93rd Minute Winner Keeps Deck Top

Machine Beat Westcountry 6-1 in the Cup

No.46 Bianca Kajlich

Hot On Their Heels

Wanderers still cant stop winning with DUAO hot on their heels. In Division One its last seasons relegated Premiership sides who are leading the field.

	Down Under And Out	4
	Irish Raiders	2

Possession: 49 - 51 (58-42)

Chances: 7 - 9 (4-8)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Ben Windsor Les Pardoe

Down Under And Out continue to be Westcountry's biggest threat at the time as they comfortably disposed of current champions Irish Raiders at the Wookie Hole, Palmy North. After putting three past Egloshayle and now 4 past Raiders DUAO are hot on Westcountry's heels.

Ben Windsor grabbed his 6th of the season in the 17th minute following a Vinnie Steele corner. Six minutes later and the title chasers were 2-0 up. This time, Andy Blackmoor's corner found Chesley Gellar unmarked in the box to head home. Just a minute later and the visiting champions gave themselves hope when Gordon Hansen created an opening for Les Pardoe to fire home. Half time score 2-1 to DUAO in a thrilling first half.

Westcountry Wanderers maintain their amazing start. Its five out of five at the top.

Premiership Round-Up

The second half was a mere ten minutes old when DUAO restored their two goal buffer. Good work from Daniel Kibble resulted in Windsor grabbing his 7th of the season and give DUAO a 3-1 lead. Just eight minutes later and the three points were in the bag. Kibble once again provider, crossing for Blackmoor to make it 4-1. With ten minutes remaining on the clock Raiders did manage to pull another goal back. Pardoe crossing for Seymour Conden to head home at the far post but by then it was too little too late as DUAO went in 4-2 victors and remain the bookies favourite for the title.

DUAO dispose of Irish and Yids

DUAO Manger Wookie spoke frankly about recent threats to his beloved club.

“ First we had the Irish visit with their bruising tactics and then the threat of a pasting when we travelled to Shite Tart Lane for our Cup reply. It’s a shame to see the beautiful game deteriorate to such guerrilla tactics. We have respect to the Irish for coming out strong at Wookie Hole, they obviously wanted the win and that’s admirable, but to lay on the Bruise tactics and take out 2 of our players, one for over a month, is completely unacceptable behaviour. At least we hit them where it really hurts and made them suffer on the pitch by beating them 4-2 and seriously denting their League title defence.

As for the Perry men’s shambolic threat, once again they are full of false promises. We visited their flea pit of a club and gave them a few chances to try and make a game of it...but let’s face fact, they didn’t get relegated last season for nothing... quite frankly they are shit and couldn’t score in a brothel.

We’ve had a good start to the season but from here it will really start to get really tough, especially as now we have injuries to key players. We haven’t got our sights set on any silverware this season, but if we continue to play as we are, then I can’t rule it out either”

Machine Pile Misery On Essex

 Red Machine	5
 Essex Wanderers	0

Possession: 59 - 41 (56-44)

Chances: 8 - 1 (4-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Acácio Coutinho Alfie Horridge

The Red Machine have more than stuttered this season but are at last beginning to show the form that brought two Premiership titles to the the Red Cauldron. Whether their start is a little too late remains to be seen.

They clearly outclassed Essex Wanderers, who seem to be struggling in the top flight, but needed a 17th minute own goal to set them on their way. The unfortunate defender to put past his own keeper was Nick Gillespie. Five minutes from time and Inacio Sanches doubled the lead, Horace Logan the provider.

“They obviously wanted to win and thats admirable”

Although still in the game at 2-0 down, any hope of a revival was crushed with just 15 minutes to go. Acacio Countinho crossed for Alastair Craven to head home to make it 3-0. With just five minutes remaining Countinho turned from provider into scorer when Hemming Lassen-Kahlke crossed for Countinho to head home the home sides 4th. Three minutes later, and two minutes from time Coutinho grabbed his second and Machines 5th. This time Logan put him through to give Machine a comfortable 5-0 victory.

Hewys Wanderers Still Living The Dream

 Westcountry Wanderers	2
 The Dark Destroyers	0

Possession: 58 - 42 (64-36)

Chances: 6 - 3 (2-3)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Gaspar Aguado Vinnie Jones

Westcountry Wanderers amazing start to the season continued at home to a very difficult to beat Dark Destroyers side. Talk of the home side having a great start and being early pace setters are beginning to subside and there is a real sense that Hewys side are real title contenders and have proved in the first 5 weeks that results are far from flash in the pans.

Westocuntry dominated proceedings at The Cove in the first half but chances were even. It took a Don Ashe corner in the 29th minute to find Ivanildo Graxas to break the deadlock. The goal ensured the league leaders went it at the break a goal to the good.

The visitors got back into the game a little with possession in the second half but failed to create an opportunity and were made to pay the penalty, quite literally in the 78th minute. After Cliff Hedger was upended in the Destroyers box, the midfielder picked himself up, dusted himself down and slotted in the penalty to give Wanderers all three points, maintain their 100% start in the league and put Westcountry 3 points clear at the Premiership summit.

Rickard Slays Temple Town Ghost

Temple Town	0
Egloshayle Park FC	1

Possession: 50 - 50 (57-43)

Chances: 2 - 5 (0-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away

Hank Whitbread Neil Richards

Egloshayle Park laid last seasons ghost to rest as they snatched the all important solitary goal of this tightly fought fixture which saw Temple Town grab all six points in, in season five.

Pak boss expressed his fear at Temple Towns ability on the eve of this fixture but will be relieved at the 1-0 away win. In a tight match with respect to possession it was Egloshayle who created the better openings. The all important and eventual match winner came two minutes before the break when Anders Svensson set-up Kinglsey Rickard for his long range effort to fly past Arleskog in the Town net.

The home side pressed more in the second half but the visitors held out for all three points in a match which saw the match-winner Rickard stretched off in the 92nd minute and could potentially miss the next eight matches.

Park Boss Mitchell Praises Rickard

 Egloshayle Park boss Mitchell hailed his striker Kinglsey Rickard as it was his strike that laid the Temple Town ghost to rest but also in view of his horrific injury which will see Rickard potentially miss the next 8 games.

“Our medical staff are doing all they can to get Kinger back on his feet, but, if we proceed in the cup, he could still be out for around 8 matches.” said Mitchell. When asked about the late challenge Mitchell replied “It was sickening, but I have to come to expect that from Town. I prefer to concentrate on the match. It was difficult for us as I know they raise their game when we are in town. But it is not surprising not to have a press release from the sore loser. I bet we ALL would have heard (like last season) if they had managed a victory” said Mitchell.

“its not surprsing not to have a press release from the sore loser”

Division One Round-Up

Injury Time Heartache

Super Blues can only stand and watch as Rising Deck snatch all three points

 Super Blues	1
 The Rising Deck	2

Possession: 48 - 52 (51-49)

Chances: 4 - 6 (1-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Martin Reuser Robert Houdin

Although taking the lead, Super Blues failed to hold on to what would have been a memorable victory against Division One leaders Rising Deck, as an old adversary returned to Portman Fortress to haunt them.

Super Blues, without a point this season, got off to a flyer when Lester Tabbart crossed for Abbe Roth to head home a 4th minute opener. In an extremely tight first half chances were few and far between and the bottom side went in at the break a goal to the good against the leaders.

In an ironic twist of fate, and after a surprisingly contract glitch, Rising Decks new signing, Arnold Muhren FROM Super Blues provided the turning point in the match. Howard Thurston put the Super Blues old boy through for the midfielder to equalise with just four minutes of the second half being played. When it looked as though the Tractor Boys were going to finally get off the points mark the Deck, playing to the final whistle, broke Blues hearts. William Davenport created an opening for David Blaine to fire in a 93rd minute pile driver to cruelly snatch all three points from Super Blues.

“This season is about building and gaining experience”

One Jammy Bastard

Yet again the Blues were shafted, this time with a 93rd minute goal to shit on them again, not to mention Muhrens equaliser (yes the player recently sold to Deck came back to haunt his old team mates). However, the Blues are into the next round of the cup despite an average display at the Temple. The team has totally evolved over the past couple of weeks and the squad is now rebuilt and ready to progress this season and next. TB hope the new youngsters and signings will pay back the heavy outlay of cash.

‘This season is all about building and gaining experience, we showed we can compete against the best in this league and were robbed in injury time. We will get the wins, but we must dig deep and see out the game’.

6-Minute Destruction

 FC Wazzy	1
 The Perry Men	3

Possession: 45 - 55 (50-50)

Chances: 3 - 9 (2-5)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Benedict Bayley Narciso Campelo

Three goals in a devastating six minute spell either side of half-time was too much for FC Wazzy as The Perry Men proved too strong for their hosts.

In an even first half, promotion hopefuls Wazzy will be kicking themselves for not taking a 19th minute lead. Terrence Crooks was fouled

in the box but Ethan Page could only see his penalty rebound off the post. They were made to rue that missed chance, but not until as late as the 42nd minute of the half. Patricio Salvadors 30 yard strike putting the visitors ahead. That lead was double just two minutes later with Wazzy clearly shell shocked. This time Narciso Campelo setting up last weeks hat-trick hero Rio Daltrey to make it 2-0.

The second half was barely three minutes old when any second half revival was laid to rest when Campelos corner was converted at the near post by Anton Hincó to make it 3-0. The visitors continued to create the better chances and grew stronger as the match progressed but it was the home side who had the last word. Filimon Timisescu crossed for Rodrigo Lamego to head home. It was little more than a consolation and Wazzys promotion challenge is seriously in danger.

Perry Men Dig Deep in the Garden

The Perry Men bounced back from a disappointing, but not unexpected, loss in the cup to take maximum points against FC Wazzy. Captain Narciso Campelo was awarded star player and was there at the end to talk to reporters. 'The cup is a distraction this season, as it always is for us. We are concentrating on bouncing back to the Premiership at the first attempt and these are the sort of tough away games we need to win to do that. We will give our best against DUAO but the 2-0 deficit may be too much to overturn against an in form Premiership team. The best we can hope for is to maybe injure a player of theirs to scupper there chances of Premiership glory. After all we don't want a Northern twat winning.' Sensible words from The Perry Men's captain, whose grasp of the English language comes on leaps and bounds.

Mangatainoka Climb To Third

Mangatainoka FC

2

Wellington Wanderers

0

Possession: 59 - 41 (63-37)

Chances: 10 - 1 (6-0)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Dave Grohl Esko Jäämaa

Mangatainoka are continuing to keep pace with Division Ones chasing pack and comfortably disposed of a visiting Wellington Wanderers side who only managed a solitary chance on the home sides goal.

The first half was totally controlled by Mangatainoka. They had two thirds of possession and created 6 chances without reply. They only, however, managed a single goal to take into half time. Roger Gidlof crossing for Jared Ackroyd to head home a 12th minute opener.

Although Wellington did get into the match a little more in the second half, the all important first half statistic was doubled with only four minutes of the second half being played. Eddie van Halen created an opportunity for Gidlof to fire home from 25 yards to give Jareds side a 2-0 victory to leapfrog over their visitors and into 3rd place in Division one.

Downed By Trent

Hell Hounds

0

Down By The Trent

3

Possession: 51 - 49 (40-60)

Chances: 3 - 8 (2-3)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Agron Behari Zacharias Barkworth

Down By The Trent looked a shadow of their former selves as they eventually ran out 3-0 away winners at Hell Hounds, but had to wait until ten minutes from time to start the ball rolling.

In a tight first half Trent enjoyed the majority of the ball but could have found themselves a goal down at the break. Richards was adjudged to have handled in his own area but Jonatan McGibbon saw his penalty high and wide to keep the scoreline 0-0 at half time.

The home side were made to regret that miss, but not until the 79th minute. Osvaldo Simoes squared the ball for Derrick Sawyer to fire a long range effort home to give Trent a 1-0 lead. That lead was doubled with five minutes remaining when Zacharias Barkworth crossed for Sawyer to grab his, and his sides second. Trent were in seventh heaven just two minutes later when, surprisingly they made it 3-0. Rodger Featherstone created an opening for Ronnie Bergman to score and complete an impressive 3-0 victory which belied their Division One position.

"Fucking Nora"

claimed DBTT manager Phil Jory after his sides 3-0 victory at Hell Hounds adding "to be honest this has been one of our best results for a long while, yes I know that doesn't take much before some ignorant, twatting tongue makes a comment, and lets hope we can take this forward over the remainder of the season."

P.S - thanks for that position MM, it worked a treat in my outdoor heated 25m swimming pool.

"The best we can hope for is to injure a player to scupper their chances"

Park Boss Fearful Of Temple Town

On the eve of what should be, on paper at least, a straight-forward victory against bottom of the table Temple Town, Egloshayle, who have a 100% record on the road this season, expressed more than a little concern at visiting Hargreaves' outfit.

"There is no such thing as a 'straight-forward victory'" slammed Mitchell. "They did the double over us last season, and although the second victory we played our 2nd team, they still beat us fair and square at Birchfield, and his attention to detail over this ONE fixture will make it very difficult for us."

"Even though Raiders are champions, Westcountry are leaders and Machine have won the title twice, we seem to be the team to beat this season, I dont know why, jealousy maybe, which makes ALL of our games cup-finals. I think I should be both flattered and frustrated at this fact." He continued. "The fact that Raiders and DUAO meet tomorrow means we need a result to keep us in touching distance of Westcountry" said Mitchell.

The Magic Position

Wasn't all that magic for me...I also tried it in the pool but being northern, I obviously can't afford my own pool, so I practiced it down the local public baths. Needless to say the general public didn't find the spectacle all that amusing – perhaps it would have been different if I'd have avoided kiddies' hour?

Don't worry Fletch your recent outburst hasn't gone unnoticed...I'll be dealing with you shortly, you southern piece of fanny flap!

Coast to Coast brings Arnie a Hard On !

Rising Deck Player/Manager/ Sexual Agony Uncle Ian 'Magic' Mitch gave a quick press conference from the balcony of his office at The Mighty Orpheum this morning as he reflected on a hectic but successful 4 days orchestrating entertainment and happiness for his devoted followers.

"Thousands pay big money to see us so i must give 100% devotion to all tasks thrown at me, whether it's trying to break down a tight outfit in the cup, trying to get 3 points against a much improved league opposition or replying to thankyou letters from fellow managers wives on the spice i've added to their bedroom antics.

We spent wisely on bringing in Arnold Muhren from the east coast to the west and he has started repaying our faith in him already by scoring 3 vital goals in the past 4 days that has put us top of the division and into the next round of the cup.

Unfortunately this has come at a price to the club as ALL of my Players are injured for the foreseeable future, ALL of our training equipment has been stolen and ALL other staff have gone down with a virus so the next round of the cup will be a walkover and easy win for whoever we play as they will not have bigger excuses than that ! (sound familiar ?)"

The lucky winner of last weeks quiz was Sadie Majicword from Cockermonth, CUMbria who wins a framed pube of mine from my MAMMOTHIAN COCK & BALLS.

Position Of The Week. No 3 'The Sofa Slut'

Erotic Instructions:

Those of you that have recovered from last week's foreskin chaffing position and apologised profusely to the local press as to your Leisure centre pool's abuse I have this week decided to bring the action back home to your very own Living room. Enjoy!

Have your partner sit back on a couch (or a comfy chair). To be quite honest this is a step you could skip as it should be the very first thing he should be allowed to do upon his return from the office, pub or house of ill repute (of course after you firstly hang up his coat and remove his shiny brogues from his tired feet).

Straddle his lap with your legs splayed apart (a previous visit to the shower and a tidy trim from his Remington to your Minky would be strongly advised). Your knees should be bent up against his chest. Slowly lean back so you're almost upside down with your arms stretched behind you (all the way to the floor allowing you to reach his Brandy Glass that should not be further than two feet from his person whilst in your abode) to support your weight and maintain your balance. Thrust back and forth against him, opening and closing your legs. Again remember that a thorough scrubbing and cleansing of the tuppence area will lessen the chance of a nasty waft of foul air pushing its way towards him.

Carnal Challenge

Why you'll Love It:

This passion pose supplies the kind of naughty sex scene that all men yearn for and so deserve. It gives him a full-frontal va-va-voom view of you in action, and if you lean back far enough he can get a full view of Match Of The Day that you should have recorded for him in anticipation of his return. This position is one that'll undoubtedly fuel his dirtiest fantasies for a long, long time, maybe a full ten minutes! Plus, because you're the one who sets the speed and timing, you can treat yourself to the exact motions that make you moan with desire and take you over the edge of ecstasy. However keep this quietly to yourself as any over the top audible whining may interfere with an important part of commentary or post match analysis.

Take advantage of being on top by clamping your PC muscles around him, transforming your privates into the tight space he craves. When you're ready for him to hit his peak, squeeze your PC muscles extra hard, or pulse them, and the move is bound to send him soaring. Have the Large bottle of Courvoisier at the ready to replace any valuable fluid that may be spilt at this moment. Finish by quickly and quietly getting out of the way and bring him his supper before the next match begins.

The League Supreme Cup

Back From The Dead

Benny Great celebrates with a Cornish flag at The Cove

The Rising Deck completed the most amazing cup turnaround in their second leg tie away at Mangatainoka by coming from two down with TWO minutes left to level the match 2-2 and then progress on the away goals rule. After drawing the first leg 0-0 they found themselves trailing 2-0 following goals from Gerrardo Raposo and Eddie van Halen. With just TWO minutes remaining, new signing Muhren scored and Derren Brown netted in the 90th minute to set up an amazing come-back and progress to the quarter-finals. There they will meet Down Under And Out after they followed up their 2-0 home victory against the Perry Men with a 0-0 away from home.

The Red Machine completed an impressive 6-1 aggregate score over league leaders and previously unbeaten Westcountry Wanderers beating them 3-1 at The Cove. Lassen-Kahlke and Logan gave Machine a 2-0 lead before Gaspar Aguado pulled one back for Westcountry. Benny Great completed the 3-1 victory in injury time. Machine will meet Down

By The Trent in the quarter finals as they matched their 1-0 home scoreline against Essex Wanderers to progress 2-0 on aggregate. Ronnie Bergman got the goal just before half-time.

A goal in extra-time from Bill Westcroft was enough for Hell Hounds to edge past Wellington Wanderers 3-2 on aggregate. They will meet Egloshayle Park in the quarter finals after they drew 2-2 at Irish Raiders to put out the champions 5-2 on aggregate.

The remaining quarter final will see Super Blues play the Dark Destroyers. Blues lost 1-0 to Temple Town (Towns only victory to date in season six) on the night but went through 4-1 on aggregate following their 4-0 home win a week ago. FC Wazzy could not turn around their 2-0 deficit against Destroyers drawing 2-2 in the second leg, the visitors went through 4-2 on aggregate.

No Hiding At The Cove

Has this week seen the back of Red Machine FC faltering season. Within seven days they have scored eleven goals, and only conceded one.

Couch made five changes to his starting line-up that beat Essex Wanderers 5-0 in the league, but they still ran out worthy winners against Westcountry Wanderers to progress to the next round of the cup.

The press were keen to catch up with Machine's manager, but he was nowhere to be found. Rumour had it he was enjoying a pint of Cornish Knockers in the hospitality suite at The Cove. They were certainly no tears being spilt in this pint!

DUAO dispose of Irish and Yids

DUAO Manger Wookie spoke frankly about recent threats to his beloved club.

The League Supreme Cup

"First we had the Irish visit with their bruising tactics and then the threat of a pasting when we travelled to Shite Tart Lane for our Cup reply. ### Egloshayle Ease Past Raiders

"I am sure Irish Raiders were not at full strength, and the cup is not their priority, but at Egloshayle Road our policy is to try and win everything, so to proceed to the quarter-finals, after putting out the current champions, is something the club should be proud of" said Mitchell after a 2-2 away draw saw his side progress.

"After winning the home leg 3-0 I could afford to give out a couple of debuts in the tricky away fixture. The boys went 2-0 up which was more than I had hoped for. Raiders pulled it back to 2-2 which would highlight a little inexperience in our side but they will gain that by playing with the best week in week out on the training ground." he concluded.

Explain to me gob shite, ginger whinger, league admin, why in my cup game with little norwich, I was not given the option of penalty takers for our game? This would only suggest that the result was already determined, if this is th case that's why you beat me with your little egg shell shit last week.

WestcountryWanderers - Egloshayle Park FC

Westcountry Wanderers 'Great start' seems to be progressing into a genuine charge for their first title in their history. Although it is only week six the Premiership leaders show no sign of slipping up. They share the best away record in the league with todays visitors Egloshayle Park (3 out of 3). Todays match should be a close one, with maybe DUAO benefiting either way.

LS Prediction: Westcountry's impressive start continues . . . just.

One To Watch

Mangatainoka FC - The Perry Men

Last seasons relegated Premiership teams head Division One. There are four teams in the chasing pack. To prevent the top two from running away with the division a team from that pack has to go that extra mile for a result. Mangatainoka can do just that by grabbing all three points at home to an unbeaten Perry Men side.

LS Prediction: Perry Mens premiership experience wins, again.
