is load mouth manager and reigning champion Craig Mitchell gone into hiding after losing his 100% record last week, after a 2-0 drumming against Red Machine FC????

We would all like to see a magazine tho..... loving your work mate!

Dynamo Des & The Irons

This Thursday marks the half-way point in the league. After Thursday the league administration committee will be looking into taking charge of both Dynamo Des and The Irons (it may not be possible).

This seems fair as all sides would have played one match against them as they have been managerless all season giving NO manager NO advantage.

The committee will simply be picking 11 fit outfield players and 5 reserves. The committee will NOT be buying, selling, training, or studying form and tactics, simply collecting sponsor money and picking a squad. At the present time both squads are not gaining funds and players are suicidal. This may make the teams a viable prospect for potential managers should the league keep the same format next season.

Big Mouth Gets His Wish

The League Supreme Cup starts on Sunday 25th and the draw was made live on Sky Sports yesterday.

The first leg of each tie will take place on Sunday 25th January
The second leg takes place on the 1st February

The away goes rule DOES apply.

The first leg fixtures are:

Sexual Ealing FC	-	Hell Hounds
The Perry Men	-	Down by the Trent
The Dark Destroyers	-	The Rising Deck
Lewd Lewes FC	-	Earls Courtinas
The Irons	-	FC Wazzy
Rush Green	-	Egloshayle Park FC
Red Machine FC	-	Down Under And Out
WestcountryWanderers	-	Dynamo Des

The draw has thrown up some very interesting ties. Both division leaders Red Machine and Down Under And Out have been drawn against each other which neither manager will enjoy. Current cup holders Down By The Trent will play premiership side The Perrymen with League champions Egloshayle Park playing Rush Green. Both managers there being great friends off the pitch.

Premiership sides Westcountry Wanderers and FC Wazzy will be pleased with the draw, playing managerless division one sides Dynamo Des and The Irons respectively. Fran Davies Lewd Lewes will play Owen Campbells Earls Courtinas and is one of two all division one clashes. Sexual Ealing will play Hell Hounds in the other which will guarantee at least two division one sides in the quarter-finals. Neither brothers Ian or Adrian will relish the other all premiership clash between Rising Deck and Dark Destroyers

One To Watch:

Down Under And Out - Down by the Trent

With top tips for the title Hell Hounds and Courtinas a little slow to start these two top the league. Phil Jorys side are on a great run but will need all of their experience and skill in order to stop the only unbeaten side in the league.

LS Prediction: Down Under And Out 2 - 2 Down by the Trent
