Logan Buries Down Under And Out

Down Under And Out 0
The Red Machine 1

Possession: 44 - 56 (38-62)

Chances: 5 - 5 (3-2)

Man Of The Match

Home - Joe Teale

Away - Neal Stamford

The Red Machine are continuing to look on course for lifting the title in October as they ground out a hard-fought 1-0 victory at Palmy

North. As with the rest of the games in the top-flight this week there was nothing to choose between the sides through possession and chances. However it was the experience and professionalism of The Red Machine that just edged the match.

Red Machines first half dominance paid dividends right on half-time as Horace Logan found space in the penalty area to score what proved to be the all important goal just a minute from half-time.

Despite coming back in the second-half, DUAO could not manage an equaliser and Red Machine sit top of the table by two points.

What the %@# $!

A stunned DUAO manger gave the following post match interview after losing 1-0 at home to the Machine.

"Er...that didn't go to plan!"

One Hell Of A Result

After an impressive marginal victory against Red Machine's bogey club DUAO, manager Rob Couch had reason to celebrate over the weekend.

"This is our first victory against DUAO, and it makes it even sweeter that it was in their back yard, the victory takes us to top spot in the league. Hats off to DUAO who again made a great game of it, but got their tactics slightly wrong on the day."

"We have crossed the 100 point line in the all-time standings, and it wasn't quite hand in hand with The Rising Dock, as we now have 101 points, compared to their 100."

"Next up is a tricky away fixture at The Cove against Westcountry Wanderers....I just hope the tide is out."

Red Machine Manager Rob Couch was in celebratory mood after 'eating all the pies'

Lineker Makes Fletch Perry Happy

Westcountry Wanderers	1
The Perrymen	2

Possession: 41 - 59 (41-59)

Chances: 3 - 6 (2-4)

Man Of The Match

Home - James Hitman Heywood

Away - Ledley King

Gary Lineker proved to be The Perrymens hero once more as his two goals gave the visiting side all three points after Wanderers took the lead.

Westcountry Wanderers were quick out the blocks in this match having the majority of the early exchanges. James Hitman Heywood put the home side ahead when he headed in Mexias cross after only a minute played.

It could have been a different story for Wanderers had they held on until half-time but experienced poacher Lineker equalised with just two minutes of the half remaining.

The Perrymen came back well and were probably good money for their win after having the majority of the possession and chances. This was rewarded when Lineker headed in his, and his sides second, twenty minutes from time from a Lawrence corner to grab all three valuable points.

Perry Men Go West for Away Win

The Perry Men were delighted to take a rare away win against premiership strugglers the WestCountry wanderers, 'This was an important result for us but we know we've got a tough fight ahead to stay in this division. We have a lot of young players who need to step up to the mark quickly. We have a few home games now so hopefully the team can pick up some points' said manager McFletch in a rather boring press release.

Anne Important Win

The Dark Destroyers	1
Wellington Wanderers	0

Possession: 55 - 45 (55-45)

Chances: 2 - 1 (2-0)

Man Of The Match

Home - Frankensteins Monster

Away - Linford Harwood

The Destroyers are now up to third in the table with a closely fought win over Premiership new boys Wellington Wanderers.

In a game of very few chances it was the home side who just edged this tightly contested match. What turned out to be the winner was scored in the 8th minute when Anne Robinson shot in the penalty area after good work from Fred West.

There was little else to report in this tight match and The Destroyers now find themselves in a very healthy position.

The Deck Continue To Rise

Egloshayle Park FC	0
The Rising Deck	1

Possession: 50 - 50 (51-49)

Chances: 5 - 4 (1-3)

Man Of The Match

Home - Neil Richards

Away - Uri Geller

The Deck proved once more that they are able to grind out tight results and add to Egloshayles dismal recent run.

Both sides shared equal possession in this match with the home side just edging the chances, however it was the Decks early persistence which proved to me too much. Just seventeen minutes had passed when Park defender Ramsay put past his own keeper in his first start of the campaign.

Deck would have been disappointed if any of Parks second half chances found the target as it was player-manager Ian Mitchell himself who had a goal disallowed in the latter stages. Deck find themselves in second and its three defeats on the trot for Egloshayle.

Heartbreak For Ramsay

Egloshayle lost once again today thanks to an own-goal from youngster Alf Ramsay.

"Im gutted for him and the players once again. We are on a very unlucky run of form at the moment. I think we are pretty much out of the title race and must concentrate on staying up and building for next season." said a disbelieving Park boss.

"Their keeper was man-of-the-match and their defence was amazing. They set up to not concede and they succeeded. Im just gutted for Ramsay, this will make him strong but its a great shame a big match had to be settled by an unfortunate own-goal" said Mitchell.

Deck Reach A Tonne !

A Pleased and very tanned latin lookalike 'Ian Mitchell', Player/Manager/European Ambassador for Xpert11 of The Rising Deck was approached when about to board the private jet back to Blighty and had these kind words for us, enjoy.

"Its nice to end our European Tour with a win over close rivals Egloshayle but im a little disappointed it wasnt more as i personally had a stunning effort disallowed. many of my players were booked in this far from dirty encounter and i think i will appeal for the yellows for calling the ref A Four Eyed freak as he has actually has four sockets protruding from the front of his Mekon like head and resides in Poyatello (freaksville).

To have crossed the 100 point all time points total hand in hand with Red Machine (a little gay !) is a proud moment in our history and we must now look to get a composed run of results in the next couple of months.

We are looking forward to touchdown on Terra Firma in Newquay in a couple of hours and may have further to say after a little rest. " At this point the Leather Long Schlongged Maestro was led gently and seductively up the planes stairway by two scantilly clad Spanish stewardesses, lucky lucky bastard !

P.S. I wish on European Keyboards the FUCKING APOSTROPHE BUTTON was easier to input !!!

Franklin Leavers Trent Feeling Down

Temple Town 3
Down By The Trent 1

Possession: 56 - 44 (57-43)

Chances: 10 - 3 (4-0)

Man Of The Match

Home - Rowley McCafferty

Away - Mikey Grainger

Temple Town stormed to the top of the table after a convincing 3-1 home win against Down By The Trent.

Trent started well at The Birchfield when they scored after 6 minutes only for it to be disallowed. In a fiercely contested match littered with cards and injuries it was Temple Town who were next to feel aggrieved when their 36th minute 'goal' was disallowed. Temple Town did, however, open the scoring two minutes later when Trent defender James Hooper put through his own net. Half-time, 1-0 to the home side.

Hooper then made amends for his earlier error when he netted in the right end when his header gave Trent an equaliser eight minutes into the half.

This seemed to spur the home side forward and Town edged in front on 72 minutes when Rowley McCafferty's long range effort found the target. Nine minutes later (and nine minutes from time) Town made sure of all three points when Franklin Leaver broke away to make it 3-1 to Temple Town and leave Hargreaves top of the table, level on points, but with a huge plus 10 goal difference.

Temple Town Continued Success

Temple Town continue to win and score at ease. Now with a goal difference of plus 10, the team are really pulling together well. Although today could have been a banana skin the team fought through a tough opposition. The score wasn't a true reflection of the game with TT having numerous more chances to seal it. Next week away at the other demoted team FC Wazzy. Then onto the double header, middle of the season with Sexual Ealing.

Looking good, but TT were in a similar position last year and it all slipped away towards the end of the season.

Tangoed

Just woken from my slumbers (haven't drowned my sorrows over the Forest v Watford result!) and caught up on the Temple Town result - could have given them a scare had we not missed the late penalty? Next weeks match is a proper wooden spoon six pointer - mind you, would save having to buy the missus a Christmas present.

Garrihy Makes It Four Out Of Four

SuperBlues 0
Irish Raiders 1

Possession: 41 - 59 (41-59)

Chances: 2 - 4 (0-2)

Man Of The Match

Home - Cal Close

Away - Rowley Milton

Irish Raiders under their new management continue to impress and make it four out of four at SuperBlues expense.

In a ninety minutes of very little action it was the visitors who pushed for the opener but they had to wait until the 66th minute before making their mark. A stunning long range effort from Sheldon Cole proved to be the match winner. SuperBlues pressed for an equaliser but could not break the Raiders' run and find themselves at the foot of the league whilst Raiders have climbed to level top on points.

To say the match between SuperBlues and Raiders had little action was an understatement. This was Blues manager Darren Rice during the second half

LS Division 1 reports and reaction

Irish Strike again

Irish Raiders struck again and sunk the Super Blues in a tight affair. The Irish came out on top again and have now won 4 in 4 under manager Alan Garrihy.

"Where do you go from here, I knew this was going to be a tough game as the players have been looking a bit tired from all the extra work I have been doing with them but I took it easy in training this week. We are now in a position to challenge for promotion and it is going to be hard from here on in. We now have a home tie next against Hell Hounds and I think this is going to be our toughest test yet as this manager knows me well and knows how I play. If we can pull the 3 points from this one we will definately be in the chase from that promotional spot"

Five Goals In Thirty Minutes Lift Hounds

Hell Hounds	4
Sexual Ealing FC	1

Possession: 56 - 44 (61-39)

Chances: 8 - 1 (8-1)

Man Of The Match

Home - Jonatan McGibbon

Away - Angus Young

The youngsters of Hell Hounds continue to keep pace with the leading pack with a convincing 4-1 home win against Sexual Ealing FC.

It was the visitors who opened the scoring when Angus Youngs long range effort found the target after just eight minutes. The Hounds immediately replied, however, when Txanton Gutierrez was put through by Jonatan McGibbon to equalise a minute later. The Gutierrez and McGibbon combination then bared fruit once more a mere two minutes later with Gutierrez heading in to make it 2-1. McGibbon then went from provider to scorer after only eighteen minutes to put the Hell Hounds 3-1 up in the first twenty minutes. Bill Westcroft then made no mistake of all three points just after half an hour when he scored direct from a free-kick.

Ealing had little to offer in the second half and neither side could muster a single chance as the Hounds saw out the match.

Essex Pay The Penalty

Essex Wanderers	1
FC Wazzy	1

Possession: 55 - 45 (53-47)

Chances: 6 - 3 (2-0)

Man Of The Match

Home - Alfie Horridge

Away - Terrence Crooks

It seems as though FC Wazzy's training sessions are over in Division One as Essex hold them to a draw.

It was Essex Wanderers who made the most of an extremely tight and uneventful first-half when Harold Sullys shot in the penalty area found the target as early as the second minute after good work from Otis Hoyte.

Essex started the second half the better side but could not capitalise on their lead. As it happened this proved costly as a 70th minute penalty by Wazzys Filimon Timiescu levelled matters. Either side could have won this match in the final ten minute but both sides had to settle for a point a piece.

I had some space to fill so yes, youve guessed it, an Argentinian trapping a ball and some filthy dirty japs.

In The Press This Week

Freaksville update

After opening a new Discotequa in the remote village of Poyatello in the Sierra de Segura, Andalucia the Rising Deck

Player/Manager/Bottles and bottles (all 750ml) of SunTan Lotion upon his Golden member user 'Ian Mitchell' gave his players licence to dance the early hours away in the village that time forgot.

"The lads have had a hard time preparing in this heat so i thought it was OK to give them some time off to party. I wasn't worried about them getting their end away as the locals are only interested in their own families for breeding purposes.

Because of this though a friendly training game proved tougher than thought as their goalkeeper had four arms and striker had four legs but a brief appearance from me (and my 3rd leg ! yes you know what i mean Senioritas !) gave us a 2-1 win.

A toughie against Egloshayle Park is next and i understand a hasty retreat from Spain has been made by the Blanco Bastardo and his team.

Wellington welcome from Dastardly

"Dirty" Dick Dastardly welcomes Wellington Wanderers to the Theatre of Doom for the first ever league clash between the two and is hoping for more excitement for the home fans to drool over. "They are an unknown quantity, but will no doubt be confident having won their last two games but we will be hoping to create a few more problems for their defence than we have been doing for others in recent weeks. Only last week the gaffer called for more attacking flair after wins from two games in which we created a total of three chances (against our opponents nine) yet "lo and behold" we repeat that form away at champions Rising Deck by creating only one chance (which I fortunately scored from) against their NINE chances (from which they equalised with their final attempt in injury time). No-one can deny that we are having our slices of luck (and devouring them), but we are working very hard as a team and defending solidly, and considering who we have played in those games - the current top two and the "Deck" - we have to be pleased with the progress we are making. But that will count for little if we fail to build on it and we will certainly hope to - starting against WW. Goodbye
Richard Dastardly

DUAO Manager Bares All

This is undoubtedly my toughest seven days in charge of DUAO. I underestimated how much the Machine wanted the win last Thursday and I now find our hopes of taking the title this season hanging by a thread. Next up is Daniels and his dark box of tricks, if we can't pick up points at the Orpheum then our season is over. Last season they did the league double on us, so it's a big ask for the lads. We have to raise our game a few notches and keep ourselves in top four or we'll end up facing a relegation battle like the underachieving Gay Park Boys.

Eggmofo vs Egloshayle

Eggmofo spoke of the importance today of getting some points off the manager that persuaded him to enter the game. After a couple of decent results a 1-0 loss against the Dark Destroyers has kept his team in the relegation dog fight. Now some points against Egloshayle will go a long way for the morale of the Wanderers.
