New Club Badge And Kit For Premiership Wannabes DUAO

Week 8 proved to be a difficult week for Red Machine, losing in the League AND Cup !!

Machine Feels The Heat At The Cauldron

Red Machine FC 1
WestcountryWanderers 1

Red Machine manager Rob Couch (pictured right) will be feeling a little hot under the collar this week and experiencing a little 'Deja Vu'. He led the league for long periods last season before throwing it away to, then, SuperSaints and could be in danger of doing it again as his side slipped up againts a well organised Wanderer side.

Neill Whyte got the leaders off to the perfect start scoring direct from a free-kick after only 7 minutes. In a first half of even play and little chances Wanderers matched their high-flying hosts admirably but went in a goal down at half-time.

It took the visitors just 13 minutes to score a well deserved equaliser. Man of the match Marvin Acreman headed in to the delight of the travelling supporters. It was Wanderers who will be disappointed not to claim all 3 points as they mustered a further 6 chances in the second half restricting the leaders to none. The Machines lead at the top is reduced to a single point, with a visit to Egloshayle Road, and a Park side with a 100% home record, looming.

Munroe Fires Rush Green To Their First Win

FC Wazzy 0
Rush Green 3

Rush Green, seemingly resigned to preparing for life in LS Division One turned the table upside down as they dominated this fixture at Wazzy's Back Garden.

Kit Munroe headed in the opener on 14 minutes and added a second on the half an hour mark finding room in the box to slot home. Spectators would be forgiven in fearing the worst despite a 2-0 half-time lead as Rush Green are prone to throwing the lead away.

They were, however, in full control of this match and joint league top scorer Widar Kirkeseater added his 5th for the season and his sides 3rd to give Rush Green their first victory and begin whisperings of a Premiership fight for survival.

Machine Manager Rob Couch (AKA Clark Kunt) pictured here, happy as Larry. Needless to say this was taken before his sides 1-1 draw against Wanderers

Experience The Key

Egloshayle Park FC 2
The Rising Deck 1

Making a few changes from last weeks defeat Egloshayle Park gained revenge and closed in on leaders Red Machine as Parks 100% home record continues.

More Premiership News Inside . . .

LS Premiership reports and reaction

The Deck got off to the perfect start in this match with Derren Brown shooting them ahead in the 21st minute.

Gareth Bale, captaining the side, equalised just 5 minutes later in an entertaining and surprisingly open first half containing 8 chances in an even contest.

The second half was of complete contrast as both sides played cautiously. Infact, the second half produced one solitary chance. It fell to veteran Bobby Stokes as he slotted home the eventual winner just 10 minutes from time.

Experienced Heads Won It

Upbeat Egloshayle boss waited a full 24 hours before putting thoughts to paper following his sides first victory over title challengers Rising Duck.

"I changed the team several times on the morning of the match, something I am not prone to doing, but I guess it paid off. I replaced myself, Bummer Bateman and Rower with 3 members of the squad that performed so well under pressure last season and it paid dividends with the Stoke meister scoring our winner in a tight second half." said Mitchell.

We also caught up with defender Gary Burtenshaw on his teams chances of retaining the title. "I think Couch has bottled it once more" said Penfold. "They bottled it last year and are doing so again this year, they wont fancy coming to Egloshayle Park in a few weeks time" He concluded.

Dick Dastardly - You Are The Weakest Link

The Dark Destroyers 1
The Perry Men 0

The Destroyers managed to bury their home match voodoo, but wether its enough to save them from the drop remains to be seen.

There was little to choose from these sides in the 1st half with the home side just edging the play. The second half was barely 4 minutes old before Dick Dastardly was giving his marching orders for having a large chin.

With the match heading for a draw it took a speculative long range effort from Destroyers' Anne Robinson to give The Destroyers a much needed home win, and more impoortantly 3 much need points just 7 minutes from time.

Dirty Destroyers!

The Dark Destroyers showed their willingness to stoop to any level to try and remain in the top flight as they again came out against the Perry Men looking to inflict maximum damage. This time they got away with it nicking a 1-0 victory. A visibly disappointed captain Narciso Campelo spoke to reporters straight after the match,

'I can't believe they're allowed to get away with it, it was sickening to see the goal go in but what can you do when they're getting assistance from the Devil. I'm surprised they've got any players left the amount of suspensions and injuries they're picking up. That might be their undoing in the end'

Reporters were left stunned by Ol' Campelo mastery of the English language in such a short space of time. The Perry Men now turn their attentions to the cup for the second leg against DBTT, who will be flying high after ending DUAO unbeaten record. A result that was cheered by managers across the League.

Red Machine manager Rob Couch has a fetish for dressing up in super hero costumes - here is as Spiderman. If you look closely, you can see his jimmy.

LS Division 1 reports and reaction

DUAO Face First Defeat

Down by the Trent 1
Down Under And Out 0

In a thrilling end to end game DBTT's early goal was enough to put an end to DUAO unbeaten record. Cards flew from the refs pockets as visiting DUAO were hell bent on taking something away with them. DBTT kept the ball well but struggled to crate chances, whilst once DUAO got the ball they made the most of it but none of their shots were good enough to beat DBTT keeper. After 90 minutes all DUAO went away with was a battered ego, lost points and more pressure as their lead at the top of the LS league 1 closed to 1 point.

Splitting Whiskers of LS Div 1

LS Division One has been spread right open after DBTT 's hard fought victory over leaders DUAO. Manager Jory, though euphoric, was still keeping his size 10's firmly on the ground adding "our keeper had a stormer and James Hooper, who's hairloss nightmare was highlighted, responded admirably to the responsibility of being team captain. Maybe the biggest beneficiary is Ford Cortinas after they also won against Rude Lewis - its's undoubtedly a well-racked league, tight at the top!"

Courtinas Back In The Hunt

Earls Courtinas 3
Lewd Lewes FC 1

Earls Courtinas are back in the promotion race as they disposed of Lewd Lewes with ease at Earls Court. Ryan Chorlton headed in Courtinas opener on 22 minutes then added his second just 5 minutes later.

Lewd Lewes looked out of sorts but managed to muster one chance in the second half, a chance they happened to score with when Bruce Hording headed in 8 minutes after the break.

With Lewes pushing for an equaliser they were left open at the back but it wasnt until the last minute of the game when Courtinas made sure, Leo Rawcliffee making it 3-1 on the day and putting Earls 1 point behind the leaders and into second place.

The Hounds Are Hovering

Dynamo Des 0
Hell Hounds 4

Hell Hounds are hovering just outside the promotion places waiting for any of the top 3 to slip up.

Bill Westcroft put Matts side ahead after only 8 minutes and Alvin Houshammade it 2 after 34 minutes. Edgar Meadows headed in just before the break to give Hounds a 3-0 half-time lead.

Dynamo Des had their only keeper taken off injured and another player injured so finished the game with 10 men. Jonatan McGibbon made it 4-0 in the cying minutes to give The Hounds a deserved 4-0 victory.

Ealing Make Hard Work Of It

Sexual Ealing FC 2
The Irons 1

Sexual Ealing managed to make hard work of their victory over managerless Irons but 3 points is 3 points.

The Irons shocked the home crowd after 20 minutes when Bobby Flemming put them ahead on 20 minutes. Dave Grohl headed in Ealings equaliser just 2 minutes later to put the home side at 1-1. Alarmingly it took a penalty to decide the match. A penalty Paul Corrigan scored on the stroke of half-time to give Doz all 3 points

Potty Mouths !

Fucked up Cunt Face

Coming from any other League Admin the reference made to DUAO manager as a cunt face would have been an outrage.

As it is, it came from the living proof that reincarnation does exist, as no one could get that friggin useless in one lifetime. Our League Admin continues to impress with his inability to manage our league and resorts to puerile imagery as a means of deflecting this point. But I must be kind because he reminds me of me when I was stupid and it's unfair to have a battle of wits with an unarmed opponent. We just have to make do with what god gives us...and he was surely having fun when he made Mitch!

Effing and Jeffing

It's nice to see that last night's bad language address on Panorama (about the swearing levels being breached by the BBC in view of the Russel Brand/Jonathon Ross harmless fun !) have yet to reach the League Admin.

Many a C U Next Tuesday seems to be openly flowing in many of the press releases of late and that can only be good for the game. So, unlike Craig, if you have something on your chest get it the Fuck Off and spout about it for all to see, don't keep it bottled up. TWATS !!!!!

Is All The Language Necessary?

Word has it that Wazzy manager Paul Warren has been mildly offended by the recent over use of foul and abusive language.

That was until he got a call from the wife of his star striker Ethan Page, "I couldn't fucking cuntin believe it" Said Paul. "The fucking bitch called me before training on Tuesday to tell me that the cocking wanker won't be turning up because he has cut his titting finger on a bollocking piece of paper. WALLY!!!"

Big Changes at "Doom"

The rumour-mill proved true this weekend as Brazilian wonder-kid Kaka joined Dark Destroyers for a club record fee. In a busy week the big-spending Chieftan also splashed the cash to capture Frankensteins Monster as he rings the changes following his sides alarming season so far. The players both made their debuts this weekend but failed to prevent the club slipping to a 2-1 home defeat against Rising Deck in the first-leg of their Cup-tie. Manager Chieftan - however - was not too despondant after the final whistle. "It was a tough debut for both of them, and they ned a bit more match-practice, but we were more than a match for "Deck" he said. "We also had the lions share of possession, and with it being only half-time we are confident of turning it around next weekend. In the meantime though, we face the Percy Men - again - and we have a score to settle. We were gutted to throw away a two goal lead against them last week but the fact that we play them again so soon gives us an ideal chance to make amends - and we intend to!" The match also provided the answer to a question recently raised by Rising Deck manager Magicmitch. Star midfielder Lionel Todd - clearly irate at his teams surrender of a 2-0 lead - when into an almighty rage (leaving his kit in shreds) - and revealing his true identity - The Incredible Hulk. His anger continued outside and ended with him ripping the head off Jaaba the Hutts agent - Salacious Crumb - an incident which has resulted in Jaaba leaving the club in great distress. Chieftan was not unduly concerned by the incident however. He said " This is the sort of fighting spirit and aggression we are going to need in the coming weeks so hopefully some of it will rub off on the other players". Also can I get a few more econ for having the longest paragraph (1830 characters)?

Wookie Blasts gruelling fixtures

DUAO Manger took time out from training his squad to have yet another attack at recently reinstated League Admin. "The schedule for both Cup and League is far too gruelling and hands the advantage to the bigger clubs we've got back to back matches against the 2 huge teams."

"It's a piss take and another poor example of piss poor performance by the League Admin. That waste of space Mitch Junior has obviously had his fingers up his arse for most of this season doing bollocks all. If he'd have started the Cup earlier, we'd have stood a chance to recuperate from our matches. As it goes now, I hope we get knocked out in the first leg at least then we won't be damaging our league run with player injuries and cards mounting up."

In The Press This Week

"Our lads did a sterling job away against top of LS premier The Right Said Fred Machine, and we are still hopeful of a chance of progression to round 2. It just goes to show that our league is right up there punching pound for pound against the top division. But it's damaged our chances in the League we've got a weakened team and an away game against DBTT in 3 days time. Whichever way I look at it, I'm struggling to see a win against DBTT."

Calling Numb Nuts Mitch

Hey special one (thats what I hear you got called at retard school). How do I view all the cup results? There doesn't seem to be an online table as for the league. Sort it out!!!

Yawn !

The League Admin has slammed DUAO manager 'Wookie' and said "Put up, or shut up!"

- 1) ALL managers were asked as to a preference of one-off cup matches or 2-legged cup matches.
- 2) The Cup had to be played now in order to fit it in before the end of the season
- 3) The Cup gets played EVERY Sunday regardless of when it has started
- 4) NO OTHER managers are complaining
- 5) You wanted a 'Premiership' side
- 6) All good squads can cope with fixtures
- 7) Stop your weaklings getting injured
- 8) Stop your babies getting yellow cards
- 9) Your 4 points clear at the top, throw it away now and you dont deserve to be with the 'BIG' boys
- 10) Youre a 'c*nt'
- 11) Nuff said

PS - If you click on 'CUP' on the left then 'FIXTURES' on the right it will give you the results of the CUP - dont worry, you wont need this after Sunday ;-)

The Cup, A Welcome Distraction

"It was great to give my youngsters and apprentices (the type who can't shuffle a deck or read minds or vanish objects) a run out in the cup away to The Filthy Fucks on Sunday" said an upbeat Rising Deck Maestro 'Ian Mitchell' this afternoon.

'Magic Mitch', clad in a fine silk Smoking Jacket and dabbing droplets of Courvoisier off his waxed upper lip with delicate flicks a monogrammed Edwardian kerchief, gave his fledglings a chance to show the League what his squad has coming up in the ranks at his Alchemist Academy at the Orpheum. "The Cup is about having a strong squad and not being shit scared to use it. There are rumours of tiredness going around from certain teams that are meant to lead us to believe they have only 11 players to pick from but let's be honest, there are no hiding places for these minnows. They will be found wanting when playing managers with their tactics in place and many a game has been won this season in the dressing room before stepping onto the field of play. It's a mind game alright and prepare to be Mindfucked if you haven't done your homework."

The Rising Deck, who face one of their stiffest tests to date away to Egloshayle this Thursday are starting to hit a bit of form but know there is a lot of room still for improvement. "We had a great performance and win at home to them last week but consistency is the key. If we play like we did last week i don't see why we can't come away with at least a draw. My lads are looking forward to it and i'm sure Craig and his team will join us for a nice ice cold can of Top Deck from Stan Brenton's after the game (or a couple if he can get enough refunds off Corona Bottle Deposits and Jew Man Bell coughs up !)

Clouds Part for DUAO Manager

DUAO Manager Wookie took time out from preparing for his away game to DBTT to give us the following report.

"I've been training hard with boys this week and my mood has lifted. I'm seeing some very positive things, I can't say too much so close to the game but I will say that we've got a surprise or two up our sleeves for Phil Jory when we clash on Thursday."

This Takes The Biscuit

Just preparing for the biggest league game todote and this beauty lands in my mail box!

In an attempt to fit in with the lads, Vinnie Steele tells a joke before training. Unfortunately, the joke, which is about a one-legged man, is not at all funny and actually quite offensive, and gets a terrible response. To make matters worse, Vinnie Steele swings at the ball during training and completely misses, causing his team-mates to laugh at him, and even make comparisons with the one-legged man. The outcome is that Vinnie Steele feels embarrassed and doesn't feel part of the team, and his form drops quite a lot.

Just what I friggin need I'm suspecting Junior Mitch's hand involved in this somewhere - perhaps he was advising him on bad jokes??

Decisions, Decisions

Egloshayle Park player-manager Miitchell admits he faces some tough decisions before his return fixture against Rising Deck on Thursday, in a match which he says could make or break the title.

"The Cup was a good chance to try something different and I was pleased with the outcome, but, no offence, it was against a different proposition and what worked on Sunday may not work on Thursday. Lee Bummer Bateman had a great debut and I was pleased with the front 3. But we have to respect the Dick much more. If we are to take steps to retaining the title we have to do something we have never done - and thats beat The Dick."

When asked about DUAO Wookies continual comments he commented "I think its great for the league, it creates banter and magazine content !!!"

In The Press This Week

What beautiful lips

Having read his 7,300,523rd press release, DBTT manager Phil Jory had formed a mental picture of DUAO's manager Wookie and he wasn't disappointed when viewing said managers photo in the recentmost magazine. "Yep, just as I had painted his face (an image Tony Hart would have been proud of) in my mind, there he was larger than life. Mind you, never had I seen such a fine pair of damp lips - well not since munching on the carpet the previous night". In response to Wookies gripe re: players losing form, Jory added. "It happens to us all, my striker James Hooper is embarrassed to play due to the recent hair loss he has suffered! Furthermore, all of my players are showing a dip in form, so much so that the 1-0 defeat at The Perry Men was respectable."

"Well we are the under dogs entering this game and we've got nothing to prove. My boys did their work last weekend and gave us 2 away goals. It's unfortunate I've got some key players missing for the game, but I've got supporters who have paid to see a game and I won't let them down...win or lose. Who knows, with a bit of luck we might just be giant killers by Sunday Afternoon. Our supporters have never let us down at Wookie Hole before, it's an intimidating place for any team, and I can smell the fear of the reds from here!"

"As for last week's defeat away to DBTT, I'm a bit disappointed. I thought we had the best of the game and deserved to walk away with at least a draw. But Jory's luck won't last for sure, he's got a tough run in towards the end of the season. Other teams may think they have a sniff of the title now, but they will have to fight it out for second place. We're still one point clear, that defeat hasn't made things any easier but I'm confident we can cruise through to the end of the season."

DUAO Reflect on Tough Week

Our reporter caught up with DUAO Manager Wookie for his thoughts before the second leg of the Cup game against the Mighty Reds.

Well there you have it, this week's defeat has done nothing to temper Wookie's ego and he still thinks he's in with a half chance against the reds

Missing

Lewd Lewis mgr Frankie Davies is back from a mysterious absence (he hasn't been seen for over 3 weeks). Club sources are giving nothing away and Frankie is refusing to speak to reporters camped outside his house. The league admin has been involved and is understood to have threatened Frankie with expulsion from the league. The club spokemen was unavailable for comment. Supporters are hoping for a miracle in the coming games but nothing is certain down at the dripping pan.

Down Under And Out Unveil New Identity

Love him or loathe him, you have to give DUAO manager Wookie his credit.

The Icub unveiled a new look recently. A new kit coupled with a new club badge. Is he preparing for life in the Premiership next season???

Four Of Each

Amazingly enough there is an equal presence from both divisions in to the Quarter Finals of The League Supreme Cup (Draw to be made imminently).

The shock came at Palmy North where Division One leaders beat premiership leaders The Red Machine. After an impressive 2-2 draw at the Cauldron last week Wookies men followed up with a hard fought 1-0 win to progress to the last eight.

Sexual Ealing made a brave effort at The Den where they managed to equal 3 past Hell Hounds but ended up going out thanks to the Hello Hounds 1-0 victory in the first leg.

Elsewhere cup holders DBTT edged past premiership opposition The Perrymen in an 8-6 penalty shoot out thriller.

The Rising Deck had little trouble disposing of Dark Destroyers as did Egloshayle Park over Rush Green.

Lewd Lewes FC also sneaked past Earls Courtinas in a penalty shoot out. Both managerless clubs are unsurprisingly out at this stage. FC Wazzy beating The Irons 7-1 on aggregate and Westcountry Wanderers embarrassing Dynamo Des 11-1 on aggregate.

Its tight at the top with the top two looking to go head to head. Its a little more spaced at the bottom but if bottom placed Rush Green are to survive the drop then Trevor Isles' side must catch the teams around them. They will need to beat 3rd from bottom Westcountry Wanderers to give themselves a real belief of The Great Escape !!
