Westcountry's number 11 Gaspar Aguado celebrates the perfect start to Westcountry's season

Newly promoted Westcountry Wanderers thump champions 3-0 and could this be Hell Hounds' season.

The upset of the day, and possibly the season, came at the Emerald Isle where defending champions Irish Raiders were thumped by newly promoted Westcountry Wanderers 3-0.

More Premiership News Inside . . .

Premiership Round-Up

There were rumours that the home boss Garrihy had a mix-up with the days and times, a trait often attributed to the visiting manager Hewy. This should take nothing away from the visitors, sporting a new kit and a new mission Westcountry were great value for the victory. Normally such a stickler for detail Garrihy has made an uncharacteristic mistake and although not the end of the world, how important these 3 points were will become apparent as the season progresses.

Gasper Aguado opened the scoring after good work from Cliff Hedger after 21 minutes. The visitors created chance after chance and six minutes before the break they doubled the scoring, Jonathon Dyke setting up Don Ashe to make it 2-0 at half time.

Raiders were an improved side in the second half, (one suspects this was when Alan turned up), but by then the damage was done. Raiders could make the all important breakthrough and it was Westcountry that had the final word when Aguado turned provider for Ivanildo Graxas to complete an impressive 3-0 away victory at the Champions back garden for Wanderers.

FUCK FUCK FUCK FUCK

 That was all Irish raiders manager Alan Garrihy had to say today after forgetting to set up his team for the league opener. "I really fucked this one up and now we are playing catch up for the rest of the season, I hope this result doesnt come back to haunt us at the end of the season. FUCK FUCK FUCK FUCK FUCK FUCK!!!!!!"

Down Under And Out Too Strong For Machine

Down Under And Out	3
Red Machine FC	1

Possession: 49 - 51 (55-45)

Chances: 7 - 3 (3-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Daniel Kibble Neal Stamford

Down Under And Out have started season six the same way as they ended season 5, in impressive form. They managed to beat an impressive Red Machine at Palmy North in this opening day fixture between 2 sides looking for premiership success.

"I hope this result doesnt come back to haunt us"

The home side just edged possession and chances in the first half but it was the visiting Machine that created the break through. A

Benny Great corner was headed in at the near post by Warren Bonham in the Machines one and only chance to go in 1-0 up at the break.

Down Under And Out came out in the second half a much improved side creating more chances. Just four minutes into the break and they were level. A direct freekick from Ben Windsor put them on level terms. After 68 minutes the home side were in front. Vinnie Steele created an opening for Geoffrey Boardman to fire home a long range effort.

Just seven minutes later and it was effectively all over. Niall Willoughby managed to put through Wayne Manger who calmly slotted past Joshua Low to make it an impressive 3-1 victory. Willoughby was later sent off for a second bookable offence in the final minute.

Machine No Match for DUAO

 The Machine has a terrible track record against DUAO, having only beating them twice in 14 attempts. Would this be the Reds day?

If early signs were anything to go by, DUAO didn't look like upsetting that record but instead gave a huge wake up call to the Red Machine and a taste of just how tough, life in the premiership will be this season. The Reds didn't touch the ball for the first 20 minutes as DUAO dominated play in front of their home crowd; they created chance after chance but failed to get the ball in the back of the net. With frustration starting to creep into DUAO's game, the Reds seized their only first half chance by heading home from a corner just before the break.

With DUAO still feeling stunned from the first half goal, the Reds piled on the pressure by creating 2 chances within 3 minutes of the kick-off. DUAO's young Keeper Olivio Bonhila showed his metal to steady things at the back and DUAO were back in control of the game. With a free kick, deep in the Reds half, up steps goal scoring legend Ben Windsor to curl one into the top corner and level the score at 1-1. Defensive stalwart Geoffrey Boardman and young striker Wayne Manger make good their chances to bring the score line to a respectable 3-1. The icing on the cake was a screaming long range effort from Ben Windsor, only for the referee to disallow for offside?... TWAT!!!

As the Reds trudged off the pitch they still had just 2 wins to their name against DUAO, only now it was from 15 attempts.

Park Win Opener Against Division One Champs

Essex Wanderers	1
Egloshayle Park FC	2

Possession: 55 - 45 (57-43)

Chances: 2 - 3 (2-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Morris Swan Diddy Hamilton

Park put their recent opening day blues behind them as they came from a goal behind to beat last seasons Division one champions Essex Wanderers at Rainham Marshes.

The newly promoted side got off to the best start when Rowan O'Neill crossed in for goal-machine Jasper Tete to make his premiership mark after just 13 minutes with a well placed header. The lead lasted just ten minutes as Diddy Hamilton created a chance for defender Lee Bateman to strike in an equaliser from distance to make it 1-1 at the break.

The home side enjoyed the slight majority in possession but could not create an opening and the crowd had to wait until the 91st minute for an opening. This came to Egloshayle Park as Alan Shearer created a chance for Diddy Hamilton to fire home to snatch victory in the dying minutes. The home side were dealt a devastating blow in the 97th minute when defender Neil Richards was stretched off and will be out for some time

Great Start At A Great Cost

 Egloshayle won their opening game of the season for the first time in a long time but it came at a great cost to the club as boss Mitchell slammed 'Old Trafford Ref'!

"We showed great character, coming from a goal down"

"Im pleased. We showed great character coming from a goal down away from home against a team in great form, to win the match 2-1." said Mitchell. "But what ruined it was an over fussy ref who littered the game with meaningless yellow cards and allowing an amazing SEVEN minutes of injury time after which time my stalwart defender, and ever-present Xpert11 regular Neil Richards, picked up an injury which will see him miss the next six matches" slammed Mitchell.

"Essex played well and I can see why they got prompted, they will snatch a few points from the big boys this season. Also, it was sad to see Raiders and Machine losing" he quipped "but its a very long season - its a good start none the less".

Defensive Stalemate At The Birchfield

Temple Town	0
The Dark Destroyers	0

Possession: 54 - 46 (53-47)
Chances: 1 - 2 (0-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Hank Whitbread Fred West

There was little to report from The Birchfield in this opener and even less to choose between the two teams.

Temple Town edged possession in both halves and chances were few and far between. With both defences looking strong. As the away side it will be The Destroyers who will be happiest with a point gained, rather than 2 points slipped by the home side.

50. Debora Salvalaggio

It is inevitable that the conquests of two of Italian football's greatest man-whores would overlap, and they have done exactly that in 23-year-old model and showgirl Debora Salvalaggio. She has been steamrolled by Christian Vieri, Filippo Inzaghi, Matteo Ferrari and Simone Inzaghi.

Hell Hounds Off To A Flyer

Hell Hounds number 10 Bill Westcroft celebrates his 4th minute opener reduce the deficit to 2-1.

The home side increased the pressure in the second half but Hounds stood strong and it wasn't until two minute from time when they could breathe a sigh of relief. Jonatan McGibbon made it 3-1 from the spot to give the Hounds the three points.

Perry Men Perry Pleased

The Perry Men	1

Possession: 45 - 55 (44-56)

Chances: 4 - 3 (2-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Zacharias Barkworth Rufus Lawrence

The Perry Men started life in Division One with a deserved 1-0 away victory against Down By The Trent at the City Ground.

Fletchs side held a good account of themselves in this opening fixture edging the matches possession. They only managed to create one first half chance but it proved to be vital. Ledley King managed to cross for Patricio Salvador to head home a 1-0 lead and what turned out to be the eventual winner.

Trent created more chances, in both halves, but could not muster a decisive strike and The Perry Men held on for an opening day three points.

Super Blues	1
Hell Hounds	3

Possession: 60 - 40 (58-42)

Chances: 3 - 4 (2-3)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Lester Tabbart Bill Westcroft

Hounds managed, at last, to show some of that 'potential' form so often associated with Matt Rose's squad. Super Blues finished strongly last season but could do little against the decisive finishing of their visitors.

Bill Westcroft got Hounds off to the perfect start as early as the 4th minute when his freekick left Constatiniu stranded. It was a Westcroft freekick that once more caused problems in the Blues defence.

This time he found Jude Attenborough unmarked to slot home number two. Just three minute later and the home side clawed back into the game when Pablo Counago put Arnold Muhren through to

Benedict Bayley Otelo Mascarenhas

Paul Warrens FC Wazzy got off to the perfect start as they attempt to make it 3rd time lucky in escaping Division One. They saw off Wellington Wanderers (sporting a new kit) with a 2-0 victory at the Back Garden.

In an even first half possession-wise it was the home side who created all the chances but could not find a way past Barrowcliff in the Wellington goal.

The home side had to wait until 20 minutes from time when a Rodrigo Lamego corner created confusion in the Wellington defence for Theobald Malcolm to prod home the opener. The home side continued to create the more chances and managed to make it 2-0 in the final minute. Petrut Florea crossed for Lamego to head home to take the victory.

Mangatainoka FC	0

Possession: 59 - 41 (57-43)

Chances: 2 - 3 (2-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Robert Houdin Rory Estabrook

Like The Perryman, The Rising Deck started life in division one with an opening day victory over newly named Mangatainoka FC.

With both clubs sporting new kits (The Rising Decks kit no doubt bought by their newly discovered VIP status) it was Magic Mitch's home side that edged the first half. They made that pressure count on 33 minutes when a direct freekick from Godfrey Smithies flew past reserve keeper Toby Simms, after Raposo had gone off through injury.

The visitors created better chances in the second half but could not make the breakthrough as Deck made their first all important steps back to the premiership.

I've seen similar things before but much smaller, like the size of a cranberry, and nowhere near so low down upon the person!" said the libidinous slut.

"Firstly, we are very glad to get 3 points from our opening game. Mangatanoika played a cautious game and had more of the chances and had it not been for a glorious strike from Godfrey Smithies we could have been looking at a disappointing draw.

Ready For The Big Kick-Off

On the eve of the kick-off in LS season 6. Red Machine FC manager, Couchy (and officially the most successful manager in the LEAGUES history) reflected on his close season trading. This has seen three players depart from the club, and two new faces brought in.

"We had to freshen up a few things at the club, as last season I only made one change, and that definitely backfired on me."

"I am extremely pleased with the players I have brought in, and, unfortunately for the players that left, they got moved onto pastures new, where the level of ability required is rather less than what I expect."

Magazine Info

All, I know this is a long shot but if any of you have saved any of the previous seasons magazines and they are NOT on our archive page then please can you let me know / send them to me and I will post them on the site.

Also, for future reference, I will NOT be sending out the magazines as email attachments in future. If I have time I will let you know when I have completed it and you can then download it from the site yourselves (just like the pre-season magazine). If I dont have the time to email you all then simply check the home-page every Wednesday afternoon/ evening and it should be there.

It's A Marathon Not A Sprint!

As a despondent Red Machine FC made the long trip back from Wookie Hole - Palmy North. Manager Rob

Couch reflected on his team selection and formation, admitting it was rather ambitious against one of the top sides in the premiership.

"When you play a side with such a success rate as DUAO - I forget how many premiership titles they have won now :-). You have to get your tactics spot on, and I believe I was looking for the perfect match from my players, asking them to win by playing free-flowing attractive football. Over the 90 minutes we had slightly the majority of the possession, but couldn't turn this into chances and goals. Unlike my opposition who grasped their chances."

"It will be hard work on the training ground this week, but this is only week one in a long season."
