All Change At Both Summits

Its all change at the top of both Divisions as DUAO capitalise on Westcountry's first defeat and Mangatainoka swap places with The Deck

 Essex Wanderers	0
 Down Under And Out	4

Possession: 43 - 57 (52-48)
Chances: 1 - 6 (0-4)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Morris Swan Olívio Bonilha

Down Under And Out stormed to the top of the Premiership following Westcountry's defeat and although they have the toughest remaining fixtures between the two, their Premiership experience could prove invaluable in lifting the leagues top prize.

Although bottom of the table Essex edged the possession in the first half it was the title contenders who created the chances. After only eight minutes the visitors were ahead. Joe Teales cross fell to Joaquin Rubales who made no mistake. Just four minutes later and DUAO threatened to run away with it. This time Rubales turned provider, crossing for Teale to head home number two. Wookies side were three up by the break, the Premiership's top scorer Ben Windsor fired home his eighth of the season on the half hour mark direct from a freekick to make it 3-0 at half time.

Joaquin Rubales celebrates the first of four that put DUAO top.

Premiership Round-Up

Just ten minutes into the second half and the rout was complete. Good work from Andy Blackmoor created a chance for Naldo Aragonese to make it 4-0. DUAO now lead the table on goal difference and are the team in form.

DUAO Sinks Essex at Rainham Marshes

DUAO pulled off a 4-0 away win against Essex Wanderers to smash and grab all 3 points on their way to the top of the league. The season's far from over, with some tough matches to come, but the plucky northern manager is proving to be a thorn in the side of the largely southern dominated league.

"They say you've got to be in it to win it, and we are definitely in it...and with a very good chance of winning it. It's a shame all good things must come to an end, but Westcountry's fall from grace was long overdue. Park may think they've done us a favour, but there'll be no thanks from us as we've still got to face them once we've played the Irish. We've got one hell of a tough fixture list till the end of the season and I'm sure there'll be more upsets on the cards, but for now we'll just enjoy the moment and bask in the glory of being league leaders."

Westcountry Wanderers

Possession: 51 - 49 (53-47)

Chances: 4 - 2 (1-2)

Neil Richards Cliff Hedger

Egloshayle Park became the first club to beat Westcountry Wanderers in the league this season, and as a result, knocked them off pole position, giving the lead to Down Under And Out.

In an extremely tight match the league leaders were the first to make the break through. A freekick from Jonathon Dyke flew past Kevin Hewitt in the Park goal to give the visitors a 1-0 half-time lead going into the break.

Egloshayle, with little to play for in the league, came out the better side in the second half, and were rewarded when, just four minutes into the second half, Matt Oakley set up the chance for Kinglsey Rickard to slot home the equaliser. Just when the match was heading for a draw Rickard set up an opportunity for player-manager Craig Mitchell to fire home from distance in the 89th minute winner to inflict Westcountry's first league defeat of the season.

Mixed Emotions For Park Boss

Egloshayle became the first club to beat Westcountry Wanderers in the league today but Park boss had mixed emotions with the result.

"First and foremost I am very proud of the lads to be the first club to beat Westcountry Wanderers this season. Secondly I am sad it has knocked Hewy off the top spot and give the lead to Northern gobshite number 2 Wookie. He owes me a big pint!" said Mitchell.

"Seriously it shows what a tough league this is. WW go on a great seven match winning run, draw one match against Red Machine, lose the following week and they find themselves second. I can assure Hewy I will be doing my utmost to inflict the same level of performance against DUAO" said Mitchell.

Machine And Destroyers Draw Into Survival

Red Machine

The Dark Destroyers

Possession: 52 - 48 (51-49)

Chances: 5 - 6 (3-4)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Neal Stamford Dick Dastardly

Honours were shared once more for Destroyers, this time a creditable draw away at Red Machine. However this draw will do little to help either side following Temple Towns recent run of form at the bottom of the Premiership. Both these clubs are now in danger of becoming the latest ever-present LS Premiership side to fall from grace.

The home side were the first to make the breakthrough in a thoroughly close and entertaining match. Benny Great put Adam Lang through to open the scoring after 21 minutes. The lead was short lived and only three minutes later

Destroyers were on level terms. Good work from Darius Koppe led to Dick Dastardly to equalise. With the half destined to end 1-1

"I am very proud of the lads to be the first club to beat Westcountry Wanderers this season"

Destroyers plight was severely hindered when Dirty Den got a straight red for elbowing just two minutes from the break. Just ten minutes into the second half and Red Machine made the extra man count when Alastair Cravens corner fell loose to Hemmin Lassen-kahlke who put the home side 2-1 up. With time running out ten men Destroyers battled hard and deservedly drew level once more. Sean Gibbens created an opening for The Devil to fire home an equaliser from distance to make it 2-2.

Temple Town Dents Irish Champions Title Hopes

 Temple Town	3
 Irish Raiders	1

Possession: 59 - 41 (56-44)

Chances: 9 - 3 (3-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away Stanley Matthews Errol Jordan

Temple Town seemed to have found a little form at exactly the right time to beat the drop. This week it was at the expense of last seasons champions Irish Raiders which seriously impacts their chances of retaining the title.

The home side just edged possession and chances in the first half but neither side could find the all important break through, although Mickey Walsh did see his penalty saved in the 22nd minute. The home side had to wait until the hour to find the net. A direct freekick from Ferdinand Tepper gave Temple Town a 1-0 lead. This lead was doubled just 4 minutes later when Stanley Mathews set up Walsh to make amends for his earlier penalty miss and fire home number two from distance.

The champions threatened a come back in the 74th minute when Errol Jordans corner fell to Raymond Cote to pull the scoreline back to 2-1. Any revival did not materialise and the home side made sure of three vital home points when Mathews crossed for Walsh to grab his second and Towns third just ten minutes from time to give Town a 3-1 home victory.

Temple Town March on

 Another victory, lifts the mighty TT clear of the drop zone now. The only problem is though next week we play the cheating ct gypo, egg shell park. I am sure he will fix the results and alter the game as he seems to be able to do these days.

We are now lifting clear off the bottom where we should never have been!

Mangatainoka Storm To The Top

Mangatainokas 3-1 victory away at The Perry Men lifts them to the top of Division One.

 The Perry Men	1
 Mangatainoka FC	3

Possession: 48 - 52 (50-50)

Chances: 3 - 8 (0-3)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Edmund Strachan Dave Grohl

Mangatainoka stormed to the top of Division One in week 8 following their 3-1 win at The Perry Men and although modest manager Jared has stated his team will not get promoted this season, five points from their nearest promotion rivals tells a different story.

Possession was even in the first half although it was the visitors who created the chances in a match you felt was a must win for The Perry Men. The visitors had to wait until the 57th minute to make the break through. Terrance Shutt headed in a Stellan Stoicu cross to give Mangatainoka a 1-0 lead. The lead was doubled in the 64th minute when Eddie van Halen created an opening for Jimmy Marbach to fire home number two from distance. With thirteen minutes remaining it was all over. Dave Grohl headed home a 77th minute cross from Lluís Duque to make it 3-0 to Mangatainoka and as news filtered through of the Decks defeat it was clear the visitors would be top come 4:30pm.

Fletchs men did manage to pull a goal back at the end. A direct freekick from Valeriano Cornacchini made it 3-1 in the 86th minute, but by then the match was over and possible Perry Mens promotion hopes with it.

'Not good enough'

 Honest words from an honest and immensely wise manager McFletch after a result which surely consigns The Perry Men to at least another season in the lower division. McFletch after much contemplation issued a press statement, 'Following disappointing results against the top two we now accept that it will be an uphill struggle to get into the Premiership this season. We are going to have to make some drastic changes at the end of the season and restructure. That means we may not return to the premiership until the new team matures and settles in but we shall be back, stronger than ever'

Division One Round-Up

Elsewhere the mighty Spurs qualified for the Champions League so fuck you all unless you also support Spurs which reminds me.....Congratulations Hewy! Will buy you a pint one day if I ever see you again!

Wazzy Halt The Decks Title Hopes

 FC Wazzy	2
 The Rising Deck	1

Possession: 47 - 53 (48-52)
Chances: 8 - 5 (4-3)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Terrence Crooks Robert Houdin

FC Wazzy belied their lowly league position to inflict a rare defeat for the then league leaders Rising Deck. Although this result shouldn't scupper Decks chances of promotion, it will surely fire a warning side to Ian Mitchells men that they cant afford to take their foot off the pedal.

In a scrappy game littered with fouls and yellow cards the home side managed the breakthrough on 39 minutes when Fillimon Timisescu volleyed home a Terrance Crooks corner to give Paul Warrens men a 1-0 half time lead.

In a free flowing second half the home side increased their lead when Crooks was adjudged to have been fouled and Timisescu stepped home to fire home the resulting penalty. The leaders threatened a come back in the 75th minute when Robert Houdin put Ira Davenport through to reduce the deficit to 2-1 but the leaders could not capitalise and left the Back Garden with no points.

We Were Magic...

... says wazzy boss aftr he sees his side beat the mystical mitch's team. but it will take intevention from mrlin himself to see us to two wins on the trot, based on our luck!!

Super Blues Achieve First Win Against In-Form Trent

 Down By The Trent	0
 Super Blues	1

Possession: 50 - 50 (53-47)
Chances: 3 - 3 (3-2)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Mikey Grainger Lester Tabbart

The Super Blues managed their first win of the season away at a recently revived Down By The Trent side who have themselves threatened to break into the top two in Division One.

In a perfectly even 90 minute it was the visitors, currently rebuilding for next season, who managed the all important statistic. A 30th minute corner from Teodoro Moreira fell to Pablo Counago on the edge of the box to fire home what turned out to be the match winner, giving Rice his first three points of the season.

All good things.....

.....must come to end after DBTT's defeat to Super Blues. "I think they are an up and coming side (with VIP!!) and have to be feared hereon." said Jory adding "my main concern is lack goals and that's what we need to focus on." This last sentence is irrelevant bar bringing econ!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!1

Attenborough And McGibbon Give Hounds Victory

 Hell Hounds	2
 Wellington Wanderers	0

Possession: 49 - 51 (58-42)
Chances: 2 - 3 (2-1)
Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Agron Behari Otelu Mascarenhas

A victory for Hell Hounds at The Den in week 8 against Wellington will do little for either side. Both clubs are part of the chasing pack of five and both, for this season at least, lack the consistency to maintain a run of form to threaten the top two.

The home side enjoyed the better of the first half and made the break through in the 10th minute when Jonatan McGibbon headed in a Bill Westcroft corner to make it 1-0. Hell Hounds were 2-0 up within twenty minutes when Jude Attenborough made it two following good work from Edgar Meadows.

Wellington got back into the match a little more in the second half but neither side could find the net as it ended 2-0. Unless either side can generate an impressive run of results from now until the end of the season then both will have to be content with building for promotion next season.

"I think they are an up and coming side and have to be feared hereon"

Westcountry Boss Hewy Gets Engaged

Congratulations to Hubes, Hewy, on his announcement of his engagement!

Look forward to the wedding!

Eh????

Cornish Pasty is this true? - well congratulations if it is... even it it's a slightly bizare way to find out - Hewy perhaps this could make your first press release of the season???

Hewey give us some news...hewey, Hewey..

give us some news !!! Well Hewey ? Are E Engaged Beeeey ?

Is it public Knowledge. Don't want to make a wrong comment to your Mudda, Fadder, Bruvva, Sis etc if i bump into them.

P.S. How are you top of the League without 200,000 worth of econ each week making it's way to you for press releases. I admire it and yer bollock ! (though it's not as rotund as mine)

MM ;)

Engaged YES
distracted NO

Yes I am engaged and no it won't distract me beating Egloshayle Park this afternoon on their home turf!

Naturally, I would have informed you all personally but TT manager Simon 'the mouth' Hargreaves beat me to it.

WW dropped their first points of the season last week to Red Machine (well done Rob!!!) but still keep their unbeaten record of 8 games and that's how its gonna stay!!

DUAO, Just for the record this is my second press release of the season and will probably be my last, unless I lose today and I will need to call Egloshayle Park manager a cheating c*nt ;-)

Well Congrats mate! - It just goes to show that you shouldn't pigeon hole people. Because I always thought you were a faggot and now look at you...you've beaten the gay bug!

You Engaged Hewy? Old News.

Congratulations Hewey !!!!!!!

Is it just a coincidence that you've got engaged after many weeks of sexual positions & advice from my weekly column (uggghhh my column FUCKING HUGE like NELSON'S !!!)

Yeah i wrote the book of lurve coz i'm a lurve machine baybeeeee !

Comments For Temple Town

When asked about a reaction to "Mr. I ruin any engagement news by blabbing it on a press (!!) board Hargreaves"

Mitchell simply shrugged his shoulders and said. "Oh, has the gobshite written a press release, that means he must have actually won a game or two because you NEVER hear from him when he loses. At least Hewy is consistently not in the press circles. Hargreaves can only fit his stinking orange fingers on a keyboard when hes boasting a result or ruining an engagement announcement. I feel sorry for his team that hh has nothing to say when he loses." laughed Mitchell

Egg Shell Gypsy

Sorry, check closely we have press released every week, so I will ignore you incoorrect rant!

Congrats.....

.....to Chieftain Adrian for his teams cup victory after they kicked the shit of us - CUNTS!!!! Game of few chances, dull as dishwater and, to be honest, the form of my strikers is very concerning.

Looking forward to a cracking game at Forest on Tuesday evening and whatever happens it been a great season for the Reds after almost being relegated last season. I am reasonaby confident we will turn it around but, if Blackpool do win, maybe the piccy will exist for Titch Mitch to put in a later magazine so he can suck up to Temple after pissing him off tother day.

3 Minutes of Big Cock !

Fresh from a whistle stop tour of England promoting his Sexual Positions Hard(On) Backed Bumper Book the Rising Deck Player/Manager/Saviour of the Bedroom Ian 'Magic' Mitch had 3 free minutes and extremely gratefully gave it to the Xspurt rag. Read on then !!!

"Congratulations to Wozboz on their victory over us last Thursday ! It gave us a kick up the ass as to not take anything for granted and to treat each and every game like a cup final (you fucking bet that's coming up). I'll get him a pint tonight at Pool, oh no we've got no match ! Sorry Paul.

It was a bit of a wake up call so we were more than eager to get back to full concentration for the visit to Egloshayle where we put in an impressive performance to win the tie due to the away goal.

It would be great to pick up the silverware and join the elite who have won the Prem & Cup but more importantly promotion this season is our priority and the home game against Darren Rice's Super Blues on Thursday is our immediate concern.

Well thats 2 minutes and 54 seconds worth of Press Release so go and fuck yourself.....

Position Of The Week. No 6 'Hot-Tub Hug'

Many Thanks for your continued support and enthusiasm to this weekly column and for those of you who want the added thrill of Stealth to the location of your sexual practices then I'm sure you'll appreciate the following challenge that has been one of my favourites over the course of my tuppence thrashing years as 'King Of The Cock Castle'

Erotic Instructions:

Start with your guy sitting on the bench with his knees bent and legs slightly spread, leaning back with his arms outstretched and resting on the edge of the tub. Understandably we all don't have such luxurious seated baths but the following should help....

Take a visit to your local Old People's Home as they quite often have these 'walk in' type of baths with ledges built in for comfort. Don't worry if you have no relative there to visit, when approached by a member of staff or security (not much chance as they will be out the back having a fag or a can of special brew) just point to the nearest victim and go into the old "Hello Grandma!" routine (substitute for Grandad if the victim has a todger).

There is an extreme likelihood that the 'phantom elderly relative' will be highly drugged up on medication, asleep or deeply engrossed in 'Antiques Roadshow's Arthur Negus mumbling about the workmanship that went into a 19th Century Victorian Steam driven Dildo so will probably grunt some kind of reply.

Once you have convinced the highest member of staff (a backhanded £20 will help jog their memory) as to your mythical Family Tree make your way to the nearest bathroom where the said 'ledge bath' should await your dirty intentions. Once naked and in the chest deep washtub straddle your man, facing forward, and lower yourself onto his penis, holding on to his shoulders for support. Keep your knees bent and feet flat as you move up and down or back and forth.

Try carefully to block your master's vision during your dicky bouncing as if he happens to set eyes on such items as a set of false teeth, a false eye or a discarded incontinence pant left carelessly around will surely swiftly lead to giving him a 'Mr. Softy' and therefore an abrupt end to your pleasure.

Carnal Challenge

Why You'll Love It:

The space between your torsos allows both of you to watch the action. There's also room for pelvic play, so you can maximize clitoral stimulation by rubbing your bliss button against his pubic bone as you gyrate.

As contraband is ripe within the walls of any Old People's Home you are sure to be able to put your hands on a bottle of Courvoisier hidden in the medicine cabinet and as this has not been paid for yourself is doubly enjoyable and is perfectly acceptable for you to consume, however swig this straight from the bottle as the cups/glasses will not have been cleaned for weeks.

Take advantage of this you-on-top pose to titillate his pleasure-receptive nipples. Draw gentle circles around them with your fingers as you grind.

Upon finishing your activities be quick to get dressed and make your getaway taking the opportunity to poke your finger into a bowl of mash that is sure to be waiting cold in the corridor ready to be served at the next meal.

Again thanks go to The Royal Victoria & Albert Museum and to the family of Arthur Negus for allowing me to rummage through his personal belongings to get the attached photos. Some items fell into my bag during my visit and will appear on Ebay soon!

1. The World's first ever Dildo that was built in 1869 and was Steam Driven. Used by Arthur Negus on Angela Rippon this led to Ange saying that although it was cumbersome it beat the hell out of reading the news!

2. Mrs. Negus used to have this Wind Chime but it fell into my possession and now it's going to be put on Ebay with a 'Buy It Now' Price of just £14.99!

Houdin And Dastardley Ensure A New Cup Winner

The League Supreme Cup - Semi-Final Draw

The Dark Destroyers	1 - 0	Down by the Trent
Down by the Trent	0 - 0	The Dark Destroyers
The Rising Deck	0 - 0	Egloshayle Park FC
Egloshayle Park FC	0 - 1	The Rising Deck

Dick Dastardly in the first leg of Destroyers match against Trent and Robert Houdin of The Rising Decks match at Egloshayle Park, scored the solitary but vital goals in the League Supreme semi-finals that ensured there would be a new name on this seasons cup competition.

The Dark Destroyers managed a 1-0 home victory at The Theatre of Doom thanks to a headed goal from Dick Dastardly after 37 minutes to give The Destroyers a 1-0 lead going into the second leg at City Ground. In an even second leg, spoiled by an over-fussy referee neither side could manage a goal which meant The Dark Destroyers will make the final against The Rising Deck.

Egloshayle Park could have been forgiven for thinking they had done the hard work by getting a nil nil draw at The Orpheum but The Deck had different ideas. Park, who have not enjoyed good home form this season were made to pay for not finding the net in 180 minutes of play against the Division One promotion hopefuls when Robert Houdin fired in a 38th minute freekick which proved to be the eventual difference between the two teams.

Both sides will meet in a two-legged final on the 16th and 23rd May.
