Week Three and the Three 100% Teams All Lose Their 100% Record And Both Divisions Have New Leaders

Waynes The Main(ger) 'Man'

The Leagues newest star. DUAO's 18 year old Wayne Manger with a beard he borrowed Destroyers tried hard during the second half and created many chances but could not find a way to come back which leaves Wookies side looking down on the rest of the league.

Destroyers Lose Scoring Touch

The Dark Destroyers suffered their fourth defeat in a row earlier today, suffering a 2-0 setback at DUAO leaving Chieftan cursing his teams fortunes in front of goal - having failed to score since the opening game. DUAO - however - are the first team to score twice against the "Doom Merchants" for 11 games.

Head-Coach Chieftan was left bemused by his teams failure to hit a cows ass with a banjo and said "Perhaps we need to take a leaf out of Thierry Henry's book and start smacking it about when we get into the penalty area. We now have a week to prepare for our next game against the once-mighty Park FC and will be looking for a big improvement on our last visit there - a 4-0 hammering that still smarts from the opening game of last season"

Down Under And Out 2
The Dark Destroyers 0

Possession: 52 - 48 (53-47)
Chances: 3 - 5 (2-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Daniel Kibble Fred West

A 2-0 victory from Down Under And Out puts them top of the table after week 3 and have yet to concede a goal.

Dark Destroyers are no poor opponents but have struggled to find that winning formula so far this season and although creating more chances, failed to penetrate (uurrrghhh gay word) DUAO.

Eighteen minutes had passed when Wayne Mangers long range effort found its mark to give Wookies side a 1-0 lead. Just 12 minutes later and DUAO found themselves 2 up with young striker Manger, having been put through my Vinnie Steele made it 2-0.

LS Premiership reports and reaction

Fish Chips and Extra Scraps Please

 With both DUAO and the Destroyers opting for counter attacking styles of football, the game quickly resembled a tennis match, as the ball whizzed from one end of the pitch to the other and back again. As the best defence in the LS Premiership withstood barrage after barrage of attack from the Destroyers, it was 18 year old DUAO striker Wayne Manger who stood out from the crowd with 2 well earned goals to no reply from the Destroyers.

“Wayne Manger - The lad is phenomenal”

Manager Wookie was on hand to give us his verdict. “Another well fought match against a hard to beat team and a vital 3 points for us today. Although with today’s win we’ve risen to the top of the table, I won’t be changing my game plan. We’re just looking to survive the season and come out the other side with a good CR.

Young Wayne deserves a special mention today. He came into the squad late last season and although we already have a trio of magnificent strikers, including arguably the best out and out striker in the league, he hasn’t been deterred by this and has fought hard to stand deservedly shoulder to shoulder with them. The lad is phenomenal; at the age of 18 he’s already scored 4 goals for the club in just 6 appearances!

Next up is a tough cup match against the Machine, which if I’m honest I could do without as we haven’t got the depth of squad to sustain a league and cup run. However it’s about this time in the cup campaign that the Machine usually bottles it and throws the match, so we’re going to hang in to see if here are any scraps to pick up.”

Town Halt Raiders 100% Start

Temple Town	1
Irish Raiders	1

Possession: 50 - 50 (59-41)
Chances: 5 - 6 (3-2)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Stanley Matthews Rowley Milton

It took a fellow Division One promoted team to halt Irish Raiders 100% start to life in the Premiership after Seymour Conden was Raiders saviour, equalising just seven minutes into the second half.

Temple Town, who have an impressive home record and who, themselves, have started premiership life admirably had the better of the first half in a fairly open contest.

After it looked as though both sides would go into the break on level terms it was the home side that stunned the travelling Irish when Hayden Rowsons long range effort found the target right on the stroke of half-time.

The premiership leaders came out a better side in the second half and took only 7 minutes to equalise. Wesley Sellers creating an opening for Conden to head in an equaliser as honours were shared.

Long Hard Winter

 TT turned the run of poor results around today against an offensive Irish team. Next weeks home game against Perry Men is already possibly a six pointer though, as even this early in the season both teams will probably struggle.

Now the cup participation is over, we can concentrate on staying up and building the team. Zzzzzzzz!

Rising Deck Are Off The Mark

The Rising Deck	1
Egloshayle Park FC	0

Possession: 63 - 37 (64-36)

Robert Houdin Neil Richards

The Rising Deck are finally off the mark with 3 deserved and hard earned points at The Orpheum at the expense of a stuttering visiting Egloshayle Park side.

Lance Burton got the home side off to a great start when his long range effort found the target after just 14 minutes play.

The Decks Lance Burton celebrates his opener and Decks first 3 points

LS Premiership reports and reaction

Deck have been dominating games recently with little to show but today was their day. They dominated proceedings against Park and restricted their visitors to minimal chances. The Deck comfortably held on to the 1-0 win which lifts them off the bottom of the premiership.

Good game, good game & poem time again !

 Rising Deck Player/Manager/Durex complainer at distinct lack of length and girth of products constantly 'Ian Mitchell' today expressed his relief (not by hand!) at getting some points on the board at last in the League and followed with....

"It's been a good 5 days for us that hopefully will give our League season a much needed kick. Having beaten TT away in the cup on Sunday, a side much respected especially as they had been unbeaten there the previous season, gave my side some much needed belief going into today's battle with Brother Beyond and his bunch of players with peni stunted at birth.

"my tinkering with the side worked today"

We've been a bit predictable with our formations of late so are deciding to experiment more in the hope of a solution to our shite start.

Thankfully my tinkering with the side (uuughhh sounds gay) worked today and to beat a former title winner is always admirable. It's up to us now to kkeep this mini run flowing and facing the vertically challenged brother again in the cup ties coming up will mean our physios will need to earn their keep to enable us to field strong starting elevens match in match out.

A little Courvousier is allowed to be consumed tonight in celebration of 3 points.

Thanks Wanks

This weeks winning Poem was phoned in at Radio Merlin at 6:30 this evening by lifelong season ticket holder 86 year old Ivanna Threesome from Ventongimps Cornwall. Thanks Ivanna, a signed naked photo of 'Magic' will be on it's way to you pronto !

They tried so hard to start so well,
They tried with all their might.
Losing just their first two games,
Some said they're fucking shite.
Then came the first round of the cup,
against great Temple Town,
But thanks to winning both the legs.
They don't now smell so brown.
A League game next against his bro

Whose defence was the meanest.
So who would win this toughie test,
IAN !! WITH THE BIGGEST PENIS !!!!

Park Boss Called To The Board

 Park boss Mitchell was called to the Board of Directors after today's 1-0 defeat at Rising Cock to reassure the club that a change of fortunes is around the corner. Park have won only 2 of their opening 5 games which is simply not good enough.

"Its not disastrous and is still early days and although the club has a defensive crisis we at the Park expect more. It has led to Deck calling us 'a former title winner' and Destroyers calling us 'once mighty' is very much past tense. Young Mitch needs to remind not only these two pricks but the rest of the league that Park are among the best around." said a spokesman.

"I am disappointed today" said Mitchell "But I think to match the Deck on the pitch, I have to match them in the poetry area, I already surpass him in the pant area" he quipped. "So, here goes . . . "

My team have had a slowish start
But dont be fooled by that
'Once Mighty' said Destroyers, Dark
But he's a f*cking twat

And as for Deck they won today
But the Cups a home banker its common knowledge that Magics gay small pricked, a f*cking w*nker

So as from now, the change starts here theres nothing more to lose whose best at poems? that Rising queer?

Champs Are On The March

The Perrymen	1
Red Machine FC	4

Possession: 47 - 53 (42-58)
Chances: 1 - 7 (0-4)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Patrício Salvador Justin Bolam

After losing their opening day fixture the Red

Machine are now full-steam ahead and showed their fire-power against a struggling Perrymen side.

Good work from Justin Bolam after 35 minutes created an opening for Acacio Countinho to get the visiting champions on their way with the opener.

Just 2 minutes later Neil Stamford crossed for Bolam to score himself and only a minute later Bolam grabbed his second and Machines 3rd with a superb long range effort in a devastating 3 minute spell which killed off the game.

A converted penalty from Geoffrey Finch after the hour made it 4-0 to the champions and confirmed 3 points would be heading to Couchies side.

Jeff Mayall grabbed an impressive consolation from a direct free-kick for Perrymen but by then the majority of fans, and players, had gone home.

Destroyed by the machine

 McFletch disappeared down the tunnel to the sound of boos from the home fans as The Perry Men sunk to new lows following a 4-1 defeat that see them go bottom of the table and contemplating life in the lower division. McFletch was unable to speak to reporters as he had lost his voice when he left the dressing room. Captain, Jeff Mayall stated that a statement to the press will be issued later in the week.

Westcountry Come Twice From Behind To Go Top

Top Of The Table. Verissimo Mexia celebrates his equaliser, alarmingly wearing a Wolves top.

Essex Wanderers 2
Westcountry Wanderers 2

Possession: 42 - 58 (44-56)
Chances: 5 - 7 (3-4)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Jasper Tete Cliff Hedge

Westcountry twice come from behind to thwart Essex at Rainham to grab top spot in division one.

Westcountry had the better of possession and chances at Rainham Marshes but it was the home side who opened the scoring. Jasper Tete setting up Alfie Horridge to fire home after a quarter of an hours play. The lead lasted barely 2 minutes before Kelsey Ballis set-up James Hitman Heywood for Westcountry's equaliser.

Amazingly a minute later and the home side edged closer to the win when Rowan O'Neill crossed for Jasper Tete to grab his 3rd in as many league games and Essex's 2nd in an explosive first 20 minutes.

Just when it looked as though Essex would inflict Westcountry's first league defeat this season Gaspar Aguado crossed for Verissimo Mexia to head home an 82nd minute equaliser which proved enough to take Westcountry to the top of the table.

Honours Even In Topsy Turvy Game

FC Wazzy 2
Hell Hounds 2

Possession: 57 - 43 (62-38)
Chances: 4 - 4 (2-2)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Benedict Bayley Bill Westcroft

Honours were shared at The Back Garden as both potential promotion hopefuls came from behind in this see-saw match.

Although the home side had the lions share of possession it was the visitors who were first to show. Edgar Meadows long range effort putting the visitors ahead after 16 minutes. Benedict Bayleys corner was converted by Duncan Dale just 3 minutes before the break to put the home side level right before half time.

Just 10 minutes into the second half and the home sides pressure paid off, Rodrigo Lamego putting Randall Blackburn through put Wazzy 2-1 up but the scoring had not yet finished.

With 24 minutes left Bill Westcrofts direct freekick made it 2-2 and snatched a hard-earned point away from home for Hounds, but was this more a case of 2 points lost for Paul Warrens side.

Sexual Ealing Begin To Gain Momentum

Sexual Ealing FC	2
Down By The Trent	1

Possession: 50 - 50 (61-39)
Chances: 5 - 3 (2-0)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Dave Grohl Mikey Grainger

Ealing look to be gaining momentum in both Cup and League as they snatched Down By The Trent's 100% start to season five.

Dave Grohl crossed for Marcos Canas to head home after just 26 minutes to put Sexual Ealing 1-0 up, a lead they took into half time.

Just 9 minutes into the second half and the division leaders were back on level terms. Zacharias Barkworth crossed for Dermot Haworth to head home at the far post.

Just 18 minutes were remaining on the clock when Krik Hammet crossed for Canas to grab his, and his sides second to grab all 3 points for Jared's rising side.

Change of position

 Having spent a week on top, DBTT slipped beneath the covers of the summit after their defeat to Ealing's sexual outfit. Manager Jory, however, was far from downbeat commenting "ups and downs are inevitable, we will train hard in preparation for the Arse fanciers Wazza."

Muhrens Opener Dump Wellington Bottom

Super Blues	1
Wellington Wanderers	0

Possession: 54 - 46 (51-49)
Chances: 4 - 3 (1-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Lester Tabbart Ruben Benavent

Super Blues are off the mark, and the bottom, after Arnold Muhrens solitary goal was enough to sink a Wellington side devoid of confidence and form.

There was little to choose in the first half between the 2 sides if it wasn't for Muhrens very early opener. Good work from Lloyd Grayson on the wing saw his cross met by Muhren to get the home side off to a 1-0 start after barely 2 minutes on the clock.

The match opened up a little more in the second half but neither side could create an opening to score from and so it ended 1-0 to Super Blues, who leap-frog over their opponents and dump Wellington to the foot of the league.

Heroes to Zeroes

 In just over 2 seasons Wellington Wanderers have seen success followed by crushing failure. They now sit at their lowest point in Eggmofo's topsy turvy career, with the question being asked, can they get any worse???

Another defeat will plunge this once mighty team into a run that they may find hard to reverse.

Here we go!

 TB was more than happy with a narrow win over recently relegated Wellington. In a very even game, Muhren fired home a great header to take all three points. The recent form shown in the cup victory against Wazzy has lifted the squad and The Blues are glad to get their first win in the league much earlier than last season. Both new signings had solid games at the back and up front and this will hopefully drive us up the league.

Rising Deck Cast Offs

The rumours are true. In view of Rising Decks dismal start the season, it was rumoured that Ian Mitchell had sent the core of his squad to a remote island to reflect on their performances.

Well, we at LS HQ can confirm that this HAS been the case. even better news is that the LS team have planted cameras on that island. You can see how The Rising Deck players and management got on on Channel 4, this coming Tuesday 24th at 11.05pm Ch4 admit cock up...Real footage found !

The Rising Deck publicity team would like to point out a mistake made by The League Admin/Channel 4 who mistakenly chose a wrong documentary

to be broadcast at 11:05 next Tuesday.

A 'Deck' representative went to Ch4 HQ and managed to borrow the correct footage along with a couple 'slightly disturbing' reels of

'movie making' of other League Managers.

The Rising Deck 1st team's correct documentary can be seen at:

www.xhamster.com/movies/157544/amateur_campus_slut_fucked_by_the_whole_football_team_-_snake.html

The 2nd piece of footage was one of 14 similar 'interesting cases' that involved the mother of Robert Couch (last years winning League manager) and each reel had the date of each of his sides winning Thursdays of last season written on the side.

It can be viewed here:

www.xhamster.com/movies/129290/soccer_mom_fucks_the_referee.html

The final piece of footage is of the Egloshayle Park manager and is of him at his prime (according to camera operator Mandy Hamilton)

This can be seen at www.xhamster.com/movies/70457/very_small_cock.html

Thanks to all at Ch4 for their lending of the tapes for League appraisal

Rising Deck

Rising Deck has been proposed as the New Poet Laureate.

I personally back him over that jumped up little Egg Shell park up start!

"Upstart"

—noun 1. a person who has risen suddenly from a humble position to wealth, power, or a position of consequence.

—adjective 3. being, resembling, or characteristic of an upstart.

—verb (used without object) 4. to spring into existence or into view.

5. to start up; spring up, as to one's feet.

Northern YAWN

Yet again, a boring press release from Tangerine Twat commenting on how well Northern teams are doing well AT THE MOMENT.

Do us all a favour, come back when either of you have actually won something of note (that means consistency and putting together a run of results).

Note - Previous league winners and previous cup winners in the previous FOUR seasons all Southerners, release a press release when you are CONSISTENTLY performing not only week in/week out, but SEASON in/SEASON out (that takes time and expertise big boy ;-)

11 games unbeaten

We have to look back to last season to see when the Irish team were last beaten 4-1 by FC Wazzy on 8th October. In this time they have been promoted to the top division and have had a good start getting them to joint top of the division.

"I am delighted with the run but to be honest these stats dont mean much to me, it is the points on the board that count for everything. We have another tough game this week away to DUAO and would be happy to come away with anything from this one"

There is a long season left for the Irish side but early signs show that they should be hanging around in the top division now for some time. Another fine 4-0 win against Super Blues should also see them through to the next round of the Cup next weekend.

Other News This Week

Egg shell I would look back at the league winners and cup winners, but don't forget I have only been in your league for this the third season.

So in two seasons, won the 1st division? Yeah the northern teams are terrible!!!

We will see at the end of TT's third season.

Or . . .

. . . after FOUR seasons of TOP FLIGHT football ;-)

Not a lot...

'I pay my VIP subscription - haven't one a game in 10' said McFletch in response to the assertions that VIP members gain advantage in Xpert Eleven. McFletch continued, 'I was hoping in the absence of skill, tactics and luck it would be otherwise but it hasn't benefited me at all. Still it's only a couple of quid or so, we can afford it down south'

McFletch Confirms Genepool Contamination

Rumours had been doing the rounds for some time and at long last the cat was let out of the bag. McFletch in his latest press release stated that southerners could afford VIP status and thereby outing the big mouthed whinging Diminishing Spec Manager as a closet Northerner for being unable to afford said VIP status.

For some time, people had marvelled at the "odd Mitchell out". They wondered why he had so many qualities that his siblings didn't show, for example; his lack of webbed hands and feet, his enormous cock in comparison to his siblings stunted todgers, his ability to master the finer arts of poetry, reading, arithmetic, and pigeon fancying. Also his failure to be attracted to sheep or to copulate with his sister at every opportunity, all traits his brothers excelled so well at.

Now it has been confirmed that in the late sixties, the Mitchell clan suffering from a range of deformities from centuries of interbreeding, scoured the country in search of the finest human traits in existence from which to breed new stock. It was obvious that these traits could only come from the true northern grit.

Regardless of his Northern roots, it is unlikely that Diminishing Spec Manager will be welcomed home by the Northern masses as now his blood has been so severely polluted by the Southern gene cesspool.

Anon

Oh Dear!!

Dear Readers
I feel obliged to put pen to paper (or rather fingers to keyboard) to reply to a letter published previously by a something living - presumably - north of the Cotswolds. There appear to be a couple of abnormalities about the said article.

1. The writer appears under the illusion that the said "Mitchell" in question came about due to a forray into the nether-regions - sorry! Northern Regions I meant, in the late sixties. I can clarify that the said "Mitchell" was actually born in November 1971, which sadly means that the writer is sadly lacking in - i, Mental Arithmetic, or ii, Understanding the length of time of the pregnancy cycle for human beings i.e. the time from from conception to birth (approx. nine months), or iii, Both of the above

2. The writer also makes references to "Copulating with their Sister". As the Mitchells have no sisters this would prove to be quite a difficult task. Again this points to a sad lack of knowledge of the difference between males and females - Oh Dear - This even more worrying than I first thought!!

We must all remember though that this is just a sad example of what life is like in the North. (Us Southerners all need to count our Lucky Stars!).

There are - however, geniune reasons for this lack of intellect. We are lucky to have quality schools that delivered us (and our children in some instances) a good education along with other valuable life-skills. There are others however who are much less-fortunate than ourselves living (or existing shall we say) in the North (who sadly won't be able to read this. They will simply have to wait for some unfortunate visitor to their slum from a more respectable Southern town/city to explain it to them). These unfortunate souls have never experienced a "school".

There are reasons why - sadly - this is the case -

Schools are needed - obviously - to cater for the needs and education of children.

We - in the southern half of the country - live in a thriving family-orientated environment and as such there is a demand for such establishments. I -myself have two such children (as does brother MM) at these schools - and yes, these kids are mine before you ask because they are bright, intelligent and clever!

In the North though there are -sadly- no such things as schools. Simply because in such a "homosexual hotbed" there are no children! Even the women have a penis (some have two!). The odd child that may sadly exist in such a cesspits is immediately sent out on the streets to earn money in any way they can (pimps, prostitutes, rent-boys etc.). Anything they do earn taken from them by the adults to pay for their own sordid pleasures (why do you think Blackpool has its own "Pleasure Beach?")

The letter also went on to mention the word "sheep". This has - I have to admit - amazed me. Simply because sheep also do not exist in the North. We all know that sheep live in fields and - again sadly - there are none north of Birmingham. The only thing that anyone will see up there (apart from the tremendous travelling "Green Army" when the Pilgrims are in town) is the stuff which constantly pours out of their shit-stained noses (which - another sadly - forms about 75% of their daily dietary requirements)

Finally - as we approach the festive time of year and look forward to spending quality time with our family and friends may I ask all of you who live in the South of England to spare a thought for those of us less fortunate than ourselves, and to pour ourselves a drink, raise our glasses and say "Cheers.....TO THE SOUTH !!

Thank You for printing this letter. If anyone knows of someone who lives in the North and may have trouble reading or understanding its contents, tell them don't worry - Argyle are at

Before I put him on the transfer market, do any of you VIP's (sorry rising deck) want to make an offer for my new signing Myles Simms? He is a 4 skill, with intelligent & header & no negative qualities.

Back to more important business with my club. On Sunday we have the second leg @ home to Hell Hounds. It will be a bigger miracle than my last round effort to get through as they are a stronger team than TT.

I also managed to scrape together my first league win of the season against one of the top teams in the division. One thing that has pleased me is that I have a high number of players contributing & as it's a team game, its good news moving forwards.

Oh hear the bid from the meek and lonel.

Dear Sexual Ealing,
I offer you 3 whole english econ and 5 corona bottle tops that may possibly be exchanged for a further 10 econ at your local corner store (or 5 econ if the owner is a tight Northern CT) for the said player.
However you have failed to state whether he/she is a forward/defender/midfielder/tea lady and this may effect my bid as our half time Earl grey is tasting decididly meek/pisslike (perhaps it's coz i'm VIP'less and therefore 'Asda SmartPrice' compared to VIP 'Twinning's'.

Round-Up

There were 3 home wins and a draw in the first leg of this seasons Quarter-Final 1st leg with not one away team grabbing a goal.

A goal in each half was enough for the Hell Hounds against Sexual Ealing. Callum Pemberton after 27 minutes and Bill Westcrofts direct freekick 5 minutes from time gave Matt Roses side a 2-0 advantage. Sexual Ealing will need another 2nd leg comeback special if they are to progress to the semi final.

The Red Machine dominated the match at home to Down Under And Out but could not manage to make a break through as honours ended even in a nil nil draw, a result which will favour Wookies travelling men after a brave 4-4-2 formation.

At the Emerald Isle Division One side Super Blues made a good account of themselves in the first 45 minutes and held their high-flying hosts. The Raiders however upped their game in the second half and made their strength count.

Second half goals from Kit Munroe, Gary Fortune and a brace from Seymour Conden should ensure the Raiders progress to the semi-finals.

Another side that can afford to take things a little easier in the second leg is Egloshayle Park. Matt LeTissiers opener after 14 minutes was enough to give Park a 1-0 half time lead and further goals from Paul Rowe and a freekick brace from Diddy Hamilton gave Park a 4-0 1st leg advantage.

The League Supreme Cup - Quarter-Finals 1st Leg

Park Cup Win Sparks VIP 'Conspiracy Theory'

IT'S SICK TO SEE and a poem !

"VIP is fucking corrupt and blatantly fixes results in favour of those buying into it!", was the opening comments from a very angry Rising Deck Player/Manager/honest and with morals big enough not to buy result favours boss Ian Mitchell today.

He proved the growing conspiracy within League Supreme that by parting with cash to buy VIP status you can hugely influence results by the following facts regarding today's 'stinking of fucking corruptness' result in the cup 4-0 loss to Egloshayle :

- 1.) Both teams had a 3:5:2 formation (should prove equal ?)
 - 2.) I correctly guessed the oppositions formation i.e. my team was therefore prepared ! (SHOULD BE ADVANTAGE TO ME)
 - 3.) Both chose to cheat
 - 4.) Opposition chose offensive compared to my normal, back to equal then ?
 - 5.) I chose win bonus (slight edge to me ?)
 - 6.) Opposition chose pressure which means... and i quote Xpert 11 rules 'the disadvantage is that your players will get tired towards the end of each half especially in the second half because they will be chasing the player with the ball.'
- THEY SCORED 3 times in the last 14 MINUTES....! FUCKING CHEATING BULLSHIT !

As this blatantly proves if you don't BUY into this 'Supposed Free Equal League' by agreeing to part with money for VIP then fuck you and your club.

By the way the ref was called Hugh Cango ! Well Hugh Cango and stick the 2nd leg and your VIP up your corrupt asses. The Rising Deck NEVER wish to participate or be associated with BLATANT CHEATING and wish this to be our final season !

Heres your fucking poem, sent in by my 6 year son! Read it and spew Admin pricks !

VIP, VIP, VIP
It's a money wielding song,
Not having it will make you lose,
And that's so fucking WRONG!
CUNTS !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Disgusted By Outburst

Egloshayle Boss was fuming at the way in which fellow manager Ian took his defeat at Egloshayle Park and pointed a finger at money oriented bribery, but he counted to 10 and spoke calmly to reporters afterwards.

"VIP status simply gives you access to more stats, how you use those stats is up to you. FC Wazzy, Trent, Essex and Destroyers are not VIP members and are doing very well, I believe Red Machine even won the title whilst not having VIP status. Many times I have set-up my team what I feel perfectly and failed to win, its called an element of luck, if it was simply a case of tactics then xPert11 would be pointless." said Mitchell.

"I took my defeat last week like a man, its such a shame others cant - its the behaviour I expect from Northerners. I could answer

ALL of his numbered list with responses but I wont, I will add that I chose a more adventurous formation, attacking tactics, I was AT home, and 'pressure' also increases the the effect a midfield has on the match and man for man my midfield outclasses Decks. Im happy with my teams win today, but am aware it could go pear-shaped for me in the next game, and indeed any manager." he concluded.

Park To Complain To Xpert Chiefs

"If having VIP status gives you an advantage, then where was my league win last Thursday????? Its a fucking fix, a scandal, a conspiracy" laughed League comedian Mitchell.

UEFA, FIFA, XPERT 11, PLATINI, BLATTER.

etc etc etc...it's pointless arguing with them because they make the rules and thats that, like it or lump it. They will NEVER admit to inconsistency. We all see it week in week out.

Tonight Rising Deck Player/Manager 'Ian (what satisfaction would i get from buying an advantage against an opposition) Mitchell' raised his glass of Courvoisier in a salute to Mr.A Mitchell, Mr.Anthony Bulley, Mr.P Jory & Mr.P Warren, members proudly displayed on the 'Wall Of Honest Honour'.

"Apparantly it's down to luck, so what's the point in training, selling, buying, tactics, team selection etc. What a waste of fucking time really !"

Apparantly it's down to luck,
So why then fucking bother.
Give my cock a fucking suck
Then go and fuck your mutha !

"Its Like Baking A Cake . . .

. . . Its takes a little bit of everything, luck, fortune, training, tactics, form, first 11, squad, last seasons change report, squad building, players experience, not having an ageing squad . . . If winning games were based on poetry, you would have won the league and cup before a ball is kicked. Unfortunately for you its not"

The League Supreme Cup - Quarter-Finals 1st Leg

DUAO Keep Cup Hopes Alive

DUAO managed to contain last season league title champs, the Machine, on their own turf to take the deciding cup match back to Wookie Hole next weekend.

"Another great result for our junior Cup team on Sunday, as they drew 0-0 away at the Machine. We've now played over 6 hours of football since conceding a goal in all competitions. The lads are gelling well as a team and the signs for the future of the club look very promising.

That said, next up we've got our very first clash with the Irish who have their very own goal scoring machine, Seymour Conden, who I'm sure will be difficult to contain.

Kitchen Nightmares and a word from Delia

Like baking a cake !

Well i had exactly the same ingredients, in the same oven for the same time but i didn't splash out £6 for a fucking cookbook ! Someone from VIP opened the oven took my dish out , poured salt all over it, spat on it then put it on the top shelf and pumped up the heat to Gas Mark 9 (that's 475oF or 240oC !) to totally tamper and tarnish it till it was well and truly charred and inedible.

The other dish VIP took out and gave it to Gordon Ramsey to work his delicate mitts on , adding expensive spices and herbs before adding colourful garnish.

If Xpert 11 was a Restaurant i'd get told to get the fuck out of the kitchen !

The following is taken from Delia Smith's 'Winter Warmers' hardback and would make a lovely Christmas gift for that special Grandparent in your life.

To win a game you need to cook a lovely tasting dish,
But mine had been rubbed by a cunt and now tastes like fucking fish.
The other was like a Barbeque, nice smelling despite the smoke.
Just like a twelve inch throbbing cock, on it i hope you choke !

P.S. If all it takes is takes a little bit of everything, luck, fortune, training, tactics, form, first 11, squad, last seasons change report, squad building, players experience, not having an ageing squad . .etc THEN WHY BUY FUCKING VIP !!!!

One(s) To Watch:

Down Under And Out - Irish Raiders

With the previous 3 champions starting slowly both of these sides will want to continue their great start to the season and remain unbeaten after tomorrow. Raiders have started life in the top flight admirably and deserve to be where they are. DUAO would be forgiven to think there chance at lifting the title had passed but they are there on merit and yet to concede a goal. Somethings got to give.

LS Prediction: I have to sit on the fence with a 0-0 draw

One To Watch:

WestcountryWanderers - Hell Hounds

Although Wellington have had a surprisingly bad start to the campaign just who can grab this division by the scruff of its neck remains to me seen. Just 4 points separate top from second from bottom and any team ready to embark on a 3 or 4 match winning streak could find themselves in the driving seat for a place in the Premiership. Who wins at the Cove between Westcountry and Hounds will take a big step towards that goal.

LS Prediction: Home advantage and experience pays dividends for Westcountry
