

the league supreme

Essex Wanderers
Jasper Tete's
Brace Makes
It Five In Four

Ben Windsor
Celebrates His
Opener As Down
Under And Out KO
Red Machine FC

This Weeks WAG Is
Kira Eggers - Whos Other Half Is
She?

Week Four Saw The League Errupt Once More But This Time With Cries Of VIP Conspiracy Once More

The Rising Deck: We Quit

Rising Deck club officials speak out in VIP protest

The Rising Deck did manage to get on the scoresheet, Andrew Mayne making amends for his earlier error in setting up Donovan Rowling to make it 4-1 but this was not the end of the scoring. Just 10 minutes from time and Sanches crossed for Horace Logan to head home a fifth and final goal to complete a convincing home victory for the champions and spark cries of resignation from Rising Deck manager Ian Mitchell.

THE DECK QUIT. RIP Legends

It is with huge sadness today that The Legendry 'Rising Deck' have quit Xpert11 due to continued inexplicable result manufacturing abnormalities within it's running.

This culminated in todays baffling result in which ANY SANE person would be simply lying if they didn't question HOW ? after reading the facts.

The Deck Manager carefully studied and gave up a lot of precious time to 100% out think the Red Machine Manager as the Tactics report PROVE !

Red Machine FC	5
The Rising Deck	1

Possession: 58 - 42 (60-40)
Chances: 6 - 3 (1-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Inácio Sanches Derren Brown

Two previous winners of the LS Premiership met at The Cauldron with all the action coming in the second half AND after the final whistle as tempers flared regarding Rising Decks VIP conspiracy accusations once more.

Having made it to half-time at 0-0 there was little indication of what was to follow. Decks brave attempt at playing three average players in defence backfired when Inacio Sanches headed in Benny Greats cross just 3 minutes into the second half. Two minutes later and the champions made it 2-0 Acacio Coutinho found space in the box to stab home.

Five minutes later and Andrew Mayne, under-pressure put through his own net to make it 3-0 to Machine and just two minutes after that Neill Whyte made it 4-0 to Red Machine in a devastating quarter of an hours play.

More Premiership news inside . . .

LS Premiership reports and reaction

1.) The ONLY DIFFERENCES are that the Deck Manager CORRECTLY guessed the oppositions formation.

2.) Deck chose the 'cheat' tactic. With the Ref having a skill of only 3 !

P.S. There was also 1,000,000 win bonus from the deck.

So if there was ANY tactical advantage it COULD ONLY LOGICALLY TO THE DECK.

As the All time standings show there is no such 'gulf' between the sides as large as 5-1 !!!!

UTTER FUCKING MANUFACTURED VIP FAVOURING BULLSHIT AND WE ARE NOT PREPARED TO PARTICIPATE WHEN THERE IS CLEARLY NO EQUAL PLAYING FIELD !!

The Dark Destroyers (also VIP less !) conceded 7 ! We understand and feel your plight.

3-5-2 << Formation >> 3-5-2
Normal << Playing style >> Normal
Varied << Offence >> Varied
Tighten the centre << Defence >> Tighten the centre
No << Prepared >> Yes
Careful << Aggression >> Careful
No << Long balls >> No
Yes << Pressure >> Yes
No << Offside traps >> No
No << Cheating >> Yes
Yes << Win bonus >> Yes
Inácio Sanches << Playmaker >> None
None << Tightly marked >> Acácio Coutinho
Neill Whyte << Captain >> Raymond Teller

We leave with OUR HEADS HELD HIGH as we participated WITH NO PAID FOR ADVANTAGES !!
'THE RISING DECK'
THE HOME OF INTEGRITY, HONESTY & MORALS !
RIP

Down Under And Still To Concede

Down Under And Out	2
Irish Raiders	0

Possession: 55 - 45 (59-41)
Chances: 5 - 3 (3-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Olívio Bonilha Simon Francis

Down Under And Out continue to look impressive as they ended Irish Raiders unbeaten run and are yet to concede a goal in the league in Season 5 of the League Supreme.

In a tight match DUAO just edged possession and chances and got off the mark when Andy Blackmoors long range effort found the target after 14 minutes. It was enough for a 1-0 half-time lead.

In an equally tight second half it was once again the home side to grab the all important statistic. Naldo Aragones setting up Geoffrey Boardman for DUAO's second and all three points. Wookies side stay top, are unbeaten and let to concede. Raiders slipped to 3rd.

Luck Runs Out For Irish

The Irish Raiders 12 game unbeaten run came crashing to an end at Wookie Hole this week. DUAO Manager and stand in league magician (in light of Daniels mid life crisis) AKA the New Zealand Necromancer left the Irish spell bound as his tactical wizardry gave DUAO the midfield domination which in turn led to a resounding 2-0 home victory.

The developing DUAO side now look almost certain to avoid the drop this season after a string of results have left them sitting one point clear at the top of the Premiership.

We caught up with Wookie, as he was packing up his spell books, after the game for the following comments.

"After their 12 game unbeaten run, I knew that to take on the Irish on a level playing field would be suicidal for us. I had to slant the table in our favour and try and catch them unawares. The lads stuck to a well conceived game plan and we've pocketed another well earned 3 points.

It's still early days and anything can happen

but with a 7 point gap between us and relegation I can now breathe easy for a while.

Park In Seventh Heaven

Egloshayle Park FC	7
The Dark Destroyers	2

Possession: 59 - 41 (55-45)
Chances: 13 - 7 (6-5)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Diddy Hamilton Anne Robinson

Destroyers brave attempt at Egloshayle backfires as Park nail SEVEN past their rivals.

It all started well for the visiting Destroyers when Dick Dastardly crossed for Anne Robinson to head home in the second minute. Theo Walcott put Diddy Hamilton through to equalise just 4 minutes later but The Destroyers restored their lead just 5 minutes before the break. Fred Wests cross was converted by Darius Koppe to give the visitors a half time 2-1 lead.

Just 3 minutes into the second half and Park were back on level terms, Neil Richards crossing for Anders Svensson to head home. Just 5 minutes later and Egloshayle were 3-2 up with Harold Shipman putting through his own net for the visitors. This spurred the home side on and 3 minutes later it was 4. Walcott and Hamilton combining again, this time from a corner. Just 2 minutes later and the game was beyond reach for Destroyers. Craig Mitchell crossed for Matt LeTissier to head home Parks 5th.

With Destroyers pressing to get back in the game they were exposed at the back and Svensson made it 6-2 from a Hamilton cross. Destroyers misery was complete when LeTissier created a chance for Walcott to make it an amazing seven just 4 minutes from time to complete the rout and Parks biggest ever LS win.

Park Embarrassed By Scoreline

Park boss Mitchell was today slightly embarrassed by his teams 7-2 victory over Dark Destroyers.

"Of course I am happy with it, but we were never 5 goals better than them. Today everthing just clicked and they must have had an off day. I am pleased with the team and having goals coming from across the midfield bodes well for the future of the club." said Mitchell.

LS Premiership reports and reaction

When asked about the resignation of Rising Deck Manager he sympathised "Its his business of course, I have enough to deal with at the Park when things go wrong, but I admit I thought he was made of sterner stuff than that. Its now his team needs his guidance more than ever. Consistency from expereined players is key when things are bad, we have all been there." said Mitchell.

Gamble Badly Backfires for Destroyers

The Dark Destroyers "under-fire" leader Chieftan faced the press today having spent the last 24 hours in a secret location to avoid the circling paparazzi, with his head held high. "I take full responsibility" he announced following his sides heaviest-ever LS defeat. "Last season we lost 4-0 at Park after adopting a defensive formation and tactics. This season I took the bull by the horns and went for the jugular, fielding my strongest midfielders and strikers and went very offensive with a 3-4-3 line-up. At half time we were 2-1 up and it looked like we would be rewarded with our attacking philosophy yet incredibly our normally rock-solid defence (admittedly weakened slightly by our attacking formation) conceded SIX!!! Needless to say I will never adopt such an attacking option again and will resort back to a good-old boring defence-minded very cautious approach in future. I would - however - like to thank Mr R. Martinez of Wigan for his very wise words of advice before the game, but I don't think I'll be needing his help again for a while! One consolation for us is that - after three away league games in a row - we are back on home soil next week and will be looking forward to putting right several wrongs when we face the free-scoring champions Red Machine.

When asked about the "resignation" of fellow boss magicmitch he said "It will be very sad to see a manger of his talents leave. Hopefully he will reconsider in the next few days. The press-box in particular would be a much more boring place without his comments,"

Salvador El Saviour

Temple Town	2
The Perry Men	2

Possession: 55 - 45 (51-49)

Chances: 4 - 5 (3-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Hank Whitbread Patricio Salvador

Two goals 4 minutes from time was enough to break Temple Town hearts and give The Perry Men their second valuable point.

Hank Whitbread's opener in the 19th minute after a Terry Cropper corner gave Temple Town a great start. The 1-0 lead soon became 2-0 when Mickey Walsh created an opening for Alfred Tyacks long range effort to take Town into a half-time lead.

Temple Town looked to be coasting for 3 points but The Perrymen had not given up. Just 4 minutes from time Goncalo Florindo set-up Patricio Salvador's long range effort which set up the grand finale. Just 2 minutes later and Salvador repeated his admirable effort, same player, same range, same outcome. The game ended 2-2, a result which will help neither side.

Dismal display by Temple Town

Two up at half time, then the team went to sleep and allowed The gay Perry men from shite hart lane back into the match and gifted them two easy goals.

The temple town manager had very few words to say after the game except, swear words and gestures towards the changing room.

He was disappointed to hear though that Rising Deck, the only southerner with balls was requesting to resign following their poor start. But TT face them next week and surely that will show a turn of form for rising deck? As you can't get much worse than TT at the moment.

Dismal Display by Temple Tossers

The Perry Men showed true Southern grit as they fought back from 2-0 down against the illiterate Northern homosexuals Temple Town to take a point and double their points tally for the season, McFletcher stated, 'We've had a truly awful run of games but one plus is that on the road we haven't lost to either of the Northern gob-shites'

Essex Jasper Tete makes it 5 goals in 4 to push Essex into second place

LS Division 1 reports and reaction

Tete Makes It Five In Four

expected, Resusers beauty took all three points, the only down point the injury to new signing to Burtenshaw.

Trent Pay The Penalty

FC Wazzy	2
Down By The Trent	0

Possession: 58 - 42 (60-40)
Chances: 6 - 2 (4-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Benedict Bayley Mikey Grainger

FC Wazzy are now slowly stringing results together and leap-frog over Phil Jorys men following a professional home victory.

Randall Blackburns header from a Toby Bent cross after 19 minutes play got Wazzy off to a good start in a first half in which they dominated. Just 3 minutes later and FC Wazzy made it 2-0. Ethan Page converting a 22nd minute penalty.

FC Wazzy continued to boss proceedings in the second half but could not muster a 3rd. But then again, DBTT could not muster a come back and the game ended 2-0 to FC Wazzy.

Merely Punctured

After a second consecutive reverse many will be arguing that the wheels have fallen off by the Trent however manager Jory was far from downhearted commenting "they are only punctured, we'll be back stronger than ever, now where's my credit card for that VIP transaction....."

Reality check!

back to winning ways for the Wazzy and a reminder to DBTT who the REAL big boys are in this division (and that's not just cock size). Start working those shoulders Jory as I foresee them doing a lot of work over the rest of the season!!!

Wellington Wanderers	1
Essex Wanderers	2

Possession: 51 - 49 (56-44)
Chances: 5 - 3 (2-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Ruben Benavent Jasper Tete

Goal-machine Jasper Tetes brace was enough to pile more misery on Wellington Wanderers who lay at the foot of the league.

Wellington cant seem to buy a win at the moment and got off to the worse possible start when Jasper Tete slotted home the opener in the first minute after good work form Morris Swan, it was Tetes 4th of the season.

Wellington had the better of possession and chances and were rewarded when Bert Hallam put Philip Plummer through to strike from distance for the equaliser 20 minutes from time.

Once again, with the game heading for a draw it was Tete who popped up with his 5th in 4 games scoring directly from a free-kick. The goal snatched all 3 points and keeps Essex close on Westcountry's heels at the top.

Kelsey Keeps Wanderers Top

Westcountry Wanderers	1
Hell Hounds	1

Possession: 60 - 40 (58-42)
Chances: 5 - 4 (2-0)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Gaspar Aguado Patrick Koob

A late equaliser 4 minutes from time was enough to keep Westcountry Wanderers top.

The home side started the game well, had the majority of possession and managed to keep Hell Hounds at arms length, not allowing them a single effort on-goal.

The second half was a little more open with both sides looking for a break through. Good work from Agron Behari set Edgar Meadows free to slot home after 73 minutes for the visitors. The home side, however, were worthy of their equaliser and with the minutes fading it was Gaspar Aguados cross that allowed Kelsey Ballis to head home the equaliser. The result keeps Wanderers top with Hell Hounds three points behind.

Sexual Ealing Caught Cold

Sexual Ealing FC	0
Super Blues	1

Possession: 43 - 57 (49-51)
Chances: 2 - 3 (1-2)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
George Harrison Lester Tabbart

Super Blues managed to leap-frog over Sexual Ealing FC after catching them cold.

A goal merely one minute in from a set piece free-kick proved to be enough for Super Blues. Lloyd Graysons pinpointed cross was knocked home by Martin Reuser.

In an extremely tight match it proved to be enough as the Super Blues kept their high spending hosts at bay and held on for all three points.

Record Broken

Reuser marked a fine performance for the Super Blues with the quickest goal in the teams history. In another tight game as

Other News This Week

Farewell Daniels ...

...and good riddance there's a new magician in town and he goes by the name of Wookie.

Where some managers will give up at the first signs of problems, others are made of sterner stuff and although there team is not what it once was they are prepared to put the hours in and come out with a winning formula again – these later Managers, the ones who refrain from moaning when things don't go their way, the ones that understand that the game is made up of more than just its constituent parts, the ones who truly have the largest cocks... are invariably Northern Managers.

Resignation Not Accepted . . . Today

The League Admin will not accept resignation from ANY manager the day of a result. Emotions run high and if Rising Deck want to resign I can not stop them, but it must be after the dust has settled on a disappointing result. I admire Down By The Trent's attitude. His team last season were languishing at the foot of the entire league but there were no cries of resignation or sackings and this season they started superbly.

Mid-Life Crisis at the Deck???

Responding to Magic's press conference, following The Rising Decks defeat to an inform Machine, who has scored a total of NINE goals in two consecutive league games. A jubilant Couch reacted philosophically.

"A time comes in a mans life when he hits the BIG 40 (as Magic did on Tuesday - Happy Birthday by the way!). When all that we hear, from what is known as the mouth is all dribble."

"It is clear that CHEATING DOES NOT PREVAIL, as cheating was one tactic Magic highlighted he had chosen over me. In addition to that, money, all should I say bribes, does not warrant success, after he offered a win bonus of 1,000,000 econ to his players. More fool you!"

"And the gulf he speaks about must be referring to his small cock. Rumour has it that when his manhood acts in sexual intercourse, it has been compared to a wizards sleeve - hardly touching the sides."

"Not to mention that The Rising Deck are a ONE-MAN team, in the case of Robert Houdin, who was injured for the Deck's visit to the Cauldron! In this elite league, you can't put all your eggs in one basket."

"Over to you Magic for a reply."

;))

Its Now A Crucial Time

Park came through their second leg cup match at Rising Deck unscathed and through to the Semi-Finals.

"I had to rest our big names but still picked a side I thought would win. We didnt, but we did enough over both legs to progress and we managed to get some crucial experience to some young fringe players." said Mitchell.

"We now enter a crucial stage of the season. We play the top three, home and away in six successive weeks, the implications are massive and it will be how we perform over all six fixtures that will define our season. If we manage 10 points I would be happy. Who will win the league is anyones guess." said Mitchell.

"Next its DUAO. I have much respect for them and although they are talking about avoiding relegation, I KNOW Wookie will be having league winning thoughts. Red Machine had 2 penalty misses against them but managed ONE goal in the 88th minute. Thats is ALL DUAO have conceded. I would have gladly swapped a couple of my seven last week for one or two on Thursday but we'll see." concluded Mitchell.

When asked as to the health and whereabouts of Rising Deck manager he replied. " I have not seen him, I was seriously concerned about his health and cries of 'Conspiracy Theory' recently. I hope the facts that both Red Machine and Rising Deck themselves have both won the league without VIP status puts ot rest this VIP nonsense. Its ludicrous. I hope he's back very soon and I wish him all the best."

Thank You.....

.....League Admin for your admiration of my attitude (get away from my arsehole you queer!)

TBH winning is great but I'm innit for the laugh (Wazza and your up the Arsenal attitude, I'll show you!!)

So Magic, bring your truncheon back onto the scene (I don't care what size it is) and make a splash over these pages!

Park Relishing BOTH Competitions

Park prepare for their biggest test this season, away at leaders DUAO and their manager has given praise to Thursdays rival.

"Yes, he's a Northern gobshite, but his team are on a roll. Raiders, DUAO and ourselves represent the Premiership in the cup and a huge congrats must go to Hell Hounds, the only Division One side left in the competition. And I congratulate you all." said Mitchell.

"Its the Red Machine supporters I feel sorry for. They only seem to look forward to one competition, albeit the league is the biggest prize it would be the sign of a truly great manager to accomplish both. Maybe Machines squad isnt as strong as is led to believe." continued Mitchell.

"Unless they are playing us, then I wish the managers with BOTH league AND cup AMBITIONS all the very best - to lifes winners!!" concluded Mitchell.

Cha-Ching

As the DUAO team was being put through their paces in preparation for the forth coming ménage a trois with Egoshale Park, we managed to get a rare pre match interview with DUAO Manager Wookie.

Other News This Week

"So Old "Money Bags" Mitchell is coming to town again to try and buy another win against us. All the outlets in town have put up their tourist prices and we are looking forward to gleaning a few million off the club as they desperately seek to buy some sort of respectability from their poor start to the season. If we beat him on Thursday he'll be a massive 7 points off the mark and his title ambitions will be all but dead and buried. We're ahead of our target for the season, so the win is not essential for us, but if he's going to take any points off us I'll make sure they don't come cheap.

So do I think he'll be waving his cash around on Thursday...what do you think?
I know he won't settle for the draw."

Park Dealt Defensive Blow

On the eve of their biggest game of the season to date, Egloshayle have been dealt yet another defensive blow.

Lee Bateman was tidying up his bedroom today, and picked up his girlfriend's curling iron without realising it was still on. Lee Bateman now has some nasty burns on his hand, and will be unavailable for a few days while they heal.

Although why his hand prevents him from playing is a mystery to me. I had already picked my team and tactics but will have to revisit my plans.

When asked about Wookies comments Mitchell replied "When a manager second guesses another prior to a match by quoting 'money-bags' and particularly stating that a win is not crucial to him and they are already 'ahead of their target' are the comments of a very worried manager, Im flattered" said Mitchell

Soccer Wag Kira Eggers - Thomas Gravesen

Leaders Knock-Out Champions

Ben Windsor celebrates the opener in DUAO's 2-1 over Machine

Quarter-Final Results

22/11/2009	Hell Hounds	2 - 0 (1 - 0)	Sexual Ealing FC
29/11/2009	Sexual Ealing FC	1 - 2 (0 - 2)	Hell Hounds
22/11/2009	Red Machine FC	0 - 0 (0 - 0)	Down Under And Out
29/11/2009	Down Under And Out	2 - 1 (2 - 0)	Red Machine FC
22/11/2009	Irish Raiders	4 - 0 (0 - 0)	Super Blues
29/11/2009	Super Blues	1 - 4 (1 - 2)	Irish Raiders
22/11/2009	Egloshayle Park FC	4 - 0 (1 - 0)	The Rising Deck
29/11/2009	The Rising Deck	3 - 1 (2 - 0)	Egloshayle Park FC

Round-Up

Sexual Ealing FC could not repeat their comeback miracles of the previous round after going down 2-1 at home to Hell Hounds, losing 4-1 on aggregate. Goals from Bill Westcroft and Edgar Meadows proved to be enough. Hell Hounds are the only side from Division One to make the semi-finals and must play arch-rivals Irish Raiders.

Raiders disposed of Super Blues 4-1 to progress a convincing 8-1 on aggregate. Errol Jordan grabbed a brace of goals in the victory.

Raiders

Seems they're unbeatable? Fair play we went out fully offensive considering the massive margin from the first leg but conceding another 4 is not a good sign.

That said, I couldn't give a flying fuck after ITFC won their first away game coming from behind and having our keeper injured in the first half to win!

Plymouth must also be the luckiest team going, 4 v 1 down at half time only for the game to be abandoned, I bet they beat Barnsley in the replay aswell.

Down Under And Out did just enough at home to Red Machine after drawing the 1st leg 0-0. 2-1 proved enough for the league leaders and astonishingly Machine missing 2 penalties have only themselves to blame. Ben Windsor and Daniel Kibble (from the spot) got the goals for DUAO and Neill Whyte missing both penalties for Machine.

Rise Against the Machine

DUAO progressed to the semi-final of the Cup amid a raucous of chants from the home supporters at the travelling reds including "you couldn't score in a brothel".

In a lack lustre performance by DUAO, they somehow managed to scramble to a 2-0 lead in the first half as they were out thought tactically off the pitch and out played by the Red Machine on every square inch of the field. The difference between the two sides was DUAO took their chances whilst the Machine squandered 6 of theirs including 2 penalties.

We caught up with Wookie for his post match thoughts.

"It wasn't a pretty game for us, but with the Board still refusing to strengthen the squad, I have no choice but to give our youngsters the match experience they need. If I'm honest, I half expected to go out with the lack of experience in the team today, but our defence was once again heroic – particularly young Olivio in goal, who played out of his socks.

The League Supreme Cup - Quarter-Finals 1st Leg

Missed Opportunities - Literally

Red Machine FC got knocked out of the cup at the quarter final stage, with a typical 'cup game' against LS current leaders DUAO.

The media caught up with Couch at Newquay airport, just minutes before he was about to board a Ryanair plane destined for Amsterdam. The trip was to prove the DUAO supporters wrong, who were chanting a hurtful "you couldn't score in a brothel".

"My managerial tactical nous, again proved to be superior, as I out-witted Wookie in the way I set my team up for the game. If I was told before the game we would create seven chances, which included two penalties, I would've taken that and presumed that we could have easily converted at least three of those. But how wrong I was."

"This will be a great test of our bounce-back-ability, as we travel to the Dark Destroyers on Thursday, with all our concentration now on retaining the LS title."

"Oh, I would like to question the LS ADMIN, who printed in black and white in the press. That The Rising Deck won the League without VIP status. I do not believe this to be fact. As I am to date the only manager to win LS without VIP assistance!!"

"I eagerly wait for a reply."

.....any luggage sir?

.....no, I am only staying for one night, and I have accommodation sorted near a red street light.

Being 4-0 down in the over-publicised 1st leg The Rising Deck did manage to comeback against Egloshayle Park (wheres the VIP argument now?) beating them 3-1 in the second leg. It wasn't enough, however, to allow them to progress to the semi-finals.

Roger Filan scored a brace for the Deck with debutant Steve Lloyd scoring for the visitors.

Xpert11

C Pemberton	- Hell Hounds
Ben Windsor	- Down Under An...
Horace Logan	- Red Machine FC
Derren Brown	- The Rising Deck
Errol Jordan	- Irish Raiders
H Lassen-Kahlke	- Red Machine FC
Daniel Kibble	- Down Under An...
S Di Cintio	- Red Machine FC
Neal Stamford	- Red Machine FC
Simon Francis	- Irish Raiders
Olivio Bonilha (C)	- Down Under An...
Manager	- Agarrihy Irish Raiders

Top Scorers

1	Diddy Hamilton	MF	Egloshayle Park FC	4
2	Ben Windsor	F	Down Under And Out	3
	Errol Jordan	MF	Irish Raiders	3
	Seymour Conden	F	Irish Raiders	3
5	Bill Westcroft	MF	Hell Hounds	2
	James Hitman Heywood	F	Westcountry Wanderers	2
	Morris Swan	F	Essex Wanderers	2
	Roger Gidlöf	F	Sexual Ealing FC	2
	Jasper Tete	F	Essex Wanderers	2
	Derrick Sawyer	F	Down by the Trent	2
	Acácio Coutinho	F	Red Machine FC	2
	Edgar Meadows	F	Hell Hounds	2
	Jonatan McGibbon	F	Hell Hounds	2
	Gerardo Raposo	GK	Sexual Ealing FC	2

Semi-Final Draw

06/12/2009	Down Under And Out	-	Egloshayle Park FC
13/12/2009	Egloshayle Park FC	-	Down Under And Out
06/12/2009	Irish Raiders	-	Hell Hounds
13/12/2009	Hell Hounds	-	Irish Raiders

Comedy Corner

LS Premiership Stats

Week 4 Results

Red Machine FC	5 - 1 (0 - 0)	The Rising Deck
Down Under And Out	2 - 0 (1 - 0)	Irish Raiders
Egloshayle Park FC	7 - 2 (1 - 2)	The Dark Destroyers
Temple Town	2 - 2 (2 - 0)	The Perry Men

Xpert 11

P Salvador	- The Perry Men
Dick Dastardly	- The Dark Destr...
Matt LeTissier	- Egloshayle Park FC
Diddy Hamilton (C)	- Egloshayle Park FC
Anders Svensson	- Egloshayle Park FC
Theo Walcott	- Egloshayle Park FC
S Di Cintio	- Red Machine FC
Neil Richards	- Egloshayle Park FC
Chesley Gellar	- Down Under And Out
Hank Whitbread	- Temple Town
Olívio Bonilha	- Down Under And Out

Manager - Siharg Temple Town

Top Scorers

1	Diddy Hamilton	MF	Egloshayle Park FC	3
	Acácio Coutinho	F	Red Machine FC	3
3	Geoffrey Finch	MF	Red Machine FC	2
	Justin Bolam	F	Red Machine FC	2
	Anders Svensson	MF	Egloshayle Park FC	2
	Patrício Salvador	F	The Perry Men	2
	Wayne Manger	F	Down Under And Out	2
	Neill Whyte	D	Red Machine FC	2

Week 5 Fixtures

The Dark Destroyers	-	Red Machine FC
The Rising Deck	-	Temple Town
Down Under And Out	-	Egloshayle Park FC
Irish Raiders	-	The Perry Men

One(s) To Watch:

Down Under And Out - Egloshayle Park FC

Egloshayle Park FC can close the gap at the top to a single point if results go their way, including this one. Park, not known for their exceptional away record scored seven at home to Dark Destroyers last week. They will meet a DUAO side who have not conceded a single goal in the league so far and who currently lead the Premiership.

LS Prediction: DUAO to concede at last but end up victorious

League Table

Team	Pld	W	D	L	Diff	Pts
Down Under And Out	4	3	1	0	5	10
Red Machine FC	4	3	0	1	7	9
Irish Raiders	4	2	1	1	0	7
Egloshayle Park FC	4	2	0	2	4	6
Temple Town	4	1	2	1	1	5
The Rising Deck	4	1	0	3	-5	3
The Dark Destroyers	4	1	0	3	-7	3
The Perry Men	4	0	2	2	-5	2

LS Division One Stats

Week 4 Results

WestcountryWanderers	1 - 1 (0 - 0)	Hell Hounds
Wellington Wanderers	1 - 2 (0 - 1)	Essex Wanderers
Sexual Ealing FC	0 - 1 (0 - 1)	Super Blues
FC Wazzy	2 - 0 (2 - 0)	Down by the Trent

Xpert 11

Morris Swan	- Essex Wanderers
Jasper Tete	- Essex Wanderers
Z Barkworth	- Down by the Trent
Terrence Crooks	- FC Wazzy
Gaspar Aguado	- WestcountryWand...
Bill Westcroft	- Hell Hounds
Benedict Bayley	- FC Wazzy
Agron Behari	- Hell Hounds
Hayden Bubb	- FC Wazzy
Mikey Grainger (C)	- Down by the Trent
Patrick Koob	- Hell Hounds

Manager - Wozboz FC Wazzy

Top Scorers

1	Jasper Tete	F	Essex Wanderers	5
2	Randall Blackburn	F	FC Wazzy	3
3	Bill Westcroft	MF	Hell Hounds	2
	Harold Sully	MF	Essex Wanderers	2
	James Hitman Heywood	F	WestcountryWanderers	2
	Marcos Cañas	F	Sexual Ealing FC	2
	Edgar Meadows	F	Hell Hounds	2
	Ethan Page	F	FC Wazzy	2
	Dermot Haworth	F	Down by the Trent	2
	Derrick Sawyer	F	Down by the Trent	2

Week 5 Fixtures

Hell Hounds	-	Wellington Wanderers
FC Wazzy	-	WestcountryWanderers
Down by the Trent	-	Super Blues
Essex Wanderers	-	Sexual Ealing FC

One To Watch:

FC Wazzy - WestcountryWanderers

Westcountry Wanderers, although top of the table, have stumbled recently drawing their last two league games. The travel to an FC Wazzy side eager to not only climb the league, but return to the big time. Both clubs have the squad to win this division and who will win here could top the division going into week 5..

LS Prediction: FC Wazzy to leapfrog over Wanderers with a win.

League Table

Team	Pld	W	D	L	Diff	Pts
WestcountryWanderers	4	2	2	0	2	8
Essex Wanderers	4	2	1	1	4	7
FC Wazzy	4	2	1	1	0	7
Down by the Trent	4	2	0	2	0	6
Super Blues	4	2	0	2	-2	6
Hell Hounds	4	1	2	1	1	5
Sexual Ealing FC	4	1	1	2	-1	4
Wellington Wanderers	4	0	1	3	-4	1