

the league supreme ^{season} 6

Dicks DDs Sets Up Ten(se) Finish

Destroyers win sets up tense finish at top and bottom of the Premiership. Deck back on top in Division One.

The Dark Destroyers	2
Westcountry Wanderers	0

Possession: 53 - 47 (57-43)
Chances: 4 - 1 (3-0)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Sean Gibbens Cliff Hedger

Following a seven match winning streak, Westcountry Wanderers are in danger of a freefall after not winning in their last three matches. This week it was the Dark Destroyers first win that took all three points which will severely dent Westcountry's chance for the title, but will massively boost the Destroyers chances of avoiding the drop.

The home side constricted their high flying visitors to just one chance on goal and this came in the second half. Destroyers took the lead in the 11th minute when Vinnie Jones corner fell to Sean Gibbens who fired home on the edge of the box.

The home side had to wait until fifteen minutes from the end to make sure of all three points. This time it was Gibbens corner that caused confusion in the visitors defence, only for Darius Koppe to fire home number two and cause misery to Hewy.

Sean Gibbens celebrates his opener for The Destroyers

More Premiership News Inside . . .

Premiership Round-Up

10th time lucky for "Doom Merchants"

 The Dark Destroyers notorious Black Army finally rediscovered the joy of winning a league match at the tenth time of asking this season as they defeated former - leaders West Country Wanderers 2-0 at the Theatre of Doom. The "Doom Merchants" had drawn six of their opening nine games to leave themselves entrenched in another relegation battle - yet ironically - have made it through to their first Cup-Final appearance since Season One!

Defender Freddie Kruger is relishing the forthcoming two-legged Final against Magicmitches Rising Deck and is hoping to finally get his long nails onto a winners medal. "Some might say we have had an easy ride to the final" he hissed (the Destroyers will have faced division one opposition in every round), "but the games still have to be won and being the favourites in each round adds extra pressure, but we believe we have the strength and ability to defy anything he (magicmitch) may conjur up in the Final.

Our supporters have been waiting for six seasons to see us lift a trophy and we hope to finally deliver to our blood-thirsty hordes". Whatever the result, Chieftan will allow his rival magicmitch the honour of buying him a pint as a means of showing appreciation of the Destroyers beautiful sexy football.

P.S. Thanks Phil for your kind words of congrats after the semi-final, however you shouldn't refer to your team as cs. They played a mighty fine game and made us battle right to the end!

Yours truly
The One and Only Chieftan :)

Machine Ease Relegation Worries

 Essex Wanderers	0
 Red Machine	4

Possession: 32 - 68 (39-61)
Chances: 2 - 8 (1-4)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Morris Swan

Red Machine FC eased their relegation worries with a convincing 4-0 away victory at Division One bound Essex Wanderers at Rainham Marshes.

Justin Bolam put the fallen giants ahead after 23 minutes after he was put through by Benny Great. The away side dominated possession and created the better chances but could not increase their lead and went into the break a solitary goal ahead.

Eight minutes into the second half and Machine were 2 up. Benny Greats cross was headed in with power by an unmarked Acacio Coutinho. Coutinho grabbed his second with fifteen minutes left on the clock. Benny Great once again created the opportunity for Coutinho to find the bottom corner. Geoffrey Finch denied Coutinho the hat-trick opportunity when his penalty five minutes from time completed the scoring after Horace Logan was tripped in the Essex box.

Park Slays Temple Town Ghost

 Egloshayle Park FC	3
 Temple Town	1

Possession: 62 - 38 (64-36)
Chances: 6 - 4 (3-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Neil Richards Franklin Leaver

Egloshayle Park put the Temple Town ghost of last season behind them by taking all six points of the Northern side. Town, who themselves performed the double over Park in season five were comfortably beaten at Egloshayle Road 3-1.

Egloshayle were quick off the mark in front of their own fans and were 1-0 up inside the first five minutes. Alan Shearer put Paul Rowe through to give Park the lead. Twenty minutes later and Egloshayle doubled their lead. A corner by Gareth Bale fell to Anders Svensson who fired past Arleskog for number two and give the home side a 2-0 lead going into the break.

With twenty five minutes of the match remaining the visitors gave themselves a life line when a Timothy Piling cross found the head of Franklin Leaver who made it 2-1. With the match heading for the final whistle it was Park who got the all decisive goal. Craig Mitchell set-up Shearer for a long range number three and complete the double of Temple Town.

Leaders Stutter At Current Champions

 Irish Raiders	2
 Down Under And Out	2

Possession: 52 - 48 (63-37)
Chances: 9 - 3 (4-2)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Errol Jordan Andy Blackmoor

After storming to the top of the table last week Down Under And Out stuttered to a 2-2 draw at champions Irish Raiders having twice taking the lead, but it was a point more than rivals Westcountry Wanderers which keeps DUAO top by a point.

The leaders took an early lead when

Premiership Round-Up

Premiership Round-Up

Vinnie Steele put Joe Teale through for the opener after just 6 minutes. Raiders enjoyed the better of the first half with possession and chances but could not muster a goal and went it a goal down at the break.

The home side drew level just ten minutes into the second half when Errol Jordans corner was headed in by Sheldon Cole at the far post. Down Under And Out were not finished yet, and after 66 minutes took the lead once more. Mike Mumby created an opening for Naldo Aragonés to fire home from distance to give the leaders a 2-1 lead. The lead was barely a minute old when the champions drew level once more. Jordan fired in from distance on 67 minutes after good work from Wesley Sellers.

Risky Business

DUAO risked it all by fielding a weakened midfield in a crucial away clash with the Irish. DUAO got off to a great start by scoring within 6 minutes, but the Irish dominated play from here on in. Raiders created 9 chances to DUAO's 3, but thanks to legendary DUAO keeper, Olivio Bonilha, they were only able to make 2 count. The game finished a 2-2 draw and thanks to the Destroyers outfoxing Wanderers, DUAO take another step closer to that elusive league title.

"It's not the first time this season that we've had to rely on the hands of Olivio to keep us in the game. There were many that thought I'd gone off the deep end when I spent 14.5 million on a 21 year old keeper, but he's paid back his price tag many times over and at 23, has a long career left with us.

Respect to the Irish, I risked fielding a weakened side to get experience up and they took full advantage of it and very nearly got the win they were looking for. They outplayed us but we clung in there for a well earned point. A single point does nothing to secure our place at the top, so we go into our clash against Park knowing anything but a win could be season destroying for us."

The League Supreme Cup

Destroyers Edge Infront In LS Cup

The League Supreme Cup - FINAL 1st Leg

The Dark Destroyers	2 - 1	The Rising Deck
The Rising Deck	0 - 0	The Dark Destroyers

A goal deep into injury time from Dick Dastardly was enough to win the first leg of the cup final for Destroyers against the Rising Deck, but if it is to be enough for draw specialists Destroyers remains to be seen.

The Destroyers were the first to show in an even final on possession when Anne Robinson crossed for the Devil to head home after 25 minutes play. Although creating the better chances the Destroyers could not increase that lead and so went into the break a goal to the good.

The home side continued to create chance after chance in the second half but the Deck gave themselves a fighting chance and looked to have done enough to take a draw back to the Orpheum, especially when, with just ten minutes remaining, Derren Brown created an opening for Robert Houdin to fire home from distance.

With the match heading for a draw, up stepped Dastardly to head home a 91st minute cross from the Devil to set up a mouthwatering second leg at the Orpheum on May 23rd.

The Destroyers team celebrate a first leg 2-1 advantage over Rising Deck

The League Supreme Cup

Division One Round-Up

Perry Men Knock Wazzy For Five

Perry Men Patricio Salvador celebrates his sides second in the 5-1 demolition of FC Wazzy

 The Perry Men	5
 FC Wazzy	1

Possession: 54 - 46 (63-37)

Chances: 10 - 1 (6-0)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Valeriano Cornacchini Filimon Timisescu

Whether this impressive result against FC Wazzy has any significance on the Perry Mens chances for promotion remains to be seen as they hammered a Wazzy side 5-1 at White Hot Lane.

Alan Cash started the demolition after just 12 minutes, heading in an Edmund Strachan cross. Patricio Salvador doubled the lead with six minutes remaining in the half when he headed in a Valeriano Cornacchini corner to make it 2-0 at half time.

The home side continued to create numerous chances and went three up just after the hour when Anton Hincu headed in Salvadors corner. The visitors did manage to create one chance in the match, and, it was one from which they scored. Petrut Floreas cross was headed in by Filimon Timisescu to make it 3-1. The Perry Men had not finished however and scored twice in the last ten minutes. Cornacchini made it 4-1 following a Ledley King corner and Narciso Campelo complete the 5-1 rout on 84 minutes following a set piece free-kick.

Perry Men Whack the Wazzers for Five

The Perry Men bounced back from a series of bad results by destroying FC Spazzy Wazzy 5 -1 at the Lane. 'We love beating the Wazzers, with their close allegiance to the scum and arsebandit whinger wenger it is a game that always gets the players fired up' said a clearly delighted McFletch. Next up the Perries invite the Wellies to the Lane where they will be hoping to stick the boot in once more.

Division One Round-Up

Division One Round-Up

Rising Deck Rises Back To The Top

 The Rising Deck 2

 Super Blues 0

Possession: 55 - 45 (64-36)

Chances: 7 - 2 (7-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Robert Houdin Ossie Ardiles

The Deck went back to the top of Division One with a 'not to be underestimated' 2-0 home victory against a revitalised Super Blues side.

The home side went about their business in a professional manner restricting the visitors play and possession and went ahead after 23 minutes play. Derren Browns corner fell to Marc Spelmann to fire Magic Mitchs men into the lead. That lead was doubled just six minutes before the break when Godfrey Smithies direct free-kick flew past Wright in the Blues goal to make it 2-0.

The second half was a much more even affair but by then the match had been comfortably won and Ian Mitchells side now sit back at the top of Division One.

Trent Still Hoping For A Top Two Slip

 Down By The Trent 4

 Hell Hounds 1

Possession: 52 - 48 (52-48)

Chances: 8 - 2 (3-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Mikey Grainger Jonatan McGibbon

Down By The Trent stay nicely poised outside the top two with this convincing 4-1 home victory over Hell Hounds. Phil Jorys men were ahead after just two minutes when Ronnie Bergmans cross found Zacharias Barkworth unmarked to head home at the near post. The Hounds were level after 27 minutes. Bill Westcroft put Valentin Cela through with the keeper to beat for Cela to make no mistake. Halftime 1-1.

Just ten minutes into the second half and Trent had restored their lead. It was the unfortunate Hounds scorer Cela who put through his own net to give Trent a 2-1 lead. Just five minutes later and it was all over for Hell Hounds. Oscar Ingham created an opening for Sebastian Roberts to make it 3-1. With the match close to ending up popped Trent to make it 4-1. Barkworth put through Derrick Sawyer to complete the scoring with just two minutes left on the clock.

Up and Down Week

After tasting success in a golf competition last Saturday my nose was well and truly put out of joint by Forest's defeat on Tues, however DBTT gave me a timely boost with a convincing win over the Hounds after showing soem attacking flare at last. Must go, form to study.

Draw Costs Mangatainoka Top

 Wellington Wanderers 2

 Mangatainoka FC 2

Possession: 60 - 40 (68-32)

Chances: 5 - 5 (5-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Nicholas Kavanaugh Rory Estabrook

Although looking solid for promotion, Mangatainokas title challenge stuttered after Wellington deservedly snatched a point a piece at Wellington Street Stadium.

The leaders got off to the perfect start after just 13 minutes when a direct freekick from Roger Gidlof found the target to give Mangatainoka a 1-0 lead. The home side were level after 24 minutes when Ruben Benavent crossed for Nicholas Kavanaugh to head home at the far post. Wellington deservedly took the lead on 33 minutes when Antonio Turchetti was upended in the visitors box, then brushed himself off to slot home the resulting penalty kick to make it 2-1 at halftime.

After having most of the possession in the first half the match was a little more even in the second half but it was the visitors who were creating the chances. With just five minutes remaining Gidlof grabbed his, and more importantly his sides, second after being put through by Dave Grohl to slot home the equaliser.

Mangi on the rise

After an extended holiday in Tenerife manager Aotearoa was surprised to come back to find out that I was once on top of division 1. This was after another away win against the Perry men. I knew I was going to be away for that game, but as for the next game against wellington, that was unexpected. After some late instructions, it wasn't enough for a third win a row on the road. With 4 matches to come & 3 of them are at home, we are in a good position to get promoted. But I think our team is too young & not skilful enough to stay up. But if I get a decent change report who knows what will happen.

Division One Round-Up

Other News

Tangerine Army

Tangerine Army

Ian Holloway steered the mighty Tangerine Army destroyer straight through the poor Forest defence last night, to leave Blackpool one win away from the Premiership. And one win away from the terrifying thought of Gypsy Mitch streaking around Leicester Square!

E I E I O, up the football league we go, when we win promotion
.....

LS Play-offs? NO WAY !!

League Admin today responded angrily to the Football League request for the best xperteleven league,

The League Supreme, to consider play-offs for an end of season finale to and from the Premiership.

"Fk off!" blasted the league Admin. "The play-offs reward teams who have been inconsistent throughout the season if they get it right 'on-the-day'. Take last night, Forest didnt lose, the only loser was football itself. Forest finished third a massive nine points from lowly 6th and have played attractive football all season. Yet they miss out on promotion thanks to a team of no hoppers, punt and run team who got it right on the night. Our League Supreme rewards CONSISTENCY, not ONE-OFFs. We will never bow to the Leagues bigwigs" said Admin.

Thanks league admin.....

.....for sucking my weeping Forest cock!!

Questions questions

...

Park boss disposed of one Northerner yesterday in an extremely comfortable 3-1 victory taking all six points from Tangerine Twat and added potential fuel on to next weeks firey showdown with DUAO by asking . . .

Has Down Under And Out ever lost or drawn a match at full strength, fairly and squarely?

In other words been 'fairly' beaten (like a man)?

Or is the manager full of excuses every time his team drops points?

Youngsters here, weakened there, injuries up his fu*king ass?

Discuss . . .

I've looked back over 6 seasons of releases and can confirm no.

In fact there is a hardbacked book in Waterstones entitled '1001 limpduck excuses for every time you fail' by DICK barton. I asked the store manager if they have ever sold a copy and they said no because everyone from the South Est is sporting enough to congratulate opponents and work on their faults in anticipation of the next encounter.

Answers Answers... all the bloody Answers

DUAO Manager Wookie made a brief statement when asked about the gypsy, I've got two caravans, Mitchells latest remarks.

"He really shouldn't be concerning himself with how or when....those rare occasions I lose points, because he's no bloody hope of getting any off me even with 2 of my best players out of action. He should be focusing on how crap his managerial skills have been this season, when on paper he has one of the strongest teams going. What a knob cheese!"

Hidden Excuses . . .

. . . Already. With Thursdays match still five days away Wookie has ALREADY started to sow the seeds of excuses should his side fail to claim all three points against Egloshayle Park. "even with 2 of my best players out of action" . Why oh why cant this manager accept it when his side does not claim all three points. It really is getting VERY boring.

Other News

Other News

Fucky Fucky $10

Rising Deck Player/Manager/
Mandingo shamer Ian 'Magic' Mitch has yet again given 3 minutes of his precious time to report on his side's last 7 days. 3 minutes in which the rest of you undress, get your splinter out and rub it twice before dribbling egg white onto your little finger.

"The lads gave a very professional performance with a 2-0 victory over Super Blues that put us back in the driving seat (as opposed to being in the back with Lady Xpreme's knickers around her ankles and up around her ears !) to a return to the Premiership. However nothing is done and dusted yet and the skimpy underwear can still be swiftly pulled back up leaving us scorning what could've been so we must remain firmly focused on the next League Game, which i'm sure will be an extremely hard test away to Matt Rose's Hell Hounds.
Sunday's Cup Final 1st Leg proved to be as difficult as we thought it would be away to The Dark Hairy Triangle Destroyers and we are proud to have got what could be a vital away goal thanks to the talisman Mr. Houdin. The 2nd leg won't be discussed until after Thursday's League match but if we lose the final i'm lucky to have bought a copy of '1001 limpdick excuses for every time you fail' by DICK barton at the ready to flick through and quote !

Must get back to my drawing room now and answer my fan(ny) mail and treat one of you lucky senders to a position from my repertoire of love conquests."
Over n out

MM ;)

Relegation Battle Looms

As Red Machine FC manager Couchy, faces a scenerio that all of the supporters who cherish this magnificent club thought would never be spoken about inside the Red Cauldron....that being RELEGATION!

The club are only three points from the relegation zone, and face a tough run-in through to the end of the season. Could the unthinkable happen???

When the Going Gets Tough...

...Calling in your inbred retard of a brother to help you out... is perhaps not the answer!

Suspicions were raised of a hoax book immediately at DUAO HQ, as everyone knows that Paul Daniels (AKA Wizzbit in account of his minuscule todger) can't even count to six let alone go back over 6 years of press releases. The only reference we could find to 1001 limpdick excuses was when we posed the question to MM's missus about his self proclaimed excellence inbetween the sheets. To which she replied "he's given me more than 1001 excuses for his reoccurring limpdick! To be honest I've given up all hope... the only excitement
I get in that department is when I take a spin on the twin tub washer when it's set to ground in stains. I can't wait for some good northern cock! When are DUAO coming to town again?"

Good response! A poem's your reward!

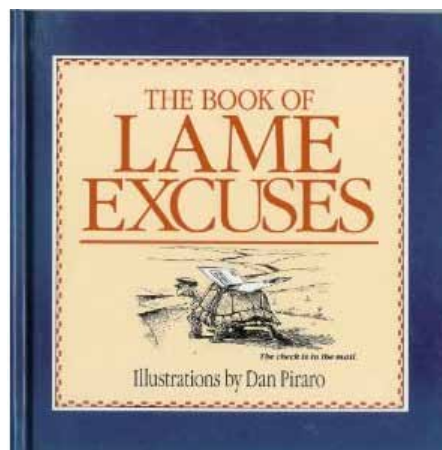

Very good Wookiee !
I like it. Not a lot.

This has prompted a moment of pure poetry.

They all compare me to Paul Daniels, mott lips i stretch like ears of a spaniel.
also i am the wiz,
Coz i do the biz
And you can do too, read my manuals !

MM
;)

Currently, this book of Lame Excuses retails at $5.96 from Amazon. DUAO manager Wookiee will surely be aiming at gap in the market with his '1001 Limpdick
Excuses everytime you fail'

Other News

The FIFTY Hottest WAGS of 2008

No. 41

Its a new season so we have the luxury of starting the hottest WAGS from number 50, just how far we get until we are bored who knows !??

41. Letizia Filippi

Cristiano Ronaldo's non-prostitute-based romantic history is peppered with lovely-brunette-model-types - Gemma Atkinson (who was brunette at the time), Mia Judaken, Karina Ferro, and most recently Nereida Gallardo - and he has just added one more to his little black book. Her name is Letizia Filippi, and she is a 30-year-old model (seven years his senior) and TV personality from Foligno, Italy.

Premiership Stats

Week 10 Results

Egloshayle Park FC	3 - 1 (2 - 0)	Temple Town
Irish Raiders	2 - 2 (0 - 1)	Down Under And Out
Essex Wanderers	0 - 4 (0 - 1)	Red Machine FC
The Dark Destroyers	2 - 0 (1 - 0)	WestcountryWanderers

Premiership Table

	P	W	D	L	Diff	Pts
Down Under And Out	10	7	2	1	18	23
WestcountryWanderers	10	7	1	2	7	22
Irish Raiders	10	5	2	3	3	17
Egloshayle Park FC	10	5	2	3	1	17
Red Machine FC	10	3	3	4	5	12
Temple Town	10	3	1	6	-2	10
The Dark Destroyers	10	1	6	3	-3	9
Essex Wanderers	10	0	1	9	-29	1

Week 11 Fixtures

WestcountryWanderers	-	Temple Town
Down Under And Out	-	Egloshayle Park FC
The Dark Destroyers	-	Essex Wanderers
Red Machine FC	-	Irish Raiders

Xpert 11 - Team Of The Week

Andy Blackmoor	-	Down Under And Out
Acácio Coutinho	-	Red Machine FC
Franklin Leaver	-	Temple Town
Errol Jordan	-	Irish Raiders
Anders Svensson	-	Egloshayle Park FC
Sean Gibbens	-	The Dark Destr...
S Di Cintio	-	Red Machine FC
Daniel Kibble	-	Down Under And Out
Fred West	-	The Dark Destr...
Neil Richards (C)	-	Egloshayle Park FC
F Monster	-	The Dark Destr...
Manager	-	CMitch Egloshayle Park FC

Top Scorers:

1	Ben Windsor	F	Down Under And Out	8
2	Acácio Coutinho	F	Red Machine FC	7
3	Joel Wigglesworth	F	Temple Town	6
4	Seymour Conden	F	Irish Raiders	5

One To Watch

Down Under And Out - Egloshayle Park FC

DUAO went to Egloshayle Park FC earlier in the season and thumped them 3-0. With Westcountry Wanderers at home to Temple Town a win for DUAO could be vital where as a win for Egloshayle Park could put them within three points at the top. Its all to play for in this hotly contested fixture.

LS Prediction: DUAO make home advantage count

Division One Stats

Week 10 Results

The Rising Deck	2 - 0 (2 - 0)	Super Blues
The Perry Men	5 - 1 (2 - 0)	FC Wazzy
Wellington Wanderers	2 - 2 (2 - 1)	Mangatainoka FC
Down by the Trent	4 - 1 (1 - 1)	Hell Hounds

Division One Table

	P	W	D	L	Diff	Pts
The Rising Deck	10	7	1	2	9	22
Mangatainoka FC	10	6	2	2	9	20
Down by the Trent	10	5	1	4	7	16
The Perry Men	10	4	3	3	7	15
Wellington Wanderers	10	3	4	3	-3	13
Hell Hounds	10	3	2	5	-6	11
FC Wazzy	10	3	1	6	-9	10
Super Blues	10	1	2	7	-14	5

Week 11 Fixtures

Super Blues	-	The Perry Men
Hell Hounds	-	The Rising Deck
Wellington Wanderers	-	Down by the Trent
Mangatainoka FC	-	FC Wazzy

Xpert 11 - Team Of The Week

P Salvador	-	The Perry Men
Ronnie Bergman	-	Down by the Trent
Robert Houdin (C)	-	The Rising Deck
Edmund Strachan	-	The Perry Men
Z Barkworth	-	Down by the Trent
V Cornacchini	-	The Perry Men
N Kavanaugh	-	Wellington Wand...
Mikey Grainger	-	Down by the Trent
Rory Estabrook	-	Mangatainoka FC
O Mascarenhas	-	Wellington Wand...
Arnie Mellor	-	Down by the Trent
Manager	-	Ppjory Down by the Trent

Top Scorers:

1	Roger Gidlöf	F	Mangatainoka FC	6
	Filimon Timisescu	F	FC Wazzy	6
3	Patrício Salvador	F	The Perry Men	5
	Rio Daltrey	F	The Perry Men	5

One To Watch

Wellington Wanderers - Down By The Trent

With the top two threatening to run away in the division its up to the chasing pack to pull a run together to try to break into that duo. Trent could close the gap to three points if they beat Wellington Wanderers away from home. The home side, however will not lie down easy, particularly after beating last weeks leaders Mangatainoka.

LS Prediction: Score draw at Wellington St Stadium.

Premiership Stats

Division One Stats