Week 7 marks the halfway point in the season and Westcountry Wanderers keep up their amazing 100% league record. Deck lead Division One.

The phenomenal winning streak of Westcountry Wanderers continued at The Cauldron when the visitors went out 3-2 winners in this thrilling and open encounter.

In an free flowing match possession was shared in the first half with both sides creating chances but neither side finding the opening. The opener came in the second half. Horace Logan created an opening for Acacio Coutinho to put the home side in the lead just two minutes into the half.

The league leaders replied within ten minutes. Isaac Troughton made space for Gaspar Aguados long range effort on 57 minutes. With fifteen minutes remaining the leaders took the lead, this time it was an unfortunate own goal from Hemming Lassen-Kahlke that gave the visitors a 2-1 lead.

Premiership Round-Up

With the game heading for a tense finish and deep into injury time it was Wanderers who made no doubt of the result. In an end to end finish Kelsey Ballis made it three with a long range effort and straight from the restart Machine pulled one back to make it 3-2 through Countinho once more but there was to be no more. Half way through the season and Westcountry have played everyone, and beat everyone, on their return to the Premiership.

Temple Town Show Glimmer Of Hope

 Essex Wanderers	1
 Temple Town	3

Possession: 50 - 50 (43-57)

Chances: 4 - 7 (3-4)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Jasper Tete Rowley McCafferty

Temple Town gave themselves a glimmer of hope in surviving the drop at the half way point of the season by getting their first win away at bottom side Essex Wanderers. With Dark Destroyers drawing so many games, this match at the bottom was a real six pointer for both clubs and as they play each other two weeks in a row does that make it a 12 point week???

Town got off to a flyer at Rainham Marshes when Ernesto Verdasco put Joel Wigglesworth through to open the scoring with barely a minute played. Within the opening ten minutes Temple Town had doubled their lead. Verdasco again providing, this time for Timothy Pilling to head home his cross at the far post to make it 2-0 going into the break.

The home side pulled a goal back just seven minutes into the second half when Jasper Tetes freekick fell to Bert McKeever to score. With both sides pushing for the all important win it was the visitors who took the initiative and have the final say. Verdasco once again turning provider, setting up Wigglesworth for his second, Towns 3rd and Hargreaves 3 points.

Champions Have Not Given Up Hope

 Egloshayle Park FC	2
 Irish Raiders	3

Possession: 61 - 39 (69-31)

Chances: 4 - 7 (3-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Neil Richards Seymour Conden

Last seasons champions continue to keep the leaders just in sight by beating Egloshayle Park 3-2 at Park and virtually ending the home sides hopes of a second title.

Raiders started the scoring as early as the second minute when Errol Jordan put Sol Reeves through to give the visitors a 1-0 lead. Seven minutes from the break and Egloshayle were level. Lee Batemans corner found Theo Walcott unmarked to make it 1-1 at half time.

“other teams have improved and upped their game”

The home side dominated possession but it was the visitors who looked the more dangerous. Seven minutes into the half however, Park went 2-1 up, Anders Svensson created an opening for Paul Rowe to make it 2-1. This match had yet another twist. Wesley Sellers corner found Reeves at the near post for his second and with ten minutes left on the clock it was the visitors who took a big stride to the eventual three points. Gary Fortunes header was this time converted by Seymour Conden to make it 3-2 to the Raiders.

EgLOSShayle Road

Park boss yesterday

conceded defeat in any title hopes after his side was beaten 3-2 at home by the current champions Irish Raiders.

“Im not going to be too harsh on my squad. Any hopes of the title were hanging by a thread before yesterdays game and the defeat to Alans side was the final nail in the coffin. Its the halfway stage now so its time to do our best in the cup, bring on the youngsters and figure out just what went wrong this season.” said Mitchell.

“We will have money in the bank for next season and I feel we need to strengthen in a couple of areas. I dont feel we have done bad this season, its just that other teams have improved and upped their game. I feel its a 3-horse race now, but I do think that even Wookie and Garrihy (2 managers I respect) will have a real struggle in catching what seems to be the unstoppable winning streak of Westcountry Wanderers” said Mitchell.

DUAO Title Hopes Dealt A Dark Blow

 The Dark Destroyers	1
 Down Under And Out	1

Possession: 40 - 60 (40-60)

Chances: 5 - 4 (1-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Dick Dastardly Olívio Bonilha

Having only lost twice in the first half of the season, Destroyers still have yet to win a game, this being their fifth draw of the season. Todays draw came at home to DUAO as they stumble on their quest to keep within sight of runaway leaders Westcountry Wanderers.

The high-flying visitors enjoyed the greater possession in the first hald but chances were few and far between for both sides at the Theatre of Doom. The spectators had to wait until two minutes into the second half to cheer a goal. It was the travelling supporters who were celebrating as Vinnie Steeles cross was headed in at the far post by Chelsey Gellar.

The visitors continued with the greater possession but the game opened a little in the second half with chances for either side. However, it was the home side who had the final word. The Devils corner fell to Anne Robinson to fire home with just two minute of the match remaining to get The Destroyers yet another draw and avoid defeat.

DUAO's Season Comes Shuddering to a Halt

 DUAO only managed a point on the road against the Dark Destroyers while the title favourites, Wanderers, picked up all 3 points against the Reds to widen the gap at the top to 5 points. DUAO put in a brave performance against draw specialists the Destroyers, they dominated play and created some great chances on goal. But an early injury to one of DUAO's key strikers meant they were unable to capitalise and instead they finished 1-1, their second draw in a succession.

An upbeat Wookiee was on hand for his thoughts:

"It's not easy being a cheesy...it's also not easy to take points away from the Theatre of Doom. The Destroyers are without doubt a quality side and one who always make for a tough fixture everytime. We lost here last season, so a draw is an improvement and shows that the team is definitely moving in the right direction. Sure we're still in with a stab at both the Cup and League, but it was never our aim and just shows that we continue to play above expectations. To be in such a position of strength in

"is not easy to take points from the Theatre Of Doom "

the league at this stage of the season takes the pressure off. At least DUAO can be sure they won't be dragged into a damaging end of season relegation battle, which means we can focus on our CR."

As for the Cup, I'm very happy with the team's performance. They have already achieved the targets I set them, so anything else from here is a bonus."

Mangatainoka took full advantage of FC Wazzys home draw by beating Hell Hounds 2-1 at The Den, taking all three points, and putting Jareds side in a promotion spot.

The visitors were the first to show in a tight first half when Dave Grohls corner was headed in by Geert Alkema after just 13 minutes play. This turned out to be the visitors only effort on goal and was enough to give Mangatainoka a 1-0 half-time lead.

The second half was only six minutes old when the home side drew level. Edgar Meadows equalising after good work from Jude Attenborough. Hounds enjoyed more of the possession in the game but it was the visitors who looked the more dangerous in front of goal and were rewarded in the 73rd minute. Marcos Canas corner was flicked in at the near post by Alkema for his, and his sides second which proved enough for all three points and leapfrog Perryman into second spot.

Perrymens Point Poses A Promotion Problem

 The Rising Deck	2

Possession: 59 - 41 (68-32)

Chances: 7 - 4 (5-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Valeriano Cornacchini Derren Brown

Honours were even at White Hot Lane where the top two prior to kick off faced each other. The point maintained The Decks position at the top whilst McFletchs men fell to third.

The league leaders went ahead in the 17th minute when Rising Decks goalkeeper Alex Elmsley converted a penalty after Lawrence was adjudged to have handled in the box. The home side were back on level terms ten minutes later. Valeriano Cornacchinis clever set piece free-kick found Alan Cash to poke his shot past Elmsley. The referee made the penalty decisions even on 32 minutes when he decided Davenports challenge on Cash was too harsh and it was left to Patricio Salvador to score the resulting penalty and give the Perry Men a 2-1 half time lead.

Chances were even in the second half but it was the more incisive Rising Deck who managed to find the net and equalise. Derren Browns 55th minute cross was converted by Andrew Mayne to make it 2-2 and a point a piece.

Trent Showing Form At Last

 Down By The Trent	3
 FC Wazzy	0

Possession: 49 - 51 (55-45)

Chances: 7 - 1 (2-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Zacharias Barkworth Benedict Bayley

After many seasons knocking on the door for a return to the Premiership, FC Wazzy look a spent force in division one with Down By The Trent the latest side to claim all three points from them.

Trent, who adopted a brave and adventurous 4-3-3 formation were rewarded in the 28th minute when Nicky Allwood put James Hooper through to give Phil Jorys men the opener. This was all that separated the sides in an extremely tight and tense first half.

Although the visitors got more of the ball in the second half they couldn't create a chance against a Trent defence well marshalled by Featherstone. It was the home side that continued to threaten to extend their half-time lead and on 66 minutes got their second. Bob Cronshaw setting up Osvaldo Simoes long range effort. With Wazzy looking to pull something back they were caught on the break and after Hooper was upended in the Wazzy box the striker then picked himself up and convert the penalty for his second and to make it 3-0 to Trent.

Proud

 DBTT manager Phil Jory was full of praise for his team and staff after his sides 3-0 victory over Hutch's Wazza's that took his teams unbeaten run to six games. "I'm really proud of everyone, to surpass our points tally of last season shows the progress we have made - lets see if we can continue in the same vein" commented Jory.

Wanderers Have Promotion Hopes In Sight

 Wellington Wanderers	2
 Super Blues	1

Possession: 49 - 51 (53-47)

Chances: 2 - 1 (1-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Nicholas Kavanaugh Lester Tabbart

Wellington kept their hopes of promotion alive when free-kick specialist Linford Harwood scored both goals to dispose of bottom side Super Blues at Wellington Street Stadium.

The defenders first direct free-kick flew in after just nine minutes play. Super Blues equalised ten minutes later when Lester Tabbart put Abbe Roth through to make it 1-1 in what turned out to be both sides only sights of goal in the first half.

The second half continued in much the same vein with equal possession and chances on goal were non-existent. So it proved to be a dead-ball play which decided it. Wellington skipper Harwood once again stepped up and converted his 77th minute direct free-kick in the opposite corner to his first to give Eggmofo all three points and within reach of a promotion place.

Captain Fantastic

 Linford Harwood scored two goals to keep Wellington within touch with the league leaders, in what looked a potentially difficult game against the Super Blues. Eggmofo was happy with his team after the game as he anticipated the Super Blues being a tricky proposition despite their position in the league.

A Point To Make

McFletch, the esteemed and respected manager of The Perry Men reacted to the latest LS magazine release with a quick press release to point out a minor mistake in the latest publication, 'I don't like to criticise League Admin as he's doing a stirring job and the League Supreme's rise up the League tables demonstrates the ongoing commitment and dedication to the task at hand. However, the one they call Magic Mitch doesn't need any help from League Admin in thinking he's performing better than he is. The headline points to a 5 point lead being opened at the top of the Division. I would like to point out it's only a 4 point lead and we'll be looking to reduce this to a single point tomorrow. Apart from that, I would like to say keep up the good work'

Great Green Army

On the eve of Blackpool's biggest game and day of the season, the manager of TT has been invited into the chairman's lounge at london rd tomorrow. Not sure what to expect but it makes a refreshing change from preparing TT with little results. Haven't heard anything from the relegated Green Army Shite, little club from little Devon.

Fallen From Grace

Incredible result for DBTT in the Cup today and, one would imagine, the lowest ebb for Couch's Red Machine for many a season. That said I expect a pissed off team of Wazza's coming at us next Thursday.

Must admit I am shitting a brick over possibly playing Blackpool. I have no doubt that Forest are better than them but that doesn't always reflect on the pitch, hence their 1-0 victory at the City Ground in September where we battered them and by "Olli's" admission was a smash and grab. Seen a few highlights of Blackpools win last week and got the impression they could have won about 6-4 as there seemed a lot of chances at both ends. Whoever Forest play, we need to sharpen up the away form!

Premiership????

Looking very close now, just got to get over the small issue of Bristol City at home, going to that one, and then IF we do win, the small team from nottingham, who live in the shadow of Notts County! We have had 6 points off them this year so lets hope it's another victory!

Forest hope to bring back the Glory Days to Nottingham

Position Of The Week. No 4 'G-Spot Jiggy that'll leave her Giddy!'

Thanks again for your continued letters of appreciation. I personally reply to every one of them and for the females I attach an old moody black and white shot of me taken in the early 80s from Polzeath beach as I pose in the sunset with the tip of my, then mere 9 inch, cock in one hand and a can of Top Deck in the other. This week I'm bringing a bit of Fancy Dress to the table as this often helps the more embarrassed of yourselves when getting in the buff.

Erotic Instructions:

Get down (not as in getting down to some nasty moves on the dance floor to the sounds of Tina Charles or The Nolans!) on all fours with your man kneeling behind you and have him plunge inside you. What is plunged is entirely up to you but the more adventurous the better. I've used such items as a T&G CrushGrind Capstan Pepper Mill that was stolen from my local Italian restaurant and measuring at an eye watering 510mm (that's a good 20 inches!) is sure to 'spice up' your sex life. However if you don't have the time to gather any lengthy apparatus then a firm fist or, of course, a good old cock will suffice.

A little firm, well-placed stroking of your G-spot can open up a whole new orgasmic world. If he's the exploring kind, encourage him to thrust far enough inside you so that his testicles hit your body. Dressing up as the explorer Scott of Antarctic is not advised as the extra layer of clothing may drastically reduce the length of your snib as the polar layers take up a good 3 to 4 inches and for many of you this will only leave a thumb tip sized protrusion with which to pleasure her.

Please feel free though to use 'Scott's Oil Lamp' as a light with which to perform under and also feel free to use 'Scott's Famous, Fateful Final Words...."I may be some time "

If, like me, the layers do not pose a lengthy problem then the attire is most suitable as you will appreciate the pocket containing a hip flask most welcoming as a little sip of Courvoisier in respect of Scott's achievements would be the done thing to do.

Carnal Challenge

Why You'll Love It:

Once you have a G-spot orgasm, you'll crave more. Also, there's something very primal about doing the deed from behind that brings out the animal in even the most mild-mannered guy.

TB No Complaints With Result

TB had no complaints after a close 0 v 1 defeat in the second leg of the cup. In a game more about getting experience for the players ready for next season the Blues again held their own against superior opposition but in a surprisingly very defensive line up from Destroyers perhaps sensing a cup upset their defence did their job and found the goal they needed to wrap up the tie.

TB was happy that the team is growing well and with the season already looking like a write off, the remaining league games will be used to gain experience points.

The injury to Ossie was a bitter blow however having just returned from his broken leg that has kept him out for weeks. With Counago also out injured the Blues will need to dig deep in the next game.

Deck Dust Aside DUAO

Rising Deck Player/Manager/respecter of none 'Ian Magic Mitch' came out of a meeting with the clubs financial advisors today amidst rumours that Orpheum may have to be sold to beef up the clubs coffers. "Unfortunately it's true, we are officially the poorest club in the League Supreme and are struggling week in week out to make ends meet. I must praise my players for yesterday's dismissal of DUAO in the cup as we had to field a misfit team due to the crippling wage bill and lengthy injury list. Okay I tactically got it spot on but I must give the lads a big pat on the back for proving that as underdogs the performance on the day warranted a place in the semi finals against Egloshayle.

Promotion back into the Premiership is obviously our Priority but having a cup run at least gives our youth set up a chance to shine.

Our Focus is now firmly on another very important game against my old nemesis McFletch who always causes us problems so, injuries pending, I hope we can put in another performance like yesterday's."
