

theleaguesupreme 5

Park knock in three away at the league champions but Raiders extend lead

Goal machine Jasper Tete makes it eight, this time past DBTT keeper.

Down Under And Out are crowned LS Cup champions beating Hell Hounds 2-1

The Leagues best (well . . . only) magazine is back after technical problems at the LS HQ (should have turned it off and on again)

Champs Crushed As Raiders Storm Ahead

Parks Paul Rowe celebrates their 3rd goal and the final nail in the coffin for Machine

With the home side pushing forward it was Park who made it 3-0 when Matt Oakleys corner was converted by Paul Rowe to put the visitors in second place, leapfrogging their hosts.

Park Boss Plays Down Vital Win

Getting hold of Park boss these days is difficult, hes such a popular guy but we managed to catch a few words.

I asked him "Youre back in the title race now yes?" to which he replied. "The doors still open but we all need to catch Raiders if thats going to happen, theyre looking good, but yes, todays result was excellent. Not bad for a 'Cup' side with bad away form" said the really funny handsome boss. Surely a swipe at todays opposite number Couch, some wont get it, but I certainly did, damn this guys so clever.

I then asked him how he approaches the next game against the leaders. "The same as any other, we are in good form and at home, but Raiders are so far ahead they can afford to lose and still

Red Machine 0
Egloshayle Park FC 3

Possession: 43 - 57 (41-59)
Chances: 6 - 6 (2-2)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Neal Stamford Kevin Banshee Hewitt

Egloshayle Park completed the double over the league champions with an impressive 3-0 victory at the Red Cauldron.

Alan Shearer put the visitors on their way after good work from Kinglsey Rickard created an opening for the young striker to score after seven minutes. This was closely followed by a second just four minutes later when Svensson put Rickard through to put Park 2-0 up in a first half that saw the visitors edge possession.

Influential players Theo Walcott and Rickard had early exits through injury and the champions pushed hard to get back into the game but it was to no avail.

More Premiership News Inside . . .

Premiership Round-Up

be comfortable, we will do our best and I am sure other teams will be secretly hoping for a Park win, not because I am amazingly gorgeous, they all love me and I have a bigger cock than Deck, but because it will keep the league race interesting” he said. And how right he is, I overheard other fellow male married reporters leave the interview muttering “no wonder my wife wants him and not me, i dont blame her, i’d wank him off”.

Munroe Helps Raiders Extend Their Lead

Irish Raiders	1
The Rising Deck	0

Possession: 44 - 56 (51-49)

Chances: 4 - 4 (3-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Marshall Bushell Ally Kazam

With other results going their way the Irish Raiders managed to extend their lead at the top of the table to an impressive nine six points with this hard-fought 1-0 victory over The Rising Deck to plonk the visitors at the foot of the table.

In a first half just edged by the leaders it was Kit Munroe who managed the all important statistic, the eventual match winner, in the 24th minute after slotting home from a Gary Fortune through ball.

The visitors upped their game in the second half and had a goal disallowed (VIP bias no doubt ;-) but their efforts came to no avail and they find themselves with a fight for survival as the leaders and Garrihys impressive rise to fortune continues.

How long will it last?

The luck of the Irish was again with the Raiders today in a not so convincing 1-0 win.

“We struggled today during periods of the game and to be honest we didnt deserve all 3 points. The away side came here today and gave up a good fight and even had a goal marked down in the second half. You do need luck to win a title and we got it today. Im sure we will need it again. With the top four playing each other next week there could be a very different look on the title next week. Yes we are 6 points clear but we are just over half way there. The game against Egg Shell next week is probably our biggest so far this season looking at the table now as we are both the teams in form.”

“Its great to be back and I have missed the fun of the league big cocks, small cocks, northerners and southerners. We are back. Happy new year to all and good luck for the rest of the season.

All Square In Northern Bruiser

Down Under And Out	1
Temple Town	1

Possession: 50 - 50 (52-48)

Chances: 5 - 3 (4-0)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Olívio Bonilha Hank Whitbread

It ended all square at Down Under And Out as fellow Northern visitors fought hard for a well deserved 1-1 draw.

It all started well for DUAO with Ben Windsor scoring from a Payton Whiteside corner after just five minutes play. The home side dominated the first half with chances but failed to capitalise on their 1-0 lead.

Ironically it was an early second half goal, this time from the visitors, which eventually secured a point for Temple Town. Franklin Leaver rose highest in the box to head home a Hayden Rowson corner.

In a hard fought encounter DUAO had Vinnie Steele injured and Joe Teale sent off which leaves coach Wookie with e squad dilemma ahead of Sundays Cup-Final second leg.

DUAO Midfield Hammered

The clash of the two mighty Northern Teams left DUAO with two of the best midfielders out for the next game, ouch!! A tough game saw very few chances and resulted in a hard fought draw.

Both managers shook hands at the end of the game, but the problems for DUAO team were etched all over his face.

Rumour has it Rising Deck is coming to the smoke to see the big boys!? Or is it to visit the local houses of sin?

Luckless DUAO

After their back to back matches with Temple Town, DUAO have managed to walk away with just one point from 6, but more importantly they have picked up 3 injuries and a red card and now face the second leg of the Cup Final with a severely depleted side. We caught up with Wookie for his comments on the crisis.

“Temple Town appear to have caused us one or two problems this season. Tactically we had things right and should have picked up all 6 points from the two encounters, but footballs a funny game. We can’t think of anyone else who we rather see pick points off us, however were now left dangerously close to being dragged into a premiership survival dogfight and we face a challenging Cup Final without key players. Sunday will tell what the real damage has been from these past two encounters. I’m hoping our bad luck has come to an end and I’ll be keeping everything crossed and praying to any deity I can find in anticipation”

Premiership Round-Up

Robinson 'Annes' Destroyers A Lifeline

The Dark Destroyers	1
Perry Men FC	0

Possession: 49 - 51 (48-52)

Chances: 3 - 5 (1-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Frankensteins Monster Rufus

Lawrence

The Dark Destroyers leapfrogged over their visitors and consequently out of the relegation zone with a 1-0 win at the Theatre Of Doom.

In an extremely close 90 minutes with the Perry Men just edging the play on possession and chances it was the home side that grabbed the vital three points in the six-pointer (work that one out).

Anne Robinson headed in a 38th minute Sid Vicious corner to leave Cheiftan celebrating and Fletch comisserating.

New year's dark days ahead

The Perry Men got off to a flyer this year with a stunning 1 - 0 defeat agianst fellow division strugglers, The Dark Destroyers. Gary Lineker was ready and willing to talk to reporters at the end of the game. 'It's a disgrace, we dominated possession and had the greater chances, clearly we are all disappointed after foregoing the usual Christmas festivities for extra training sessions. The gaffer said it would pay off but he clearly doesn't know what he's talking about. It's back to snowballs and mince pies for me next year I don't care what Mr McFletch has to say about it.' Harsh words from Ol' Big ears, lets see if his outburst leads to any repercussions.

The FIFTY (Well . . seven) Hottest WAGS of 2008

In the run-up to the end of the season we will be counting down the top seven hottest WAGS of 2008 as voted by the Guardian.

7. Oksana Andersson

Born in Russia and raised in Sweden, according to her website Oksana spent a couple of years with the "international famous pop group Sunblock." Following this exposure, her "career increased in every direction," and before long she found occasional Bolton midfielder Christian Wilhelmsson jumping on her bandwagon

Division One Round-Up

Late Tete Makes It Eight In Eight

Its Tete once again grabbing the headlines in Division One - He cant stop scoring

Terrence Crooks corner caused confusion in the Ealing defence and Bonaventure Libih capitalised to give the home side a 1-0 lead after 21 minutes.

In an equally tight second half Ealing pushed for an equaliser and must have thought they grabbed a point when Roger Diflofs 83rd minute direct free-kick flew past Wazzys keeper. With the game drawing to a close either side could have snatched it but it was left to another corner. This time Hayden Bubb crossed for Rodrigo Lamego to head home an all important winner for Wazzy and grab all three vital points.

Hounds In Form For The Cup

Hell Hounds	2
Super Blues	0

Possession: 58 - 42 (55-45)

Chances: 6 - 2 (2-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Bill Westcroft Martin Reuser

Matt Roses Hell Hounds were simply too strong for Darren Rices Super Blues at The Den as the home side will go into Sundays cup-final following a 2-0 victory.

The visitors kept their hosts at bay for nearly the entire first half but a 44th minute freekick found the target from Bill Westcroft.

Any hope of a comeback was dead and buried just 22 minutes from time when Westcroft turned provider, this time setting up Jude Attenborough to make it 2-0 to the Hounds and win the match.

Down By The Trent	2
Essex Wanderers	2

Possession: 49 - 51 (50-50)

Chances: 7 - 7 (2-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Zacharias Barkworth Alfie Horridge

Goal machine Jasper Tete made it an astonishing eight goals in eight games as his 90th minute strike rescued a point for the leaders.

You couldnt get much more of an even game at City Ground if you tried. The leaders were the first to show with Otis Hoyte heading in a Brent Manger corner after just eight minutes play.

Trent managed an equaliser just five minutes before the break when Larry Mercer put Ronnie Bergman through to make it 1-1.

With the game heading for a 1-1 stalemate the home side then threatened to upset the leaders when Zacharias Barkworths pinpoint cross was headed in at the back post by James Hoper with just 5 minutes left on the clock.

With just second left on the clock it was left to the leagues top scorer to salvage a point as his 90th minute long range effort ensured Essex stayed in top spot.

Lamego's Late Show Puts Wazzy Second

FC Wazzy	2
Sexual Ealing FC	1

Possession: 53 - 47 (52-48)

Chances: 4 - 4 (1-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Terrence Crooks Gerardo Raposo

FC Wazzy edged past Sexual Ealing in this closely fought battle at the Back Garden to get back into the promotion places for a step up the the Premiership.

Division One Round-Up

Westcountry Wanderers Wondering What Went Wong

Wellington Wanderers	3
Westcountry Wanderers	0

Possession: 50 - 50 (49-51)

Chances: 7 - 4 (4-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Ruben Benavent Cliff Hedger

High-flyers Westcountry Wanderers were dealt a heavy blow from Division one strugglers Wellington Wanderers by losing 3-0.

There was nothing to choose between these teams in terms of possession but it was the home side that created the more chances and ended up easy winners.

Jeremie Gibson set up Phillip Plummer for an early 9th minute opener and seven minutes later he added a his and Wellingtons second after being put through by Ruben Benavent.

It was all over on the hour when Linford Harwoods 60th minute freekick flew directly past the Westcountry keeper to give Wellington a 3-0 victory and hope of avoiding the wooden spoon in season five.

New Year New Hope

A win against against the other Wanderers in the league has provided Eggmofo with some new hope for the new year. After such a dreadful season all hopes for promotion have faded but now our team are playing for pride, it also gives us a chance to blood some youngsters.

Comedy Corner

Financial Turmoil At The Trent

DBTT has been hit by a 366,000 econ fine by the local health and safety department due to their finding of rats in the kitchen.

The only comment from sources within DBTT was that Pearl Kittow had been put on "gardening leave"

Meanwhile it has since been reported that Pearl (being typically thick for one of that family) mis-interpreted the term "gardening leave" and has reportedly been seen pissing in "The Back Garden" home of the Wazza's muttering through her clattering false teeth "this'll clear the frost".

For those of you up north wandering who Pearl Kittow is LOOK AT EVERYONE AROUND YOU!

Mystery

this week's match against the 'Sex might be a doubt unless the a mystery can be solved. Head groundsman, Mo Milorn, has reported the appearance of a rather large yellow patch in the middle of the pitch. Carbon dating of blades of grass dates the origin of the colourisation to the day DBTT boss Phillip Percy Jory was last seen walking the local streets with what locals called, "His new bit of MILF!". One even overheard them discussing a PEARL. Is she due for a "special" necklace??

Unwanted Xmas Gift free to a Fat Fuck Queer

Sad to see that Santa gave Bold Blackpool Freak 'Ian Holloway' a tight fitting Jacket for Crimbo. Funny though to see it give him soo much agony that he threw it down on the touchline in a 'teasy tantrum' during their cup thrashing. Spoilt CT! The Mighty Greens are in the 4th round draw. Paul Mariner will be thinking of 1978 all over again !

MM
:)

Happy New Year to one and all

'The Perry Men look forward to securing premiership survival starting with a win against the Dark Destroyers on Thursday.' said the ever optimistic McFletch. 'The players have been in extra training over the festive period and hope to capitalise on the over indulgence the other players are bound to have participated in' The casual observer may question whether the Perry Men, who were unable to beat the Destroyers at home, will be able to travel and get a rare away win. All will be revealed on Thursday as battle commences once again.

DBTT manager Phil Jory was in jovial mood today after his sides draw with the Essexites commenting "that Titch Mitch reckons he's a popular guy, well he's one letter incorrect namely an "a" for the "u" the GAY. He talks of a "swipe" at Couch more like a "wipe" of his arse. Aaah it's great to be back slagging off the tiny one and, oh yeah, my lads almost snuck a win against the top dogs. Meanwhile bring on West Brom tomorrow, lets see if these Forest boys are the real deal."

And indeed.....

.....they are. Apart from a nervy 10-15 minutes after their goal Forest were by far the better side and quoting ceefax (the oracle no less!) Forest "eased" to victory.

Oh I do like to be beside the seaside
Oh I do like to be beside the sea
Oh I do like to walk along the prom, prom, prom
While the band are playing "fuck off West Brom"

Sea sea, seaiders!

You may like the seaside but we fucked the forest on the prom, prom, prom! 0 v 1!

Other News

Anger In The Ranks Of TT

A former manager has published an autobiography, which includes anecdotes about how Hank Whitbread is lazy and has a bad attitude.

This makes Hank Whitbread angry, and he becomes fired up and eager to disprove the opinion. As a result, he works extra hard in training, and gains some form. So ready to take on anyone now!

Currently TT manager is holidaying in Basle, so he will not be present at the WW game!

The Zoro will still play

During training, Marcos Cañas takes a full-blooded clearance straight in the face, breaking his nose. However, Marcos Cañas is hard as nails, and asks the team doctor for a protective mask so that he can keep playing. He misses the rest of the training session but will be able to play in the next match with his usual confidence.

Proud Tango man

And yes you have every right to be proud TT as your orange clad girls were the last team (bar Blackburn in the league cup) to beat Forest albeit luckily according to the twangy sounding Holloway - fair play though you got the ball in the net, we didn't.

But where has it gone wrong since? - although I hear you were a tad unlucky at Cardiff on Sat. In fact the aforementioned Holloway made a great comment that the Cardiff fans need to "take a reality check" after booing their team off despite being in 4th position. Fair comment indeed!

Happy New Year ... CTs

New Year, Same Fucking (Goal)Scoring Problems ! When we did eventually score it was fucking disallowed ! Fuck It !!!!

It's true i may be heading to the 'Big Smoke' for an important meeting with the 'Magic Circle' but it's 'The Pink Clam' that i may visit as well so lock up you're daughters ! (Only if they're old enough, i'm not a fucking molester !)
A Visit to The Anchor may be on the cards for some Mead (Mighty Sharps Ale there ? eh Hewey ?)

Happy New Year To You All
MM
:)

Woody not Rudy

By the way if any of you thought you saw Rudolph on Christmas Eve you were probably pissed as it was me with my very shiny red Helmet at the far end of my Massive Cock. Many Hoe Hoe Hoe wanted it up em !

MM
:)

Ealing beat Red Machine in friendly

Ealing manager was over the moon with yesterdays 4-3 victory over a weakened Red Machine team. But to put 4 goals past a premiership team is a good effort. It was a big turn around from the weeks before lame effort against Wazzy. Now that all bar 1 player are at the 100% match experience for the season, it's all about keeping their aerage form up & the change report will hopefully be kind.

Some space . . . an arse

Please note 'Some space . . . an arse' is not in the LS Magazine schedule and may not appear in future editions*

The LS Cup Final Report

DUAO Take Cup From Brave Hounds

Down Under And Out skipper Steven Simons lifts the LS Cup aloft

DUAO Crowned Season 5 Cup Champions!!!

For a team in the making, the DUAO Cup campaign has showed a glimpse of what glory awaits them when this young side eventually comes of age. In a campaign which saw them knock out premiership champions the Red Machine, triple Cup winners Egloshayle Park and in the final beat Hell Hounds, a side who, on paper, field the strongest of both leagues. DUAO clearly didn't have an easy run through the Cup and injuries almost derailed their campaign at several key points, but the team pulled together to overcome the odds and are deserved holders of the silverware in their trophy cabinet.

We caught up with a jubilant Wookie for his thoughts on the match

"Although we went into the second leg with a 2-0 lead we were by no means home and dry. Due to injuries I had difficulty selecting a side that I thought could contend out there today, but I worried needlessly, as the lads played magnificently and defended well. After we went 1-0 down in the first half, I had my heart in my mouth for the rest of the game, it wasn't a pretty show today but sometimes you have to play gritty football and grind out the results you need. The lads deserve a few days off the celebrate and then they are back into training as we still have to secure our premiership place for next season and that starts on Thursday with a home tie against the Red Machine."

Hell Hounds	1
Down Under And Out	0

the Cup holders Park and League champions Red Machine enroute.

Possession: 55 - 45 (60-40)
Chances: 3 - 0 (2-0)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Agron Behari Chesley Gellar

Hell Hounds outplayed their visitors in the second leg and Bill Westcrofts direct free-kick after 25 minutes ensured managers and spectators were kept on the edge of their seat until the final whistle at The Den.

Down Under And Out were crowned Cup champions this week by beating Hell Hounds 2-1 on aggregate although losing the second leg 1-0.

Hounds can take great pride in being the only Division One side to make it to the final and narrowly losing 2-1. Although it is Wookie and his Down Under And Out team who will rightly take the plaudits by ensuring his team did enough over the 2 legs to bring the Trophy to the Wookie Hole.

DUAO are the only the 3rd LS team to lift the trophy after Parks 3 year dominance. Although Hounds put up a brave fight, Wookie and his men have deserved their first trophy in the top flight after beating

Premiership Stats

Week 8 Results

The Dark Destroyers	1 - 0 (1 - 0)	The Perry Men
Down Under And Out	1 - 1 (1 - 0)	Temple Town
Irish Raiders	1 - 0 (1 - 0)	The Rising Deck
Red Machine FC	0 - 3 (0 - 2)	Egloshayle Park FC

Xpert 11 - Team Of The Week

K Rickard	- Egloshayle Park FC
Ben Windsor	- Down Under And Out
Anders Svensson	- Egloshayle Park FC
Inácio Sanches	- Red Machine FC
Horace Logan	- Red Machine FC
M Bushell	- Irish Raiders
Ally Kazam	- The Rising Deck
Neal Stamford	- Red Machine FC
S Di Cintio	- Red Machine FC
Rufus Lawrence (C)	- The Perry Men
F Monster	- The Dark Destr...
Manager	- CMitch Egloshayle Park FC

Top Scorers:

1	Kingsley Rickard	F	Egloshayle Park FC	6
2	Acácio Coutinho	F	Red Machine FC	5
3	Kit Munroe	F	Irish Raiders	4
4	Ben Windsor	F	Down Under And Out	3
	Diddy Hamilton	MF	Egloshayle Park FC	3
	Gary Fortune	MF	Irish Raiders	3
	Justin Bolam	F	Red Machine FC	3
	Wayne Manger	F	Down Under And Out	3
	Narciso Campelo	MF	The Perry Men	3

Week 9 Fixtures

Down Under And Out	-	Red Machine FC
The Rising Deck	-	The Perry Men
Egloshayle Park FC	-	Irish Raiders
Temple Town	-	The Dark Destroyers

One To Watch

Down Under And Out	-	Temple Town
--------------------	---	-------------

LS Prediction:

Premiership Table

	P	W	D	L	Diff	Pts
Irish Raiders	8	6	1	1	8	19
Egloshayle Park FC	8	4	1	3	6	13
Red Machine FC	8	4	1	3	4	13
Down Under And Out	8	3	4	1	4	13
Temple Town	8	2	4	2	1	10
The Dark Destroyers	8	2	2	4	-7	8
The Perry Men	8	1	3	4	-7	6
The Rising Deck	8	2	0	6	-9	6

Division One Stats

Week 8 Results

FC Wazzy	2 - 1 (1 - 0)	Sexual Ealing FC
Hell Hounds	2 - 0 (1 - 0)	Super Blues
Wellington Wanderers	3 - 0 (2 - 0)	WestcountryWanderers
Down by the Trent	2 - 2 (1 - 1)	Essex Wanderers

Xpert 11 - Team Of The Week

C Pemberton	- Hell Hounds
J McGibbon	- Hell Hounds
Bill Westcroft	- Hell Hounds
Z Barkworth	- Down by the Trent
Terrence Crooks (C)	- FC Wazzy
Alfie Horridge	- Essex Wanderers
Agron Behari	- Hell Hounds
Mikey Grainger	- Down by the Trent
Hayden Bubb	- FC Wazzy
Benedict Bayley	- FC Wazzy
Patrick Koob	- Hell Hounds
Manager	- Eggmofo Wellington Wand...

Top Scorers:

1	Jasper Tete	F	Essex Wanderers	8
2	Harold Sully	MF	Essex Wanderers	6
3	Randall Blackburn	F	FC Wazzy	4
	Rodrigo Lamego	MF	FC Wazzy	4
5	Bill Westcroft	MF	Hell Hounds	3
	Phillip Plummer	F	Wellington Wanderers	3
	Jean J Mbappé Leppé	F	WestcountryWanderers	3
	Marcos Cañas	F	Sexual Ealing FC	3
	Les Yallop	F	Wellington Wanderers	3
	Ethan Page	F	FC Wazzy	3
	Ronnie Bergman	F	Down by the Trent	3

Week 9 Fixtures

Sexual Ealing FC	-	Hell Hounds
Essex Wanderers	-	Super Blues
WestcountryWanderers	-	Down by the Trent
FC Wazzy	-	Wellington Wanderers

One To Watch

Down Under And Out	-	Temple Town
--------------------	---	-------------

LS Prediction:

Premiership Table

	P	W	D	L	Diff	Pts
Essex Wanderers	8	5	2	1	9	17
FC Wazzy	8	5	1	2	4	16
WestcountryWanderers	8	4	2	2	-1	14
Hell Hounds	8	3	2	3	2	11
Down by the Trent	8	3	1	4	-2	10
Super Blues	8	3	0	5	-7	9
Sexual Ealing FC	8	2	1	5	-2	7
Wellington Wanderers	8	2	1	5	-3	7