Kelsey Ball'is' Comeback King

Westcountry Wanderers 2
Egloshayle Park FC 2

Possession: 48 - 52 (40-60)
Chances: 3 - 3 (1-0)

Man Of The Match

Home - James Hitman Heywood
Away - Neil Richards

Kelsey Ballis proved to be the home side hero at The Cove as his late double rescued a point for Westcountry Wanderers.

All started so well for Westcountry when they found the net after only 12 minutes only to find it disallowed. Park, fresh from their opening day victory had the lions share of the first half but failed to muster a chance on goal.

Twelve minutes into the second half and Egloshayle managed to find the breakthrough when skipper Anders Svensson headed in for his second of the season. New signing Diddy Hamilton then scored his second of the season direct from a 61st minute freekick.

When it looked as though Park were going to walk away from the Cove with all 3 points up stepped Kelsey Ballis. He headed in a Don Ashe cross with 4 minutes left to set up a frantic finish. A finish that was rewarded when Ballis completed the fight-back right on the whistle to get the point the home side deserved.

Kelsey Ballis is the hero at The Cove with two late goals to rescue a point

Its Hard To Be Positive

Whilst an away draw in the Premiership is not a result to be sniffed at, Egloshayle boss Mitchell could not hide his disappointment at his sides last 5 minute collapse at The Cove.

"What can I say, they also had a goal disallowed so maybe I should thank my lucky stars we did not lose 3-2. Westcountry are a great in-form side and, personally, I think Mr. Hewitt got his tactics better than mine. But when youre a side looking to win the league and you are 2-0 up with 4 minutes left on the clock you expect to win. At the point we certainly did, and for them to get 2 late goals is a kick in the teeth." said Mitchell.

"But there are positives we can take from the game and lessons to be learned. Tonight we drown our sorrows and tomorrow its back on the training ground to put things right. Congratulations to Hewy, they played for a full 90 minutes and never gave up." He said through gritted teeth !!!

Fred West Is 'Best'

The Dark Destroyers	1
Down Under And Out	0

Possession: 51 - 49 (51-49)
Chances: 2 - 4 (0-0)

Man Of The Match
Home - Frankensteins Monster
Away - Chesley Gellar

After the disappointment of last weeks defeat at Egloshayle, The Dark Destroyers responded well with a hard fought 1-0 win over title-hopefuls Down Under And Out. In an un-eventful first half littered with yellow cards the home side just edged the possession. But it wasnt until 10 minutes into the second half when The Destroyers made their breakthrough. Some good play on the wing by the Devil created an opportunity for Fred West to score, what turned out to be, the match winner.

Down Under And Out applied some pressure in the later stages but The Destroyers held out to clinch all three points.

Stamford Steals 'Kings' Crown

The Red Machine	2
The Perrymen	1

Possession: 58 - 42 (55-45)
Chances: 5 - 6 (1-3)

Man Of The Match
Home Neal Stamford
Away Ledley King

Although Red Machine had more of the play in the first half it was the visiting Perrymen who created the better of the chances and will kick themselves for not taking the lead. As it turned out it was The Red Machine that made the all-important breakthrough when Warren Bonham shot found the net after Neal Stamfords corner.

The Perrymen responded well after half-time and got their rewards when Lineker headed in to equalise. But this then spurred the home side into upping the tempo and the home sides man-of-the-match Stamford then turned from provider into match winner when he headed in the winner after 79 minutes.

All Three Points Is The Mayne Thing

The Rising Deck	1
Wellington Wanderers	0

Possession: 57 - 43 (64-36)
Chances: 7 - 0 (4-0)

Man Of The Match
Home - Robert Houdin
Away - Doug Barrowcliff

Although on possession and chances the champions deserved their victory it was not until the 90th minute when they eventually got their three points.

The first half was dominated by the Deck having two thirds of the play and numerous chances including a disallowed goal but they were unable to make the breakthrough.

The Deck continued in the second half where they left off but the Premiership new boys defended well and were nearly in dream-land when, just 10 minutes from time they found the net, only for the referee to this time disallow the visitors premature celebrations.

When it looked as though Wellington had done enough, up popped Andrew Mayne and his long-range effort broke the visitors hearts and made it two out of two for the champions.

Hard to Find Positives

Wellingtons Manager was disappointed with his team as they failed to create a single chance against The Rising Deck. Even though the match finished 1-0, Eggmofo berated his men for standing around in awe of last seasons champions. Interviewed after the match he commented that Wellington can only look forward now and try and concentrate on a vital game against Westcountry Wanderers.

Reeves Leaves Trent A Hero

Down By The Trent	1
Irish Raiders	2

Possession: 46 - 54 (51-49)
Chances: 3 - 9 (1-3)

Man Of The Match

Home - Mikey Grainger
Away - Marshall Bushell

New boss Alan Garrihy got off to the perfect start for what used to be Rush Green. Irish Raiders came from behind against last season premiership opposition in Down By The Trent.

It took the home side 19 minutes to open the scoring when Ronnie Bergmann found the net after being put through by Darren Melton. Raiders, however, did match the home side in possession but created more chances.

The Raiders came out the better side in the second half and just 20 minutes from time got their deserved equaliser when Les Pardoe shot in the penalty area.

When it looked as though the match was heading for a draw which would have been a good start for the new boss the unthinkable happened. Sol Reeves broke-away to grab all 3 points for his new boss and leave DBTT pointless at the foot of the league.

The Irish have landed!

Irish Raiders today sounded their intent under new manager Alan Garrihy needing a late goal to grab a 2-1 win.

"I am delighted with the result today. To come in and get this first result and away from home is brilliant. We will not get carried away though as I can see we are lacking alot of experience and this will show in later games. We will take what we can from every game and I will get the best from the players. That was proven today when i was awarded manager of the round and shows that I mean business here and I am going to bring success to this team in the coming years."

Next up for the Raiders will be Hell Hounds and both managers have some history in other leagues and this should be an interesting game.

Another Defeat

DBTT's dismal run continued with a loss at home to the raiding Paddys with manager Jory pointing at underfoot conditions being the root of the problem. "We just can't seem to cope with these muddy pitches and the present meteorological elements." Misunderstanding a question regarding a possible roof over their stadium Jory added "no, our tea lady Ruth will never close her flaps."

Page Maintains Wazzys Winning Start

FC Wazzy	3
Sexual Ealing FC	1

Possession: 50 - 50 (53-47)
Chances: 9 - 2 (5-1)

Man Of The Match
Home - Terrence Crooks
Away - Paul Corrigan

Something had to give in this match of opening day winners at the Back Garden, and once again it was the premiership experience of FC Wazzy that proved too much.

It all started well for Sexual Ealing when the away sides man-of-the-match Paul Corrigan grabbed his second in as many games after just 9 minutes. But after that it was all FC Wazzy.

After 36 minutes Filimon Timisescu found himself clear of the Ealing defence to grab the equaliser and send the sides in at the interval 1-1.

It wasn't until the hour when FC Wazzy got their noses in front. Ethan Page finished off a fine set piece free-kick. Page then made sure of the victory on 84 minutes to grab his second and to maintain Wazzys 100% record with a 3-1 home win.

Keep 'em coming!

"2 games. 2 wins. 5 goals for. 1 goal against. 10 xpert 11 entries out of 22 in 2 weeks. Not a bad start to the season" said Wazzy boss Paul Warren after his team dominated their second match of the season.

"Next for us on our training schedule is a visit from the Irish Raiders. Top of the league to you!!"

Tractorboys Let Three Points Slip

SuperBlues	2
Essex Wanderers	2

Possession: 51 - 49 (51-49)
Chances: 5 - 7 (3-1)

Man Of The Match
Home - Franklin Burchell
Away - Alfie Horridge

New boys SuperBlues are off the mark for this season but will be kicking themselves for letting all 3 points slip by after being 2-0 up.

The Tractor Boys had the better of the first half and were rewarded when Wade Gelsthorpe caught Essex Wanderers napping for the opener.

Essex Wanderers responded well in the second half but found themselves 2-0 down just before the hour, Gelsthorpe bagging his and his sides second direct from a free-kick.

The 2-0 lead barely lasted 10 minutes when Ernest Newton gave the away side a lifeline after 66 minutes. The comeback was complete with just 10 minutes remaining when Harold Sully headed in the equaliser which keeps Bulleys side second and deny Darren Rice's side his first league win.

Both managers had to be pulled apart at the tunnel when a war-of words erupted regarding tactics. Bring on the return fixture.

Good Debut - Must keep it up!

New youngster Harold Sully was given a debut by Essex Wanderers manager, and what a debut! The trick is now for him to show that he can be consistent and continue to play at this level.

Super Blues Disappoint

Essex Wanderers manager was disappointed by the tactics used by the Super Blues, but not surprised facing a much superior opposition packing the midfield was there only chance of getting anything out of the match!

However he was pleased with how his team adapted to produce a well deserved draw!

Bulley Bulley Bullshit!!!

TB was not surprised at the BULLY BULLY BULLSHIT from his Essex rival. 2 v 0 up thanks to new signing Wade Gelsthorpe the so called 'decent team' were more than lucky to claw back a draw. By the looks of the amount of cards it was dirty tactics from the start from Bulley. I don't believe the word tactics is in the Essex boys dictionary, 352 is an attacking formation! Not amused by the Essex lots rant this week!

Wade A Go

Wade Gelsthorpe fired in two goals after coming through some strenuous training sessions. The record signing couldn't have done anymore to impress and the Blues now look to Ozzie to also pick up his form.

Sol Reeves is the hero for Irish Raiders

LS Division 1 reports and reaction

A new youngster has emerged through the ranks to add to the midfield and TB is now on the hunt for a keeper to tighten up the back. Already one of the youngest sides in the league a little experience may also be needed in this very tough division.

As has already been shown if the players aren't prepared to put in 110% they will be out on their arse!

Thore Thode The Third

Hell Hounds	2
Temple Town	0

Possession: 43 - 57 (46-54)

Chances: 5 - 2 (5-1)

Man Of The Match

Home - Jude Attenborough

Away - Hayden Rowson

In a fiery match littered with cards and injuries it was the youthful set-up of Hell Hounds that got their 1st league win of the season under their belt against promotion rivals Temple Town.

Although the away side enjoyed the lions share of possession it was the home side which created the most chances. The Hounds were ahead when "Thore Thode in the third" (try saying that quickly three times in a row) minute opened the scoring. The game was effectively over after 34 minutes when Thode got his and his sides second.

Town pressed for a foot hold in the game but created little at The Den and Matt Roses side are now off the mark and looking strong.

Temple Town Jitters

The mighty Temple Town were brought down to earth today in a tight game where although TT had considerably more possession they couldn't capitalise on it and left Hell Hounds with their heads hung low.

'Very disappointing indeed, we knew this was the toughest game of the season but we didn't turn up. Back to basics I'm afraid and form training. Not happy at all, but we did think they would be our problematic team.'

Hounds Start The Push

After only breaking their ten game losing streak in the last match once again the Hounds take victory but this time over the much acclaimed Temple Town.

'Its early to get over excited but to win two in a row after not winning any for so long does put the vibe and belief back into the team'.

COME ON THE HOUNDS!

Farewell Rush Green - Welcome Irish Raiders

Irish Raiders Unveil new Manager

Alan Garrihy was today at the Emerald Isle stadium to meet his squad of players for the first time since being installed as the new manager.

"I do not like insulting other managers but what was the last manager of this team at? He has left me with a broken machine that will need a lot of care and attention to mend all its parts. The squad was all over the place. Only 4 players had a + in the change report at the end of last season. I have already sacked one player and there may be more to follow and I have brought in 2 good young players and am looking for 1 more in midfield for the coming season. I do not know where we are going to be come the end of the season but we can only get better from here on. The plan for now is to get everybody match fit and I am going to take the team to Amsterdam for a bit of team bondage in a few days."

That's all the manager had to say for now before his first game in charge against Down by the Trent tomorrow at 16:00.

Concerns For Mitchell's Oval Ball

As preparation for Egloshayle Park's next game against Westcountry Wanderers. Manager C.Mitchell arrived in the

In The Press This Week

Westcountry to carry about a bit of pre-match scouting. His residence for the duration of his stay was with fellow arch rival manager Rob Couch, who kindly offered the maids quarter in two-up, two-down mansion in the heart of the Cornwall countryside.

Couch commented on Mitchell's visit.

"He was a nightmare of a guest. My Moroccan maid complained to me that he was rude and arrogant. But what concerned me the most, was that when he went to his scouting mission, he turned up at the local rugby club!?!? Which begs the question, which shape ball game does Mitchell actually prefer - no doubt we'll find out when my maid spills all to me"

Bra Cups'n'Hairy Balls

We've 'Riffle Shuffled' the deck and cut deep into it and turned over to reveal The Ace Of Spades Magic Mitch himself and he's going to give us some of his thoughts, the clean ones only though!

"Wellington Wanderers did prove difficult to break down but time running out and chances 7 to nil in our favour Mr Mayne (that's Andrew NOT Royston !) gave us a hard earned win. We knew that despite being home in our opening 2 games we were facing maybe the two teams with the best current form who came up to the Premier on the back of outstanding runs of results so to pick up 6 points makes our members stand proudly erect.

Next up is a team who have taken points of us on many occasions in the past and whose manager, the one and only McFletch, will be wanting to put a swift end to his uncertain start to this campaign.

Our team will be jetting off to Spain on our annual tour of the Country next weekend and our foreign promoters 'Faustino VII' have lined up a busy 2 weeks with various Super Mercado openings and a friendlies against Elche and Murcia so our concentration must not dwindle in our attempts to continue our good run to the season.

Our overseas scout 'Chet Lagg' will take over our training abroad for the first time and we wish him well with that.

Rumour has it that Smeg Mess Tail manager Craig Manager has booked his team into the same training resort at the same time have yet to be confirmed or denied by the Mitchell to be found most wanting in the Pant department. Be seeing ya Magic ;)

A Warning Sign?

The Super Blues look to be gelling after a convincing 1 v 4 win away at the premier leaders. A combination of new signings and youngsters took the Reds apart. TB was not getting too carried away and was sure the Reds put out his out of form players but the result has shown the team is coming together.

Park Concerns Over Decks Foreign Trip

News has filtered from Egloshayle Park that there are concerns that The Rising Deck have, indeed, booked into the same traing complex as Park. Egloshayle thought they could escape from hustle and bustle of city life for climate training and extensive work on new tactics from foreign lands. They are said to be 'concerned' that the champions and mind-fucks have booked into the SAME complex at the SAME time.

"I have asked security to be vigilant with spectators and not to look them in the eye" said a club spokesman. "We will not tolerate any Xpert11 clubs spying tactics"

The League Supreme To Go European?

In a bid to market The League Surpeme to the European community Egloshayle Park will offer to surrender home advantage in the 20th August fixture against The Rising Deck and ask if they wish to play the fixture in Southern Spain.

Park will also ask The League Administration for permission to play the fixture on a neutral ground. In a move reminiscant of the NFL selling its brand to a European market when the Miami Dolphins came to Wembley to play, Park look to follow suit.

"We do not know why The Deck are sharing the same complex as us but as we are both over there we may as well make the best of it" said an Egloshayle spokesman.

Spending Finished

Irish Raiders have now finished spending their millions for the season and are looking forward to the rest of the season.

"I am so happy with the reply from the players at the moment and although it was a friendly a 3-0 home win from the boys was a great result against the Hell Hounds and it puts out a message of intent to the rest of the division. Again we are not going to get carried away but we are on a high"

Turf

Super Blues has been named enviromental club of the year mostly thanks to the hardworking groundsman. The Tractors rise again! We love to keep the pitch in order, we pride ourselves on the quality turf! Shame there is such shite to come and play against us most weeks!

This Weeks FREE Cut-Out

With the new football season now upon us it is important for men of the world (or at least this country) to lay down some ground rules for our other halves during the season. These set of rules were originally circulated for World Cups etc. but can easily be used for the football season.

Please 'cut-out-and-keep' the rules listed below and stick on your fridge for the coming season !!!

New Season Rules

1. From 8th August until the end of May, you should read the sport pages so you are aware of what's going on regarding the football season and will be able to join in conversations.
If you fail to do this, you'll be looked at in a bad way or be totally ignored. DO NOT complain about not receiving any attention.
2. During the season the television is mine, mine, mine at all times - without any exceptions.
3. I don't mind if you have to pass by in front of the TV during a game - as long as you do it crawling on the floor and without distracting me.
If you decide to stand naked in front of the TV, make sure you put clothes on right after because if you catch a cold, I won't have time to take you to the doctor or look after you during the season.
4. During the games I will be blind, deaf and mute - unless I require a refill of my drink or something to eat.
You are out of your mind if you expect me to listen to you, open the door, answer the telephone, or pick up the baby that just fell from the second floor....it won't happen.
5. It would be a good idea for you to keep at least two six packs in the fridge at all times, as well as plenty of things to nibble on.
And please do not make any funny faces to my friends when they come over to watch the games. In return, you will be allowed to use the TV between 12am and 6am, unless they replay a good game that I missed during the day.
6. Please, please, please if you see me upset because one of my teams is losing, DO NOT say "get over it, its only a game" or "don't worry, they'll win next time".
If you say these things, you will only make me angrier and I will love you less. Remember, you will never ever know more about football than me and your so called "words of encouragement" will only lead to a break-up or divorce.
7. You are welcome to sit with me to watch one game and you can talk to me during half-time but only when the adverts are on, and only if the score is pleasing me.
In addition, please note I am saying "one" game, hence do not use Saturdays as a nice cheesy excuse to "spend time together".
8. Most importantly, making love is out of the question during the entire season. It has to be a 'quickie' and that has to be during half-time as well.
9. The replays of the goals are very important. I don't care if I have seen them or I haven't seen them, I want to see them again. Many times.
10. Tell your friends NOT to have any babies, or any other child related parties or gatherings that requires my attendance because:
 - a) I will not go,
 - b) I will not go, and
 - c) I will not go.
11. But, if a friend of mine invites us to his house on a Sunday to watch a game, we will be there in a flash.
12. Match of The Day is on TV every Saturday night. It is just as important as the games themselves. Do not even think about saying "but you have already seen this...why don't you change the channel to something we can all watch?" The reply will be: "Refer to Rule #2 of this list".
Thank you for your cooperation. Regards, Men of the World

Life in the Premiership is hard and teams have to fight for every single point. Normally it is all newly promoted teams seasons priority to simply stay up and survive in the top flight. Last season FC Wazzy went down by a point so this seasons newly promoted teams will be looking for maximum points. Both teams have shown signs that they can compete against the best, but, so far have had little to show for it points-wise. This week will be their chance.

LS Prediction: LS does not like to sit on the fence but we can only see a point a piece.
