Premiership Round-Up

Week Two saw Rising Decks winning streak end at the ends of Champions DUAO 5-0. Machine make it two out of two in the Premiership as do Temple Town and Wellington Wanderers. Egloshayle Park are the only side in the Premiership to lose both openers, meanwhile Trent and Wazzy are the same in Divsion One. All Whites Antony Nowell becomes the first hat-trick hero of Season 9.

Narrow Victory

Red Machine hosted the Irish at the Cauldron, with Couch fancying his opponents to be challenging for the title at the end of the season.

"The Irish have a consistent strong squad in all positions and I;m sure will be challenging for honours this season, we had to be up the for the challenge today and I was pleased with how we played. We were unfortunate to lose two players to injury early in the first half, but give credit to the two subs, they stepped up to the task when called for".

"I have to question the assistant ref's decision to disallow our second goal for an apparent handball. Again we got unlucky with key decisions, but so far it hasn't cost us".

"I'm delighted that we have only allowed one chance on our goal in 180 minutes of football. Credit must go to my defence, with three of my defenders being picked in Xpert11 team of the week".

Raiders in early trouble

Irish Raiders have had a bad start to the league campaign with a draw and a loss the manager is far from satisfied.

"Im gutted, I again forgot to steup my team for the first league game against The Perry Men but fair enough we were lucky to get a point but at home that should have been 3 points if you want to challenge for the title. Thats twice in two seasons I have forgotten to set the team up for the first game but I suppose at least I had some default tactics this season."

Raiders lose to Red Machine

Irish Raiders lost out again in week 2 of the league dropping all 3 points away to Red MACHine.

"We need to get scoring this season. We have yet to find the back of the net this season. At the other end although we have drawn and lost our first two games we have only let in the one goal so Im hopeful once we start scoring goals we will be able to climb the league."

hammered 5-0 away to DUAO.

"I must admit I would have been over the moon with a point but we weren't in it from the start today.

Although to go 15 games winning to a 5-0 defeat is a sudden bizarre turnaround we were up against a stunning side who have now knocked in 9 goals without reply in their opening 2 games. Their goalkeeper hands are as tight as a nun's snatch and he dealt with everything with ease.

I've told the lads it's a monkey off our backs now and we must forget about it and concentrate on starting a new run of sorts. Congrats to Wookie who has sent a chilling message out to all others that he'll be the one to beat yet again."

MM ;)

P.S. I've just checked and I still have the biggest cock.

S*P*A*N*K*E*D

DUAO fielded their strongest side in anticipation that the visiting team, with a 15 match winning streak behind them, would make things difficult. The challenge didn't materialise, and DUAO controlled the game and were 3-0 up by half time.

Post match....Wookie was on hand for the following comments:

The Deck came here looking for the win and it takes a guy with either incredible stupidity or enormous balls n cock to do that.... word on the street is it's the latter – but if he does have such a magnificent iron rod he was keeping it well out of sight as he and his merry men bent over and took a humungous rogering here today. Respect to Mitch for attempting to make it 16, but it wasn't to be the Decks day.

Once again goalie Olivio, took man of the match and kept another clean sheet.... DUAO go from strength to strength.

Win

What a difference a week makes. From a big loss to a three nil win. To be fair, scoring three goals from four chances was more than i could of hoped for but hats off to Nowell who was in hattrick heaven scoring both chances of a tight first half. The third goal sealed it and the opponants disallowed goal made it a day to forget for them.

DICKED !

Park boss thanked Frosties for taking his win gracefully and not 'sticking the knife in' then fumed at his squad for a complete lack of discipline!

"Slow starters we are of course, but this was unacceptable. I would like to congratulate the winners, they could have crumbled after their opening day defeat, but responded perfectly, something we should have done. We have not created a single chance in two games and THAT is simply not good enough!" seethed Mitchell.

"Next up is away at Raiders, so it does not get easier. I fear this could be a long season, and the way things are going we will be fighting to stay up. My team need to look at themselves and ask themselves how much they want this, or I WILL rebuild. I asked them if they are a one-man fking team with Diddy Hamilton out, 'no' was the reply from them, but their actions (or lack of it) spoke louder yesterday. Im not happy" concluded Mitchell.

Perry Mens Points Dropped

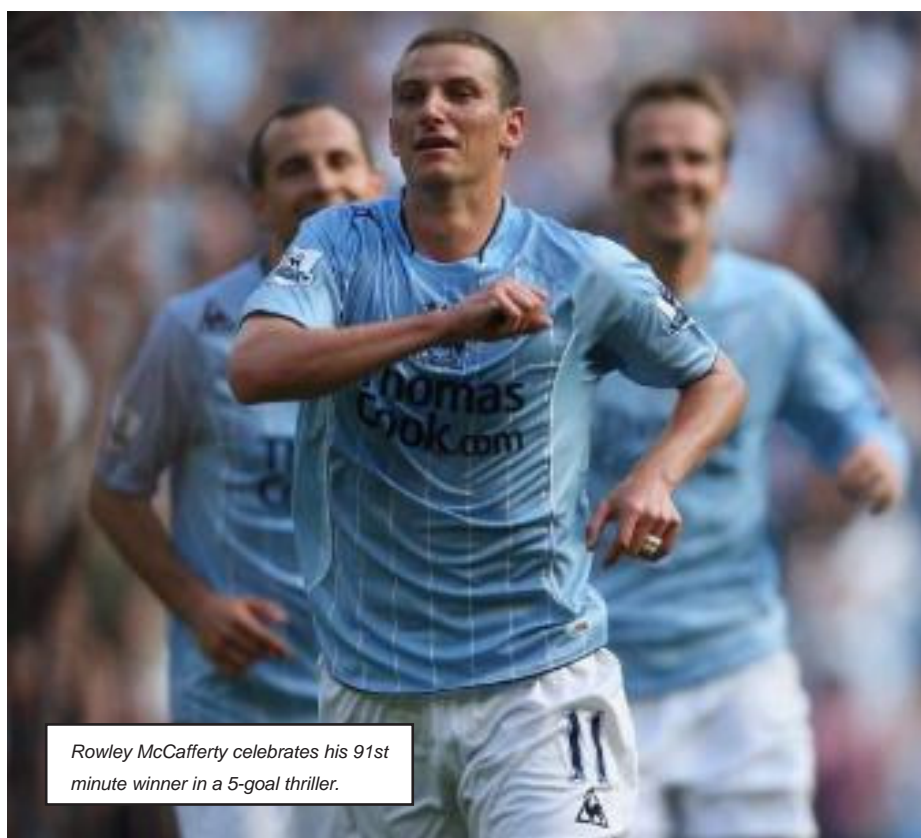

The Perry Men took another well earned away point against last years runners-up, Mangotankards FC. McFletch however was in no mood to celebrate, 'I'm furious with Dave Mackay, we were 1-0 up and had managed to keep them at bay. I felt we had a good chance to take the three points then he goes in like that and they're back in the game. The referee got it spot on, there's no excuses. It's not just that we dropped points here but now we go into one of the toughest games of the season against DUAO without one of our best players. I'll be looking to one our youngsters to step up to the plate.' The Perry Men will also be without Ledley King as he looks to be on the sidelines for a month. It's going to be an uphill struggle for McFletch's team to overcome the three times champions.

Close Call!

A last minute own goal by Petrut Florea was all that separated FC Wazzy and Wellington Wanderers in a tightly played contest. Humberto São given his team the lead just after half time only for FC Wazzy to fight straight back. After that the game looked to be heading for a draw until the last minute error which gifted Wellington the game.

5 Goal Thriller at the Olympic

Cracking game down at the Olympic saw Temple Town just about see off Essex Wanderers with a last minute lob goal. With chances galore either end, it could have gone either way but Temple were grateful for the 3 points in a tight game.

Manager Barker says:

Our new recruit Steffen Wangsholm continues his fine form and scored a brace, with some great support work by the ever dependable Mickey Walsh, but it was an all round battling effort. Fair play to Essex, who made for a fantastically open footballing game.

Turning Point?...We Shall See

Wanderers earn their first points of the new campaign at the City Ground with two 1st half goals from Ivanildo Graxas & Gaspar Aguado. With the WW manager still in treatment at the Betty Ford Clinic, the assistant coach said 'It's just the result the boys need to lift their spirits and lift themselves up the league' With the Helmsman's, due back next week from rehab, could this be a turning point for the Wanderers...we shall see?

Plethora of Cocks

You may have the biggest MM but I have the most... namely my Trent boys who are playing like a load of flacid one inchers at the moment. That said we live in hope for an upturn in fortunes.....I'm off to get them all some viagra to try and "lift" their game and "rise to the challenge". Big game next against the Wazza's.

Named And Shamed

We are starting Season 9 as we mean to go on by naming and shaming (and recording) those who can be bothered to write a press-release each week. It CAN take up to TWO minutes to write a press release. It not only brings your club 250,000 Econ but also ensures this league is kept active and interesting. Apologies to those who HAVE written in previous weeks/seasons but we all start with a clean slate.

We first caught a glimpse of the divine actress on The O.C., where she hooked up with snobby dudes and dudettes alike. Then she injected herself into our hearts for good as the terminally ill (and terminally bisexual) internist Thirteen on Fox's smash hit House M.D. Next, she had a breakout of biblical proportions playing a princess in the prehistoric comedy Year One, which boasts Judd Apatow as producer, Harold Ramis as director, and Jack Black as a caveman named Zed.
