DUAO Come From Behind To Beat The Perry Men

Temple Town Knock Five Past Rush Green

What Have The Formula One Babes Forgotten?

Season FOUR of the League Supreme kicks off with 8 winners, 8 losers and no-one drawing !!

Nice Ones Errol

Super-Sub Errol Stephens came off the bench to score twice and inspire DUAO

Down Under And Out	3
The Perry Men	1

Possession: 58 - 42 (60-40)
Chances: 8 - 3 (4-2)

Super-Sub Errol Stephens came off the bench to score twice and inspire Down Under And Out to all three points at Palmy North. Things seemed to be going well for The Perry men when Patricio Salvador set up striking partner Lineker to give the visitors a 1-0 lead.

Things seemed to be going from bad to worse for DUAO when Sam Aiston sent off injured after 22 minutes. But it proved to be a blessing in disguise as substitute Errol Stephens proved to be the eventual match winner. Just 2 minutes after coming in he headed in an equaliser for the home side to ensure the sides went in at half time on level terms.

Just 5 minutes into the second half Stephens made it 2-1 when he found room in the penalty area. A mere 2 minutes later and it was all over for Fletchs men as Andy Blackmoor made it 3 to give DUAO all three points.

A Perry Poor Start to the Season

There was no real shocks in the premiership on the first day of the season with the top four last year all getting off to winning starts. The Perry Men team captain, Narciso Campelo, spoke to reporters after the game about their loss against DUAO. 'We felt it was a disappointing start to the season. Some of the players were a bit tired after the gaffer had us travelling back and forth, here and there, when I think some of the lads just needed a bit of rest and relaxation. Having said that, I don't want to make too many excuses. Their midfield outplayed us and they dominated possession. The real turning point came when their forward got injured as the substitute came on and instantly turned the game round. There was no coming back for us.' The Perry Men now face another difficult away game against Season 2 champions, Red Machine FC.

LS Premiership reports and reaction

Diddy Men Come Unstuck

Ken Dodd lookalike MC McFletch and his Diddymen were on the wrong side of a 3-1 drubbing at Wookie Hole. DUAO's pre-season record had been far from great, but they managed to find their winnings ways when it counted. However with a predominantly geriatric team, Wookie has one chance for a shot at glory before turning his back on the bright lights of success and trudging down the long and painful road of squad rebuilding.

Park Destroy Destroyers

Egloshayle Park FC	4
The Dark Destroyers	0

Possession: 57 - 43 (51-49)
Chances: 7 - 0 (5-0)

Everything seemed to go right for Egloshayle Park on the opening day as they smashed 4 past previous bogey side Dark Destroyers with no reply.

New signing Diddy Hamilton opened the scoring with a long range effort after 12 minutes. Just 20 minutes into the match and Park had made it 2-0 when Paul Rowe headered in a Kinglsey Rickard cross.

It was practically all over for The Destroyers on 26 minutes when club captain Anders Svensson made it 3-0 to Park from the penalty spot. Just 8 minutes onto the second half Destroyers misery was complete as Gary Burtenshaw made it 4 with a well placed header.

Great Start

Egloshayle boss Mitchell was full of praise for his side as they played their 'nightmare opponents' Dark Destroyers and managed all 3 points with an impressive 4-0 win.

"They beat us twice at home last season so to sit here and say we are already 3 points up on last season is a great start. It could mean the difference between winning the league or not, or relegation or not. Its only one game, but all I ask from my team is that we perform better than last season. The lads have responded well and to have 6 players in the Xpert11 team of the week, considering the company, is testament to how hard we have trained. I am also pleased for Diddy, scoring just 15 minutes into his league debut" said a jubilant Mitchell.

Champs Leave Wanderers Wandering

The Rising Deck	2
Westcountry Wanderers	1

Possession: 52 - 48 (52-48)
Chances: 3 - 6 (2-2)

A late goal from superstar Cliff Hedger proved too little too late as Champs continue where they left off.

Rising Deck started strongly and broke the deadlock in the 15th minute when Andrew Mayne crossed for David Copperfield to head home. Wanderers keeper Collinge went off injured 10 minutes later and four minutes from the break Robert Houdins clever free-kick flew straight past the substitute keeper Simon Stott.

Wanderers continued to battle and managed to find the net when Hedger scored in the dying minutes. It was a difficult opening fixture for Wanderers but the Deck were simply too strong.

'Magic' Close Up & Personal

The Ace Of Spades himself, AKA 'Rising Deck' Player/Manager/Plentitudes of Brasso Carrier 'Ian Mitchell' has given us a quick review of the past 4 days:

'Well i've sunk quarts of Courvoisier, leathered the undercarriages of several women, given mystical illusions to hundreds.....oh you mean football....sorry....ok then

We were very pleased and a little relieved with our opening day victory against The Westcountry Wanderers. Without playing any friendlies it was our 1st competitive match for a while and admittedly we were a little rusty in creating chances.

On the positive side we stuck 2 of our 3 chances away which is a good ratio, in fact it's 66.666666 (recurring if you do your maths or if you're American if you have 'Majored in Math')

Credit goes to Hewey whose well disciplined side (on the pitch that is, as off it they managed to put away a Magnum of the finest Brandy !) probably deserved a point.

On that showing it shows he's not back in the top flight just to make up the numbers and i'm sure another winning streak will befall his team soon.

Today we managed a 2-2 draw as i decided a friendly against 'mi amigo' Senor Paul Warren was needed for my fringe players (not those with a straight hairline cut to the brim of their eyebrows but those putting pressure on the starting 11 to buck up)

This Thursday brings the owner of a very finely haired upper lip, noneother than last years Div 1 Winner Mark 'EggNog' Eggins and as his opening match shows he certainly means business and we need to dramatically up our game to get anything out of it.

My club scout and close friend Vera Goodlay has been keeping an eye on the team and Head Chef 'X. O. Vereasy' has radically overhauled our pre match meal to hopefully boost our stamina for the forthcoming games. Thats all for now fellow managers Pleasures mine as always Magic

Machine Leave It Late

Wellington Wanderers	0
Red Machine	1

Possession: 49 - 51 (47-53)
Chances: 7 - 4 (3-2)

Premiership newcomers Wellington Wanderers were desperately unlucky not to gain a point from one of the big three when Neill Whytes 88th minute freekick broke the Welling Streets faithfuls hearts. Machine enjoyed the slight majority of the play in both halves but it was the Wellington that created the better of the chances.

Although Wellington can draw confidence from their performance it was the fitness and experience of Red Machine that showed through in the end as they claims all 3 points with Whytes late free-kick

Missed Chances

Wellington's manager was left to rue on a series of missed opportunities against the Red Machine. We tested their goalkeeper on numerous occasions, however our players were just not sharp enough when it mattered.

With the match at 0-0 nearing the 90 minute mark the Wanderers looked like they were going to settle for a draw. Then the Red Machine struck their killer blow, this left Eggmofo furious with his players. "To survive in this league we're going to have to give it our all!" said a disappointed manager.

Temple Towns First Half Blitz

Fredrico Abascal scored Wazzy's second after 20 minutes when his long range effort found the target.

When is the next training session??

That was the question from the boy at FC Wazzy after a confining performance at the 'Back Garden' on the first day of the season. Two goals scored and a clean sheet was exactly what boss Paul Warren asked for as they opened the season in a manner that will make all the other managers in the league think hard about their tactics in future fixtures.

Back to school

The FC Wazzy press officer, Wordsworth Reading, has been presented with a dictionary and sent to evening classes to learn to spell due his error after this season's opener. The 'Gardener's boss was not 'conVincED' by Wordsworth's abilities having seen his use of an F instead of a V but says that it could be in his genes, which is a coincidence as he is a member of DNA (National Dislexia Society)

Fair Result

TB was not to downbeat after a loss to what looks like one of the strongest teams in the division. To not get on the score sheet was a disappointment but the new boys showed some flare and the next match will be a very different story. Stats show that the Blues were not out of the game by any stretch and for a new squad TB was confident the new additions to the team will show their real form as the season progresses.

Corrigan Comes From Behind

Sexual Ealing FC	3
Down By The Trent	1

Possession: 50 - 50 (52-48)
Chances: 7 - 2 (0-1)

A rejuvenated Sexual Ealing came from 1-0 down to win 3-1 with all their goals coming in the last half an hour.

In an evenly contested first half it was the visitors Down By The Trent that eventually opened the scoring when Zacharias Barkworths long range effort flew past Bruce Dickinson just five minutes from the break.

Temple Town	5
Rush Green	1

Possession: 51 - 49 (59-41)
Chances: 9 - 4 (8-3)

The Birchfield faithful were treated to 5 goals in the first half from their beloved Temple Town as they proved too much for Rush Green.

Colin Hawtin opened the scoring after 7 minutes when he headed in a Basil Watson corner. Six minutes later and it was 2-0, Franklin Leaver extending the lead. Four minutes later and Rush Green threatened to make a fight of it when Widar Kirkesaeters long range effort made it 2-1.

Rush Greens revival, however, was short lived as 4 minutes later Colin Hawtin grabbed his second and Temple Towns 3rd with a header. The scoring never stopped as 3 minutes after that Hayden Rowsons long range effort found the net and amazingly, Basil Watson got Towns 5th with 10 minutes of the first half remaining.

There was little to report in the second half in comparison but by then the damage had been done and Temple Town have made nearly the perfect start to their season four campaign, if it wasn't for Town defender Alfred Tyack becoming the leagues first red card casualty ten minutes from time.

Temple Town

Well done TT starting with a comfortable victory at home to Thrush Green. TT manager when interviewed after the game remarked that the magazine published recently appeared to have the same person on two pictures, he accepts they are brothers but resemblance was remarkable. Looking forward to the new season TT's hardest game is next week away at Hell Hounds.

Premiership Experience The Deciding Factor

FC Wazzy	2

Two first half goals from FC Wazzy was enough to ensure Paul Warrens side got their promotion campaign off to the perfect start against the Leagues new boys.

It took FC Wazzy a mere 3 minutes to let Super Blues know just how tough the season is going to be. Randy Alford scoring from a Libih corner.

Temple Towns Colin Hawtin grabbed his second and Temple Towns 3rd with a header.

LS Division 1 reports and reaction

Ealing came out firing on all cylinders in the second half and player-manager himself Paul Corrigan started the fightback on 63 minutes. Fifteen minutes from time Angus Young made it 2-1 to the home side. With Trent looking for an equaliser it was Ealing who capitalised when Eddie van Halen headed in an Angus Young cross 3 minutes into injury time

As Expected.....

.....the sexual spanking was employed by the Ealingites in last Thursdays' first offering of the campaign. "It was a good run out for our lads however and we can take a lot of positives from it" was the usual football cliched ballshit that this time was spurted from manager Jory who seemed pre-occupied (rather pissed off) at Forest's demise to Notts County and the mighty SVEN

Essex Wound The Hounds

Essex Wanderers	4
Hell Hounds	2

Possession: 53 - 47 (57-43)
Chances: 8 - 7 (4-7)

Alfie Horridge netted twice for the home side as they exploited the Hounds inexperience in this 6-goal thriller.

Essex opened the scoring on 19 minutes with Morris Swan finding the net. Jude Attenborough replied for the visitors on 38 minutes. It looked as though the young visitors would nick something when Norman Buchanans long range effort put Hounds 2-1 up but almost immediately Essex equalised through Alfie Horridge.

It was after 72 minutes when scoring resumed when Alfie Horridge scored his second much to the Hounds bemusement. But it wasn't until the dying minutes when the game was wrapped up. Ernest Newton completed the scoring and sealed the points for Essex when his shot made it 4-2 with a minute left on the clock.

Strong Start

Essex Wanderers manager was very pleased to have beaten one of the favoured teams for promotion and hopes this form can continue for the rest of the season and there is no repeat of the dip in form that cost them so dearly last season!

F1 Babes

This week instead of 'Footie Babes' we have 'F1 Babes' Im sure you all wont complain. PS - Ever get the feeling youve gone out and forgotten something? ;-)

In The Press This Week

I'M BACK !!!

'I,M BACK !!!'

You've waited very patiently so thoroughly deserve another season of banter from So lock up your daughters and put your abestos pants on coz i'm coming at ya (cleopatra) and i'm bringing my mammoth prick along for the ride through Season 4 Avenue'

That was the 1st words from none other than 'Rising Deck' Player/Manager/Press Upsetter/ Record Breaker MMMMMagic Mitch upon putting himself back in the hot seat for another season of thrills, spills, tears and erections (his being the hugest and most admired).

Mitch has spent the last few weeks signing copies of his Press Release Journal of Season 3 entitled 'The Beast Of Bodmin Moor & other Tales of my Penis' up and down the country to hordes (and whores) of fans as well as his extraordinary run of bookings to see his sleight of gland at many a wedding.'Yes the magazine is 100% correct in that i've played no friendlies or made any movement into the transfer market. If it ain't broke then keep your filthy fucking hands off it is what i say.

We've taken on a few new faces in the backroom staff this season with Wade Downlow employed to take charge of the undersoil heating , Otto Mattick named as the new team coach driver and Mrs. Gil T. S. Charged the new Lawyer.

The Orpheum is a sellout tomorrow as usual and we give a fond welcome to Hewey back into the Premiership as we entertain him in our 1st game. Unfortunately for us The Westcountry Wanderers are officially our nightmare opponent so we will naturally be taking them very seriously. No doubt after the game Mr. Hewitt will join me in the drawing room for a large Courvoisier, who we are proud to have sponsor us again this season. Is the hunger still there ? i've been asked by the press after the record breaking points total of last season .

Well the answer is yes as i think this could be the toughest season yet and as has been said before anyone is capable of lifting the trophy and i'll be doing my best to be the 1st to retain it !'

Good Luck to all.
Yours always Magic

“Let the Games Begin...”

... said Destroyers Head Coach Chieftan on the eve of the new keenly-awaited Season Four. I have been very busy during the break taking the suad on rigouroys training sessions - including running up and down Brown Willy and taking part in the Great Penard half-marathon. I have also been scouting for players and selling the odd tin of furniss biscuits in my spare time. Like others have already said - its going to be a very tough season - the three previous seasons have all produced different champions so who knows where the title will end up next? Everyone is capable of beating everyone else and I expect the promoted teams to spring some surprises as well - a la DUAO. We kick off against Egg-lost-in-hell Park and we then face the other three of the four teams who finished above us last season in our next games so we couldn't ask for a tougher start but thats the way we prefer it. Hit em hard and early! Good Luck all and let battle commence.

Seasons Greetings

'It was good to see that League Admin are taking season 4 a bit more seriously this time. A fine first magazine provides an insight into each of teams strengths and weaknesses. Despite Shirley Temple's complaints I thought it was a job well done and let's hope the admin team have their pencils sharpened for the weeks to come' These were the infinitely wise words of The Perry Men's manager as he put the players through their final training session before the big first game. McFletch then turned his attention to tactics against DUAO, 'We'll be hoping to dominate their aging midfield while stifling their attack. At the other end we'll have to hope our strikers can put something past their new keeper. Whatever happens we're hoping for an open fair game and we wish the best of luck to all fellow managers in their respective games, accept Wookie who we hope has a lousy start to the season'

New Life For The Hounds?

Ten games without a win and 38,500,000 econ spent on players since he took over, Matt

Rose is under massive pressure this season to pull the Hounds together and make something happen. We court up to him for a few words after there first game of the season.

'When I was appointed manager of Hell Hounds I asked for the fans patience because I would be building a team for the future, so far they have given me that. I do understand why the cracks are starting to show in there faith for me but we are almost there. The Hounds are now worth twice as much as any other club in the League Supreme and will outlive any other club by a long way'.

'The Hounds do have the skill and teamwork all we are missing is experience and this will come over time.... however, to help fill in the gap until then I have bout in Patrick Koob a well known and respected goalkeeper. With him to help gide the players more on the pitch I do feel this will help us reach or goal that much sooner'.

Hounds Take Victory

The Hounds ten game drought ended today with a away win ageist Perry Men. It may have only been a friendly but the relief on all the faces players and fans alike was more then apparent.

Could this be a change of times for the Hounds, could they at last have all the right ingredients coming together or will it be back to business as usual against Temple Town on Thursday?

Perry Men hounded at home

McFletch shrugged off the home defeat against the Hounds explaining, 'This game was hastily arranged to give some of our key players some match practice and to keep the fringe players in shape. I told the lads to take it easy as we didn't want any injuries before the league game against the Machine. Obviously the result reflects this.' Sounds like more excuses from McFletch, but if results don't improve it's only a matter of time before the fans turn on this wise young manager and deep down he'll know that.

Farewell Rush Green - Welcome Irish Raiders

The League Supreme has already had its first managerial casualty a mere week into the season. Unfortunately it is with regret that one of the league founder members 'Rush Green' and manager Trevor Isles have departed. The league would like to thank them for the efforts in previous seasons but the league has now generated interest from keen managers willing to take the helm.

The League would like to welcome Alan Garihy who will take over the squad of Rush Green in its new identity of 'Irish Raiders'. Along with Matt Rose of The Hell Hounds it is with personal pleasure that I welcome Alan as they were the people who originally offered me the opportunity of Xpert11 management experience.

"Alan comes to the league with a difficult task' said a league spokesman. 'We needed a dedicated manager who is willing to work with what he has and although we are one (lost) game into the season Alan is the right man for the job. He is dedicated and will also offer his views on the press-boards. We are now getting to a full-compliment of dedicated managers, which can only be great news for the League Supreme' concluded the spokesman.

Young Star Striker Scores

This morning Morris Swan was told he is soon going to be a father. This was not expected but however understandable considering what a promiscuous lifestyle he has led lately. Fortunately he has now promised to put his life in order and he will play with more confidence from now on.

Why Two Games? Simple. With weeks ones winners all staying apart for the second week in a row its important a 6-point gap between top and bottom half doesnt materialise. Certainly, its possible for all of weeks ones losers to win their second match but realistically you have to favour the home sides. Step up Destroyers and Westcountry!

LS Prediction: I fear a 6-point gap already for the top four !!!!
