Alan Garrihys magic continues into the Premiership as his side has made an impact on the biggest stage, against the best, last seasons champions Red Machine FC.

Not only did Irish Raiders win AT the Red Cauldron but the did so coming from behind to show great character and belief.

All was going according to the script after 20 minutes when Neill Whytes direct freekick got the champions off to a flyer in an extremely even first half.

The second half was equally tight but signalled a huge change in fortune. Dead-ball specialist Marshall Bushells corner found the head of Gary Fortune 20 minutes into the second half to give the newcomers a well deserved equaliser. That should have been the end of the dream but there was more to come. Bushell turned from provider to match winner 5 minutes later when his direct free-kick sent the travelling Irish army into a frenzy and . . .

LS Premiership reports and reaction

... take ALL 3 points from the ground where most others have failed. If its the Raiders modest aim simply to stay in the Premiership this season, then they have got off to the perfect start.

Xmas Comes Early

Santa Claus is coming to town..... were the roars from the Irish Raiders supporters as they pulled of the shock of the opening day in beating last seasons champs Red Machine. 1-0 up after 20minutes and it looked like it was going to be a stroll in the park for the Reds but it all went wrong in 5 special minutes for the newly promoted Irish Raiders.

"What can I say. Red Machine had played 32 home games and only lost twice in their history and along come the minnows from the Emerald Isle and we steal all three points. We will remain grounded but these are a valuable three points that alot of other teams will not get this season. I would like to take this oportunity to thank all the other managers for the congratulations they have given ourselves and Temple Town for showing we are up for the challenge. Yes I know I clenched another manager of the week award for which I am grateful for but the points on the board are what count"

When asked about the early kickoff in the Cup this season he didnt have much to say "The Cup is not in our thoughts this season but I will reserve comment on the early start as I would like to get it out of the way early."

No Excuses - Just Congratulations

As Red Machine manager Rob Couch gave his post match press release, following a 2-1 home defeat against new promoted Irish Raiders.

"I've got no excuses for today, all the congratulations must go to our opponents. It was a thrilling game of football for the neutral supporter that was evenly contested. I can only bemuse missed chances from ourselves. We had eight chances on goal, and only managed to take one of those."

"If you look at who was man of the match for their side - the goalkeeper. That surely speaks for itself who dominated the game. But, its not about stats, its all about one thing and that is goals."

"It is still a long way to go, but as commented by many of the managers. This season looks to be the closest yet."

Wookie Hole Stalemate

Egloshayle Park FC	0

Possession: 59 - 41 (55-45)
Chances: 9 - 2 (3-0)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Rowley McCafferty Neil Richards

Raiders were not the only newcomers to celebrate an opening day victory against top Premiership opposition. Temple Town not only won, but outplayed last seasons cup winners and league runners-up Egloshayle Park FC.

Temple Town enjoyed the majority of possession in both halves and restricted their visitors to no chances in the first half.

The second half had barely cicked off when Town were awarded a penalty, but it was one Mickey Walsh will want to forget, his penalty missing the target. But Town got what they deserved after 73 minutes. Rowley McCafferty heading in a Braulio Carolino cross to give last seasons Division One champions a 1-0 lead. Just 8 minutes remained when Town ensured they started week one at the top of the table when Franklin Leavers long range effort made sure of all 3 points.

Bad Start Again

Egloshayle boss was calm but disappointed following his sides poor opening day result at newly promoted Temple Town.

"We deserved to lose, we barely mustered a chance and maybe I am to blame as I was a little TOO cautious. Maybe we need to be a bit more ruthless in our play. But fair play to TT. They outplayed and outthought us and it could have been a lot more as they had many chances including missing a penalty. If today (and it IS early days) is anything to go by, then both newly promoted sides should have no trouble competing at this level and both Town and Raiders should be congratulated!" said Mitchell.

Guy Fawkes Starts Early

Temple Town certainly enjoyed their first home game against Eggshell Park today as the crowd were entertained with some sparkling performances. Outplayed, out classed, and everything else the little team from plymouth, devon.

We caught up with the TT manager after the game and he spoke as usual with words of wisdom; 'We sent the team out to destroy the opposition today and we did just that, Mitch was sent packing a volley of rockets up his arse! We will enjoy tonight, but we know it is along season and don't expect to have such easy games like this again.' He went on 'The crowd really enjoyed the game today and with the chanting of just like watching Brazil, just like watching Brazil, I warned them that the bigger teams are all still to come, and not to expect another easy game like today.'

Dark Destroyers Dick Dastardlys Deadly Dazzler

The Dark Destroyers	1
The Rising Deck	0

Possession: 40 - 60 (52-48)

Chances: 2 - 5 (2-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Frankensteins Monster Derren Brown

In a game of seven bookings and seven chances it was the home sides Dick Dastardly who grabbed the all important 1 goal statistic.

In a tight first half it was Vinnie Jones set up Dastardly to let fly with an 18 minute thunderbolt to give Destroyers a 1-0 lead.

The Rising Deck upped their game in the second half creating the better chances and having better possession but could not break down a well marshalled defence and Destroyers held on for a welcomed opening day 3 points.

Selling out

The Rising Deck have had to strengthen their squad after a very disappointing opening day 1-0 loss against the Dark Destroyers despite having 5 chances to 2 .

"It's been the same since we refused to 'PAY' to play in this supposed 'FREE' league, said a disgruntled Rising Deck Player/manager/ refuser to pay for advantages in the League Supreme 'Ian Mitchell'.

We've created many many chances in the games since surrendering our VIP status and since then our ratio of finishes:chances has coincidentally diminished !

I agree with Wookie on the statement that whoever digs deepest into their coffers may win this League but i'm certainly not buying into it

Congratulations go to last The Raiders & Temple Town not only on their opening day results but by the quality of opposition that they faced to do so.

We welcome Temple Town on Sunday and know we have to get our act together pronto to have a chance of taking an advantage into the second leg (when will that be ? Monday ?)

One new addition to this seasons squad is an even bigger cock which will encourage more of the female of the species into the stands."

With that the midfield maestro ducked into a black limousine to join a couple of female filthy twins.

Chief predicts "Closest Battle Yet!"

Dark Destroyers Head-Coach The Chieftan has predicted the "Closest Championship Yet" after the opening results in the Premiership. "Full credit must go to the two promoted teams" he declared after Day One - referring to Irish Raiders and Temple Town who pulled off stunning wins in their top-flight debuts against last years top two. "This proves that any team will beat any other team on the day and I think that (unlike previous years two-horse races) there are plenty of teams who will genuinely believe that they have a chance of glory" When challenged by reporters about his own teams chances he was quick to play down any expectations. "Yes - we earned a hard-fought 1-0 victory over Rising Deck but we know we were fortunate - only 40% possession and two chances created (against their five) at home is not good enough and we have been in this league long enough to know the title is won over 14 games - not one! We have - however - strengthened our midfield in the transfer window and have reluctantly put "Hulk" on the transfer list. He has done a good job for us but he feels he needs regular football and a new challenge (and shirts that don't split!) so we have agreed to his request.

The Destroyers now look forward to a "triple-header" against one of the "New Impressors" - Irish Raiders starting with a trip to the Emerald Isle in the Cup on Sunday. "We expect a very tough encounter. Any team that beats Red Machine away demands utmost respect and we will be fielding our strongest side possible. Also we have never played on Irish Soil before so we look forward with relish to the trip - although (as Louis Walsh says) most of our squad prefer Stella to Guinness so we hope they order an extra barrel or ten!

A Point A Piece At Palmy North

Down Under And Out	0
The Perry Men	0

Possession: 54 - 46 (50-50)
Chances: 2 - 2 (0-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Chesley Gellar Ledley King

There was little to choose between these two at Palmy North and even less to report in a game of very few chances.

The home side edged possession over 90 minutes but shared 4 chances between them. Considering of the upsets on the opening day a point a piece for both sides in week one could prove valuable in the final week.

A point to prove

The Perry Men were quick to board the flight home from Palmy North after enjoying the excellent hospitality provided by DUAO. Whilst most of the players relaxed playing various handheld devices and watching the latest hollywood blockbusters on their portable DVD players, esteemed manager McFletch could be seen quietly reflecting on a good result. As he drew the smoke in from his Gran Corona Cigar the realisation that this season was likely to be toughest yet dawned on him. The results from the newly promoted teams will have sent shockwaves throughout the League and those who have just survived in previous seasons will need to raise their game. McFletch was abruptly jolted from his ruminations as he found himself covered in water as the air stewards doused the cigar. McFletch has apologised profusely explaining that he thought he was on his private jet where such behaviour is still allowed. Now the Perry Men face another tough test against Egloshalye Park, a team who will be looking to put their opening day defeat behind them.

Wookie lost for Words

...well maybe not then

After recording a 0-0 draw in their opening game of the season against the Perry Men, the DUAO board will surely have to review their decision not to spend on the transfer market during the close season. With little action on the pitch to speak of we asked DUAO Manger for his season's predictions.

"For us it's all about survival. It's going to be tighter than a nun's fanny in the premiership this season. But I'm sure my lads will rise to the occasion and we'll push through. I'll make no denial of the rumours that I wanted to dabble in the transfer market. However the board have told me there is no cash, so I'll have to make do.

The Perry men came here looking for a draw and that's exactly what they got - well done to em. We'll have to pick ourselves up and keep on looking for our first win of the season.

As for other teams chances? I think one of the newly promoted teams will have a good run on the title but in the end it will be down to the Manager who's prepared to put his hands deepest into his pocket. I'd like to see the destroyers achieve something this season, as they have a team that's capable of going all the way."

With more double entendre slipping from his mouth than Finbarr Saunders we decided to leave Wookie to his own twisted mind

Essex Wanderers	0

Possession: 45 - 55 (49-51)
 Chances: 4 - 3 (2-2)
 Home - Man Of The Match - Away
 Bill Westcroft Brent Manger

Hell Hounds have been moving ever closer to the promotion places season after season and much has been said about their young side. The patient fans will be hoping once again this season will bring glory. They made the perfect start to their league campaign with Jude Attenborough scoring in the 2nd minute after good work from Bill Westcroft.

Hounds had to wait until 2 minutes from time to make sure of an opening day win against visiting Essex Wanderers with Teo Stollman breaking away to complete the 2-0 win.

Premiership Experience Have The (h)Edge(r)

Sexual Ealing FC	0
Westcountry Wanderers	1

Possession: 38 - 62 (38-62)
 Chances: 4 - 5 (1-2)
 Home - Man Of The Match - Away
 Dave Grohl Cliff Hedger

After a rich Asian consorteum had bought out Sexual Ealing FC pre-season they have become the Manchester City of the League Supreme. Jared has wasted no time in making his mark on his team and only four (to be confirmed) of last seasons squad made their opening day starting eleven but it was not enough to beat the Premiership experience of Westcountry Wanderers.

Understandably it will take a few games for the new faces to gel and although the visitors had the majority of the play it was a solitary penalty that seperated the two teams. Cliff Hedger converted the match decider in the 57th minute.

Wellington Wanderers	1
Down By The Trent	3

Here We Lamego Again

FC Wazzy	3
Super Blues	0

Possession: 55 - 45 (62-38)
 Chances: 5 - 5 (4-2)
 Home - Man Of The Match - Away
 Linford Harwood Mikey Grainger

Last seasons bottom side got off to the best possible start with a win away from home against the recently relegated Wellington Wanderers, and scored three in the process.

Mikey Grainger opened the scoring after just 2 minutes when his long range effort found the target to give the visitors a 1-0 lead. Wellington Wanderers bossed the first half and got a deserved equaliser from the penalty spot which Antonio Turchetti converted.

The second half was a minute old when Derrick Sawyer restored DBTT's lead when he found space in the area to score. A set piece freekick on the hour resulted in Dermot Haworth grabbing the 3rd goal and 3 points for last seasons strugglers.

"Xmas Comes Early....."

 .....its more than that" exclaimed jubilant DBTT manager Phil Jory after his teams 3-1 victory in their opening game adding "it's more a case of pigs can fly and hell will freeze over" referring to his sides horrendous previous campaign. With regards to the cup he concluded "its the same for everyone - I know Titch Mitch is a useless pool playing c*nt but give him a break."

Possession: 52 - 48 (51-49)
 Chances: 5 - 4 (1-1)
 Home - Man Of The Match - Away
 Terrence Crooks Micky Stockwell

After narrowly missing out on promotion last season thanks to Super Blues, FC Wazzy made amends on the opening day in season five but would have surely wished they could have swapped the two results.

Randall Blackburn started the ball rolling after 22 minutes when he headed in a Rodrigo Lamego cross to put the promotion hopefuls 1-0 up at half time.

Ethan Page put daylight between the sides after 65 minutes, heading in a Viorel Jercalau cross. Lamego then grabbed his second and Wazzy's 3rd with just 2 minutes remaining to put Wazzy top of the division.

Justice not Revenge!

 That was the post match comment from the Wazzy boss after he saw his team completely outplay the 'Blues to start the new season with a comfortable 3-0 home win. The comment was a reference to the very disappointing final game of last season when the Blues coach accused Warren of relying on one formation and a lack of tactical variation. "This was not revenge, for the league table is built over a season. However, Justice prevailed today", he said. "They came to us with yet another 'very defensive' approach, leading to yet another game in which they did not score." Ironically, Warren did change his tactics for this one and maybe caught the opposition by surprise.

In The Press This Week

Overhaul required

Sexual Ealings new manager Aotearoa took over today. I was shocked with the state that the squad is in. So far I have only managed to sack 1 player, but there will be more to come i guarantee. Looking through my squad i think only a handful of players will survive.

but on the positive note, the chairman just sold one of his businesses & has promised me all the funds for new players. i already have bids on for 5 players, but there will be more to come

Wookie's Spring Clean Continues

DUAO Manager Wookie takes time out from his pre-season training for a few words with our reporter.

"The change report was positive, we were probably the most improved club in the competition and that's a testament to how I manage, especially considering the spring clean I had mid season, but I was expecting better than I got. Although all our players posted a positive result, it's where those positives have accumulated, or haven't materialised into skill increases that's become a problem for me.

I prefer to rely on home grown talent, but unfortunately I'll have to trawl the transfer market again trying to strengthen certain quarters and hopefully pick up one or two bargains in the process. This will mean that again, no position is safe, at DUAO."

Ealing have 49,000,000 econ to spend....

Irish Raiders manager Alan Garrihy today confirmed that there will be no transfer activity at the club during the close season.

"I have looked at the squad and also analysed the change report and looking at our situation this season I have decided to let last seasons squad have a go at keeping us in the division.

I only have 6,000,000 econ and to be honest that is only going to buy me one quality player so I will stick with what I have instead and try save some money for the end of this season instead. We are not going to fool ourselves or our supporters this season and they all know that if we were to avoid relegation it would be a great achievement for the season."

When asked about the new take over at Sexual Ealing he said "I know the manager myself and know he will take the club to the next level but to hear that they have 49,000,000 econ is frightening and looks like he could build a good team and fight for promotion this season. I wish him well."

Welcome Jared

The League would like to welcome Jared as new manager of Sexual Ealing FC and say a fair farewell to Paul Corrigan.

"Doz has been with the league since day one and its always sad to see a stalwart leave. We wish him well and thank him for his service" said a spokesman.

"We would like to welcome Jared. He has had great success with other teams in the xpert 11 arena and will prove a very knowledgeable manager and will be keen to guide Sexual Ealing to the Premiership, other managers should watch out."

Temple Town Emergency Meeting

The Temple Town manager is now under great pressure with his home life, trying to juggle six wives, thirteen children has caught up with him.

It is with great regret that a meeting to be held tonight at TT's head office, is likely to see the resignation of Temple Town manager.

'I am sure I won't be missed, with my rude comments but time has come for me to move over.' TT manager was heard saying after his 9am departure from a local nightclub with a group of six beautiful women.

Watch this space for further news in the morning. The chairman is desperate to keep hold of the highly regarded manager, and will try and launch a rescue package.

Spending begins

After yesterday stating that he would not be buying or selling any players it was a surprise to see this morning that Irish Raiders had actually bought a player. They signed 20 year old free kick specialist Seymour Conden.

"After training yesterday i sat down with Hamilton Howson to discuss his future. As a striker you are expected to score goals and last season he started 15 games and only scored 3 times. This is not the calibre of striker you need in the Premier League and I told him that. Unfortunately it went worse than I expected and the man just started crying on front of me and came out of the closet to my surprise. He had been having trouble with his toy boy all last season. As soon as I heard this I had no other option but to put him on the transfer list. There is only room for one Gay in this village....."

Eyeing Next Season Already

As current LS Premiership champions Red Machine FC manager Rob Couch, was polishing his trophy in the privacy of his office. He took some time out to give a video press conference from his desk to the waiting media.

"I have already cast an eye over the squad for next season, and my decision is that changes will be minimal. My philosophy is 'why to try to recreate the wheel'. I have a winning combination at present and I don't want to disrupt it".

Couch pulled no punches when asked about his rivalry with Egloshayle Park FC manager Craik Mitchell.

"He, in his own mind thinks that his team are surpeme to mine, he is entitled to his own opinion, but that is only a opinion and not FACT. For a start, the SECOND championship that I have just won. The league is called LEAGUE SUPREME, I think there is a clue there somewhere for him to work out!"

In The Press This Week

"To be far he has done well, and I congratulate him on winning ANOTHER cup. Unfortunately a stigma comes with his success, and that is his side are only becoming a cup team".

"My team and myself are looking forward to defending the title next season. I believe it will be another hard fought season that is coming up. I must congratulate the two newly promoted sides, Temple Town and Irish Raiders."

"And Magic, you can have your cards back that you left in the trophy, as I doubt you will be getting your hands on this polished gem."

Hypocrit

"No time to organise friendlies" were the stark words from League Admin Titch Mitch as he pandered to all our needs and arranged the commencement of the new season at such haste. Grateful for his efforts I, and no doubt all others, are however the very same Titch Mitch told me in person on Tuesday evening that he "does not play pre-season friendlies as it can jeopardise his plans.....can we believe anything about him other than he is still a short ugly twat!?"

Men at work

The Perry Men whilst losing the last game of the season to DUAO managed to arrange an away jolly down at Wookie Hole. McFletch explained the reason for the long trip, 'I like to give the lads a pre-season holiday and if we can fit in a friendly at the same time then why not? As usual we lost. Basically we were no good. Luckily for us the first game is down here so the lads will begin training for real and we'll see if we can get off to a good start. We didn't manage to get any points off the top three home or away last season and that is something we'll have to change if we want to survive in the premiership' The Perry Men have already moved to strengthen their defence in attempt to stop leaking goals, Further arrivals will be required if The Perry Men are to make an impact this season.

F*ck You All !!

"F*ck you Jory, infact, f*ck you all!" was the alarming message from Egloshayle Park boss

Mitchell this weekend now he has returned to his squad.

Is this a sign that the Park boss and LS admin is finally cracking? or is he simply amplifying the lions roar and flexing his muscles as his side prepare to be the first club to complete the double. (Yes there ARE TWO competitions to do well in if you are to become the elite of the elite) a swipe surely at Red Machine 'poor squad' Couch!)

Temple Town

In an exciting friendly played in front of 105,000 fans, the mighty temple town shared a very thrilling 7 goal bonanza. TT came out on top 4 v 3 against red Machine, the last year's champions. With many players rested, the result shows the team to have great strength in depth.

It's going to be a very tough season and Irish boys and I have a big up hill struggle.

Both Northern managers now in the top flight as I predicted two seasons ago.

Wake up Rising Deck, it's quiet without your flambuoyant press releases.

New Season New Hope

Eggmofo spoke of his expectations for the coming season as he looks to pick up his relegated team. We're hoping that a return to the top league won't be too far off, but we know that this division won't be a walk in the park, with there being no easy teams throughout the two divisions.

Hellllloooo Sports Fans !

He's back and about to embark on Season 5 of League Supreme. Fresh from signing copies of his yearly annual of Press Releases this year entitled 'A slippery slope survived' (what only a few lucky women have muttered after a dickyback riding at The Orpheum !) THE ONE AND ONLY MAGICMITCH is ready and raring to go.

"I've had to let a couple of our older squad members go which has given the chance for a couple of our youngsters from our outstanding Academy the chance to make it into our elite 11. We were a bit late reporting back to pre season training but hopefully we will be able to get a flying start to out campaign.

Good luck to Irish Raiders and the one and only Temple Town who have got into the top flight after narrowly missing out the season before. I'm sure they will put up a good match for any team on their day.

That 's all for now folk's as i'm off to play a quick 45 minutes of 'One in the pink, one in the stink !"

Let battle commence

DBTT manager Phil Jory was looking forward to his sides first encounter of the season against Eggheds Wellington Wanderers. "You can never to be too sure with the first game, but if we can poach a goal and scramble a victory it would be a great start." Meanwhile Jory was still seething with League Admins Titch Mitch's pool performance last Tuesday "He comes to Cornwall all cock a hoop, thinks he has a right to walk in the side and costs us a precious draw.....pardon interviewer, no it has f*ck all to do with the fact that I lost my game as well and yes I know I did not pot a single ball....f*ck up off, where's Garth Crooks.

Gladiators ready!!.....Raiders ready!!

Irish Raiders finished their pre season unbeaten with 1 win and 3 draws and are now ready for a long hard season in the top division. It has proven hard in the past for promoted teams to secure a place in the top division and most have failed. Raiders manager Alan Garrihy is aware of that but is confident he can guide his team to survive this season.

"This is where the dream becomes reality for this club, we are now in the Premiership mixing it with the likes of Red Machine, Egloshayle Park FC and The Rising Deck, all of them of course Champions at some stage in their history. Of course it doesn't come any harder on Thursday with our first game away to defending champions Red Machine FC. Well we will give it our all and it will be a good benchmark for us no matter what the outcome. Of course the bookies have stopped taking bets on the Champions getting off to a winning start but you never know with the luck of the Irish and we are going to need alot of that this season."

In The Press This Week

If you are going to bet on the Xpert pools put your house on Red Machine for this one and all the action is live here at 4pm on Thursday 5th November. But is there too much pressure on the home team to walk through this one and will the Irish go for something totally different for this one as they have nothing to loose?

Over training cost us!!

After starting last season with the statement that each game would be like a training session for his team, Wazzy boss Paul Warren introduced the new season by admitting that his team "over trained" last season. Ultimately, this led to the team becoming too tired to wrap up their deserved league title during the last few games. "It had nothing to do with dodgy tactics from the opposition (very defensive my arse!!) or rival managers ganging up and cornering me in a back alley. We were simply overtrained." isisted the Gareners' boss. "As a result, we are still in this division, a team of men, against boys with the sole goal of winning promotion to the top flight".

Early Cup Sparks Emotion

Temple Town manager fuming

Why, why, why has the cup been launched so early???

We really weren't planning for this, league admin are just sore after there thrashing yesterday! they just try and increase their form anyway they can!

Absolute bollocks!

The two wise men are playing each other for the first time! May the best team win! Away at Rising Deck on Sunday.

New Season, Familiar Sounds

In previous seasons the cup was too late, interfering with the end of the season (moaning from Northerner DUAO) this season its too early (moaning from fellow Northerner TT).

Both Northern teams have a plethora of excuses in the bank for when they lose anyway so it makes a nice change to have a pre-cup moan.

Note: No other teams have 'moaned'

Moaning

I had a Pre Cum moan ! Does that count ?

Back to the Lane

McFletch strolled past the airport security guards to see a man holding up a placard with his name, he pushed aside the Xpert Eleven reporters and approached the man. The man promptly handed over a sealed envelope labelled Update from League Admin, worriedly he promptly opened the letter fearing that the League Admin had been informed of the in-flight cigar incident. Upon opening the letter he was surprised to read the '1st round of the Cup is this Sunday...'. Despite the long flight from NZ McFletch resisted the impulse to whinge like a Northern Twat declaring 'Red Machine at home boys! You're all back in training tomorrow' This is the spirit expected from Premiership managers. Having said that with the Perry Men's recent record in the cup they have their work cut out to get a result against the current league champions.

No complaints from down south

As a southerner, I have no complaints about the cup being early or late.

As a former teacher, I am very pleased and impressed with the use of the word "plethora" by Admin. A sticker has been put in the post!!

Keep it up!!

Get On With It !!

Said a spokesman at LS Headquarters regarding the Leagues decision to start the Cup on week one.

"If we asked every manager in the league when THEY wanted to start the Cup, we would get 16 different answers 'wait for me to train him, so and so's form isnt right yet, we just lost so my teams form wont be as good, joe bloggs is injured now, andy fuckface is still suspended' blah de blah." said the spokesman.

"The League has made a decision which puts EVERYONE on a level playing field, put up or shut up, simple as" said the over heated chap.

Please note: Joe Bloggs and Andy Fuckface do not exist and are ficticious characters, any similarities between real-life characters are purely coincidental.

After the tears had dried up, bed stopped being wetted and tantrums died down the cup got underway on Sunday 8th.

Essex Wanderers were the days biggest winners, smashing in an amazing 6 goals at home to the leagues big spenders Sexual Ealing FC. Jasper Tete and Morris Swan grabbing a brace each. Essex were a goal down at half-time and in an exciting and devastating second half display the fans were treated to an 8 goal extravaganza with Essex Wanderers winning 6-3.

Wellington Wanderers put their opening day defeat behind them to beat Premiership opposition Down Under And Out 3-2.

David Blaine scored the only goal of the game as The Rising Deck were another side to put an opening day disappointment behind them, beating Cup whingers Temple Town.

Derrick Sawyer scored twice for the new improved Down By The Trent but it was not enough as they went down 3-2 at home to Hell Hounds. Hounds have now made it two wins out of two this season with Jonatan McGibbon grabbing the winner. Trent were 2-0 up which made Hounds comeback and win all the more impressive.

Having lost to FC Wazzy on the opening day Super Blues kept their previous victors at bay in the cup and managed a creditable 0-0 draw at Portman Fortress.

Egloshayle Park FC, along with Sexual Ealing, are the only two sides to have started the new season with two straight defeats. Park were 2-0 down against Westcountry Wanderers and pulled a late consolation back but lost 2-1. Wanderers have also won both their opening games.

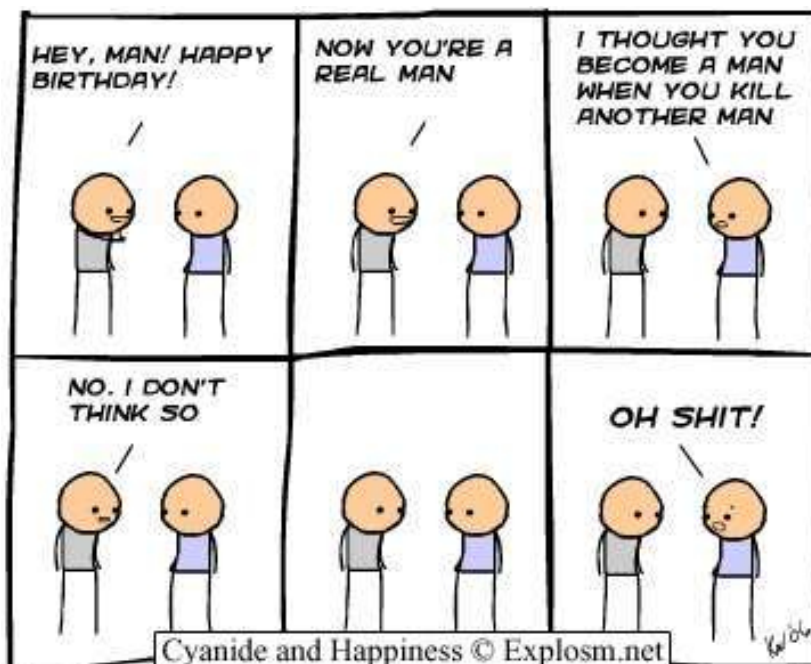

Les Pardoe came off the bench in the 22nd minute for Irish Raiders, but was sent off in the 55th but the Raiders are the 3rd team to start the season with 100% winning record with Wesley Sellers grabbing the all important 1-0 win as late as the 94th minute.

10 man Raiders clench it at the death.

 10 man Irish Raiders pulled off another impressive win yesterday by beating The Dark Destroyers in the first of 3 meetings between the sides. The Destroyers must have felt robbed when Wesley Sellers was put through on goal in the 95th minute and slotted it under the keepers legs to give them the advantage in the first of a two leg tie.

"We went for the win and got it but the opposition did come for the draw and to be fair on their performance I think they will feel robbed that the didnt get at least that. Well our focus is now on the next tie, this time in the league and I will be short of my best midfielder Marshall for this one due to an injury and of course Les Pardoe will miss it because of the red card he got in the game yesterday. We will however have a strong team going out again for this one."

One(s) To Watch:

Irish Raiders - The Dark Destroyers

Both these sides had opening day victories so both will be looking to extend that good start. Raiders also enjoyed cup glory so will fancy their chances at home to some peoples outsiders for the title The Dark Destroyers.

LS Prediction: Irish Raiders to make it 2 out of 2.

One To Watch:

Down by the Trent - Hell Hounds

Again, both these sides had opening day victories and although DBBT are capable of mounting a challenge for promotion, early bookies favourites are Wazzy, Hell Hounds and Ealing, although I am sure the 2 relegated Wanderers will have something to say about that. A second win here for either side will boost confidence.

LS Prediction: Hounds to grab an important away win.
