Rising Deck Are Division One Champions

Good Luck England!

Temple Town Send Destroyers Down

The travelling Temple Town Supporters celebrate survival.

A draw for Temple Town sends League Supreme Premiership ever-present Destroyers down and Deck grab Division One title from Mangatainoka.

 The Dark Destroyers	1
 Temple Town	1

Possession: 52 - 48 (43-57)
Chances: 6 - 5 (1-3)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Sean Gibbens Teodor Årleskog

A goal right on half-time was enough for the solitary point needed by Temple Town to ensure they stayed in the Premiership whilst pushing their opponents, Dark Destroyers, to Division One football for the first time in their League Supreme history.

In a must win home game The Dark Destroyers made the perfect start, a Darius Koppe corner, fell to Sean Gibbens who fired in a 15th minute opener. The visitors, however, fighting for their Premiership lives themselves were the better side and made their possession count when right on half-time they equalised. A Hank Whitbread corner was headed in at the far post by Stanley Mathews.

The home side improved much in the second half and went close on many occasions but time was not only ticking in the match but also on their Premiership existence, and with the final whistle, it was Temple Town who stayed up and Destroyers who went down, meaning that Red Machine and Egloshayle Park are the only sides to remain in top flight football since the leagues birth.

Essex Fightback concludes dismal season for both

 Egloshayle Park FC	3
 Essex Wanderers	3

Possession: 50 - 50 (50-50)
Chances: 6 - 6 (4-2)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Neil Richards Alfie Horridge

Park let a 3-1 lead slip away in the final 10 minutes against the poorest ever Premiership side Essex Wanderers as they ended the season with 3 points, including a point at Egloshayle Road, completing a dismal season for both sides.

Park started well with Theo Walcott opening the scoring after nine minutes following good work from Diddy Hamilton. Park were 2-0 up after 28 minutes. Anders Svensson putting Alan Shearer through to slot past Irons to make it 2-0 at half-time in an even first half.

Essex came out an improved side in the second half and pulled a goal back ten minutes into the second half. Jasper Tete scoring direct from a free-kick. Gareth Bale restored Parks two goal buffer when he headed in a Shearer corner. With minutes remaining and Park 3-1 up Essex staged an impressive come-back. Alfie Horridge made it 3-2 from distance after good work from Brent Manger and, with four minutes remaining, Harold Sully set up Tete for his long-range equaliser and second of the match.

Raiders So Close To Runners-Up

 Westcountry Wanderers	0
 Irish Raiders	2

Possession: 36 - 64 (36-64)
Chances: 2 - 4 (1-2)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Marvin Acreman Simon Francis

Westcountry Wanderers amazing second half of the season demise was complete at the hands of last seasons champions Irish Raiders as they themselves managed a 2-0 away win at the fallen leaders and nearly managed to grab runners up spot. Wanderers, after winning ALL seven of their openers only managed one win, one draw and an amazing five defeats in the 'back seven'.

The visitors dominated possession in the match and had the better of the chances although they were few and far between.

William Kirkby made the pressure pay with a header from a Gary Fortune cross to find the net, but this wasn't until the 53rd minute. Twenty minutes later Raiders doubled their lead, a direct free-kick from Marshall Bushell found the target and completed the 2-0 win.

Although this result completes a disappointing second half of the season for Wanderers they must remember they have surpassed all expectations and finishing runners-up in their return to top flight football is something to be proud of and not reflect on as failure by any means.

Final Day Carnival at Goal-less Cauldron

 Red Machine	0
 Down Under And Out	0

Possession: 50 - 50 (36-64)
Chances: 4 - 1 (3-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Neal Stamford Olívio Bonilha

There was little to play for at Red Cauldron for mid-table Red Machine and newly crowned champions Down Under And Out. With both sides already viewing next season possession was shared and the better chances fell to Machine but couldn't convert them into goals.

DUAO will attempt to be the first club to retain back-to-back Premiership titles, whilst Machine will be looking to get back to the summit, where their club believes it belongs.

Mitchell Ensures Deck Are Champs

A 2-2 draw for Deck sees them complete a Division One title and cup double.

 Mangatainoka FC 2

 The Rising Deck 2

Possession: 49 - 51 (50-50)

Chances: 5 - 7 (5-4)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Rory Estabrook Derren Brown

An equaliser from player-manager Magic Mitch proved to be the all important goal that ensured Deck returned to the Premiership as champions. In a match where both sides were already promoted the result merely decided who would be champions.

Division Ones surprise package

Mangatainoka started the scoring after 14 minutes when Jarred Ackroyd crossed for Roger Gidlof to head home. The leaders were back on level terms within seven minutes. Ian Mitchell setting up Derren Brown to fire home an equaliser from distance. Just eight minutes later and the home side edged in front, Gidlof grabbing his second direct from a freekick. With two minutes remaining in the half a Penn Jillette cross found Mitchells head for the equaliser that saw Deck crowned Division One champions.

Final Day Makes Fletch Rue Earlier Home Defeat

 The Perry Men 4

 Down By The Trent 0

The Perry Men finished the season strongly by leapfrogging over Down By The Trent with a one sided 4-0 home victory. Fletch exclaimed a home defeat to Mangatainoka cost his side a return to the Premiership, and how right he was. A draw to that match would have seen Perry Men promoted. How major achievements can pivot on the smallest of details.

Anton Hincu started the rout on twenty minutes, making it 1-0 after good work from Narciso Campelo. Campelo himself doubled the lead on 29 minutes when his long range effort found the target after good work from Edmund Strachan.

The second half continued in the same way, The Perry Men having 60% of the possession and creating 8 chances to Trent none. Eight minutes into the second half Hincu scored his second and Perry Mens third. The rout was complete on 73 minutes when Patricio Salvador put Drew Hartigan through to make it 4-0 and leave Fletchs men third and narrowly missing out on promotion. Trent, however, complete a much more improved season and will be looking forward to continuing next season.

'If you analyse the results it comes down to our home defeat against the Mangatonkas, this is what ultimately cost us a promotion place. Still, there's always next season. Congratulations to those that won stuff and comiserations to those that didn't. Enjoy the world cup. See you on the otherside' said McFletch

McGibbon Hat-trick The Icing On Disappointing Cake

 Hell Hounds	5
 Super Blues	1

Possession: 57 - 43 (58-42)
Chances: 8 - 3 (3-2)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Jonatan McGibbon Martin Reuser

A Jonatan McGibbon hat-trick ensured Hounds finished strongly, with a 5-1 victory over Super Blues, but have once again fallen short of what their squad is capable of. Blues, on the other hand, finished the season strongly and will be looking for a better season seven. McGibbon started as provider for the home side, putting Txanton Gutierrez through to make it 1-0 after 37 minutes as the half ended with Hounds 1-0 up.

Five minutes into the second half saw McGibbon score from the penalty spot, and two minutes later Hounds were 3-0 up. Jude Attenborough put McGibbon through for his second. Super Blues managed to claw a goal back after 58 minutes when Teodoro Moreira put Abbe Roth through to make it 3-1 but it wasn't long before Hounds increased their lead once more. Norman Buchanan created a chance for McGibbon to complete his hat-trick and five minutes later Hounds banged in number five. Attenborough set up Jimmy Ling from distance to complete the 5-1 victory.

Wooden Spoon Avoided

Despite going all out attack again and getting pumped the Blues avoid the wooden spoon. After an awful season, next season has to be better with a rebuilt squad and money in the bank this season will be soon forgotten TB hopes. Congrats to Deck on a fine double winning season and DUAO for taking the Premier title with ease.

Wellington Complete dismal Wazzy Season

 Wellington Wanderers	2
 FC Wazzy	0

Possession: 52 - 48 (55-45)
Chances: 7 - 3 (2-3)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Otelo Mascarenhas Terrence Crooks

Wellington completed a miserable season for Wazzy by beating them comfortably 2-0 at Wellington Street stadium. Wazzy manager Paul Warren has received backing from the board and vowed to come back stronger next season with more time available. Wellington, meanwhile, will be looking to improve on their mid-table status.

Wellington had the better of possession and chances in the match with Bert Hallam opening the scoring for the home side after 31 minutes following a good cross from Ruben Benavent. It was a 1-0 lead they deservedly held on to, until half-time.

The second half continued where the first left off but Wellington could not increase their lead until the final ten minutes. Good work from Les Yallop resulted in Antonio Turchetti finding the bottom corner to complete a comfortable 2-0 home win.

Poor season ends on a high

Eggmofo lamented his teams poor form this season as another year slips by. What was once a golden crop is barely recognisable to the team that he now manages, however he can draw some light from the youth which is emerging throughout the team. Whether they can progress is another thing.

Good change report

Mangi manager Aotearoa was over the moon about the recent change report that came out with 11 players showing a positive skill increase & 12 in total. We moved from 16th to the 12th strongest in the league. I think it was down to playing as a squad with all my players getting a decent run out. It wasn't all a bed of roses though as none of my strikers showing a physical increase. So with that news we have decided to sell Canas in addition to Ali with their transfer fees currently being negotiated. So we are looking for a high skilled older and a young goal scorer to boost the ranks, but with the current prices inflated it might have to wait a while until these new signings arrive.

Congrats to Rising Deck for doing the double. We put up a good fight but their class came through in the end.

Good luck for next season & I'm always up for a friendly, so send us a challenge through as it's going to be ages until our next season starts.

Good Luck England !

Position Of The Week. No 10 'The view-view-say-yeah'

OK with the World Cup in full flow and our own season over for a few weeks I'm going to turn something irritating into the gift that keeps giving. It's something that can be enjoyed for the rest of the cup and it's a freebie from me to you all. Have a good summer. COME ON ENGLAND!!!! (Not literally!)

Erotic Instructions:

This is a great England half time quickie that can be performed quite easily on a bar stool in your local tavern in the middle of the Algeria match this Friday!

Firstly let your man have a much needed visit to the gentleman's latrine especially as he should have been out since the early afternoon wetting his vocal chords in need for a right royal hollering at his heroes performing in South Africa. Sit your man down with his legs crossed. Facing him, lift your England Footie Blouse, straddle his legs and lower yourself into his lap. This is where you'll probably notice that he is unable to get wood and you'll be, at first, very disappointed at the uselessness of his Mr Softie, however panic not !

Next to the many glasses on the bar top you will be in easy reach of the fucking irritating, view obstructing, ear deafening piece of useless shit (no not the Mother-In-Law !) but the cuntng Vuvuzela !!!! that, not by coincidence, is also known as 'The Stadium Horn!!!'

This nonsensical item is thankfully phallic like and will leave you without the need of his Marshmallow like knob trying to penetrate you. Wrap your legs around either side of his torso, so they're hugging his buttocks. Then, as you hold his arms or lower back tightly, he enters the "lepatata", its Tswana name!

(I'll educate you yet !!!) into you. Start to slowly rock up and down on the Vuvuzela being careful that the mouthpiece of it has not been roughly factory cut or you may well let out a high pitched wailing emittance very similar to that of the said instrument.

As the instrument is a good 3 foot 3 inches in length the rapid upward/downward trajectory of your bosoms should give your man a lovely View on the way up and an equally pleasing View on the way down that will, along with a Large 15 minutes worth of Courvoisier, keep him occupied until the emergence of Fab's Team for the 2nd half.

Increase your speed as you come closer to climaxing making sure to it's over and done by 8:28pm.

Make yourself immediately useful by ordering up another pint for him and making a hasty dash to the nearest Cashpoint to get a large Wad of Dosh to slip into his back pocket to get him through the rest of the evening.
