Parks Misery Continues

In week 4 Park, Town, Essex and Wazzy still await their first win with Town and Wazzy pointless. DUAO stay on top with Machine in hot pursuit. The Rising Deck still remains the leagues only side with a 100% winning start.

Park Boss Hauled Infront Of Board

Egloshayle Park boss Mitchell was today told he must explain the teams terrible start to the season first thing in the morning in the wake of a 2-0 defeat at the champions. Whilst a defeat away at the DUAO is nothing short of predictable, its the dismal fact of Parks 2 draws, 2 defeats and ONE goal that is likely to place him in hot water.

"Its a terrible start" Mitchell said, stating the obvious. "I will explain to the board that we have played the top four. The Cup is on Sunday which will be a great distraction for us and then we play the teams around us in 6 straight games where its VITAL we pick up some much needed points. Its nothing against those teams around us, but we have played 4 teams fighting for the top spot. It alarms me more that we have scored only once in those games" said Mitchell.

DUAO piles the pressure on Egloshayle Park, still without a win.

Premiership Round-Up

"Of course, I give credit to Wookie and his team. After a slip-up on the opening day they are now back on track and deserve their 'team-to-beat' title." he concluded.

The board have kept quiet on the teams lack of progress, but are likely to see how the next few games go before making any knee-jerk reactions.

DUAO's Youth Punish Aging Park

DUAO's second string youth team was enough to see off an aging Park side who came looking for the draw. After only 17 minutes play, Park's game plan was in tatters as their heavy handed approach gifted DUAO a penalty. DUAO wrapped the game up after 37 minutes with their second goal and left Park facing a tough season fighting relegation.

DUAO's Manager Wookie was on hand for these pitch side comments:

Although Park aren't they team they used to be, their aging players can still be dangerous for short spells of the game, so you have to treat them with a bit of respect. We took a few bad knocks today, young Wayne Manger, who was on a match scoring hatrick is out for a few weeks, whilst young midfielder Niall is doubtful for the cup tie. Having leaked a few easy goals of late, it's great to see the hard work in training payoff by keeping a clean sheet.

Absolute Shit

The shite from Shite Hart Lane smashed the TT today in what was an even game, just over 52 % possession for the home team.

The manager of TT is still awy as his second child is now a late arrival, so his mind is completely elsewhere. sack the lot of them shouts were heard from the away support and on that performance I understand!

Temple In Turmoil

Paulo Gransmark ran amok at the glorious Lane in a comprehensive defeat against lowly Templeton. During the man of the match interview the celebrated striker commented on the game, 'We hear their manager described the game as even, if a 5-1 defeat is even in their mind it doesn't bode well for the rest of their season. You can't judge a game on possession alone'

Red Machine made it two straight away wins, against one of the teams that will be challenging for the title come the end of the season.

"We managed to contain their attacking formation and offensive style. With three at the back, it turned out to be a gamble, as they played with three strikers up front. We possess a mean defence, and the lads didn't let them play. The only sniff they had to get back in the game, was when we scored an unfortunate own goal to make it 1-1, but Acacio again proved he is one of the most lethal strikers in the league and scored the winner. It was great to have Neal Stamford back after his suspension, and again, he put in a man of the match performance. This lad is only 25, how good he is going to be will be frightening. We lost influential midfielder Inacio Sanches in the first half because of injury, which is a major blow. He will miss the next two games that is a certain."

Questioned on the importance of the next two fixtures.

"We have drawn long standing arch rivals Egloshayle Park in the cup. Even though they have had a poor start to the league, the cup could well kick-start their season. Whether I throw in a couple of youngsters, I'm yet to decide. We have never been a CUP TEAM like Park, I may view it differently this year.”

“DUAO at home, is our next league fixture. They have yet to lose a game, and it shows they are in great form to make it three straight league titles even at this early stage. However, they haven't played any strong competition yet. All the teams are in the bottom half of the table. With three of the games being on home turf.”

Another loss for DBTT and the great form from the first two games is a mere distant memory. This only added further fuel to the fire of Trent manager Jory's foul mood - Jory was last seen nodding aimlessly at a piece of paper with the word sCUNThorp written on it.

Win

The All Whites managed a one nil victory despite losing one of their star defenders for a month. The manager was heard to be calling the opposition a bunch of dirty ass loving f@#kers who make Gattuso look normal. Off to the cup to play the Perry Men - should be a good game over star striker Humberto Sao. Wellington had the lions share of the possession and chances, but pleasingly for the manager, they made them count.

One downside to the match was the loss of Nathan Doherty through an injury early on, although reports say that he should be back soon.

Narrow Defeat

The Blues suffered a narrow defeat to one of the forces of the league but they now look to the cup and a chance to get a few youngsters experience.

With new keeper Woods still building up fitness the Destroyers were just too strong for the Blues team but the squad is taking shape and are still in the mix.

When asked about the recent 0 v 6 thrashing ITFC have Donny, TB replied 'winning by six is great but you can't throw away leads at home and make the play offs'.

Week 3: Dark Destroyers (Home)

Having had back to back wins confidence in using 'ClamCuffery' tactics was at a high and was certainly needed if we were to continue our impressive start to the season against our dirty foes led by the one and only Chieftain.

It was a Charity Day at The Orpheum with supporters encouraged to dress as their favourite Disney Characters (with gate proceeds going to a new 'Courvoisier Wing' being added to the club restaurant). The atmosphere around the ground before Kick Off was great with The Destroyers manager full of himself, even enjoying having his photo taken with our supporters.

Having taken the lead late in the first half we struggled in the 2nd and were particularly concerned as to the aerial threat of Dark Destroyer defender Clyde Broad from set pieces who was getting closer and closer to an equaliser that could have led to us dropping points for the first time. As we are not a dirty side injuring Clyde was not an option so reducing his height seemed to be the way to go.

A shrunken Clyde Broad, looking directly into the (Jap's) Eye of replacement 'Prick Dastardly' is substituted and about to have a bath, where he'll find out his cock has gotten even smaller.

The Chieftain outside The Orpheum with Deck supporters on our Charity Disney Fancy Dress Day.

As I've had experience in reducing the size of things (my cumbersome penis has to be temporarily shrunken as not to be mistaken as an Anaconda on Club visits as Celebrity Guests to Paignton Zoo) I knew I had one chance to inflict my skills upon him.

Whilst about to collect a pass on the wing, next to my dugout, I quickly sprang to my feet and loudly said "Oi Broad! Are you named after a Bean and, if so, do you flick yourself often? "

Clyde, embarrassed at having had his dirty secret of a sex change exposed as well as his favourite pastime involving his newly acquired bud known to all, looked over at me red faced and I knew this was my only chance to hypnotise him as he was at his most vulnerable. I put him in a trance with a magical glare that instantly began to have an alarming effect upon his size. Within a couple of seconds he had shrunk to a mere 3 feet 2 inches tall and it was then that I knew that the aerial threat had been stopped.

Chieftain, The Destroyers boss, angry at having his dirty little striker's pant habits exposed and seeing the drastic transformation in size had no option but to replace him with a substitute immediately.

From then on we held out for our third win on the bounce.

"Tractor" sides have a problem holding onto leads as Tractor Boy himself alluded to. Meanwhile, after the Scunthorpe defeat, a great result for Forest against a strong Cardiff side - can we now consolidate our position against Preston on Tuesday, there is no easy 3 points.

Wellington Wandering at Wookie Hole

Wellington Wanderers dirty tactics (5 cards in all) were no match for DUAO as their youth team raced to an early 2-0 lead by half time.

A fluke long range effort provided a brief glimmer of hope for the travelling fans, before DUAO well and truly slammed the door in their faces with 2 superb late efforts to close out the game 4-1.

The Wookmeister spoke after the game and the whole universe came to a grinding halt and listened.

"Another great run out for our youth team who just keep going from strength to strength. Our midfield in particular stood out today and linked seamlessly with our ever potent strike force.

I'd like to take this opportunity to welcome another young player into the squad. Laurence Pavey will act as Goalie understudy to Olivio and provides that final piece of the jigsaw which I've been searching for. Congratulations must go to our youth development team who have delivered another exceptional talent into the senior side."

Not all White at White Hot Lane

The Perry Men's atrocious record in the cup continued as they failed to make home advantage tell and despite dominating possession and chances only managed a draw against lower division All Whites. On top of this two players went off injured and it will be a race to get them fit for the important away clash to EgoSale Park FC. McFletch stated, 'Anyone who has seen us in the cup would have had money on the All Whites getting something here, they pulled off two great results against us last season so we're not too surprised, hopefully we can get something at their place otherwise Premiership survival will be our only remaining target.' Downbeat but realistic thoughts from the ever so wise McFletch.

Come from Behind

In true Magic Mitch style DBTT came from behind to "SNATCH" a draw with the Tractor Boys. Seems as though these Hasn't she forgotten something? Let's see: a year of being a charity worker and a mother of six. Hang on, yes: she forgot to be hot. Brief nudity in Wanted and Changeling proved her 34-year-old body is better than ever. But we can't imagine Darren Aronofsky's new dirge Serena will be worth freeze- framing. Which leaves her role in Salt – which was originally written for Tom Cruise. Great: so look out for her acting absolutely heterosexually.
