

theleaguesupreme5

Temple Town knock four past Dark Destroyers to spark relegation fears

Marcos Canas nets a hat-trick for Sexual Ealing against Hell Hounds

And finally, who's this sassy little bitch?

Week 9 and the champions and also the leaders slip up, giving us all hope and Wazzy and Westcountry close in on Promotion

Spelmann Is Decks Ace In The Pack

The Rising Deck	1
The Perry Men	0

Possession: 52 - 48 (58-42)

Chances: 7 - 4 (4-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Robert Houdin Rufus Lawrence

The Rising Deck took a massive step towards Premiership survival with narrowly deserved 1-0 victory over fellow relegation rivals The Perry Men at The Orpheum.

The Deck had the better of the first half but could not break down a stubborn Perry Men set-up.

Home fans had a long and nervous wait until 4 minutes from time for the all important goal. Lance Burtons hard work paid off in the box and the ball slipped loose to Marc Spelmann whose 86th minute strike allowed the Deck to leapfrog over their visitors and out of the bottom two.

Temporary relief(ugh) & some Shakespeare

Rising Deck Player/Manager/i've only scored 5 goals in 9 games this season but Christ i've got one helluva Cock n Balls combo 'Ian Magic Mitch' gave us 50,000 econ worth of interview today. "Bloody hell we needed that win on Thursday against 'The Gentleman' of the League, the one and only McFletch. We always have close battles so i knew getting three points was going to be hard and it turned out that way with only a late goal from us deciding the outcome. We are still well and truly in the shit though and can only hope that this will give us a little boost.

Marc Spelmann celebrates his 86th minute winner for Rising Deck against Perry Men

More Premiership News Inside . . .

Premiership Round-Up

I cannot understand our scoring problems this season but if we can keep a clean sheet (which i understandably can't due to the immense amount of fanny batter leaking out from any females near my presence in my boudoir) we will have a chance of picking up vital points."

By the way press release volumes have decreased by many managers. Can't you afford your Broadband Bills due to your desperate VIP purchases ? ;)

10,000 econ to the manager who knows where this famous line from a well known Shakespearen play comes from !!

O Courvosier, Courvosier, Where art thou Courvosier ?
Oh there fucking brilliant, i'm gonna make one fucking big dent in you.
respect to you all
MM
:)

McFletch hopes For Miracle

McFletch was quick to dismiss the defeat against fellow division strugglers The Rising Deck as he read from a carefully prepared statement on a sheet of paper extracted from his back pocket. 'We didn't play well but we must concentrate on the next game against League leaders Irish Raiders. We have 4 home games left out of the remaining 5. Although there are some tough games to get through we believe we can still escape the drop' Optimistic words from a clearly deluded manager.

Raiders Dominance Temporarily Halted

Egloshayle Park FC	2
Irish Raiders	0

Possession: 50 - 50 (58-42)

Chances: 5 - 3 (2-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Matt Oakley Marshall Bushell

Irish Raiders' lead at the top was cut to three points as their impressive form was halted by a team with their own impressive form of late.

Diddy Hamilton celebrated his return to the side when he netted the opener after just 22 minutes play when The Walcott put him through to make it 1-0.

Premiership top scorer Kinglsey Rickard took his league tally to nine when he headed in a Gareth Bale corner after 36 minutes play.

Although the second half was more of an even affair the high flying visitors could not muster the vital chance that may have let them back into the game and although the Raiders are still in the driving seat at the top, the rest of the pack have reduced that margin.

Park Breaks Silence

Park Boss Mitchell, fresh from his week long conference, returned back to his adopted London home in jubilant mood after his sides 2-0 victory over runaway leaders Irish Raiders.

"My apologies Ive been a bit quiet but I have had a hectic week, I did not, however, leave without prepping my team and stressing the importance of Thursdays match. I have much time and respect for Raiders boss Garrihy and what he has done with a side at the foot of the league deserves the utmost respect. His side had only lost about twice in over 20 matches in all competitions. But we are on a roll, yes its later in the season than I would have liked, but we have played the leaders and champions and grabbed nine points from them." said Mitchell.

"I still think the title is theirs to lose, but having a slightly superior goal difference and being 3 points behind we are quite simply one match away from top spot. I would swap places with Alans position gladly, but being top, and knowing you cant slip up, is a precarious place to be." concluded Mitchell.

Four-Headed Goals Gives Destroyers Relegation Headache

Temple Town	4
The Dark Destroyers	1

Possession: 63 - 37 (68-32)

Chances: 10 - 1 (4-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Rowley McCafferty Dick Dastardly

The Dark Destroyers hopes of Premiership survival were dealt a huge blow as they were outplayed by their Northern hosts Temple Town.

The onslaught started as early as the 4th minute when Braulio Carolinos corner was converted at the near post by Stanley Mathews. Anne Robinson managed to pull a goal back on the half hour when put through by Dick Dastardly but this proved to be the only bright spell for Destroyers in the match.

Continuing where they left off in the first half Town had two thirds of the match and finished creating ten chances to Destroyers one.

Carolinos cross once more caused confusion in the defence as Rowley McCafferty made it 2-1. A minute later it was 3-1 when, this time, Timothy Pilling headed in a Mathews cross.

Dick Dastardly received his second yellow and subsequent red after 77 minutes and 4 minutes later Destroyers misery was complete when Hayden Rowson headed in a Ferdinand Tepper cross to make it 4-1.

Premiership Round-Up

Striking problems for Destroyers

A parcel containing pornographic films is delivered to Sean Gibbens by mistake. He is delighted, but his wife catches him watching them, and they have a huge row. She does not believe that they were delivered by mistake. He is very distracted at training the next day and cannot concentrate. He loses some form as a result.

Add the fact that top-scorer Dick Dastardly was sent pff in todays 4-1 defeat at TT and has proved to be a bad week for the Destroyers strike-force!

Temple Town

The Dark Destroyers were hammered at Temple Town. For the first time for a long time, TT had players in the xpert eleven. This week they face the many faces of Risng Deck. What will turn up, who knows?

Best of luck with the Magic Circle RD, hope all goes well, and maybe you are magicing your penis to be bigger, and if that's the case well good luck to you. Or is it you are looking through a crystal ball and it is magnifying it!

Dead Machine

Down Under And Out	3
Red Machine FC	0

Possession: 48 - 52 (52-48)

Chances: 4 - 2 (1-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Joe Teale Neal Stamford

The champions miserable form continued, this week at the expense of Down Under And Out.

Having matched their hosts for the majority of the game the Red Machine fell apart with 20 minutes left on the clock.

Joe Teale put Andy Blackmoor through on the 70th minute to give Wookies side a 1-0 lead and just 4 minutes later DUAO made it 2-0 when Niall Willoughby headed in a Steven Simons corner.

With Machine pushing to get back into the match their gaping hole at the back was filled when the same combination of Willoughby and Simons combined once more, for the former to make it 3-0 to DUAO and possibly push Machine out of the title race.

Wookie Hole and the Crimson Machine

A 3-0 drubbing at the hands of the resurgent DUAO left the Machine a darker shade of red. It was a game of youngsters with young 21 year old striker breaking the deadlock on 70 minutes to go 1-0 up. Debutant 18 year old midfielder Niall Willoughby pilled on the pressure in the box and leaped like a salmon to put 2 more past Red Keeper, Joshua (I can't get much) Low (er).

Wookie was on hand to give the following sound bites.

"Just the tonic I needed after a rough back to back encounter with Temple Town. We're back in business and firing on all fronts. I said we weren't going for the league title this season and with the Cup nicely tucked away in our trophy room and DUAO sitting only 3 points off top spot, there will be those thinking were going for the double. Well I'd like our fans to keep their feet on the ground; we haven't got the funds to go chasing the league title as I need to make further purchases on the transfer market. With my calculations we still need another 3 points to ensure safety, so we'll be trying our best to close Park down and salvage something from the encounter. But the double is out of the question....honestly"

Temple Towns Rowley McCafferty nets for Hargreaves side against Dark Destroyers

Division One Round-Up

Canas 5-Minute Headed Hat-trick

Marcos Canas celebrates his five-minute hat-trick with Fionntan Sullivans

Ealing avenge loss

Sexual Ealing manager Aotearoa took great satisfaction in comprehensively out playing the hell hounds. To get any sort of result against such a skilled squad as theirs is great & also as they put us out of the cup it made the victory even sweeter. After we put 3 goals against them in the first half our fans went crazy. I think that must have started his players throwing the toys out of their cot which caused the ruckus. I'm actually feeling aggrieved that their playmaker Bill Westcroft didn't get shown a straight red for the horrendous tackle on Jarred Ackroyd which the young man left on a stretcher, but the injury wasn't as bad as first thought & will be back in a week.

OOooooohhh (No) Mascarenhas

Sexual Ealing FC	4
Hell Hounds	0

Possession: 54 - 46 (53-47)

Chances: 8 - 5 (5-3)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Marcos Cañas Jude Attenborough

Five first half minutes gravely cost the visitors as Ealing flexed their firepower for all to see at Glenfield Road.

The home side edged the first halves possession and chances but made the decisive breakthrough in the 21st minute when Terrance Shuts corner was headed in by Marcos Canas. A minute later and Canas made it 2, this time heading in a Dave Grohl cross.

Amazingly just 4 minutes later and it was Fionntan Sullivans cross that was converted by, yes youve guessed it, Canas for his five minute headed hat-trick.

The home side continued in similar fashion in the second half but it was a single goal from Shutt himself that made it 4-0 on the day to Sexual Ealing FC.

Alleged scandals

Following Hell Hounds's surrounding of the referee and the subsequent hounding of the official for over 12 minutes in Hell Hounds's last match agenst Sexual Ealing FC, the authorities have decided to fine the club 991 500 econ. This has been upheld by the Association as a warning to other clubs whose behaviour is equally despicabile in the future.

FC Wazzy	2
Wellington Wanderers	0

Possession: 53 - 47 (51-49)

Chances: 5 - 2 (3-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Benedict Bayley Linford Harwood

FC Wazzy went back to the top of Division One with a 2-0 home win against bottom of the league Wellington Wanderers.

The visitors were hardly outplayed at the Back Garden but Wazzy were just too strong and in the 16th minute Wanderers Otelto Mascarenhas put through his own net to give Wazzy the perfect start.

Hayden Bubbs 71st minute direct freekick proved to be the icing on the cake for

Division One Round-Up

Paul Warrens side and ensure Wazzy go a point clear at the summit.

Another fine performance

That was the verdict from the Wazzy boss after he watched his team take th top spot in division 1 with a comfortable home win.

"we went onto the snow scattered Back Garden pitch with an attacking ine up and with the attitude of not being dominated. It paid off!!"

"Now, the boys need to keep strong; mentally and physically to show they have what it takes to go on and win this division. They are more than good enough!!"

More Than 'Abbe'

Essex Wanderers	1
Super Blues	1

Possession: 54 - 46 (65-35)

Chances: 3 - 6 (3-3)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Andre Spijkers Ossie Ardiles

Super Blues grabbed a galian point against the league leaders with a well deserved 1-1 draw at Rainham Marshes.

The visitors defied there league position in as early as the 2nd minute when Pablo

Counagos slide rule pass put Abbe Roth clear of the Essex defence to give Blues a 1-0 lead.

The leaders were back on level terms in the 25th minute when Otis Hoytes long range effort found the back of the net. If the home side had the better of the first half then it was certainly the visitors who looked the more likely to score in the second half. Essex will certainly view this as 2 points lost rather than one gained.

Westcountry Wanderers Back In The Race

Westcountry Wanderers	3
Down By The Trent	1

Possession: 53 - 47 (59-41)

Chances: 6 - 4 (1-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Cliff Hedger Mikey Grainger

Westcountry Wanderers pushed themselves back into the promotion mix after disposing of Down By The Trent 3-1 at the Cove.

Raimundo Gargantas 21st minute corner picked out Jonathon Dyke at the edge of the box to fire home the opener and ensure the home side went in leading at the break.

Just ten minutes had passed into the second half when Don Ashe's cross found J J Leppe to head in Wanderers second. Down By The Trent threatened a come back after 65 minutes when Evaristo Corte-Reals cross was headed in by Derrick Sawyer but any hopes of a comeback were quashed when, on 79 minutes, Gargantas corner was headed in at the far post by James Hitman Heywood to put Hewys side a point off promotion.

Another defeat

DBTT seem to be slumping towards a successive wooden spoon but manager Jory seemed far from disheartened "they tell me a pair is worth more, so every cloud...and all that".

Meanwhile Jory is annoyed at his own "football greed" as he calls it after his fictitious team Forest lost on Tuesday for the first time since September. "I feel like a spoilt top of the premiersip side fan moaning the fact we have lost when we have been on this amazing run - maybe it's the fact that we pissed over Birmingham for about 3/4 of both ties combined yet they have this superlative goalkeeper.....Mr Capello."

Other News

Chorus form the Trent End

What a delight it was to hear during the Forest - Reading commentary Saturday.

"Are you watching, are you watching, are you watching Liverpool... are you watching Liverpool." That includes you with you MASSIVE EYE MAGIC MITCH!

Has to be said though, due to missed chances and not being out of site by half time, my arse was twitching somewhat listening to the second half. Were it not for the heroics of Forest goalkeeper LEE CAMP (remember that name ladies and don't go all homophobe on me!) Forest would not have won.

illiterate wanker - from....uugggghhh!

twat

Money in the Kitty

Following a share option by Irish Raiders, the club's fans have again dug deep to support their heroes. Irish Raiders have announced that significant funds of 318 000 econ will now be made available to the management as a transfer kitty.

The FIFTY (Well . . . seven) Hottest WAGS of 2008

In the run-up to the end of the season we will be counting down the top seven hottest WAGS of 2008 as voted by the Guardian.

6. Anine Bing

Say whatever the Danish is for “hello” to Anine, the lovely girl who happily goes out with Sweden’s Anders Svensson, a valiant FA Cup loser with Southampton in 2003. He can now be found plying his trade for IF Elfsborg, alongside players with complicated surnames like Sjhage and Falk-Olander.

Premiership Stats

Week 9 Results

The Rising Deck	1 - 0 (0 - 0)	The Perry Men
Egloshayle Park FC	2 - 0 (2 - 0)	Irish Raiders
Temple Town	4 - 1 (1 - 1)	The Dark Destroyers
Down Under And Out	3 - 0 (0 - 0)	Red Machine FC

Xpert 11 - Team Of The Week

Andy Blackmoor	- Down Under And Out
Dick Dastardly	- The Dark Destr...
Robert Houdin (C)	- The Rising Deck
Matt Oakley	- Egloshayle Park FC
R McCafferty	- Temple Town
S Matthews	- Temple Town
Neal Stamford	- Red Machine FC
Neil Richards	- Egloshayle Park FC
Rufus Lawrence	- The Perry Men
Hank Whitbread	- Temple Town
Uri Geller	- The Rising Deck
Manager	- Nzwookie Down Under And Out

Top Scorers:

1	Kingsley Rickard	F	Egloshayle Park FC	9
2	Theo Walcott	MF	Egloshayle Park FC	7
	Gary Fortune	MF	Irish Raiders	7
4	Diddy Hamilton	MF	Egloshayle Park FC	6
	Acácio Coutinho	F	Red Machine FC	6
6	Inácio Sanches	MF	Red Machine FC	5
	Timothy Pilling	MF	Temple Town	5
	Anne Robinson	MF	The Dark Destroyers	5

Week 10 Fixtures

Red Machine FC	-	The Dark Destroyers
Egloshayle Park FC	-	Down Under And Out
The Perry Men	-	Irish Raiders
Temple Town	-	The Rising Deck

One To Watch

Egloshayle Park FC	-	Down Under And Out
--------------------	---	--------------------

Despite plenty of bullshit in the press both of these sides would love to win the Premiership this season, who wouldn't? But the rivalry between these managers runs a little deeper. If Raiders fail to slip up at the top then press-bragging rights and finishing in 2nd place will be a little consolation.

LS Prediction: Parks home record too strong for DUAO

Premiership Table	P	W	D	L	Diff	Pts
Irish Raiders	9	6	1	2	6	19
Egloshayle Park FC	9	5	1	3	8	16
Down Under And Out	9	4	4	1	7	16
Temple Town	9	3	4	2	4	13
Red Machine FC	9	4	1	4	1	13
The Rising Deck	9	3	0	6	-8	9
The Dark Destroyers	9	2	2	5	-10	8
The Perry Men	9	1	3	5	-8	6

Division One Stats

Week 9 Results

FC Wazzy	2 - 0 (1 - 0)	Wellington Wanderers
Essex Wanderers	1 - 1 (1 - 1)	Super Blues
Sexual Ealing FC	4 - 0 (3 - 0)	Hell Hounds
W Wanderers	3 - 1 (1 - 0)	Down by the Trent

Xpert 11 - Team Of The Week

Marcos Cañas	- Sexual Ealing FC
J Hitman Heywood	- WestcountryWand...
Cliff Hedger (C)	- WestcountryWand...
Ossie Ardiles	- Super Blues
Terrence Crooks	- FC Wazzy
Dave Grohl	- Sexual Ealing FC
Hayden Bubb	- FC Wazzy
Benedict Bayley	- FC Wazzy
R Garganta	- WestcountryWand...
Mikey Grainger	- Down by the Trent
Andre Spijkers	- Essex Wanderers
Manager	- Aotearoa Sexual Ealing FC

Top Scorers:

1	Jasper Tete	F	Essex Wanderers	11
2	Harold Sully	MF	Essex Wanderers	7
	Rodrigo Lamego	MF	FC Wazzy	7
4	Marcos Cañas	F	Sexual Ealing FC	6
5	Terrence Crooks	MF	FC Wazzy	5
	Randall Blackburn	F	FC Wazzy	5
	Bill Westcroft	MF	Hell Hounds	5
	Morris Swan	F	Essex Wanderers	5
	Brent Manger	MF	Essex Wanderers	5

Week 10 Fixtures

Wellington Wanderers	-	Hell Hounds
Sexual Ealing FC	-	Essex Wanderers
Super Blues	-	Down by the Trent
WestcountryWanderers	-	FC Wazzy

One To Watch

WestcountryWanderers	-	FC Wazzy
----------------------	---	----------

The top three in division one have created some daylight between them and the chasing pack. This can only mean one thing. One of the top three managers presently is going to be pretty pissed off at the end of the season. Wazzy could ensure he is not one of them with a victory at The Cove.

LS Prediction: A draw will keep both teams on course.

Premiership Table	P	W	D	L	Diff	Pts
FC Wazzy	9	6	1	2	6	19
Essex Wanderers	9	5	3	1	9	18
WestcountryWanderers	9	5	2	2	1	17
Hell Hounds	9	3	2	4	-2	11
Sexual Ealing FC	9	3	1	5	2	10
Down by the Trent	9	3	1	5	-4	10
Super Blues	9	3	1	5	-7	10
Wellington Wanderers	9	2	1	6	-5	7