

Wednesday 23rd March 2011 - Week 8 (Wed 16th - Tue 22nd) theleaguesupreme season

Welcome Back
To Dean Barker
To Temple Town

Alan Saint Is
The New Man At
Super Blues

No.9
Jessica
Alba

I Quit

(So Do I)

Temple Town Boss Quits
Followed By Super Blues
Full Stories of the dramatic Week 8 events inside!

Both Simon Hargreaves
(pictured here) and Darren Rice resign within 24 hours of each other

Premiership Round-Up

DUAO Remain Unbeaten At The Top

Down Under And Out 2

Mangatainoka FC 1

Possession: 55 - 45 (49-51)

Chances: 8 - 4 (3-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Olívio Bonilha Minel Tigler

Oh fuck it

Was the words coming out from Mangi manager Aotearoa after his latest 2 matches. They were 2 games that were going to define my season, & after 2 losses it has summed it up nicely, it's fucked.

First up was DUAO in the league, away. We started the match well taking an early lead after 20 mins, but either it was DUAO's time for a spirited half time talk or we fell to pieces, but we conceded 2 goals in the last 12 minutes to go down 2-1. This loss basically fucked any chances of taking the title. Now it seems to be a 2 horse race between DUAO & Red Machine.

Our second game was our first leg in the cup against a inform egg shit park. Their form proved the deciding factor as they ran out deserved 2-1 winners. We got of the blocks far too slow & before we even knew it we were 2-0 down. We managed to get one back straight after half time, but the damage had already been done.

Next up is a must win game against DBTT. We need to win to stop the rut of losing 3 games on the bounce. If we do win, hopefully it will give us confidence in the second round of the cup. If we lose, I can't see us regrouping from this & we could easily fall into the relegation places.

Perry Men Hold Irish At The Isle

Irish Raiders 0

The Perry Men 0

Possession: 56 - 44 (58-42)

Chances: 2 - 1 (0-0)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Simon Francis Patrício Salvador

Perry Men Patrick's Day Party Poopers While the league supreme was being rocked with managerial resignations and debates over freedom of the press and censorship, McFletch was preparing his team for a tough away game against the Irish Raiders. With the game falling on St. Patrick's day all the omens pointed to a home win on the Emerald Isle.

The Perry Men has a different ending in mind and a well drilled defensive unit held out in what was a fairly boring game to be honest. McFletch spoke after the game, 'I'd like to welcome new Temple Town manager Deano on his return to the League and hope that he doesn't have too much success in the next few games as success for him will probably mean relegation for us.

We are happy with the point here, got be honest I think most of their players were too focused on their saints day festivities to concentrate on beating us. Next up we welcome the Red Machine to the Lane - another tough game against a team we rarely do well against.' Positive words from an ever positive manager.

Week 8 saw the first managerial casualties of the season. All of the action and talking points were off the pitch as Temple and Blues managers both resigned and two new managers were in place before the sides next matches. DUAO are still unbeaten and Deck still have their 100% winning record.

Parks Impressive Run Continues

Down By The Trent 0

Egloshayle Park FC 3

Possession: 45 - 55 (44-56)

Chances: 2 - 9 (2-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Mikey Grainger Neil Richards

Park Boss Praises Team

Park boss praised his side after their impressive 3-0 away win at Trent by saying "When the going got tough we dug in and are now pulling clear of danger. We are now looking above us rather than behind us. We have a difficult run in at the end of the season but hopefully by then our confidence will be a little higher than it was at the start of the season."

Machine Stay In Touch At The Top

Red Machine 4

Temple Town 2

Possession: 45 - 55 (48-52)

Chances: 8 - 3 (3-0)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Neal Stamford Mickey Walsh

Premiership Round-Up

Division One Round-Up

Battle For 2nd

Howard Thurston celebrates his hat-trick for Deck

Must go now to give attention to my column....and then write something for the Mag!!,,waaahey

MM ;)

Wellington Wanderers 3

Super Blues 1

Possession: 61 - 39 (68-32)

Chances: 10 - 3 (6-2)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Nathan Doherty Martin Reuser

The Dark Destroyers 1

Essex Wanderers 1

Possession: 45 - 55 (51-49)

Chances: 2 - 4 (2-1)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Arsenio Casalini Morris Swan

FC Wazzy 2

Westcountry Wanderers 2

Possession: 53 - 47 (53-47)

Chances: 6 - 5 (3-3)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Benedict Bayley Cliff Hedger

The Rising Deck 3

All Whites 0

Possession: 55 - 45 (50-50)

Chances: 7 - 0 (2-0)

Home - Man Of The Match - Away
Robert Houdin Gerard Holdsworth

Loss

The all whites succumbed to back to back defeats to the rising deck. Dissapointing but no time to worry about it as next up are the Dark Destroyers who on paper are as strong as anyone in this division. Hopefully the home advantage will be enough to get us over the line

Thick & Throbbing Thurston's 3 Thumpers

Rising Deck Player/Manager/Column Writer/Hairy Column Grower Ian 'Magic' Mltch has spoken...so SIT UP, STOP PLAYING WITH YOUR SMALL COCKS & LISTEN !!!

"I'm really pleased with the way we've put our cup exit behind us and focused our minds firmly on the job of getting back in the top flight. For me Thursday was our best performance of the season with an impressive 3-0 home win over promotion hopefuls All Whites with a first club hat trick for Howard Thurston, our Stage Magician from Columbus Ohio.

Arnold Muhren (whose real name can't be revealed because Xpert 11 wants paying to be able to do this and I don't bow down and kiss bollocks like some ass/ball kissers we know!) had a great game in Midfield but admittedly a bit of naughty naughty Magic (report next weeks Mag) helped us to make it 8 wins out of 8 in the League.

This weeks brings the visit of Mark Eggins 'Wellington Wanderers' to The Orpheum' who are having a big say in the fight to go up.

Many Thanks to Alex Ferguson for raising thousands of pounds for Comic Relief for wearing his glowing red nose for months on end!

Division One Round-Up

Other News

Ive Had Enough!

Week 8 proved to be the week that saw one League Supreme manager resign and another request resignation.

The extra ordinary run of events unfolded with the request from Simon Hargreaves of Temple Town on the 16th March stating his disgust at recent press releases. This was followed less than 24 hours later with a resignation request from his employee Darren Rice of Super Blues. Ex Romford Scorpio manager Dean Barker took over Temple Town 2 days later with Super Blues' replacement still ongoing. This is how the week unfolded.

Wednesday 16th 17:03
Simon Resigns:

I would like to resign forthwith.

Please just go on the sack button.

Many thanks for the years of good fun, it has been a laugh up to very, very recently. Speak to Paul H if you would like further info.

Wednesday 16th 18:38
The LS Respond

Xperteleven
The League Supreme Headquarters
123 Soho Square
London
LSH 123

16th March 2011

To All LS Managers,

Im afraid its with regret that today the Temple town Manager has announced his resignation from the league with immediate effect. Although I dont know the reason I understand it could be due to recent Japanese press releases. I am led to believe his family has friends in Northern Japan.

Whilst we all appreciate that the Japanese earthquake is indeed a tragedy my 'Kleenex' press release was not aimed at the tragedy. It was merely a swipe at Hargreaves' constant complaining.

HOWEVER, in the interest of fairness I am happy to be judged by you, the LS Managers. SO, if any managers were offended or think my comments were out of line or tasteless then I will resign with immediate effect.

We run a pretty much 'no-holds barred' league where jibes and banter are to be encouraged. I refuse to be 'Big Brother' with regards to the press board and monitor or delete any which are deemed 'offensive' (I wonder how many would be left if I did). The manager in question is no shrinking violet when it comes to this. Whilst it is regret that he is leaving (with regards to the numbers AND its half way through a season) I refuse to beg him to stay and would prefer 16 managers keen to make the LS what it is.

In the words of the Australian government "if you don't like how we do things here, please feel free to leave" but I am happy to be judged by you all.

Craig Mitchell

League Admin

Other News

The Aftermath

Having just read all of the press releases again I can see absolutely nothing aimed directly at the Japanese people and knowing Craig better than anybody would have been totally shocked if there was a hint of anything. We all joke about allsorts but never where human life/suffering is concerned. Just the normal banter between 2 managers that has made this league fantastic for 8 seasons. We will miss TT and wish him well and if he does have relatives/friends in Japan hope all is, and will be, OK with them MM

My condolences go out to SiHarg and wish all his family and relations well at this tough time. I do however think that this league would not exist without all the banter and also think that nobody would intentionally be rude or go out to upset one of our fellow managers. At the end of the day it is all meant in the best of humour. I am sorry that he has taken offence to any comments made by Craig or any other managers for that matter.

There have been times when people have been offensive since the league began and if memory serves me right Craig has often tried to dilute any serious arguments. Therefore I would like to see SiHarg consider his decision but would also enforce that Craig continues his top class running of the league.

At the end of the day we are all in it for a bit of banter and fun. I hope that the league can continue and move on from this.

As much as I'd like to see the back of your inbred face Craig, on this occasion I can't bring myself to kick the boot in. Your comments were made in jest and are in keeping with what this league has been all about....a good laugh with terrible taste! It's truly terrible that Si has friends in Japan, but Craig didn't know this (if he did he'd probably said something a lot worse). I'm actually left questioning Hargreaves northern roots.... northerners are renowned for their thick skin - suck it up Si and let's get on with the season. All these comments will be a thing of the past in a few weeks. I hope you're mates in Japan are OK

With regards to the recent on goings in the league, I personally joined it as we could all give each other a bit of abuse / banter & I would hate to see the league move away from that.

We're all big boys in real life - its good to let your hair down with the banter

When Asked If Dean Barker, previously with 'Romford Scorpio' should take over you responded

Personally I think it would be good if Dean could take over ASAP. Rising Deck

I'm happy for Dean to take over straight away. PerryMen

I am more than happy to allow Dean take over Temple Town immediately. Dark Destroyers

I would let anyone take over the team asap, it will give them experience for the rest of the season & a opportunity to build some econ so they can spend it at the end of the season to freshen up his aging squad. it will also keep the league fair so there are no freebies. Mangatainoka

Let him get stuck in straight away. All Whites

To ensure the smooth running of the league and fairness to all who have to pay Temple Town the right man should be in place without any delay. Dean Barker is that man. Egloshayle

Other News

DUAO Welcome Deano

In a move that some critics are calling a cheap publicity stunt just to win a few hundred econ, DUAO's Manager Wookie was first to welcome Deano into the fold. Best wishes for the remainder of the season – I hope you enjoy the league and manage to avoid the drop...but not at the expense of DUAO's 3rd successive title! It's also great to see West Ham start to play some football again and even better as it's to the misery of Spurs fans.

Bonjourno Deano

Red Machine FC manager Couchy, took time out from his hungover day to welcome Deano to the league. "It's a great appointment by Temple Town, I'm sure they will now have a good chance of staying in this division. At least he can rest easy knowing that he won't have to play my formidable team this season.."

Well done England

on their grand slam hahaha. get in there Ireland, a happy belated paddys day present to you all. 200000 econ thanks

Conumdrum

Time Short.....
Laptop Fuck
ed.....
Tomorrow
Hospital..... Wife Induction
Baby A Coming.....DBTT
Wank.....Forest More
Wank.....Econ please.

Temple Town Press Conference

Temples new managers' first day in the office brings a realisation that they are in a worst position than Colonel Gadaffi and an Estate agent in Fukushima.

He states that....

"despite the difficult task ahead, we will fight to retain our position in the top tier, but in the meantime welcome a match against the Irish Raiders for a lucrative spot in the Cup Final. May the best team win."

Shades of Avram Grant and Pompey spring to mind...

Thanks for welcoming me back.

Other News

Other News

The LS Welcomes 2 New Managers

The League Supreme powers have acted quickly in disposing of quitters Simon Hargreaves of Temple Town and Darren Rice of Super Blues.

As you all know ex Romford Scorpio manager Dean Barker has taken over Temple Town where a relegation battle and cup semi-final are his priorities. Meanwhile new man Alan Saint has taken over at Super Blues. Alan is new to online management and surely his job is to steady the Super Blues and build for next season whilst finding his xpert eleven feet.

Alan Saint is the new man in charge at Super Blues. Be afraid, be very afraid.

Im sure you will all welcome both managers and thank them for stepping in to ensure any disruption to the season is minimal.

If either of you have ANY questions or queries then please email me, a fellow manager or post your queries here. We will be gentle on you . . . for now.

Admin

A message for Alan,

I would sell Gimi Constantiniu, Ronaldo Função, Dário Osório & 2 of your 30 plus strikers either now or @ the end of the season. You have some good youth players coming through & I would concentrate on developing those for the rest of the season to make sure you get a decent change report. Bring in youth & let them develop & within a couple of seasons you will be back in the top league.

Cum on Eileen....

Urgggh

The Rising Deck would like to welcome Deano to the managerial role at Temple Town but would like to point out that we at The Orpheum all saw it in our Crystal Balls back in 1980 when Dexys Midnight Runners talked about the change in their No.1 Hit 'Deano'

Back in March '11 changing a sweaty club

Oh, Deano

Before Robs Red Machine and The Cockready Rub

Oh-oh-oh Dean-o

On a night when he heard 'the jobs up for grabs'

Because the boss that is here hasn't got any Nads

The largest,shiniest head in the crowd that night

Fucking gave up the fight because he was doing shite

Oh Deano, Woh-oh-oh Deano-o

Oh Deano, Woh-oh-oh Deano-o

Good Luck !!!

MM

Other News

The Jap's Eye

(Another Magic Tactic, from Mitchy with the Phat Dick!)

Week 7: Away to All Whites

The dream of completing a 100% winning start to the first 'half' of the Season depended on some very tricky Minkytinkery aimed at an Xpert11 newbie manager, that being the boss of the impressive 'All Whites' Mr. Richard Frost.

'Frostie' has been seen doing his bit for all the local charities in the Whangarei region of New Zealand and news was in the local gazette of a visit by the staff and players to a local primary school to read with the children. To prepare the club for this visit 'The Rising Deck' sent the club a box of Fables & Nursery Rhymes that had been encrypted with subliminal messages that would affect the players but more importantly the groundsman at The All Whites facilities.

Early on the Monday leading up to our match their Head groundsman Willie R. Woantee, who was furiously 'Shaking Hands with Shorty' in his shed, received an interesting volume containing our subliminal instructions for his groundkeeping agenda in time for Thursday.

One two Fuck All to Do?

Three, four, open your digger door

Five, six, slope your pitch you prick

Seven, eight, it's fucking too straight!

Nine, ten, make it sooo uneven

Eleven, twelve, dig and delve

Thirteen, fourteen, fuck me that's corking!

Fifteen, sixteen, white water wristring

Seventeen, eighteen, your fist mating

Nineteen, twenty, your sack's empty.

These instructions were immediately carried out by Willie totally slanting the Whangarei pitch at an incredible 45 degree angle. Willie, so proud by his grounds keeping skills, retired to his shed to play with his Pant Potatoes before informing Mr. Frost that the pitch would be unavailable to train on until the day of the match.

Our players were prepared beforehand for training on such a pitch so when it came to Matchday they were well used to the conditions and had our system at the ready. This proved to be a huge advantage to us as we went on to win the game 3-1 to continue our record breaking dream start to the season!

The Whangarei Pitch tailored to our requirements.

I went on to celebrate this achievement by inviting Club Promotions Manageress 'Shea Verpussi' into my office/boudoir to beg me to put the tip of my Manaconda up her Freaky McNasty and partake in a little bit of Sideways Pull-ups whilst fondling her Pointer Sisters before emptying my Nut Butter Tank all over her.

Onto the second half of our promotion push!!

Another excerpt from our volume of Nursery Rhymes

Darren !!

Simon had a little lamb,
It loved the fresh green grass

And everytime he bent over
It's tongue went up his ass.

The League Supreme Cup

Vital Away Win

Shearer is mobbed by team mates after his Semi-Final First Leg winner

The League Supreme Cup - Semi-Final 1st Leg

Irish Raiders	2 - 0 (1 - 0)	Temple Town
Mangatainoka FC	1 - 2 (0 - 2)	Egloshayle Park FC

Vital Semi-Final Away Win

Parks winning streak continued at Mangatainoka on Sunday, albeit in the Cup.

"When you're at the bottom every performance and win counts. I don't care what side they had out or we had out, we need confidence and a 2-1 away win will give us that." said Mitchell. "Alan Shearer is beginning to find his feet up front and although we picked up a couple more injuries our team is doing well again. We now have Temple Town on Thursday and there will be a different atmosphere around the place with Dean in charge. I wish him all the best and hope they can stay up, although AFTER Thursday of course." He giggled to himself.

Oh fuck it

Was the words coming out from Mangi manager Aotearoa after his latest 2 matches. They were 2 games that were going to define my season, & after 2 losses it has summed it up nicely, it's fucked.

First up was DUAO in the league, away. We started the match well taking an early lead after 20 mins, but either it was DUAO's time for a spirited half time talk or we fell to pieces, but we conceded 2 goals in the last 12 minutes to go down 2-1. This loss basically fucked any chances of taking the title. Now it seems to be a 2 horse race between DUAO & Red Machine.

Our second game was our first leg in the cup against a inform egg shit park. Their form proved the deciding factor as they ran out deserved 2-1 winners. We got the blocks far too slow & before we even knew it we were 2-0 down. We managed to get one back straight after half time, but the damage had already been done.

Next up is a must win game against DBTT. We need to win to stop the rut of losing 3 games on the bounce. If we do win, hopefully it will give us confidence in the second round of the cup. If we lose, I can't see us regrouping from this & we could easily fall into the relegation places

Cup Debut Spoilt by Slick Irish

Well played to the Irish Raiders yesterday for a professional job done. No complaints here. We came with a game plan and were completely undone.

Reality of the task at hand has kicked in.

Without any further distractions, TT will now focus on their priority of the league where we entertain Egg Pk this week.

No. 10

The Sexiest Women of 2010

Its a new season so we have the luxury of starting the 2010 sexiest women in the world as voted for by FHM

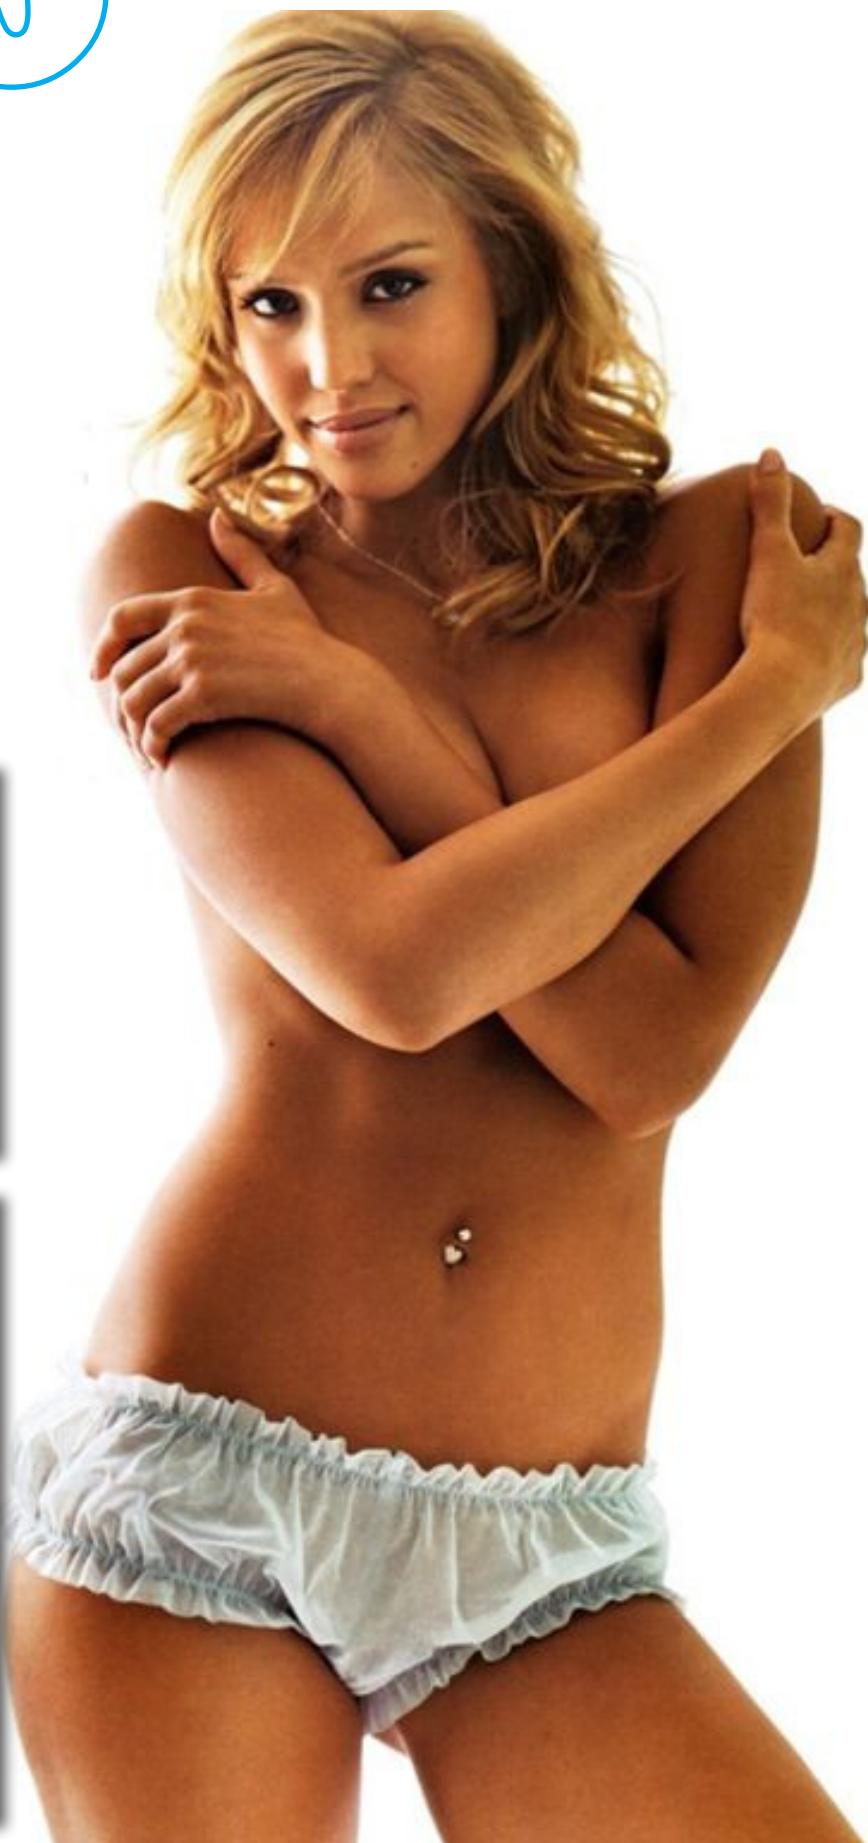

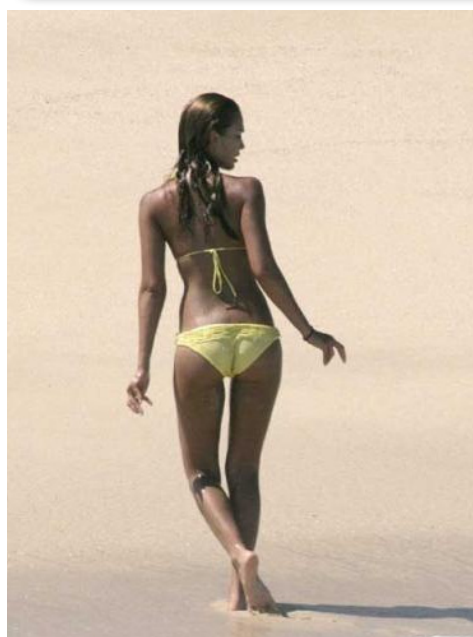

#9 Jessica Alba

Her dad's of Mexican descent, and her mother French and Danish. A winning formula indeed.

The bra she wore in Sin City sold for $1,025 in an eBay auction.

Victoria's Secret named her as the 'Sexiest Woman Celebrity' in 2007 - high praise indeed.

She was on the cover of FHM Germany in December 2010 and FHM Australia in September 2010.

Premiership Stats

Week 8 Results

Irish Raiders	0 - 0 (0 - 0)	The Perry Men
Down by the Trent	0 - 3 (0 - 1)	Egloshayle Park FC
Red Machine FC	4 - 2 (0 - 0)	Temple Town
Down Under And Out	2 - 1 (0 - 1)	Mangatainoka FC

Premiership Table

	P	W	D	L	Diff	Pts
Down Under And Out	8	6	2	0	12	20
Red Machine FC	8	6	0	2	5	18
Irish Raiders	8	4	2	2	4	14
Mangatainoka FC	8	3	2	3	1	11
Egloshayle Park FC	8	3	2	3	1	11
The Perry Men	8	2	1	5	-2	7
Down by the Trent	8	1	2	5	-10	5
Temple Town	8	1	1	6	-11	4

Week 9 Fixtures

Irish Raiders	-	Down Under And Out
Mangatainoka FC	-	Down by the Trent
The Perry Men	-	Red Machine FC
Egloshayle Park FC	-	Temple Town

Xpert 11 - Team Of The Week

Keith Lisbie	- Red Machine FC
Mickey Walsh	- Temple Town
Inácio Sanches	- Red Machine FC
Diddy Hamilton	- Egloshayle Park FC
Julian Stafne	- Down Under And Out
Daniel Kibble	- Down Under And Out
Neal Stamford	- Red Machine FC
Neil Richards	- Egloshayle Park FC
Lee Bateman	- Egloshayle Park FC
Mikey Grainger	- Down by the Trent
Olívio Bonilha (C)	- Down Under And Out

Manager - Robcouch Red Machine FC

Top Scorers:

1	Andy Blackmoor	F	Down Under And Out	8
2	Paolo Gränsmark	F	The Perry Men	5
3	Mickey Walsh	F	Temple Town	4

Division One Stats

Week 8 Results

FC Wazzy	2 - 2 (1 - 1)	WestcountryWanderers
The Dark Destroyers	1 - 1 (1 - 0)	Essex Wanderers
Wellington Wanderers	3 - 1 (3 - 1)	Super Blues
The Rising Deck	3 - 0 (1 - 0)	All Whites

Division One Table

	P	W	D	L	Diff	Pts
The Rising Deck	8	8	0	0	18	24
Wellington Wanderers	8	5	2	1	11	17
All Whites	8	5	0	3	2	15
The Dark Destroyers	8	3	3	2	5	12
WestcountryWanderers	8	3	1	4	-4	10
FC Wazzy	8	2	1	5	-11	7
Essex Wanderers	8	0	3	5	-8	3
Super Blues	8	1	0	7	-13	3

Week 9 Fixtures

All Whites	-	The Dark Destroyers
The Rising Deck	-	Wellington Wanderers
WestcountryWanderers	-	Essex Wanderers
Super Blues	-	FC Wazzy

Xpert 11 - Team Of The Week

Morris Swan	- Essex Wanderers
G Holdsworth	- All Whites
Robert Houdin (C)	- The Rising Deck
Nathan Doherty	- Wellington Wand...
Derren Brown	- The Rising Deck
Arnold Muhren	- The Rising Deck
O Mascarenhas	- Wellington Wand...
Bert McKeever	- Essex Wanderers
F Marshland	- All Whites
Penn Jillette	- The Rising Deck
Edgar Wood	- Super Blues

Manager - Magicmitch The Rising Deck

Top Scorers:

1	Robert Houdin	MF	The Rising Deck	8
2	Jeremie Gibson	MF	Wellington Wanderers	5
3	Morris Swan	F	Essex Wanderers	4
	Gerard Holdsworth	F	All Whites	4
	Howard Thurston	F	The Rising Deck	4
	Arsenio Casalini	MF	The Dark Destroyers	4
7	Sean Gibbens	MF	The Dark Destroyers	3
	Antony Nowell	F	All Whites	3
	Humberto São	F	Wellington Wanderers	3
	Les Yallop	F	Wellington Wanderers	3
	Sid Vicious	F	The Dark Destroyers	3
	Jasper Tete	F	Essex Wanderers	3
	Antonio Turchetti	MF	Wellington Wanderers	3