Benny Great Gets His Willy Out In A Mass Huddle At The Cauldron

Rowley McCafferty Grabs The Winner For Town

One more win this week for Red Machine could see the title heading to The Cauldron. Town back in the race!

Machine edge closer to the title

DUAO's defeat has put Red Machine with one hand on the title but defeats for newly promoted Wellington and Westcountry Wanderers puts them both 5 points adrift at the bottom. Is the gap between the Premiership and Division One widening?

Red Machine FC	2
Westcountry Wanderers	0

The Red Machine took a massive step to winning the League Supreme premiership for a second time and pushed Westcountry Wanderers closer to a return to division one.

The home side dominated the possession and created numerous chances as the gulf between Premiership contenders and relegation battlers was evident.

It took the home side 27 minutes to open the scoring. Geoffrey Finch heading in a Chad Holmshaw cross. However, it was not until 10 minutes from time when the Machine made sure of all three points. Benny Great grabbing his 3rd of the season. With DUAO losing Red Machine have one hand on the title and the other on the self-destruct button.

Diddy'nt Do Well

Wellington Wanderers	0
Egloshayle Park FC	2

Egloshayle have now won their last four in the league and, after a disappointing start have climbed to third beating Wellington Wanderers 2-0 and pushing them closer to a return to Division One.

The home side had the better of possession and even created their fair share of chances but could not convert these into goals.

Both goals came from pre-season signing Diddy Hamilton as he notched his 5th and 6th goals of the season. His first was a trademark freekick on 33 minutes. Matt Oakley then set up Diddy for his second 10 minutes into the second half to give Park an outside chance to put pressure at the top, but more realistically this match will have more of a bearing at the bottom than the top.

More Woe for the Wanderers

The dismal league form continued today for both Wanderers as they are now both rooted firmly to the bottom of the league. Despite creating their fair share of chances, Wellington looked toothless in attack and was soon punished by Egloshayles Diddy Hamilton.

Afterwards Eggmofo wore a look of resignation and was heard to say "it was good to see how the other half lived", as he began preparing for life in League 1!

Deck Rises A Little Too Late To Dent DUAO

Down Under And Out	1
The Rising Deck	2

Rising Deck put there recent run of bad form behind them and managed an admirable 2-1 away win at Down Under And Out and seriously dent their Premiership hopes.

The visitors got off to a cracking early start with Donovan Rowling rising highest to head home David Blaines cross. A lead they took to the break as they restricted DUAO to not having a single chance on goal.

The lead only lasted 3 minutes into the second half when Errol Stephens long-range effort equalised for the title hopefuls. With both sides looking for the winner it was The Deck that snatched the points. Twelve minutes from time and Marc Spelmann headed home to shock the home side. This result will do little for Decks title hopes but will be a result Rob Couch will be celebrating as good as a Red Machine win.

League Decider

A clearly dissapointed DUAO Manger was on hand for a few harsh words after his teams 2-1 defeat at home by the Rising Deck. "My lads had their worst game of the season today and deserved to lose. We've had a good run, but our challenge for the title has coime crashing to a stop and the Machine is now untouchable at the top of the table. On the day, the Deck clearly wanted the win more than we did. As we are now guaranteed our spot in top flight football next season, I will be now focusing my attention on restructuring the team for next season.

Dastardlys' A Dick From The Spot

The Dark Destroyers	1
The Perrymen	2

The Perrymen eased their own relegation worries with a 2-1 victory over Dark Destroyers in the 90th minute to leapfrog over them.

The visitors opened the scoring after 11 minutes when Rufus Lawrence headed in a cross from Daniel O'Connor. In a first half dominated by the home side in possession they were rewarded for their pressure when awarded a penalty. But, unfortunately for the home side Dick Dastardly could not convert the spot kick. Anne Robinson did, however, manage to score an equaliser 7 minutes after that when put through by Ka Ka.

In a more even second half the match was heading for a draw when up popped top-scorer Gary Lineker. He got his 6th of the season and grabbed all 3 points for the Perrymen right on the final whistle when he headed home a Patricio Salvador cross.

McFletch was delighted to get another rare away win, this time against The Dark Destroyers, 'This was a result we needed. With both the Wanderers visiting the Lane in the next two league games we have real chance to guarantee top flight football again next season.' The Perry Men now look forward to a friendly against Super Blues where some of the young players will have a chance to prove themselves.

Town back on course

Temple Town	3
FC Wazzy	2

Temple Town forced their way back into the promotion spot in this tops-turvy game at The Birchfield.

Ben Burgess started the entertainment as early as the first minute when he was put through by Rowley McCafferty. Just three minutes later FC Wazzy were on level terms when Hayden Bubbs freekick beat Luke Sterland in an explosive first five minutes.

Less than ten minutes later and the visitors took the lead. Rodrigo Lamego fed Filimon Timiescu to silence the home faithful. Just as Town before them, Wazzys lead was short-lived. Rowley McCafferty turned from provider to goalscorer to equalise on twenty minutes to put the sides in all level at half-time.

It took top-scorer McCafferty to settle matters in the first ten minutes of the second half. He was put through by Ferdinand Tepper to score his 6th of the season, but more importantly the winner for Temple Town who join their visitors, back in the promotion hotspot.

FC Wazzy were rocked further in the second half, when top midfield wizard Terrance Crooks was taken off and will be out for three and a half weeks.

in what was an exciting and lose match. Credit where it's due. We were pressing for the third goal when we were caught on the break. In hindsight, with the 'Raiders also losing, we were pressing too hard as our lead at the top is now down to just 1 point. Nonetheless, we play positive football and look to defend by scoring"

Next up the Wazzy is the second leg of their cup match against the Wanderers. "They gave us a tight game in the first leg, but we were able to keep the crucial clean sheet and with my team's ability to score, I am confident of progressing to the next round"

Super Blues	2

Now unbeaten in 4 games, winning the last two, Super Blues are finding a bit of form which will certainly hold them in good stead for the remainder of this season, and the coming season.

In a first half just edged on possession by Down By The Trent it was the SuperBlues who created the better of the chances. Thom Yorke opened the scoring for the visitors with a stunning 38 minute long range effort.

Trent could offer little more after the break but the match was far from 'in-the-bag until as late as the last minute when Ossie Ardiles crossed for Blues top-scorer Pablo Counago to head home his sixth of the season.

Hounds Still In The Chase

Hell Hounds	2
Irish Raiders	1

After having his first taste of league defeat last week Alan Garrihy was keen not to let the Irish bubble burst, but a trip to the Den against old rival Matt Rose was the last thing he needed.

In an extremely close first half it took the full 45 minutes for the deadlock to be broken. The Raiders' Kit Munroe found space in the box following a corner to put the visitors 1-0 up at the break.

The Hounds responded well in the second half creating the better of the chances and got their reward on the hour when Bill Westcrofts direct free-kick levelled matters.

When it seemed like this close contest was heading for a draw Teo Stollman managed to thread the ball through to Txanton Gutierrez for a vital winner just two minutes from time.

The result pushes Irish Raiders out of the top two and gives Matts Hell Hounds just the merest hint of making a late run for promotion.

Tricky Tie

Irish Raiders go to Hell Hounds tomorrow in what looks to be a tricky tie for them.

"Well the Hounds are unbeaten at home this season in the league so this is going to be a tough one for us and after our loss last week we cannot afford to slip up again or our grasp on the promotional spot could disappear.

The lads are ready but are not as fresh as I would have hoped after our Cup game at the weekend. I am hoping they make it through this game ok and we get something from the game and I can then rest some players for the second leg of the Cup at the weekend"

Temple Town

We caught up with the TT manager today and quizzed him about his performance.

TT manager ' Well both the most vocal managers in the leagues are having a nightmare, maybe this is a league admin fix?? Rising has had a nightmare season after their fantastic season last year, TT have had an awful three weeks, drawn against DUAO twice now in two years in the cup. You put it together League Admin don't like vocal managers and press teams. Both myself and Rising are under extreme pressure and will be lucky to maintain our positions if this carries on the way it has.'

'Our home game again Wazzy tomorrow, and league admin are already tipping their victory??!!'

'If we continue in this rich vein of shit, I expect to lose my job within four weeks. We will talk again after tomorrow, but needless to say a formal complaint against league admin is being collected together.'

Now Is The Time

Next weekend will probably be the most crucial in the Premiership this season as the top four sides play each other.

"Admittedly Red Machine are 4 points clear but they have DUAO and ourselves to play away from home so, although they are favourites, it is far from over" said Egloshayle manager Mitchell following his sides 2-0 away win at Wellington Wanderers.

"I can assure our fans that unlike DUAO manager Wookie, we have NOT given up. Until it is mathematically impossible we will keep trying to win every game. I am either astounded at Wookies defeated attitude (especially given the Red Machines remaining fixtures) or he is playing mind games, maybe its my attitude that has brought 3 pieces of silverware to Egloshayle Park in 3 seasons and DUAO are yet to have achieved anything, it separates winners from losers" concluded Mitchell.

Club Fearful Of Cup Exit

Following the sale of club stalwart Peter Shilton to enable the promising youngster Hugh Palin (soon to have a name-change), Egloshayle Park fear an early exit from the cup is on the cards as there is a real need to give match experience to the youngsters ahead of Sundays cup clash in which Park need to overturn a 2-0 reverse.

The club has made six changes to the side that beat Wellington Wanderers 2-0 yesterday and has an average age of 23. "These are huge, but necessary risks if the club is to progress to league success in seasons to come" said a club spokesman.

Kick in the Radiohead

After there defeat to puper blues aided by a goal from their Thom Yorke manager Jory was certainly in no mood for listening to Radiohead the Paranoid Android manager adding "maybe we should have used Fake Plastic Trees for goalposts, maybe I need to Creep to my players more to get them to perform better, perhaps we'll sign a Subterranean Homesick Alien or some Weird Fishes to strengthen our team and there will be No Surprises if we lose to Egghead Park tomorrow."

PS - if you are lost change your music taste!!!!!!!

Tremendous Thursday

Forget Grand Slam Super Sunday with a rival broadcaster. Next week LS has Tremendous Thursday! With the top four all playing each other.

After a 2-0 home win for Red Machine FC over local rivals Westcuntry Wanderers, the Machine saw themselves move four points clear at the top of the table. With a crucial fixture against DUAO up next. Manager Rob Couch was clearly in bouyant mood.

"The title race is by no means a done deal, even though we are currently in a great position. It seems that other managers are clearly up for the fight until the end, and some are already planning for next season and conceding the title at such an early stage - this has to be a classic show of mind games".

"We will be fully prepared for next Thursday's fixture and have the advantage of not having the distraction of a cup fixture this weekend. This will allow us more time on the training ground, and have no risk of injuries or suspensions."

"I also welcome back from injury my influential midfielder playmaker Inácio Sanches. Whenever Inácio graces the football pitch he makes the team tick."

At the press conference, Couch took the opportunity to unveil new signing, goalkeeper Alírio Conde. "At 19 years of age he is one for the future, but has all the attributes the 'perfect' goalkeeper needs. Any manager who has a somebody between the sticks with the following skills will love to have them in their squad: stands in the right place, great in the air, good at stopping breakaways and has great reflexes. I am purring just watching him in training at the moment."

In The Press This Week

Training Thursday

"That's how we see Thursdays from here till the end of the season" Retorted DUAO Manger wookie at accusations he was playing mind games with table toppers the unstoppable sex machine. "With all this talk of mind games...you'd think I was Derren Brown. We're just being realistic about our chances of catching the Machine and weighing this up with our limited funds and the need to replace an aging team.

I've started the ball rolling by this week by showing the door to another aging defender Mark Raymond and I won't be stopping there. Sam Aston is currently only hanging on by his fingernails due to the SuperBlues being strapped for cash; he's next on the list and will be joined shortly by club captain Simon

Stevens and fellow old midfield maestro Quentin Rothwell.

As for new blood, I'd like to welcome from our youth team striker Wayne Manger, who will be getting match experience this season. This is the kind of quality youth I'm looking to bring in.

Next season will be a real test for us, which is why it's vital we make as many of the changes as we can this season. I ask for patience from our supporters as we work through these difficult times."

Irish no longer smiling

With 2 defeats in a week 1 in the league and 1 in the cup the atmosphere around The Emerald Isle stadium was one of frustration and anger for the fans of the Irish side.

"I have tried to keep this from happening since we went on our good run. I fielded a week side yesterday for the cup game and the lads did what I asked. Dont concede 5 goals and we are through to the semi-final. We were never going to get to top of the league and stay there unbeaten until the end of the season. Realistically I think we are having a fabulous season to date. We are now into the semi-final of the cup and well within a chance of promotion to the top flight"

Radioheads Gutter

Having peaked on Sunday at Radioheads musical gutter of Let Down its time to move on. Things Can Only Get Better and The Only Way Is Up are on the agenda as perhaps we can make headway to that Paradise City. Furthermore I've got a brand new combine harvester to ensure we reap what we sow.

The League Supreme Cup

Ronaldo is dead, long live Diddy

Egloshayle Boss, for the second match in a row, singled out new signing Diddy Hamilton as a saviour yesterday, but also heaped much praise on his squad of 18.

"I feared the worse yesterday, but I should have known better, the squad is on a roll now and picking eleven is a real headache. Diddy Hamilton yet again made a huge difference, a difference we were missing last season. His hat-trick ensured a tough semi-final against Irish Raiders. Two free-kicks and a penalty against an over-fussy ref was all he needed. He surely is the Ronaldo of the LS Premiership." gloated Mitchell.

"Next up is away at the champions Rising Deck. We must continue our recent resurgence, and nothing less that 3 points is what we will be going for at The Orpheum. They will certainly be boyant, after their 3 points at the disappointingly defeated 'Down Under And Given Up'.

Elsewhere . . .

Wellington Wanderers managed to dispose of FC Wazzy. Having drawing their opener 0-0 Wellington went on to win 2-1 to set up a semi-final draw with Down Under And Given Up after the Premiership title bottlers went through on the away goals rule in a stunning six goal thriller at the Theatre Of Doom. After drawing the 1st leg 1-1 DUAGU managed 3 goals to put Wookies side through.

In the remaining quarter-final Irish Raiders went through, having lost 2-0 on the day their huge 1st leg 5-0 victory won them this tie and set up a semi-final against Egloshayle Park FC and are the only Division One side remaining

Manager In The Spotlight

Rob Couch - Age 30 - The Red Machine

Rob Couch is, statistically the most successful manager in League Supreme history. His team are at the top of the Premiership and if his side wins or draws tomorrow then who will bet against them this season. If he does win the title he will be the only manager to have won the league twice.

Name: Rob Couch aka Couchy

Age: 29

Football Management Experience: Have been at the helm of my beloved Red Machine FC since May 2008. Previous to that, reading the sport pages of The Sun and Daily Sport.

Homelife: Live in the tranquil county of Cornwall, enjoying a pint of cider and a pasty at weekends – all in moderation though.

How have you found managing your team in XPert11 has it been easier/harder than expected?

We are regarded as one of the TOP FOUR, this status has all been down to hard work on the training ground.

How have you found XPert11 overall?

It is the bee's knee's. Thursday's have not been the same since Xpert11 has entered my life.

Have you told any of your friends/family? No comment.

Is winning games or being entertaining more important to you?

Winning, whilst being entertaining on the pitch is important.

Tell us a bit about your XPert11 Team. Are you satisfied with how you are playing? Your position in the league etc?

We are currently in a very strong position in the league, and are a real threat to take the title this season. I am most proud of turning our home ground – the Red Cauldron, into a fortress. We have only lost one home game in three and a half seasons.

What is your secret to great team building?

Good foundations.

Would you say you are 'tactically great' at X11 or does your team depend a little on luck?

A "tactical genius" – but a little bit of luck always helps.

Do you see yourself playing XPert11 long into the future?

I am in this for the long term and intend to build a great footballing club that will have leg-end-ary status.

Who are you, when you aren't a manager on XPert11?

I have a part time job working for the local Cornish Water Company – and no, its not bottling tap water and selling it.

What would you like to see added to the game most?

An end of season Awards Ceremony.

What is your short-term/long-term plans in this league?

I would like to be the first manager to win the LS Premiership twice, hopefully achieving that this season. To build a squad that will be competing for the title every season.

Who is the best player in your team and who is one of your 'characters' in the dressing room?

Neal Stamford is my best player, a consistent performer week in, week out. Who currently holds the record for the Most Valuable Player in X11: s League Supreme. The character in the dressing room is Hemming Lassen-Kahlke, because of the number of characters in his name (see what I've done there).

Who in your team should we watch out for in the future?

Neal Stamford. He is the next Paulo Maldini.

“We have only lost one home game in three and a half seasons.”

If you could have any real-life player playing at the moment, who would compliment your team the most?

A little known striker called Fernando Torres. To convert the many chances we create in front of goal. We have too many draws for my liking.

Which managers do you feel are your closest rivals?

In the past three seasons, I would say it has to be manager of Egg-loss-his-way-le Park FC, Craig Mitchell, and the Riding Cock manager, Iain Mitchell. However, with the emergence of Down-U-A-gO, I can see a close rivalry evolving.

Who is your tip for the title?

Apart from myself, DUAO and The Rising Deck.

Couch is always on the wrong end of training ground pranks. Neil Stamford put pegs on his ears. He didnt even realise !!!

One To Watch:

Red Machine FC - Down Under And Out

Down Under And Out have stated that this is a 'meaningless' game and that they are building for next season. It is either mind games or the manager is cowardly and covering his back anticipating a defeat. Being a mere 4 points behind and having to play the leaders in a 'meaningless' game is either extremely dense, cowardly or he is planning something. The footballing world hope its the latter.

LS Prediction: Red Machine will win the title this week.
