DUAO Crowned 'The Champions'

Season Six Premiership Champions Down Under And Out celebrate at the final whistle.

DUAO are crowned champions following a 5-0 thrashing of Wanderers. Final-day deciders for Town and Destroyers, and Deck and Mangatainoka.

	Down Under And Out	5
	Westcountry Wanderers	0

Possession: 62 - 38 (59-41)
Chances: 9 - 0 (3-0)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Chesley Gellar Cliff Hedger

If there was ever any doubt that Down Under And Out deserved the title this season then it was blasted to smithereens at Palmy North as they thumped their nearest rivals Westcountry Wanderers a huge 5-0 to claim the Premiership title.

Not only did DUAO deserve the title on this victory, one only has to look at their statistics for the season to realise that, after all that was said and done, they really were head and shoulders above anyone else. With one week to play they have played 13 winning 10 of them, scoring a huge 35 goals and conceding only 9 in what has proved an emphatic season for Wookie and his men.

Joaquin Rubiales started the party in the 9th minute after his long range effort found the target following good work from Daniel Kibble to give the would-be champions a 1-0 lead they kept until half-time.

Restricting their opponents to little possession and even less (none) chances there was only going to be one short, and long term, winner. Andy Blackmoor made it two, just ten minutes into the second half with a long range effort after being set-up by Niall Willoughby.

Three goals in a devastating 10 minute spell at the end of the match signalled the end of the match and season for both clubs. Chelsey Gellar made it three after 83 minutes and Willoughbys header a minute later made it 4-0. Kibble completed the rout three minutes into injury time with a long range effort to complete a resounding 5-0 victory and win the title with another week to go.

Gay Westcountry Takes a Pounding

In a tale of one team, DUAO today claimed their Premiership trophy in front of home supporters by smashing nearest rivals, Westcountry Bum Bandits for five. DUAO dominated play in all areas of the game and showed just how great the chasm is between them and the nearest competition in the premiership. The visiting side were unable to put enough play together to create even a single chance on goal as DUAO coasted to a 5-0 victory.

Draw Sees Destroyers Set Up Final Day D-Day

The Dark Destroyers	2
Egloshayle Park FC	2

Possession: 43 - 57 (47-53)

Chances: 6 - 5 (4-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Dick Dastardly Neil Richards

Egloshayle Park eased any fears of being relegated by drawing 2-2 at The Theatre Of Doom and pushed Dark Destroyers into a final day 'Must-Win' match against Temple Town.

The Destroyers started the better and although Park had the better of possession, Destroyers created the better chances and as early as the 4th minute went ahead when Dick Dastardly set-up Herbert Rowson for their opener.

Park also enjoyed the better possession in the second half but this time created better chances. They were level just ten minutes into the second half when Neil Richards set-up Alf Ramsay for a long range equaliser. The Destroyers went back into the lead after 64 minutes. Darius Koppes corner was turned in by Dastardly to make it 2-0. Once more Park came back to spoil the survival party when Kinglsey Rickard set-up youngster Mike Yelland after 73 minutes to make it 2-2.

Walsh Sets Up Final Day Nail-Biter

Temple Town	1
Red Machine	1

Possession: 52 - 48 (50-50)

Chances: 3 - 1 (2-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Hank Whitbread Neal Stamford

Temple Town ensured their life in the Premiership will last at least another week with a well-deserved 1-1 home draw against Red Machine. Town, have now set up a final-day nail-biter with relegation rivals Dark Destroyers in a match which will see the losers relegated to Division One.

In a tight and even first half possession was halved and chances were very few and far between. The Red Machine were the first to scare the home side. With their one and only chance in the match Justin Bolam set up an opening for Hemming Lassen-Kahlke to make it 1-0 after 38 minutes, a lead they took into half time.

The home side managed to up their game just a notch in the second half and it proved to be enough. In the ONLY chance of the half, Mickey Walsh headed in a Bruno Curado cross to claim a vital point which, depending on next weeks result, may be enough to ensure Premiership safety.

Essex Grab Their Second Point Of The Season

Essex Wanderers	2
Irish Raiders	2

Possession: 56 - 44 (63-37)

Chances: 6 - 7 (5-4)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Alfie Horridge Errol Jordan

Essex, grabbed only their second point of the season in the penultimate week to the season, amazingly against last seasons champions Irish Raiders. Also, Raiders had to come from 2-0 down to do it.

Otis Hoyte scored from the spot in the 24th minute after a foul on Jasper Tete to give the bottom side a 1-0 lead. It was a lead Essex doubled just six minutes later when Myles Norris put Morris Swan through to make it 2-0 and to take the home side in at the break 2-0 up.

Raiders re-grouped and re-organised at half-time and pulled a goal back after 50 minutes. Errol Jordans cross was headed in at the far post by William Kirkby. Raiders blushes were spared with twenty minutes remaining when Jordan turned from provider to scorer, heading in a Les Pardoe cross.

Off The Bottom

Martin Reuser celebrates his 29th minute opener for Blues.

Super Blues	1
Mangatainoka FC	1

Possession: 49 - 51 (52-48)

Chances: 6 - 5 (5-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Martin Reuser Gerardo Raposo

The future continues to look bright for Super Blues as they climbed off the bottom of the league with an impressive 1-1 draw against Premiership bound Mangatainoka. The result ensure Mangatainoka are promoted and could even grab the title should they beat Deck next week.

Super Blues enjoyed the better of the first half and went ahead in the 29th minute. Martin Reuser heading in a Ross Purse cross to make it 1-0 at half time.

The visitors upped their game in the second half but it seemed difficult to break down the Blues defence. They eventually did so but it was not until a minute from time. Terrance Shutt crossing for Dave Grohl to head up the very late equaliser.

Brave Draw Not Enough For Trent

Down By The Trent	0
The Rising Deck	0

Possession: 45 - 55 (41-59)

Chances: 5 - 7 (2-5)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Arnie Mellor Uri Geller

Although a 0-0 draw against league leaders is an admirable result, it ended

Down By The Trents dream of a return to the Premiership.

The leaders Deck enjoyed the better of the possession in the match but neither side could make the breakthrough in a surprisingly open and attacking match. The only statistic of note came with the straight red for Deck forward David Blaine in the dying minutes to sour a hard-earned point for both sides.

The Trent must face another season in Division One despite a much improved season six, meanwhile The Deck only need to draw their final match against Premiership bound Mangatainoka to ensure the title goes to the Orpheum.

Uncertain Future For Jubilant Hounds

FC Wazzy	0
Hell Hounds	3

Possession: 50 - 50 (56-44)

Chances: 2 - 5 (2-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Benedict Bayley Patrick Koob

FC Wazzy went to the bottom of the league following this 3-0 home defeat at the hands of Hell Hounds but vowed to return bigger and better next season, meanwhile the future of Hounds boss Rose remains uncertain.

Wazzy even missed the chance to go ahead at the Back Garden when Filimon Timisescu saw his penalty saved by Patrick Koob in the Hounds goal after 19 minutes. It proved a costly miss as a quarter of an hour later The Hounds took the lead. Good work from Jonatan McGibbon led to Valentin Cela scoring to make it 1-0 at the break.

Division One Round-Up

Division One Round-Up

The Hounds doubled their lead just ten minutes into the second half. Edgar Meadows slide-rule pass found Norman Buchanan and he made no mistake to make it 2-0. The 3-0 lead was complete deep into injury time. Cela this time turning provider for Buchanan to get his second and Hounds third.

Daltrey Ensures Mid-Table Draw

 Wellington Wanderers	1
 The Perry Men	1

Possession: 49 - 51 (46-54)
Chances: 3 - 4 (0-3)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Otelo Mascarenhas Gonçalo Florindo

A freekick five minutes from time was enough to earn Wellington a home draw in a much improved second half performance.

Although the half-time score remained 0-0 it was the visiting Perry Men who enjoyed the greater possession and created three chances on goal compared to none from their hosts.

Just eight minutes into the half and the Perry Men took the lead. An Osman Tawfiq corner was eventually turned in by Rio Daltrey to give McFletchs side the lead. The lead lasted almost to the final whistle but five minutes from time Wellington drew level when Linford Harwoods direct free-kick shared the spoils at Wellington Street Stadium.

Xpert 11's Managing Messiah Talks

We caught hold of DUAO Manager Wookie as he basked in his 5 minutes of fame for the following interview:

Firstly can you say a few words about today's match?

A job well done. I wanted the league to be won in front of home supporters, so we didn't give Wanderers a chance today. I fielded a full strength side and told the boys to go at em. 5-0 against the second placed team...that result alone could make someone season.

How does it feel to win the League?

It's a great feeling; I don't think I'll be coming back down to ground anytime soon. The whole club has worked so hard for 3 seasons to develop a side that can compete. I took big risks by building up from nothing and the board had the balls to stick with me and now that's paying off big time. The supporters have been just amazing and this has created our fortress at Wookie Hole were we haven't lost a game all season and have won every league game played here.

What is the Key to your success?

Obviously I can't give too much away. But it's clear for all to see that we kept a tight defence all season. It's no secret that I've been building a solid unit at the back for the best part of 3 seasons and they're really functioning well now. Against the best strikers that the premierships has to offer; to only let in 9 goals in 13 games is a testament to just how well they have played. Add to this solid defence the legendary strike partnership of Ben Windsor and Andy Blackmoor, who between them bagged 17 goals this season, and you can understand how we dominated the league.

What are your thoughts about the opposition you faced this season?

Makes no mistakes, the premierships is a whole different environment than it was a few seasons ago. Back then there was no competition; managers would routinely not turn up or drop out half way through the season and gift points left right and centre. Today, it's tougher, more competitive, the teams are stronger and managers more skilful, dedicated and resourceful. So to win the league in this environment, even by a single point is a huge accomplishment. To win as we did by 7 points and 23 goals with a game in hand, is without doubt the greatest accomplishment of any team in the history of this league.

Winning the Mickey Mouse Cup last season was great as we were still a developing side, but taking the premier league this season...well there's just no comparison

Where to from here?

Obviously we'd like to be the first team to claim back to back titles. But once you've won something like this, all eyes are on you next season. Next Season we'll be the team to beat, everyone will up their games to try and beat us, so our chances will be much more difficult.

The lads have been in great form throughout, so I'm confident of a great CR report come the close of season. This will put us in an even stronger position to push aside our competition next season. We'll have to wait and see how much the other clubs are willing to spend on the transfer market to get the squads up to our level.

Congrats to DUAO

As much as it pained the Park boss to say he was the first to congratulate Down Under And Out boss Wookie on his sides first Premiership success.

"I think that Wookie has said it all" said Mitchell. "His team were extremely difficult to beat, he had a great mix of defence and attack and deserves the title, the result yesterday showed that. I also congratulate Hewy, for a team known to bounce straight back down he led the Premiership for half the season, so well done him. But all credit must go to DUAO. They timed their run to perfection, getting the results that mattered when it mattered most". Mitchell continued.

"DUAO boss is also right in the fact that the LS Premiership is a different environment than a few seasons ago and teams must have the right mix of squad, tactics, second-guessing and a little luck to win this very competitive division. It is up to the rest of us to play catch-up and challenge next season. Well done Wookie!" he concluded.

and strive to Ian 'Magic' Mitch was today celebrating promotion back to the Premiership after a hard fought 0-0 draw away to DBBT.

"Yes a unique double has been achieved, yet another milestone created without the week in week out whinging that others seems to use too easily as excuses to their own deficiencies. To get promoted AND win the cup in the same season means you have to juggle injuries & suspensions very very tactfully to be able to field balanced teams Thursday, Sunday, Thursday, Sunday, Thursday, Sunday, Sunday.

That's what the board pay me for and that's what i did, without whining that a player is unavailable or injured or the tea's too hot or sarnies limp or whatever 'give no credit to the opposition' excuse i could dream up.

Congratulations to Mangatainoka on their Promotion, we very much look forward to next weeks Title decider and wish them the very best in ,not only next weeks match but, in the Premiership next season.

It's strange but last year no VIP meant relegation, this year VIP was bought for me and resulted in promotion and THE CUP win (NEVER ACHIEVED DOUBLE BEFORE !!!) Strange ain't it !!

As well as giving my time with my advice column it's been a monumentously history making season and i would like to thank all of my squad and all my loyal followers for their support.

MM ;)

Change of direction

Newly promoted Mangatainoka FC manager Aotearoa has just let his players & supporters aware of a change of direction the club will be heading down when the transfer window re-opens, via the following press release on the clubs website. 'Yes we are all over the moon to be promoted in our second season as a group. I came in & got rid of all bar 2 players who we in my squad. I brought in mainly youth in a view for the future. We have got promoted maybe a season or 2 too early. So now to compete with the big boys in the premier league we are going to have to bring in higher skilled older players. The amount of new players will depend on how our change report goes. We only have a budget of 10m so I know we are going to have to spend it wisely'.

But congratulations must also go to Rising Deck for also gaining promotion. After winning the cup & getting promoted straight back, I'm wondering how they even got relegated in the first place. But we want to win our first silverware & my boys are pumped up for this week's title decider.

Position Of The Week. No 9 'The World Cup Winkie Warm Up'

Ok it's that fantastic time again 'The World Cup' and with that in mind I've devised a position that will leave you relaxed in time for Kick Off. Jimmy Hill (known to be a real dirty bastard behind closed doors) wrote to me a few years back begging for advice on bringing pleasure to the opposite sex so I gave him advice on performing oral leading to much ridiculed chin tinsel for which he has never forgiven me so this act is strictly penetration only! Serves him right for having a name associated with a cock.

Enjoy cutting up the turf!

Erotic Instructions:

Have your man sit up on the bed so that his legs are extended horizontally toward the foot of the bed. Turn around, firstly ensuring that the 50" Plasma TV that you have saved for and purchased since the European Championships is situated so that he is central to the screen and in the centre of the surround sound set up that 2 weeks of no new shoes should adequately cover !

Now it's time to straddle him — with your back toward him — and then lower yourself onto his erect penis. It's best advised to trim your 'Minky' before it stares him angrily in the face as it can often be mistaken for the irritable TV Pundit Jimmy Hill, which could ultimately lead to a swift slap to the tuppence area. This leads to the double meaning saying 'The Cunt Deserved a Slap!' Extend your legs back so they are almost behind him, being careful not to knock his World Cup 1.5 litre sized bottle of Courvoisier that would ideally be in an England decanter by his side. Relax your torso onto the bed between his feet. Slide up and down and use his feet for leverage.

Carnal Challenge

Why You'll Love It:

Since you're facing away, you can feel totally uninhibited, and your partner can enjoy the thrill of the ride. This position allows for great control over speed, depth, and intensity of stimulation allowing the more controlled of you to time the climax to about 3 minutes before Kick Off. This gives time enough for you to get out of his way, clean up the mess and vacate to the kitchen before the serious task of shouting obscenities at the TV begins.

Remember there is a strong possibility of another match a little later in the day so take this 90 minute opportunity to thoroughly clean and buff up your splitter ready for more abuse.

If the match goes to extra time and penalties a Zidane trim may well be appreciated.
