Temple Town took a massive step toward Premiership survival by beating Essex Wanderers 6-0 in a result which, barring a miracle, ended any hopes of survival by Essex Wanderers.

Timothy Pilling set-up Rowley McCafferty to start the ball rolling for Town after just 19 minutes with a long range effort. Ferdinand Tepper extended that lead just four minutes later when his direct freekick found the target. McCafferty turned provider on 36 minutes when setting up Joel Wigglesworth for another long range strike to make it 3-0 at halftime.

The second half was barely two minutes old when good work from Franklin Leaver on the wing set up Wigglesworth for his second of the match and Towns fourth. Eight minutes later came number five. Stanley Mathews setting up Pilling to make sure there was no coming back for Essex. With just twenty minutes later the out was complete. Terry Cropper set-up Ernesto Verdasco for Temple Towns number six and lift them above Destroyers and out of the relegation zone.

Temple Town

At last the team woke up today and tore apart a dejected Essex team, who are struggling for any victory. Complete domination of game lead to a convincing 6 v 0 victory, which also climbed them out of the relegation zone.

So shut up ginger, the Tangerine Army are at last awake and who knows where we will finish now. The TT manager would not discuss the embarrassment for Egg Shell Shit who have moved into a caravan. His appearance is now closely resembling a gypsy!

In week eight it finally happened. Westcountry Wanderers amazing 100% start to the season in the Premiership came to halt at home to Red Machine FC. As you would expect it was an extremely tight encounter with nothing to choose between the two sides in possession. Amazingly, throughout the whole match the visitors restricted the run away leaders to not having a single effort on goal. The result will not set alarm bells ringing in either camp, but with DUAO winning and keeping pace, Wookies side will be quietly contemplating a smash and grab at the top in the next few weeks.

Result!!!

To many, it may have seemed like a celebration of another trophy that manager Couchy was adding to his vast collection. But it wasn't, all he achieved was to be the first manager to take points off Westcountry Wanderers this season!

Couch was obviously ecstatic at his sides somewhat laboured 0-0 draw with the league leaders. In a game that only created two chances, which both fell to the away side, it was not a game to be enjoyed by the neutral, one word could be used to sum up this game.....DULL.

The home side were the clear favourites before the game, not just because of their fantastic form this season. The Machine were missing their three star midfielders due to suspension and injury, and many were surprised to find club captain, Neill Whyte amongst the substitutes. Couchy was unavailable for comment after the game, is there unrest developing within the club?

Down Under and Out look the team

most likely, if any, to catch run away leaders Westcountry Wanderers, particularly following the leaders 0-0 draw at Red Machine and DUAO's 2-1 victory over Destroyers. The Destroyers are notoriously hard to beat but alarmingly for Chefftan they now find themselves in a relegation spot.

In a tight first half there was little to choose between the two teams. The home side just edged possession and chances were virtually non-existent. The home side had to wait until twenty minutes from time to make the breakthrough. A Daniel Kibble corner was headed in by Naldo Aragones to make it 1-0 to Wookies side. Just two minutes later and DUAO were well on their way to maintaining pressure at the top when, this time, a Mike Mumby corner fell to Andy Blackmoor at the edge of the box to fire home number two.

The visitors tried to get back into the game and threatened a come back when Sean Gibbens set up the Devil to pull a goal back but it was too little too late as DUAO keep pace at the top and the Destroyers slip to 7th.

DUAO Edge Destroyers in Rematch

With only one chance created in the first half, it wasn't until deep into the second half when the game came to life. DUAO made one of their 4 second half chances stick when Naldo Aragones leaped like a salmon to meet a Daniel Kibble corner and put the home side in front on 70 minutes. Just two minutes later and DUAO doubled their lead, when Andy Blackmoor latched onto the end of a Mike Mumby corner to smash the ball past a stunned Frankenstein Keeper. The destroyers clawed one back to set up a nervous last ten minutes at Wookie Hole.

A clearly relived DUAO Manager was on the touchline to give us his thoughts:

"Another hard fought game. Tactically we were much better than at the weekend,

Premiership Round-Up

we edged the game in possession and chances, but you can never underestimate the Destroyers and the lads dug in well for a well deserved 3 points.

With the kinks in the Wanderers armour starting to show, and as the end of season pressure mounts, we're in a great position to advantage of the slightest mistake. Egg Park are well placed to cause an upset next week, but with disarray in their Managers life, as he currently directs his team from a second hand Bailey Senator Wyoming (complete with free dog), it looks like Wanderers will get off the hook and maintain their unbeaten run for at least another week."

Champions See Title Slipping Away

 Irish Raiders	2
 Egloshayle Park FC	2

Possession: 45 - 55 (47-53)
Chances: 4 - 5 (1-3)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Marshall Bushell Anders Svensson

The current league champions Irish Raiders' attempt to retain the Premiership crown took a set-back at the Emerald Ilse after drawing with Egloshayle Park 2-2.

The home side got off to a great start when Gregory O Donell set up Les Pardoe for a long range effort after 17 minutes play. The visitors edged possession in the first half and had the better chances and were rewarded when, after 33 minutes, Matt Oakleys corner was headed in by Alan Shearer at the near post to ensure the sides went it at 1 a piece.

Just three minutes into the second half and Egloshayle edged in front. This time Shearer turned provider, this time setting up Anders Svensson for a long range effort. The scoring was not over and with twenty minutes left on the clock Errol Jordan put Gordon Hansen through to calmly slot past Kevin Hewitt to make it 2-2 in a result, which does not really help either side.

Park Boss In Hot Water

 Egloshayle Park today treated club boss Mitchell to a weekend away in a secluded spot with plenty of 'hunnies' for company after landing the Manager of the Week award. In a destination and scenario which would have made Deck boss envious the Park boss enjoyed a 5-star accommodation, sipping beer and champagne, a pool table, a hot tub, SKY Sports and five ensuite bedrooms with iPod docks, digital TVs and DVDs in each.

Houdins Hat-trick Keeps Leaders Top

Robert Houdins Hat-trick keeps the Deck on course for a quick Premiership return

Possession: 52 - 48 (52-48)

Chances: 4 - 7 (1-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Robert Houdin Narciso Campelo

A hat-trick for midfield maestro Robert Houdin was enough to see off title rivals Perry Men in a 3-2 win for Division One leaders The Rising Deck.

Robert Houdin got the home side off to a flyer when his 24th minute freekick flew past Erik The Viking for Decks first goal. This was all there was to choose between the two teams at The Orpheum as the score remained 1-0 to the Deck at halftime.

After 57 minutes Deck had doubled their lead. Paul Zenon created an opening for Houdin to once more fire past the Viking from long distance. The visitors came back into the match with 20 minutes left on the clock when Patricio Salvador created a chance for Narciso Campelo to fire past Uri Gellar to make it 2-1. Any revival, however, was short lived when Houdin stepped up to a 76th minute free-kick to once more find the target with magical precision to claim his hat-trick. The Perry Men did muster another goal but it was not until the 90th minute. Rufus Lawrence's corner was headed in at the far post by Campelo once more to make it 3-2 to the leaders.

Perry Men Decked by Rising Houdin

Despite the loss against The Rising Deck, McFletch was proud of his players display given that they abandoned them for a week. 'I was glad to see the players get out there and create chances. Unfortunately the finishing wasn't too good and maybe that's an area we need to strengthen. There's no Lineker this season and we haven't quite adjusted yet' Next up for the Perry Men a tricky away game against the MongiTonkis who have already beaten McFletch's men at the Lane.

Alkema Keeps Mangy In-Line For Premiership

 Mangatainoka FC	3
 Hell Hounds	2

Possession: 51 - 49 (61-39)

Chances: 9 - 5 (5-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Dave Grohl

Mangatainoka took full advantage of Perry Mens inability to beat Division one leaders Rising Deck and create a little daylight between themselves in the second promotion spot and third place by completing the double over Hell Hounds.

The home side had to twice come from behind to win the match. Mangatainoka did, however, have the majority of possession and chances in the first half but neither side to make the breakthrough before the break.

Hell Hounds were the first to make their mark when, after 59 minutes

Bobby Ashtons corner found Norman Buchanan unmarked to make it 1-0 to the visitors. The promotion hopefuls responded well and were on level terms less than ten minutes later. Marcos Canas heading in Jarred Ackroyds 67th minute corner. Just six minutes later and the visitors took the lead again. This time Jude Attenboroughs cross was converted at the near post by Ashton. The visitors, once more, could not hold the lead. This time, just two minutes later a direct Roger Gidlof freekick found its target to make it 2-2.

With time ticking away and both sides looking for the win it took a Geert Alkema header to snatch all three points for Mangatainoka after 83 minutes, following a Stelian Stoicu cross, to ensure Jareds side maintain their quest for Premiership football.

Trent Climb To Third

 FC Wazzy	0
 Down By The Trent	2

Possession: 45 - 55 (48-52)

Chances: 2 - 5 (0-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Benedict Bayley Mikey Grainger

Down By The Trent continue to be the surprise package in Division One and a recent run of form has seen them climb to third, just three points of a potential return to top flight football.

Good work from Zacharias Barkworth created and opportunity for Ronnie Bergman to make it 1-0 to the visitors after 34 minutes play. Wazzy, who look a shadow of their former selves could offer little in return in the first half and went in a goal down at half time.

"Like a fat bird dressed in black"

Just two minute into the second half and it could have been much worse for the home side but Bergman could only see his penalty return off the post. The relief was only temporary as Trent did get their second just two minutes later. Rodger Featherstone created a chance for Francis Groves to fire past Norton and propel Trent and Phil Jorys men on the verge of a promotion spot.

Flattering

"Like a fat bird dressed in black" was the comment of DBTT manager Phil Jory after their 2-0 victory at The Garden. Jory added "I'm fully aware of Hutch's busy schedule this week and that this victory may flatter us as he has been unable to prepare his team. Next up is the Darkies and a kicking is anticipated."

Defensive Masterclass

Possession: 45 - 55 (51-49)

Chances: 7 - 0 (3-0)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Lester Tabbart Doug Barrowcliff

Defences dominated at Portman Fortress between Super Blues and Wellington Wanderers as both sides battled out a 0-0 draw.

Lester Tabbart was the pick of the Blues defence as they restricted their visitors to not having a single sniff on goal for the entire 90 minutes where as The visiting keeper Barrowcliff kept EggMofos side in the match with a string of fine saves. Seven to be exact as Rices side continue to show glimpses of improvement for next season.

Championship Talk

Come on down.....

.....the price is right. Can't believe Bristol City are 13/2 to win at Blackpool as their arses won't be twitchy and they will want to prove a point to Mr Coppel. Not saying that Blackpool can't make the play-offs as Swansea will be just as twitchy and the 6/1 for Donny also looks tempting.

If these games were a month ago with same points the away wins would be more like 3/1.....value?!?!?

Mitchells Attitude Is A Joy To All

Egloshayle boss Mitchell today exclaimed he will do his best to beat Westcountry Wanderers on Thursday, despite preferring them to win the league, rather than DUAO.

"I find myself in a similar position to Benitez last Sunday (although I have a much better squad and a better grasp of the Spanish tongue). If I manage to beat Westcountry Wanderers it would certainly help bitter rivals DUAO in winning the league. I have made no secret that I want WW to be worthy winners. BUT, to be worthy winners you have to earn it and that means there will be no 'givens' where Park is concerned. We owe the league, our supporters and the club to try our best to win every game regardless of the consequences. DUAO can rest assured we will do our best to win the match."

This attitude us to be admired, particularly when in recent seasons DUAO have been out of the title race they have experimented with youth and inexperience to prepare for the following season, consequently surrendering points to Parks rivals, which may well have affected Parks chances of the title themselves.

Position Of The Week. No 5 'Arc de Triumph' comfortable, and on me you wouldn't be with your ribcage being pounded from inside, arch into a back bend — but be careful not to strain your lower back. Rest your head between his legs on the bed and reach your hands back to grab hold of his ankles or feet. At this point if he's wearing some nice shiny brogues take note of the cleanliness and if they are not buffed & shiny make a mental point of addressing that task and putting it right at the earliest opportunity!

I'm glad to hear from all of you who successfully enjoyed last week's challenge and due to popular request I'm upping the ante this week with a real tester. Good luck everyone and remember be safe be mean!

Erotic Instructions:

Beg your man to sit on the bed with his legs extended in front of him. Crawl up to him on your knees (this is something that should be done anyway everytime you request something from him e.g. the usual £50, YES FIFTY FUCKING QUID!!!!, to get your hair done or £200 for a new pair of shoes, after all you haven't had a new pair since last Wednesday!) and straddle him, lowering yourself onto his erect penis. If you think his penis is not erect it's best to check as unfortunately he may not be as well endowed as myself or my doppelganger The Famous imposter of me 'Mandingo'.

If by looking at the attached diagram you think that this position is not achievable by yourself, for once don't feel too disheartened as the only known person who does achieve this comfortably is Heather Mills and her constant fucking whinging more than ruins any pleasure that may be gained by her ability to freakishly get into the back buckling shape..

That's when he leans forward and the fun begins as he unscrews the top off his latest bottle of Courvoisier and partakes in some well deserved volumes of chestnut coloured nectar.

Carnal Challenge

Why You'll Love It:

Use his legs to brace yourself and add more oomph when you thrust being careful that you don't overdo it and expel foul air from your growler!

.For those who are limber enough to last for even a few moments, the payoff is incredible. Throw your head back, close your eyes, and totally let go, because this position will connect you two like no other. The look you'll get from your man/master will be that similar to when you hand him a large roast, sirloin steak or announce that you've decided that you don't actually require a completely new outfit this week. It should be the hint of a small smile that should last no longer than a full second before you are shoved out of the way to hastily put the finishing touches to the meal of his choice.

How myself and Mandingo should be handled!
