Park Destroyed At Home By DUAO

Joaquin Rubiales is congratulated by his DUAO team mates after netting his sides 3rd.

Its still no stopping Westcountry Wanderers at the top of the Premiership - they made it four out of four. Meanwhile Destroyers, Essex, Temple Town and Super Blues all await their first league win.

Chances: 2 - 6 (2-6)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Gareth Bale Olívio Bonilha

Egloshayle Park were outclassed at home by a Down Under And Out side in the mood for no mercy at Egloshayle Road.

The home side greatly under-estimated their title rivals and looked second best in every area. The visitors went ahead as early as the 4th minute when Geoffrey Boardman crossed for Daniel Kibble to head in the opener. Ben Windsot followed up his previous weeks hat-trick with a direct freekick on the half hour mark to make it 2-0 and just four minute later and the match was inevitably over when Windsor turned provider, this time crossing for Joaquin Rubiales to make it 3-0 at half-time.

Park got more into the game in the second half but neither side could create a single chance even after Niall

Willoughby received a straight red on the hour and Walcott got his second yellow four minutes from time.

Bracing Himself

Park boss is said to be bracing himself from the 'Press-release' from hell after his side went down 3-0 at home to DUAO.

"But thats not half as much as my players will be getting after this unexplainable performance" said Mitchell.

Park Destroyed by DUAO

Park came out onto the field looking like they didn't want to play. DUAO's Ben Windsor, who was closely marked throughout the game, still managed to score one and assist another as DUAO went into an early 3 goal lead against a full strength but clearly inferior Park side. When DUAO's young midfielder, Niall Willoughby, was sent off on 59 minutes, you would have been forgiven for thinking a comeback was on the cards. However Park continued to shy away from the ball as they failed to add anything to their 2 first half chances. Park fans were ripping up their season tickets and leaving the match in droves after Alan Shearer 66 minute mock dive and feigned injury, destroyed any last remnants of hope of a Park comeback.

Wookie was on hand after the game for his thoughts:

"I don't know where to start...I'd like to talk about how good we played as a team, but we were just made to look exceptional by the ineptly inferior opposition and I'm sure we won't have it this easy again all season.

We outplayed Park with 10 men for 30 minutes and they couldn't match our possession or score a single goal! DUAO outplayed Park in every part of the field. It must have been incredibly embarrassing for them; it felt like we were playing a Sunday league side not a premiership contender. But you can't blame the Park players for not performing when their coach is miss-instructing them from the side lines.

"We outplayed Park with 10 men for 30 minutes"

Park and the Machine continue to refer to the All Time Standings Table, but this table is just meaningless in today's modern game and refers back to days long gone by. They've had their glory and now it's time for them to retire quietly to the lower division while they still have a modicum of dignity intact. We'd welcome any approaches from Park and Machine players who would like to play competitive football this season. We can't promise them first team positions but we may be able to give them a good run out in the cup.

Graxas For The Perfect Start

Temple Town 1

Westcountry Wanderers 2

Possession: 52 - 48 (59-41)

Chances: 3 - 3 (1-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Hank Whitbread Cliff Hedger

For the second week running leaders Westcountry Wanderers left it late to snatch a winner and maintain their perfect start to season six in the Premiership.

There was nothing to choose between the sides in the first half with both sides practically enjoying 50-50 of the possession and each creating a solitary chance that neither side could convert making it 0-0 at the half-way stage.

Thirty minutes into the second half and Temple Town, without a win so far this season, threatened to turn the league table upside down when Franklin Leaver created a striking chance for Timothy Pilling to fire Town into a 1-0 lead. The lead, however, only lasted for three minutes. Adrien Morell set up Cliff hedger for his long range effort to make it 1-1. The league leaders maintained their 100% start to the season when Hedger turned provider, this time setting up Ivanildo Graxas to make it 2-1 with 10 minutes remaining. A lead they held onto to make it 4 out of 4 at the top.

Champions March On At Emerald Isle

Irish Raiders 3

Red Machine 0

Possession: 57 - 43 (61-39)

Chances: 8 - 2 (5-0)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Marshall Bushell Sergio Di Cintio

The current League Supreme champions underlined their championship credentials once more by disposing of a Red Machine side in danger of being written out of the title race so early in the season.

Machine have only won 1 and lost 3 so far and need to turn things around immediately if they are going to have any impact on where the league title will go in season six. The home side, and current champions Raiders bossed the match and were 1-0 on the half hour mark when Marshall Bushell put William Kirkby through for the opener. Raiders continued their pressure and were deservedly 2-0 on half-time when Simon Francis' corner was headed in by Bushell to make it 2-0 at half time.

Red Machine came back a little in the second half but Raiders continued to create the better chances. Any hopes of any come back were quashed on the hour when a second Francis' corner fell to Bushell once more for the midfielder to grab his second and Raiders 3rd to put Raiders up into third in the table and leave Machine with a real uphill struggle in season six.

3 Is The Magic Number

In a week that saw Red Machine manager Couchy, first curse and then savour the number 3. They visited current champions Irish Raiders on Thursday, hoping to get their league form back on track.

"I hold my hands up and applaud the Irish Raiders, they totally played us off the park. I believe we were fortunate after ninety minutes to come away with only conceding three. I don't hold my players responsible, they definitely put in a shift, as proven by the Teamwork Value stats, they certainly never gave up which was encouraging to see."

"With Irish Raiders now only three points off top position, I believe they will be strong contenders to retain their title at the end of the season, and become only the second team (after myself) to win the League Supreme for a second time."

All Square Again For Destroyers At Rainham

 Essex Wanderers	2
 The Dark Destroyers	2

Possession: 57 - 43 (53-47)

Chances: 2 - 5 (1-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Jasper Tete

Vinnie Jones

Essex Wanderers twice came from behind at Rainham Marshes to grab a point at home to draw specialists Dark Destroyers.

"I hold my hands up and applaud the Irish Raiders, they played us off the park"

The visitors started strongly and grabbed a 12th minute lead when Anne Robinson's corner created an opening for Vinne Jones to give Destroyers the lead. In a tight first half the home side had to wait until the stroke of half-time to create a chance, a chance they scored from when Jasper Tete created an opportunity for Alfie Horridge to grab a valuable equaliser.

Essex increased their pressure in the second half but it was the visitors who created more chances and went 2-1 up when Sean Gibbens crossed for Sid Vicious to head home. The lead, however, only lasted 4 minutes. Alfie Horridge precise through ball found Jasper Tete with the keeper to beat and he made no mistake to end the match 2-2.

Rio's Trio gives Rice the Blues

Narciso Campelo disposes Arnold Muhren in a photo exactly the same as last weeks but in a different match to make it 2-1, grabbing the first, of his eventual hat-trick.

Just ten minutes into the second half and Daltrey, created a little daylight between the two sides when he netted from the spot after Tabbart was adjudged to have handled in the Blues box. Daltrey completed his hat-trick on the hour when Anton Hincu crossed from the left for Daltrey to head home to make it 4-1. Cornacchini grabbed his second and Perry Mens 5th in the 63rd minute when his direct freekick flew past Constantiniu and a Blues side desperate for a turn around in fortunes.

Rio's Carnival

The Perry Men piled the pressure on the Super Blues players in a bruising encounter that saw McFletch's side run off 5-1 winners. Hat-trick hero Rio Daltrey was only too pleased to speak to Xpert Eleven reporters after the game, 'To be honest they came at us and played like a team who knew their playing careers were in the balance. A lousy decision by the ref went against them and that seemed to leave them deflated. From therein it was easy for us to kill off the game'. This will be just the result McFletch was looking for prior to the long journey to play DUAO in the cup.

Who's the wanker in the black!!

Yet again, TB was left mistified by the result against the Perry Men. 5 v 1 was the final score but it was a wrong decision by teh ref at 2 v 1 disallowing Counago's second goal and equaliser that turned the game. With all players on teh transfer list they proceeded to collapse after teh decision allowing Perry to fire yet more misery into the Blues.

 The Perry Men	5

 Super Blues	1

Possession: 62 - 38 (52-48)

Chances: 7 - 4 (4-3)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Valeriano Cornacchini Martin Reuser

McFletch and the Perry Men heaped more misery on Super Blues and manager Darren Rice with an unsympathetic 5-1 thumping at White Hot Lane.

Valeriano Cornacchini put the home side on their way after just 3 minutes following good work from Narciso Campelo. The Blues, however did strike back when Rising Deck bound Arnold Muhren was upended in the box for Pablo Counago to convert the resulting penalty to make it 1-1. Just ten minutes before the break Perry Men restored their lead with Cornacchinis freekick finding Rio Daltrey unmarked further departures not ruled out. It is understood Deck have agreed a fee for midfielder Muhren with personal terms being agreed over the weekend.

The decision to allow Muhren to leave has been questioned by some blues fans but TB has said he needs to strengthen the squad and whilst Muhren has been a great player for the team a hard decision has to be made to raise funds.

With Temple also in bad form, the cup game is likley to be one not to watch.

Deck Leapfrog Hell Hounds To Top Spot

 The Rising Deck	3
 Hell Hounds	0

Possession: 57 - 43 (64-36)

Chances: 9 - 3 (4-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Robert Houdin Patrick Koob

The Deck rose to the top of Division One with this 3-0 home demolition of previously unbeaten Hell Hounds at The Orpheum.

The Deck were ahead in the 32nd minute in a first half dominated by the former Premiership outfit. Andrew Mayne put David Blaine through to make it 1-0 at half time.

The Rising Deck continued the second half in the same vein and made it 2-0 on the hour. William Davenports corner found Godfrey Smithies on the edge of the box to fire home number two. The match was all over after 76 minutes when Smithies crossed for Blaine to grab his second and his sides third to put Deck top of the pile after week 4.

Timisescu Grabs Late Point For Wazzy

 FC Wazzy	2
 Mangatainoka FC	2

Possession: 59 - 41 (58-42)

Chances: 3 - 5 (1-4)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Benedict Bayley Dave Grohl

A goal at the death from Timisescu rescued a point for FC Wazzy after Paul Warrens side twice came from behind against Mangatainoka at the Back Garden.

Wazzy enjoyed the majority of the first half possession but it was the visitors who created the better chances and were rewarded when Mikey Maxfield put Geert Alkema through to give Mangatainoka a 1-0 lead after 34 minutes. Wazzy grabbed an all important equaliser right on half time after good work from Benedict Bayley allowed Filimon Timisescu to fire a long range effort past Simms to make it 1-1 at half time.

The home side improved a little in the second half but found themselves behind once more when Bayley handled in his own area and Terrance Shutt converted the resulting penalty to make it 2-1 to Mangatainoka. Just when it looked as though Jared side would grab all three points, up came Timisescu to make it 2-2 in the 89th minute and grab a point a piece for both sides.

Mangatainoka A grabs a draw on the road

Mangi manager Aotearoa was over the moon with today's result. First of all, we managed to get a draw on the road & second of all it was with our 'A' team. It all started off well with a 34th min opener, but the lead was short with Wazzzzzy pulling one back 10 mins later. The biggest call of the day came in on the 64th minute when ref gave a pretty blatant penalty which Terrance Shutt duly converted. We were left devastated with a 89th minute equaliser & who would have known if our first team keeper wasn't warming the bench. On that note we rested 7 first team regulars in preparation for Sundays first round of the cup. Only time will tell if this tactic will pay off or not.

Play To The Final Whistle

"We were taken a little by surprise when Wangatunga umbumgo umbumgo drink it in the jungle visited the Back Garden this week. They were very quick out of the blocks and deserved their lead. However, my boys know the importance of playing to the whistle and more importantly, to the full 45 minutes of each half.

We were out played on the day, but equalising goals on the stroke of both half-time AND full-time could prove to be vital as the season progrsses.

"We were left devastated by an 89th minutes equaliser"

Next for us is a visit to the tranquil setting of DOOM to play the chieften's ever-so-sweet bunch of jolly lads in the cup. I'm sure me and my team will be made very welcome upon our arrival. Maybe a welcome cup of tea and a fairy cake or two!!!

Gibson Gives Some Points To EggMofo

 Down By The Trent 0

 Wellington Wanderers 1

Possession: 51 - 49 (65-35)

Chances: 4 - 6 (2-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Zacharias Barkworth Doug Barrowcliff

A goal eight minutes from time proved to be enough for Wellington Wanderers to grab all three points from Phil Jorys Down By The Trent.

The home side dominated possession in the first half but could not create and clear cut chances to make the break through. Both sides created a couple of first half chances but both went it 0-0.

Wellington got back into the match after the break and turned possession into chances and looked the more threatening. They were rewarded for their persistence with just eight minutes left on the clock when Nathan Doherty put Jeremie Gibson through to slot past Mellor in the Trent goal to give EggMofo a 1-0 victory and all three points.

.....square one in the snakes and ladders minefield of Div One” is what one intrepid reporter commented about DBTT’s loss at home to Wellington. Jory retorted “I’m not sure about the ladder but there was certainly a large snake writhing around in the clutches of a ginger groin at the Churchill Bars on Tuesday as MM “filled in” for the local pool team”

Thom Yorke has ben sold so TB will decide on any further transfers after the weekend. It could be do or die for a few players.

Temple Town

Following the poor start to the season by TT, the manager is now looking for a major change in form. They need some serious changes in attack, as currently barn doors are too small. That reminds me how are the green army? Thanks for the six points this season, helps us up the league.

Dialogue to bring Dampness

Rising Deck Player/Manager/ Sexual Advisor/Agony Uncle Ian ‘Magic’ Mitch took a little time out from his ‘Our love life is dead please can you resERECT it’ workshop to give us his views of the past week. “Firstly i’d like to congratulate my squad on putting in an amazing 90 minutes against Matt Rose’s Hell Hounds on Thursday. We knew if we didn’t put in 100% we’d get turned over so i’m happy they showed a lot of Spunk in getting a flattering win. We also like to thank Tractor Boy for the smooth transaction of Arnold Muhren to our squad. We need a bit more depth (nowt is deep enough for my schlong !) in our Midfield and that Dutch Bitch will give us some interesting options in the coming weeks.

Sunday threw up a tough first leg against Mangatainoka F.C (twinned with Llanfairpwllgwy ngyllgogerychwyrn drobwlllantysiliogogoch in Wales !) who proved to be extremely tough to break down, but thankfully we didn’t concede an away goal. Hats off and cocks out to their incredible kit ! They certainly have two very strong pink nosed teasers up front and it’ll definately add a few more bums on seats in Stadia around The League Supreme. Sorry for the lack of quiz material recently but my sexual advice book agreement has taken up a little time so here’s a quickie to wet your front buttocks.

Position Of The Week. No 2 'Randy Raft aka Brandy Raft'

Erotic Instructions:

Listen up bitches it's that time again so give my words heed and it may make your life a better place with careful practice of the following tip from my large volume of pleasurable positions.

Climb onto a well-inflated raft in shallow water, and lie on your stomach with your butt and legs dangling over the edge. This is best done at your local swimming baths and preferably on a child free session. Although you may personally be 'doing lengths' a 'free swim' night will give you the best possible space to perform.

Leave adequate space on the raft for a bottle of Spirit within easy reach of your master. Your better, more suffering, half could grab on to your thighs but really you should be supporting your feet by resting them on the edge of the pool therefore leaving him free for that ever important glass of Courvoisier held delicately in the preferred hand. This leaves the other free to deal a firm thwack to the cheek of his choice. When AND ONLY WHEN, he is ready attempt to push back onto him incredibly close for the deepest possible penetration being extra careful not to jog his glass. If your ass smarts from any firm slap that it has been dealt don't forget to thank him and apologise as it might also have hurt his palm.

Carnal Challenge

Why you'll Love It:

The Randy Raft delivers a double whammy. First, this position is similar to the way you lean over an ironing board so getting into the said position should be instant and comfortable therefore avoiding the normal dismissive attitude in trying something new. Plus, since you can't see him, you aren't able to anticipate his next move, which is surprisingly thrilling as you are unaware as to when the next welt to the ass may occur

As your man gets close to climaxing, have him lean forward so his chest is pressed against your back for an intimate skin-to-skin finale. This also enables him to be heard more clearly when telling you what he wants for his supper.

Blues Put League Woes Behind Them as Westcountry Are Beaten At Last

least I'm still in the fixture when the deck comes to Tui park next Sunday. I think today's choice of kit was a master stroke. I think it put the team off, but it certainly had the manager in all sorts of trouble.

3 Is The Magic Number

When asked about yesterday's cup encounter against Westcountry Wanderers, it was easy to see a sparkle enter Couchy's eye's.

"What can I say, on Thursday we played like the 'Dog And Duck' pub team, but yesterday we were more like Barcelona. Westcountry Wanderers are THE team in form at the moment, with four straight wins in the league. The players put Thursday defeat behind them, and what a mouth watering game of football we gave our fans to enjoy. We played the classic game of keep-ball, with us having 63% of the possession."

"I thoroughly enjoyed my pint of Skinners pale ale after the game."

Response Was More Important

Park boss Mitchell today congratulated his Park side for their 3-0 Cup win at home to the champions and defended his decision to play at full-strength for the first time in their clubs history.

"After our slip-up in the league it was vital we got back to winning ways as soon as possible, I think 2 defeats in a row would have been tricky to come back from. Im pretty sure Raiders were not at full-strength and we may regret this later in the season when it comes to getting players experience up to 100%. Yesterday, I thought the result was more important than player experience and whether later in the season I will regret it, only time will tell" said Mitchell.

The League Supreme Cup - Last 16 Draw

The Dark Destroyers	2 - 0	FC Wazzy
The Rising Deck	0 - 0	Mangatainoka FC

Red Machine FC	3 - 0	Westcountry Wanderers
Super Blues	4 - 0	Temple Town
Down by the Trent	1 - 0	Essex Wanderers
Down Under And Out	2 - 0	The Perry Men

The Super Blues put their league disappointments behind them as they trounced a Temple Town side in free-fall. Goals from Counago, Purse, Roscoe and an own-goal from Curado gave Darren Rices side a 4-0 1st leg lead and practically booked Super Blues place in the quarter-finals. Although they are the only side to have a 100% perfect start to the league, Westcountry Wanderers perfect start to the season came to a halt at Red Cauldron as the Red Machine turned the table upside down with a 3-0 win. Logan, Bolam and Coutinho got the goals for Rob Couchs men. Another side that should be thorough to the quart-final draw are Egloshayle Park. A Kinglsey Rickard hat-trick ensured Park beat Irish Raiders 3-0 at home.

A 2-0 home win could be enough for The Dark Destroyers. Anne Robinson headed in a 3rd minute opener and Dick Dastardly grabbed a second from the spot 3 minutes before the break to beat FC Wazzy. Down Under And Outs impressive start to the season continued as they beat The Perry Men, Andy Blackmoor grabbed a brace as DUAO went down 2-0 winners. Down By The Trent were the rounds only other winners. A 51st minute header from Derrick Sawyer was enough to take a 1-0 lead to Essex next week.

There were draws in the rounds final remaining two fixtures. Hell Hounds drew at home to Wellington Wanderers 1-1 with the visitors taking a 25 minute lead through Murray, only for Gutierrez to equalise 7 minutes from time. Meanwhile Mangatainoka managed an admirable 0-0 draw at table toppers Rising Deck.
